edition to preserve the work of precision which is the legacy of the 1611 translators.

Complete Equivalence in Translation

Where new translation has been necessary in the Revised Authorised Version, the most complete representation of the original has been rendered by considering the history of usage and etymology of words in their contexts. This principle of complete equivalence seeks to preserve all of the information in the text, while presenting it in good literary form. Dynamic equivalence, a recent procedure in Bible translation, commonly results in paraphrasing where a more literal rendering is needed to reflect a specific and vital sense. For example, references to Christ in some versions of John 3:16 as "only Son" or "one and only Son" are doubtless dynamic equivalents of sorts. However, they are not actual equivalents of the precisely literal "only begotten Son," especially in consideration of the historic Nicene statement concerning the person of Christ, "begotten, not made," which is a crucial Christian doctrine.

In keeping with the principle of complete equivalence, it is the policy to translate interjections which are commonly omitted in modern language renderings of the Bible. As an example, the interjection behold, in the older Authorised editions, continues to have a place in English usage, especially in dramatically calling attention to a spectacular scene, or an event of profound importance such as the Immanuel prophecy of Isaiah 7:14. Consequently, behold is retained for these occasions in the present edition. However, the Hebrew and Greek originals for this word can be translated variously, depending on the circumstances in the passage. Therefore, in addition to behold, words such as indeed, look, see, and surely are also rendered to convey the appropriate sense suggested by the context in each case.

In faithfulness to our readers, it has seemed consistent with our task to cooperate with competent scholars who are governed by the biblical principle of divine authorship of the Holy Scriptures. Therefore, all participating scholars have signed a document of subscription to the plenary and verbal inspiration of the original autographs of the Bible.

Devotional Quality

The Authorised Version scholars readily appreciated the intrinsic beauty of divine revelation. They accordingly disciplined their talents to render well-chosen English words of their time, as well as a graceful, often musical arrangement of language which has stirred the hearts of Bible readers through the years. The translators, the committees, and the editors of the present edition, while sensitive to the late twentieth-century English idiom, and while adhering faithfully to the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts, have sought to maintain that lyrical quality which is so highly regarded in the Authorised Version. This devotional quality is especially apparent in the poetic and prophetic books, although even the relatively plain style of the gospels and epistles cannot strictly be likened, as is sometimes suggested, to modern newspaper style. The Koine Greek of the New Testament is influenced by the Hebrew background of the writers, for whom even the Gospel narratives were not merely flat utterance, but often song in various degrees of rhythm.

The Style

Students of the Bible applaud the timeless devotional character of our historic Bible. Yet it is also universally understood that our language, like all living languages, has undergone profound change since 1611. Subsequent revisions of the Authorised Version have sought to keep abreast of changes in English speech. The present work is a further step towards this objective.

2. M-Text

This symbol indicates points of variation in the Majority Text from the traditional text, as also previously discussed in "The New Testament Text."

With the assistance of these footnotes, which show lines of textual divergence more fully than commonly provided with English language versions of the Bible, it is trusted that readers will be enabled to appreciate the substance and degree of variation in the manuscript sources of the New Testament.

said, "I have acquired a man from the LORD."

² Then she gave birth again, this time to his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

³ And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to the LORD.

⁴ Abel also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat. And the LORD respected Abel and his offering.

⁵ but he did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

⁶ So the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?"

⁷ "If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it."

⁸ Now Cain talked with Abel his brother;⁴ and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him.

⁹ Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" And he said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

¹⁰ And he said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.

¹¹ "So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

¹² "When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth."

¹⁴ "Surely you have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall be hidden from your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me."

¹⁵ And the LORD said to him, "Therefore,⁵ whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." And the LORD set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

The Family of Cain

¹⁶ Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.

¹⁷ And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son—Enoch.

¹⁸ To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.

¹⁹ Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.

²⁰ And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.

²¹ His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute.

²² And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

²³ Then Lamech said to his wives:

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice:
O wives of Lamech,
listen to my speech!
For I have killed a man
for wounding me,

Even a young man for hurting me.

²⁴ If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

A New Son

²⁵ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, "For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed."

²⁶ And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh.⁶ Then men began to call on the name of the LORD.

The Family of Adam

5 This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.

² He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created.

³ And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

⁴ Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate add "Let us go out to the field."

⁵ Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read not so ⁶ Greek Enos

And cold and heat,
And winter and summer,
And day and night
Shall not cease."

9 So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth."¹²

2 "And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand.

3 "Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs.

4 "But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

5 "Surely for your lifeblood I will demand a reckoning; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man's brother I will require the life of man.

6 "Whoever sheds man's blood,
By man his blood shall be shed;
For in the image of God
He made man.

7 And as for you,
be fruitful and multiply;
Bring forth abundantly in the earth
And multiply in it."

8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

9 "And as for me, behold, I establish my covenant with you and with your descendants¹³ after you,

10 "and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.

11 "Thus I establish my covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth."

12 And God said: "This is the sign of the covenant which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 "I set my rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

14 "It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud;

15 "and I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh: the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 "The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth."

17 And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Noah and His Sons

18 Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

20 And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.

21 Then he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.

25 Then he said:

"Cursed be Canaan;
A servant of servants
He shall be to his brethren."

26 And he said:

"Blessed be the LORD,
The God of Shem,
And may Canaan be his servant.

27 May God enlarge Japheth,
And may he dwell
in the tents of Shem;
And may Canaan be his servant."

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

¹² Compare Genesis 1:28 ¹³ Literally seed could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered.

17 "Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you."

18 Then Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre,²⁴ which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

Lot's Captivity and Rescue

14 And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations,²⁵

2 that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

3 All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came and attacked the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazezon Tamar.

8 And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim

9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of nations,²⁶ Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.

10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of asphalt pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; some fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains.

11 Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way.

12 They also took Lot, Abram's brother's son who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre²⁷ the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and they were allies with Abram.

14 Now when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

15 He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

16 So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley), after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him.

Abram and Melchizedek

18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High.

19 And he blessed him and said:

"Blessed be Abram of God Most High,
Possessor of heaven and earth;

20 And blessed be God Most High,
Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

And he gave him a tithe of all.

21 Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself."

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted my hand to the LORD, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth,

23 "that I will take nothing, from a thread to a sandal-strap, and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich'—

24 "except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion."

God's Covenant with Abram

15 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am

24 Hebrew Alon Mamre 25 Hebrew govim 26 Hebrew govim 27 Hebrew Alon Mamre

the wicked; far be it from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

26 And the LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes."

27 Then Abraham answered and said, "Indeed now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord:

28 "Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would you destroy all of the city for lack of five?" And he said, "If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it."

29 Then he spoke to him yet again and said, "Suppose there should be forty found there?" And he said, "I will not do it for the sake of forty."

30 And he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?" And he said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

31 Then he said, "Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty."

32 And he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten."

33 So the LORD went his way as soon as he had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom's Depravity

19 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face towards the ground.

2 And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way." And they said, "No, but we will spend the night in the open square."

3 But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them carnally."

6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him,

7 and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly!

8 "See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof."

9 And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one came in to sojourn, and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.

10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

11 And they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—take them out of this place!

13 "For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city!" But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

15 When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city."

16 And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.

caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide;³⁶ as it is said to this day, "In the Mount of The LORD it shall be provided."

15 Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven,

16 and said: "By myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

17 "in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the sea-shore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies.

18 "In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

The Family of Nahor

20 Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, "Indeed Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:

21 "Huz his first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,

22 "Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel."

23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah.³⁷ These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

Sarah's Death and Burial

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 So Sarah died in Kirjath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying,

4 "I am a foreigner and a sojourner among you. Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

6 "Hear us, my lord: You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead."

7 Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me,

9 "that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you."

10 Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who entered at the gate of his city, saying,

11 "No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it: I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!"

12 Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land:

13 and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there."

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

15 "My lord, listen to me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead."

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron: and Abraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, in the currency of the merchants.

17 So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were legally transferred

18 to Abraham as a possession in the

³⁶ Hebrew YHWH Jireh ³⁷ Spelled Rebecca in Romans 9:10 years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

18 (They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go towards Assyria.) And he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 This is the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham begot Isaac.

20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan Aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian.

21 Now Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I this way?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said to her:

"Two nations are in your womb,
Two peoples shall be separated from your body;
One people shall be stronger than the other,
And the older shall serve the younger."

24 So when her days were fulfilled for her to give birth, indeed there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red. He was like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name Esau.³⁹

26 Afterwards his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob.⁴⁰ Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

27 So the boys grew. And Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

29 Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was weary.

30 And Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary." Therefore his name was called Edom.⁴¹

31 But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day."

32 And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; so what profit shall this birthright be to me?"

33 Then Jacob said, "Swear to me as of this day." So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac and Abimelech

26 There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.

2 Then the LORD appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land of which I shall tell you.

3 "Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

4 "And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;

5 "because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

6 So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him about his wife. And he said, "She is my sister"; for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," because he thought, "lest the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold."

8 Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, 'She is my sister'?" And Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.'"

10 And Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us."

11 So Abimelech charged all his people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and 39 Literally Hairy. 40 Literally Supplanter. 41 Literally Red.

14 "Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.

15 "Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you."

16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it."

17 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"

18 Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Bethel;⁴⁸ but the name of that city had been Luz previously.

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on,

21 "so that I come back to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God.

22 "And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God's house, and of all that you give me I will surely give a tenth to you."

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and saw a well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth.

3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.

4 And Jacob said to them, "My brethren, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from Haran."

5 Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him."

6 So he said to them, "Is he well?" And they said, "He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep."

7 Then he said, "Look, it is still high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."

8 But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."

9 Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father.

13 Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?"

16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah's eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance.

18 Now Jacob loved Rachel; and he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."

19 And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed but a few days to him because of the love he had for her.

tents, but he did not find them. Then he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all about the tent but did not find them.

35 And she said to her father, "Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is with me." And he searched but did not find the household idols.

36 Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?"

37 "Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both!"

38 "These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.

39 "That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 "There I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes.

41 "Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 "Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

Laban's Covenant with Jacob

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock; all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?"

44 "Now therefore, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."

45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.

46 Then Jacob said to his brethren, "Gather stones." And they took stones and made a mound, and they ate there on the mound.

47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha,⁶⁴ but Jacob called it Galeed.⁶⁵

48 And Laban said, "This mound is a witness between you and me this day." Therefore its name was called Galeed.

49 also Mizpah,⁶⁶ because he said, "May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent one from another.

50 "If you afflict my daughters, or if you take other wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us—see, God is witness between you and me!"

51 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me.

52 "This mound is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this mound to you, and you will not pass beyond this mound and this pillar to me, for harm.

53 "The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father judge between us." And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain.

55 And early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Esau Comes to Meet Jacob

32 So Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp." And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.⁶⁷

3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, "Speak thus to my lord Esau, 'Thus your servant Jacob says: "I have sojourned with Laban and stayed there until now.

5 "I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favour in your sight." ' "

the terebinth tree. So the name of it was called Allon Bachuth.⁷⁴

9 Then God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padan Aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; your name shall not be called Jacob any more, but Israel shall be your name." So he called his name Israel.

11 Also God said to him: "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall proceed from you, and kings shall come from your body.

12 "The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac I give to you; and to your descendants after you I give this land."

13 Then God went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

Death of Rachel

16 Then they journeyed from Bethel. And when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel travailed in childbirth, and she had difficult labour.

17 Now it came to pass, when she was in difficult labour, that the midwife said to her, "Do not fear; you will have this son also."

18 And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni;⁷⁵ but his father called him Benjamin.⁷⁶

19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

21 Then Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 And it happened, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine; and Israel heard about it.

Jacob's Twelve Sons

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: 23 the sons of Leah were Reuben, Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun;

24 the sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin;

25 the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali;

26 and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Death of Isaac

27 Then Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kirjath Arba⁷⁷ (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.

29 So Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

The Family of Esau

36 Now this is the genealogy of Esau, who is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 Now Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.

5 And Aholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the persons of his household, his cattle and all his animals, and all his goods which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Jacob.

7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and the land where they were strangers could not support them because of their livestock.

8 So Esau dwelt in Mount Seir. Esau is Edom.

9 And this is the genealogy of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir.

10 These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau.

Joseph Dreams of Greatness

37 Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 This is the genealogy of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the boy was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of many colours.

4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

5 Now Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers; and they hated him even more.

6 So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:

7 "There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf."

8 And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

9 Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream. And this time, the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me."

10 So he told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?"

11 And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

12 Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." So he said to him, "Here I am."

14 Then he said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

15 Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you seeking?"

16 So he said, "I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks."

17 And the man said, "They have departed from here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

18 Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him.

19 Then they said to one another, "Look, this dreamer is coming!

20 "Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' We shall see what will become of his dreams!"

21 But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him."

22 And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

23 So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colours that was on him.

24 Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt.

26 So Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?"

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.

² Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.

³ Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river.

⁴ And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.

⁵ He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good.

⁶ Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.

⁷ And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, it was a dream.

⁸ Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

⁹ Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day.

¹⁰ "When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker.

¹¹ "we each dreamed a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.

¹² "Now there was a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us: to each man he interpreted according to his own dream.

¹³ "And it came to pass just as he interpreted for us; so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

¹⁴ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh.

¹⁵ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it."

¹⁶ So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

¹⁷ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: "Behold, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river.

¹⁸ "Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.

¹⁹ "Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt.

²⁰ "And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows.

²¹ "When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke.

²³ "Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.

²⁴ "And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

²⁵ Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one; God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do:

²⁶ "The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years; the dreams are one.

²⁷ "And the seven thin and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads blighted by the east wind are seven years of famine.

²⁸ "This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.

²⁹ "Indeed seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt:

³⁰ "but after them seven years of famine will arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will deplete the land.

³¹ "So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe.

³² "And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is estabyour father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

24 So the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.

25 Then they made the present ready for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth.

27 Then he asked them about their well-being, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

28 And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health; he is still alive." And they bowed their heads down and prostrated themselves.

29 Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "God be gracious to you, my son."

30 Now his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and wept there.

31 Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, "Serve the bread."

32 So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another.

34 Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin's serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Joseph's Cup

44 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.

2 "Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money." So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 And when they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?'"

5 'Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practises divination? You have done evil in so doing.'

6 So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words.

7 And they said to him, "Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing.

8 "Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?"

9 "With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."

10 And he said, "Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless."

11 Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.

12 So he searched, and he began with the oldest and left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

14 So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said to them, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practise divination?"

16 Then Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found."

8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How old are you?"

9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage."

10 So Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 Then Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with bread, according to the number in their families.

Joseph Deals with the Famine

13 Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."

16 Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone."

17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

18 When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

19 "Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."

20 Then Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he moved them into the cities, from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end.

22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations allotted to them by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.

23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

24 "And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

25 So they said, "You have saved our lives; let us find favour in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Joseph's Vow to Jacob

27 So Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

29 When the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favour in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt.

30 "but let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I will do as you have said."

31 Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. So Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

²⁴ And Joseph said to his brethren, "I am dying; but God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land of which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

²⁵ Then Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here."

²⁶ So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

voice, that you shall take water from the river⁶ and pour it on the dry land. And the water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry land."

10 Then Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since you have spoken to your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue."

11 So the LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD?"

12 "Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say."

13 But he said, "O my Lord, please send by the hand of whomever else you may send."

14 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said: "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And look, he is also coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart."

15 "Now you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do."

16 "So he shall be your spokesman to the people. And he himself shall be as a mouth for you, and you shall be to him as God."

17 "And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs."

Moses Goes to Egypt

18 So Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please let me go and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive." And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

19 And the LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go, return to Egypt; for all the men are dead who sought your life."

20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go."

22 "Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD: "Israel is my son, my first-born."

23 "So I say to you, let my son go that he may serve me. But if you refuse to let him go, indeed I will kill your son, your first-born."'"

24 And it came to pass on the way, at the encampment, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and cast it at Moses' feet, and said, "Surely you are a husband of blood to me!"

26 So he let him go. Then she said, "You are a husband of blood!"—because of the circumcision.

27 And the LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went and met him on the mountain of God, and kissed him.

28 So Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then he did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel and that he had looked on their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

First Encounter with Pharaoh

5 Afterwards Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.'"

2 And Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go."

3 So they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest he fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

4 Then the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people from their work? Get back to your labour."

6 That is, the Nile 7 Literally his and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields.

14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Lice

16 So the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’”

17 And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the magicians so worked with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice on man and beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

20 And the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water. Then say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 “Or else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.

22 “And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there, in order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land.

23 “I will make a difference¹⁰ between my people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.””

24 And the LORD did so. Thick swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, into his servants’ houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms of flies.

25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.”

26 And Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we would be sacrificing the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not stone us?

27 “We will go three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he will command us.”

28 And Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Intercede for me.”

29 Then Moses said, “Indeed I am going out from you, and I will entreat the LORD, that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But let Pharaoh not deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained.

32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also; neither would he let the people go.

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 “For if you refuse to let them go, and still hold them,

3 “behold, the hand of the LORD will be on your cattle in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, and on the sheep. There will be a very severe pestilence.

4 “And the LORD will make a difference between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. So nothing shall die

¹⁰ Literally ransom (compare Exodus 9:4 and 11:7)

6 'Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight.

7 'And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two door-posts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.

8 'Then they shall eat the flesh on that night: roasted in fire, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 'Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails.

10 'You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire.

11 'And thus you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD's Passover.

12 'For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 'Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 'So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance.

15 'Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 'On the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you.

17 'So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.

18 'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

19 'For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or a native of the land.

20 'You shall eat nothing leavened: in all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread.' "

21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb."

22 "And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two door-posts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

23 "For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two door-posts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you."

24 "And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons for ever.

25 "It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, just as he promised, that you shall keep this service.

26 "And it shall be, when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?'

27 "that you shall say, 'It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when he struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.' " So the people bowed their heads and worshipped.

28 Then the children of Israel went away and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the First-born

29 And it came to pass at midnight that the LORD struck all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the first-born of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the first-born of livestock.

30 So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and

- He is my God, and I will praise him;
My father's God, and I will exalt him.
- 3 The LORD is a man of war;
The LORD is his name.
- 4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army
he has cast into the sea;
His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
- 5 The depths have covered them;
They sank to the bottom like a stone.
- 6 "Your right hand, O LORD,
has become glorious in power;
Your right hand, O LORD,
has dashed the enemy in pieces.
- 7 And in the greatness of your excellence
You have overthrown those who rose against you;
You sent forth your wrath which consumed them like stubble.
- 8 And with the blast of your nostrils
The waters were gathered together;
The floods stood upright like a mound;
And the depths congealed
in the heart of the sea.
- 9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue,
I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil;
My desire shall be satisfied on them.
I will draw my sword,
My hand shall destroy them.'
- 10 You blew with your wind,
The sea covered them;
They sank like lead
in the mighty waters.
- 11 "Who is like you, O LORD,
among the gods?
Who is like you, glorious in holiness,
Fearful in praises, doing wonders?
- 12 You stretched out your right hand;
The earth swallowed them.
- 13 You in your mercy have led forth
The people whom you have redeemed;
You have guided them in your strength
To your holy habitation.
- 14 "The people will hear and be afraid;
Sorrow will take hold of the inhabitants of Palestina.
- 15 Then the chiefs of Edom will be dismayed;
The mighty men of Moab,
Trembling will take hold of them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.
- 16 Fear and dread will fall on them;
By the greatness of your arm
They will be as still as a stone,
Till your people pass over, O LORD.

13 Literally Bitter

- Till the people pass over Whom you have purchased.
- 17 You will bring them in and plant them
In the mountain of your inheritance,
In the place, O LORD, which you have made
For your own dwelling.
The sanctuary, O LORD, which your hands have established.
- 18 "The LORD shall reign
for ever and ever."

19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

The Song of Miriam

- 20 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.
- 21 And Miriam answered them:

"Sing to the LORD,
For he has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!"

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

- 22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.
- 23 Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.¹³
- 24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"
- 25 So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree; and when he cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute and an ordinance for them. And there he tested them,
- 26 and said, "If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his sight, give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians.
For I am the LORD who heals you."
- 27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy 27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own land.

Israel at Mount Sinai

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they had departed from Rephidim, had come to the Desert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before the mountain.

3 And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

5 'Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to me above all people; for all the earth is mine.

6 'And you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

7 So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 Then all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

9 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in the thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you for ever." So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

10 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.

11 "And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

12 "You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, 'Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

13 'Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with an arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain."

14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said to the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not come near your wives."

16 Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain²⁰ quaked greatly.

19 And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice.

20 Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to gaze at the LORD, and many of them perish.

22 "Also let the priests who come near the LORD sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break out against them."

23 And Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai: for you warned us, saying, 'Set bounds around the mountain and sanctify it.'"

24 Then the LORD said to him, "Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break out against them."

25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

The Ten Commandments

20 And God spoke all these words, saying:

1 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of 20 Septuagint reads all the people.

31 "And you shall be holy men to me: you shall not eat any meat which is torn by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Justice for All

23 "You shall not circulate a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 "You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to turn aside after many to pervert justice.

3 "You shall not show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.

4 "If you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again.

5 "If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden, and you would refrain from helping it, you shall surely help him with it.

6 "You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his dispute.

7 "Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked.

8 "And you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the discerning and perverts the words of the righteous.

9 "Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

The Law of Sabbaths

10 "Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its produce, 11 "but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. In like manner you shall do with your vineyard and your olive grove.

12 "Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your maidservant and the stranger may be refreshed.

13 "And in all that I have said to you, be circumspect and make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.

Three Annual Feasts

14 "Three times you shall keep a feast to me in the year:

15 "You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt: none shall appear before me empty);

16 "and the Feast of Harvest, the first-fruits of your labours which you have sown in the field; and the Feast of Ingathering, which is at the end of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labours from the field.

17 "Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the LORD God.²¹

18 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until morning.

19 "The first of the first-fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

The Angel and the Promises

20 "Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

21 "Beware of him and obey his voice; do not provoke him, for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

22 "But if you indeed obey his voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

23 "For my Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.

24 "You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and completely break down their sacred pillars.

25 "So you shall serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

26 "No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfil the number of your days.

27 "I will send my fear before you, I will cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

21 Hebrew YHWH, usually translated LORD

for the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.

³⁰ "And you shall raise up the tabernacle according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.

³¹ "You shall make a veil woven of blue and purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen thread. It shall be woven with an artistic design of cherubim.

³² "You shall hang it upon the four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be of gold, upon four sockets of silver.

³³ "And you shall hang the veil from the clasps. Then you shall bring the ark of the Testimony in there, behind the veil. The veil shall be a divider for you between the holy place and the Most Holy.

³⁴ "You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy.

³⁶ "You shall make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, woven of blue and purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen thread, made by a weaver.

³⁷ "And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 "You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad—the altar shall be square—and its height shall be three cubits.

² "You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze.

³ "Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.

⁴ "You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

⁵ "You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar.

⁶ "And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.

⁷ "The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it.

⁸ "You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

⁹ "You shall also make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side there shall be hangings for the court woven of fine linen thread, one hundred cubits long for one side.

¹⁰ "And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

¹² "And along the width of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets.

¹³ "The width of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits.

¹⁴ "The hangings on one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

¹⁵ "And on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

¹⁷ "All the pillars around the court shall have bands of silver; their hooks shall be of silver and their sockets of bronze.

¹⁹ "All the utensils of the tabernacle for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

The Care of the Lampstand

²⁰ "And you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of 36 "And you shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

37 "Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy.

The Daily Offerings

38 "Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.

39 "One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight.

40 "With the one lamb shall be one-tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

41 "And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; and you shall offer with it the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

42 "This shall be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet you to speak with you.

43 "And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 "So I will sanctify the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also sanctify both Aaron and his sons to minister to me as priests.

45 "I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God.

46 "And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense

30 "You shall make an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood.

2 "A cubit shall be its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits shall be its height. Its horns shall be of one piece with it.

3 "And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a moulding of gold all around.

4 "Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the moulding on both its sides. You shall place them on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it.

5 "You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 "And you shall put it before the veil that is before the ark of the Testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

7 "Aaron shall burn on it sweet incense every morning; when he tends the lamps, he shall burn incense on it.

8 "And when Aaron lights the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense on it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 "You shall not offer strange incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a meal offering; nor shall you pour a drink offering on it.

10 "And Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD."

The Ransom Money

11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

12 "When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when you number them.

13 "This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs). The half-shekel shall be an offering to the LORD.

14 "Everyone included among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD.

15 "The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.

16 "And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves."

grave tidings, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.

⁵ For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may know what to do to you.'"

⁶ So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Moses Meets with the LORD

⁷ Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which was outside the camp.

⁸ So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, that all the people rose, and each man stood at his tent door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.

¹⁰ All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and worshipped, each man in his tent door.

¹¹ So the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

The Promise of God's Presence

¹² Then Moses said to the LORD, "See, you say to me, 'Bring up this people.' But you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found grace in my sight.'"

¹³ "Now therefore, I pray, if I have found grace in your sight, show me now your way, that I may know you and that I may find grace in your sight. And consider that this nation is your people."

¹⁴ And he said, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

¹⁵ Then he said to him, "If your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here.

²⁷ Literally he

¹⁶ "For how then will it be known that your people and I have found grace in your sight, except you go with us? So we shall be separate, your people and I, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth."

¹⁷ Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in my sight, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ And he said, "Please, show me your glory."

¹⁹ Then he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."

²⁰ But he said, "You cannot see my face; for no man shall see me, and live."

²¹ And the LORD said, "Here is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock.

²² "So it shall be, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand while I pass by.

²³ "Then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Moses Makes New Tablets

34 And the LORD said to Moses, "Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke.

² "So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to me there on the top of the mountain.

³ "And no man shall come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."

⁵ Then the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

⁶ And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 Then he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badger skins above that.

20 For the tabernacle he made boards of acacia wood, standing upright.

21 The length of each board was ten cubits, and the width of each board a cubit and a half.

22 Each board had two tenons for binding one to another. Thus he made for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.

24 Forty sockets of silver he made to go under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty boards

26 and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

27 For the west side of the tabernacle he made six boards.

28 He also made two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.

29 And they were coupled at the bottom and coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus he made both of them for the two corners.

30 So there were eight boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under every board.

31 And he made bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle.

32 five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle on the far side westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to pass through the boards from one end to the other.

34 He overlaid the boards with gold, made their rings of gold to be holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 And he made a veil woven of blue and purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen thread; it was woven with an artistic design of cherubim.

36 He made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

37 He also made a screen for the tabernacle door, woven of blue and purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen thread, made by a weaver.

38 and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze.

Making the Ark of the Testimony

37 Then Bezaleel made the ark of acacia wood: two and a half cubits was its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a moulding of gold all around it.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it.

4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 He also made the mercy seat of pure gold: two and a half cubits was its length and a cubit and a half its width.

7 He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat:

8 one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the other end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends of one piece with the mercy seat.

9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covered the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were towards the mercy seat.

Making the Table for the Shewbread

10 He made the table of acacia wood: two cubits was its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a moulding of gold all around it.

12 Also he made a frame of a hand's breadth all around it, and made a moulding of gold for the frame all around it.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs.

14 The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.

its poles, and all its utensils; the laver with its base;

⁴⁰ the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs; all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

⁴¹ and the garments of ministry,³¹ to minister in the holy place: the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

⁴² According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.

⁴³ Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

The Tabernacle Erected and Arranged

40 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

² "On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

³ "You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the veil.

⁴ "You shall bring in the table and arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; and you shall bring in the lampstand and light its lamps.

⁵ "You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle.

⁶ "Then you shall set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

⁷ "And you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

⁸ "You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.

⁹ "And you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it; and you shall hallow it and all its utensils, and it shall be holy.

¹⁰ "You shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and sanctify the altar. The altar shall be most holy.

¹¹ "And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and sanctify it.

¹² "Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of meeting and wash them with water.

¹³ "You shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and sanctify him, that he may minister to me as priest.

¹⁴ "And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics.

¹⁵ "You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to me as priests; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations."

¹⁶ Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

¹⁷ And it came to pass in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was raised up.

¹⁸ So Moses raised up the tabernacle, fastened its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars, and raised up its pillars.

¹⁹ And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁰ He took the Testimony and put it into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark.

²² He put the table in the tabernacle of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil;

²³ and he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁴ He put the lampstand in the tabernacle of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle;

²⁵ and he lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁶ He put the gold altar in the tabernacle of meeting in front of the veil;

²⁷ and he burned sweet incense on it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁸ He hung up the screen at the door of the tabernacle.

²⁹ And he put the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

³⁰ He set the laver between the taberna-

³¹ Or woven garments

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and does any of them,

3 'if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned a young bull without blemish as a sin offering.

4 'He shall bring the bull to the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull's head, and kill the bull before the LORD.

5 'Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood and bring it to the tabernacle of meeting.

6 'The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

7 'And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

8 'He shall take from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat which is on the entrails,

9 'the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove,

10 'as it was taken from the bull of the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering.

11 'But the bull's hide and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal—

12 'the whole bull he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

13 'Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 'when the sin which they have sinned becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of meeting.

15 'And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD. Then the bull shall be killed before the LORD.

16 'The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood to the tabernacle of meeting.

17 'Then the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil.

18 'And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

19 'He shall take all the fat from it and burn it on the altar.

20 'And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering; thus he shall do with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 'Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the assembly.

22 'When a ruler has sinned, and done something unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD his God in anything which should not be done, and is guilty,

23 'or if his sin which he has sinned comes to his knowledge, he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a male without blemish.

24 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering.

25 'The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26 'And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 'If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing something

17 'the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day must be burned with fire.

18 'And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be imputed to him; whoever offers it shall be an abomination, and the person who eats of it shall bear guilt.

19 'The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the clean flesh, all who are clean may eat of it.

20 'But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people.

21 'Moreover the person who touches any unclean thing, such as human uncleanness, any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people.'"

Fat and Blood May Not Be Eaten

22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

23 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'You shall not eat any fat, of ox or sheep or goat.

24 'And the fat of a beast that dies naturally, and the fat of what is torn by wild animals, may be used in any other way; but you shall by no means eat it.

25 'For whoever eats the fat of the beast of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, the person who eats it shall be cut off from his people.

26 'Moreover you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or beast.

27 'Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.'"

The Portion of Aaron and His Sons

28 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

29 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offering.

30 'His own hands shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.

31 'And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 'Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 'He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering, and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part.

34 'For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute for ever.'"

35 This is the consecrated portion for Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, on the day when Moses presented them to minister to the LORD as priests.

36 The LORD commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israel, on the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the trespass offering, the consecrations, and the sacrifice of the peace offering.

38 which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, a bull as the sin offering, two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 "and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting."

4 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And the assembly was gathered together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

5 And Moses said to the congregation, "This is what the LORD commanded to be done."

6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water.

cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;

6 'the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;

7 'and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, is unclean to you.

8 'Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.

9 'These you may eat of all that are in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat.

10 'But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which is in the water, they are an abomination to you.

11 'They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

12 'Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that shall be an abomination to you.

13 'And these you shall regard as an abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,

14 'the kite, and the falcon after its kind;

15 'every raven after its kind,

16 'the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the seagull, and the hawk after its kind;

17 'the little owl, the fisher owl, and the screech owl;

18 'the white owl, the jackdaw, and the carrion vulture;

19 'the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

20 'All flying insects that creep on all fours shall be an abomination to you.

21 'Yet these you may eat of every flying insect that creeps on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth.

22 'These you may eat: the locust after its kind, the destroying locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.

23 'But all other flying insects which have four feet shall be an abomination to you.

Unclean Animals

24 'By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until evening;

25 'whoever carries part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening;

26 'The carcass of any beast which divides the foot, but is not cloven-hooved or does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches it shall be unclean.

27 'And whatever goes on its paws, among all kinds of animals that go on all fours, those are unclean to you. Whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until evening.

28 'Whoever carries any such carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. It is unclean to you.

29 'These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind;

30 'the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

31 'These are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.

32 'Anything on which any of them falls, when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item it is, in which any work is done, it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean.

33 'Any earthen vessel into which any of them falls you shall break; and whatever is in it shall be unclean;

34 'in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean.

35 'And everything on which a part of any such carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

36 'Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, in which there is plenty of water, shall be clean, but whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean.

37 'And if a part of any such carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it remains clean.

38 'But if any water is put on the seed, and if a part of any such carcass falls on it, it becomes unclean to you.

4 "then the priest shall command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living and clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.

5 "And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water.

6 "As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 "And he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field.

8 "He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days.

9 "But on the seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.

10 "And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil.

11 "Then the priest who makes him clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

12 "And the priest shall take one male lamb and offer it as a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

13 "Then he shall kill the lamb in the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering, in a holy place; for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy.

14 "The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

15 "And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand.

16 "Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

17 "And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put some on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering.

18 "The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

19 "Then the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterwards he shall kill the burnt offering.

20 "And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 "But if he is poor and cannot afford it, then he shall take one male lamb as a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log of oil.

22 "and two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford; one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23 "He shall bring them to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansing, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, before the LORD.

24 "And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

25 "Then he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

26 "And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27 "Then the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD.

28 "And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the cleanse it, and sanctify it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 "And when he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the tabernacle of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat;

21 "and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a suitable man.

22 "The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to an uninhabited land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

23 "Then Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of meeting, shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there.

24 "And he shall wash his body with water in a holy place, put on his garments, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

25 "The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.

26 "And he who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he may come into the camp.

27 "The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried outside the camp. And they shall burn in the fire their skins, their flesh, and their offal.

28 "Then he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he may come into the camp.

29 "This shall be a statute for ever for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether a native of your own country or a stranger who sojourns among you.

30 "For on that day the priest shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 "It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute for ever.

32 "And the priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as priest in his father's place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments;

33 "then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary,⁷ and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation.

34 "This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year." And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sanctity of Blood

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying:

3 "Whatever man of the house of Israel kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp,

4 "and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, blood-guilt shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people,

5 "to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them as peace offerings to the LORD.

6 "And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

7 "They shall no more offer their sacrifices to demons, after whom they have played the prostitute. This shall be a statute for ever for them throughout their generations."

8 "And you shall say to them: 'Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 'and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer it to

7 That is, the Most Holy Place with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.

14 'If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.

15 'If a man mates with a beast, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the beast.

16 'If a woman approaches any beast and mates with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood is upon them.

17 'If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a wicked thing. And they shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness. He shall bear his guilt.

18 'If a man lies with a woman during her sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has discovered her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from their people.

19 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister nor of your father's sister, for that would uncover his near of kin. They shall bear their guilt.

20 'If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 'If a man takes his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They shall be childless.

22 'You shall therefore keep all my statutes and all my judgments, and perform them, that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out.

23 'And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they commit all these things, and therefore I abhor them.

24 'But I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

25 'You shall therefore distinguish between clean beasts and unclean, between unclean birds and clean, and you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 'And you shall be holy to me, for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be mine.

27 'A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.' "

Regulations for Conduct of Priests

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: 'None shall defile himself for the dead among his people,

2 'except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother;

3 'also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself.

4 'Otherwise he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 'They shall not make any bald place on their heads, nor shall they shave the edges of their beards nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 'They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

7 'They shall not take a wife who is a prostitute or a defiled woman, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for the priest⁸ is holy to his God.

8 'Therefore you shall sanctify him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

9 'The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the prostitute, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.

10 'And he who is the high priest among his brethren, on whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is consecrated to wear the garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes;

11 'nor shall he go near any dead body, nor defile himself for his father or his mother;

⁸ Literally he

39 'Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD for seven days; on the first day there shall be a sabbath-rest, and on the eighth day a sabbath-rest.

40 'And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

41 'You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 'You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths.

43 'that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.'

44 So Moses declared to the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

Care of the Tabernacle Lamps

24 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 'Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

3 'Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 'He shall be in charge of the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

5 'And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it. Two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

6 'You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure table before the LORD.

7 'And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

8 'Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 'And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.'

The Penalty for Blasphemy

10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel fought each other in the camp.

11 And the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD and cursed; and so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12 Then they put him in custody, that the mind of the LORD might be shown to them.

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

14 'Take outside the camp him who has cursed; then let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 'Then you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.

16 'And whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him, the stranger as well as he who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the name of the LORD, he shall be put to death.

17 'Whoever kills any man shall surely be put to death.

18 'Whoever kills an animal shall make it good, animal for animal.

19 'If a man causes disfigurement of his neighbour, as he has done, so shall it be done to him—

20 'fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused disfigurement of a man, so shall it be done to him.

21 'And whoever kills an animal shall restore it; but whoever kills a man shall be put to death.

22 'You shall have the same law for the stranger and for one from your own country; for I am the LORD your God.'

- 23 'And if by these things you are not reformed by me, but walk contrary to me,
- 24 then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.
- 25 And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of my covenant; when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.
- 26 When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back to you your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied.
- 27 'And after all this, if you do not obey me, but walk contrary to me,
- 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.
- 29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.
- 30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and my soul shall abhor you.
- 31 I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet aromas.
- 32 I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.
- 33 I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.
- 34 Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths.
- 35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest— for the time it did not rest on your sabbaths when you dwelt in it.
- 36 'And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee; they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.
- 37 They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
- 38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.
- 39 And those of you who are left shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; also in their fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.
- 40 'But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to me, and that they also have walked contrary to me,
- 41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they accept their guilt—
- 42 then I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham I will remember; I will remember the land.
- 43 The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; they will accept their guilt, because they despised my judgments and because their soul abhorred my statutes.
- 44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

29 those who were numbered of the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30 From the children of Zebulun, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

31 those who were numbered of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 From the sons of Joseph, the children of Ephraim, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

33 those who were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred.

34 From the children of Manasseh, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

35 those who were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 From the children of Benjamin, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

37 those who were numbered of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 From the children of Dan, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

39 those who were numbered of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 From the children of Asher, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

41 those who were numbered of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 From the children of Naphtali, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

43 those who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44 These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each one representing his father's house.

45 So all who were numbered of the children of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war in Israel—

46 all who were numbered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

47 But the Levites were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe;

48 for the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying:

49 "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor take a census of them among the children of Israel;

50 "but you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its furnishings, and over all things that belong to it; they shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they shall attend to it and camp around the tabernacle.

51 "And when the tabernacle is to go forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

52 "The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, everyone by his own camp, everyone by his own standard, according to their armies;

53 "but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony."

54 Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

The Tribes and Leaders by Armies

2 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 "Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own standard, beside the emblems of his father's house; they shall camp some distance from the tabernacle of meeting.

spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the pans, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring; and the shewbread⁵ shall be on it.

8 "They shall spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

9 "And they shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand of the light, with its lamps, its wick-trimmers, its trays, and all its oil vessels, with which they service it.

10 "Then they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of badger skins, and put it on a carrying beam.

11 "Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles.

12 "Then they shall take all the utensils of service with which they minister in the sanctuary, put them in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering of badger skins, and put them on a carrying beam.

13 "Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

14 "They shall put on it all its implements with which they minister there—the firepans, the forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar—and they shall spread on it a covering of badger skins, and insert its poles.

15 "And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to go, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them; but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These are the things in the tabernacle of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

16 "The appointed duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the daily grain offering, the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle, of all that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings."

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

18 "Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 "but do this in regard to them, that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his task.

20 "But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, lest they die."

Duties of the Sons of Gershon

21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

22 "Also take a census of the sons of Gershon, by their fathers' house, by their families.

23 "From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

24 "This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and carrying:

25 "They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tabernacle of meeting with its covering, the covering of badger skins that is on it, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

26 "the screen for the door of the gate of the court, the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and altar, and their cords, all the furnishings for their service and all that is made for these things: so shall they serve.

27 "Aaron and his sons shall assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks and all their service. And you shall appoint to them all their tasks as their duty.

28 "This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting. And their duties shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Sons of Merari

29 "As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families and by their fathers' house.

30 "From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.

31 "And this is what they must carry as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,

32 "and the pillars around the court with their sockets, pegs, and cords, with all their furnishings and all their service; and

5 Literally the continual bread leaders of the tribes and over those who were numbered, made an offering.

³ And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

⁴ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

⁵ "Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service."

⁶ So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

⁷ Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;

⁸ and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

⁹ But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs was the service of the holy things, which they carried on their shoulders.

¹⁰ Now the leaders offered the dedication offering for the altar when it was anointed; so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

¹¹ For the LORD said to Moses, "They shall offer their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar."

¹² And the one who offered his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Judah.

¹³ His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

¹⁴ one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense;

¹⁵ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering;

¹⁶ one kid of the goats as a sin offering;

¹⁷ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

¹⁸ On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented an offering.

¹⁹ For his offering he offered one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

²⁰ one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense;

²¹ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering;

²² one kid of the goats as a sin offering;

²³ and as the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

²⁴ On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the children of Zebulun, presented an offering.

²⁵ His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

²⁶ one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense;

²⁷ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering;

²⁸ one kid of the goats as a sin offering;

²⁹ and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

³⁰ On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader of the children of Reuben, presented an offering.

³¹ His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

³² one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense;

³³ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering;

³⁴ one kid of the goats as a sin offering;

³⁵ and as the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This

9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.

10 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If anyone of you or your posterity is unclean because of a dead body, or is far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD's Passover.

11 'On the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 'They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break one of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it.

13 'But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

14 'And if a stranger sojourns among you, and would keep the LORD's Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.'

The Cloud and the Fire

15 And on the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony; from evening until morning it was above the tabernacle like the appearance of fire.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, after that the children of Israel would journey; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel would pitch their tents.

18 At the command of the LORD the children of Israel would journey, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained encamped.

19 Even when the cloud continued long, many days above the tabernacle, the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey.

20 So it was, when the cloud was above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey.

21 So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.

22 Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey.

23 At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Two Silver Trumpets

10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the assembly and for directing the movement of the camps.

3 "When they blow both of them, all the assembly shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

4 "But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you.

5 "When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey.

6 "When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys.

7 "And when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance.

8 "The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 "When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

you shall send a man, every one a leader among them."

³ So Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel.

⁴ Now these were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

⁵ from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

⁶ from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

⁷ from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

⁸ from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea¹² the son of Nun;

⁹ from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

¹⁰ from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

¹¹ from the tribe of Joseph, that is, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

¹² from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

¹³ from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

¹⁴ from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

¹⁵ from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

¹⁶ These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshea¹³ the son of Nun, Joshua.

¹⁷ So Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up this way into the South, and go up to the mountains,

¹⁸ "and see what the land is like: whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, few or many;

¹⁹ "whether the land they dwell in is good or bad; whether the cities they inhabit are like camps or strongholds;

²⁰ "whether the land is rich or poor; and whether there are forests there or not. Be of good courage. And bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

²¹ So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.

²² And they went up through the South and came to Hebron: Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

²³ Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and there cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes; they carried it between two of them on a pole. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs.

²⁴ The place was called the Valley of Eshcol,¹⁴ because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down there.

²⁵ And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.

²⁷ Then they told him, and said: "We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

²⁸ "Nevertheless the people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there.

²⁹ "The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan."

³⁰ Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it."

³¹ But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we."

³² And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature.

³³ "There we saw the giants¹⁵ (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight."

their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue thread in the tassels of the corners.

39 "And you shall have the tassel, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you may not follow the prostitution to which your own heart and your own eyes are inclined.

40 "and that you may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy for your God.

41 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Rebellion Against Moses and Aaron

16 Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men;

2 and they rose up before Moses with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, representatives of the congregation, men of renown.

3 They gathered together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "You take too much upon yourselves, for all the congregation is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?"

4 So when Moses heard it, he fell on his face;

5 and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is his and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him; that one whom he chooses he will cause to come near to him.

6 "Do this: Take censers, Korah and all your company;

7 "put fire in them and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!"

8 Then Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi:

9 "Is it a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them;

10 "and that he has brought you near to himself, you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also?

11 "Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. And what is Aaron that you murmur against him?"

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come up!"

13 "Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should keep acting like a prince over us?"

14 "Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!"

15 Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, "Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them."

16 And Moses said to Korah, "Tomorrow, you and all your company be present before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron.

17 "Each of you take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each of you with his censer."

18 So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

21 "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment."

22 Then they fell on their faces, and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and you be angry with all the congregation?"

23 So the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

24 "Speak to the congregation, saying, 'Get away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.'" into the midst of the fire burning the heifer.

⁷ Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening.

⁸ And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

¹¹ He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days.

¹² He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.

¹³ Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; his uncleanness is still on him.

¹⁴ This is the law when a man dies in a tent: All who come into the tent and all who are in the tent shall be unclean seven days;

¹⁵ and every open vessel, which has no cover fastened on it, is unclean.

¹⁶ Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain by a sword or who has died, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

¹⁸ A clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, sprinkle it on the tent, on all the vessels, on the persons who were there, or on the one who touched a bone, the slain, the dead, or a grave.

¹⁹ The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, wash his clothes, and bathe in water; and at evening he shall be clean.

²⁰ But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

²² Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening.”

Moses' Error at Kadesh

20 Then the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there and was buried there.

² Now there was no water for the congregation; so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron.

³ And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying: “If only we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

⁴ “Why have you brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our animals should die here?”

⁵ “And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink.”

⁶ So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

⁷ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

⁸ “Take the rod; you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water; thus you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and give drink to the congregation and their animals.”

⁹ So Moses took the rod from before the LORD as he commanded him.

¹⁹ Literally impurity.

23 Now the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road.

24 Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

25 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again.

26 Then the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam's anger was aroused, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

28 Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

29 And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you!"

30 So the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever disposed to do this to you?" And he said, "No."

31 Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is perverse before me.

33 "The donkey saw me and turned aside from me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

34 And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases you, I will turn back."

35 Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory.

37 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honour you?"

38 And Balaam said to Balak, "Look. I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak."

39 So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth.

40 Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

Balaam's First Prophecy

41 So it was the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, that from there he might observe the extent of the people.

23 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams."

2 And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

3 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever he shows me I will tell you." So he went to a desolate height.

4 And God met Balaam, and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."

5 Then the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak."

6 So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his oracle and said:

"Balak the king of Moab
has brought me from Aram,
From the mountains of the east.
'Come, curse Jacob for me,
And come, denounce Israel!'

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

7 'On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work.

8 'You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.

9 'Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

10 'and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

11 'also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the sin offering for atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Offerings at the Feast of Tabernacles

12 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days.

13 'You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year. They shall be without blemish.

14 'Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

15 'and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;

16 'also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

17 'On the second day present twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish.

18 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

19 'also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

20 'On the third day present eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

21 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

22 'also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

23 'On the fourth day present ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year, without blemish.

24 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

25 'also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

26 'On the fifth day present nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish.

27 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

28 'also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

29 'On the sixth day present eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish.

30 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

31 'also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

32 'On the seventh day present seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish,

33 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

34 'also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

35 'On the eighth day you shall have a sacred assembly. You shall do no customary work.

36 'You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven lambs in their first year without blemish,

37 'and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordinance;

ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 "We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has received his inheritance.

19 "For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan."

20 Then Moses said to them: "If you do this thing, if you arm yourselves before the LORD for the war,

21 "and all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven out his enemies from before him, 22 "and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterwards you may return and be blameless before the LORD and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

23 "But if you do not do so, then take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.

24 "Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded out of your mouth."

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying: "Your servants will do as my lord commands.

26 "Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead;

27 "but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, just as my lord says."

28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said to them: "If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.

30 "But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

31 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

32 "We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan."

33 So Moses gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with its cities within the borders, the cities of the surrounding country.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer,

35 Atroth and Shopan and Jazer and Jogbehah,

36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathaim.

38 Nebo and Baal Meon (their names being changed) and Shibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40 So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.

41 Also Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its small towns, and called them Havoth Jair.⁴⁶

42 Then Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Israel's Journey from Egypt Reviewed

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

² Now Moses wrote down the starting points of their journeys at the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting points:

³ They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians.

⁴ For the Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom the LORD had killed among them. Also on their gods the LORD had executed judgments.

⁵ Then the children of Israel moved from Rameses and camped at Succoth.

⁶ They departed from Succoth and

46 Literally Towns of Jair

24 'then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments.

25 'So the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and he shall remain there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 'But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled,

27 'and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood,

28 'because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

29 'Now these things shall be a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 'Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not sufficient testimony against a person for the death penalty.

31 'Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.

32 'And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the priest.

33 'So you shall not pollute the land where you are; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

34 'Therefore do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.'

Marriage of Heiresses

36 Now the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel;

2 and they said: "The LORD commanded my lord Moses to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

3 "Now if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 "And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying: "What the tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks is right.

6 "This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, 'Let them marry whom they think best, but they may marry only within the family of their father's tribe.'

7 "So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 "And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be the wife of one of the family of her father's tribe, so that the children of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9 "Thus no inheritance shall change hands from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel shall keep its own inheritance."

10 Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to the sons of their father's brothers.

12 They were married into the families of the children of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's family.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded the children of Israel by the hand of Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

33 "And the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so we defeated him, his sons, and all his people.

34 "We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.

35 "We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 "From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from the city that is in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; the LORD our God delivered all to us.

37 "Only you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon, or anywhere along the River Jabbok, or to the cities of the mountains, or wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

King Og Defeated

3 "Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

² "And the LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.'

³ "So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.

⁴ "And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

⁵ "All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns.

⁶ "And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.

⁷ "But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

⁸ "And at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were on this side of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon

⁹ "(the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir), ¹⁰ "all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

¹¹ "For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants.⁷ Indeed his bedstead was an iron bedstead. (Is it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon?) Nine cubits is its length and four cubits its width, according to the standard cubit.

The Land East of the Jordan Divided

¹² "And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.

¹³ "The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the giants.⁸)

¹⁴ "Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called Bashan after his own name, Havoth Jair,⁹ to this day.)

¹⁵ "And I gave Gilead to Machir.

¹⁶ "And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the River Arnon, the middle of the river as the border, as far as the River Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon;

¹⁷ "the plain also, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

¹⁸ "And I commanded you at that time, saying: 'The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All you men of valour shall cross over armed before your brethren, the children of Israel.'

¹⁹ 'But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you,

²⁰ 'until the LORD has given rest to your brethren as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession which I have given you.'

²¹ "And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these 22 "These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and he added no more. And he wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

The People Afraid of God's Presence

23 "So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.

24 "And you said: 'Surely the LORD our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he still lives.

25 'Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 'For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 'You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do it.'

28 "Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They are right in all that they have spoken.

29 'Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear me and always keep all my commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children for ever!

30 'Go and say to them, "Return to your tents."

31 'But as for you, stand here by me, and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.'

32 "Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 "You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

The Greatest Commandment

6 "Now this is the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess.

2 "that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

3 "Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you—'a land flowing with milk and honey.'¹¹

4 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one!

5 "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 "And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart:

7 "you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

8 "You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

9 "You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Caution Against Disobedience

10 "And it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities which you did not build.

11 "houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees

¹¹ Compare Exodus 3:8

13 "Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, 'I have seen this people, and indeed they are a stiff-necked people.

14 'Let me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.'

15 "So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 "And I looked, and there, you had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made for yourselves a moulded calf! You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 "Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

18 "And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 "For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also.

20 "And the LORD was very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.

21 "Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mountain.

22 "Also at Taberah and Massah and Kibroth Hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 "Likewise, when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, 'Go up and possess the land which I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe him nor obey his voice.

24 "You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 "Thus I prostrated myself before the LORD; forty days and forty nights I kept prostrating myself, because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 "Therefore I prayed to the LORD, and said: 'O Lord GOD, do not destroy your people and your inheritance whom you have redeemed through your greatness, whom you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 'Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin.

28 'lest the land from which you brought us should say, "Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness."

29 'Yet they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out by your mighty power and by your outstretched arm.'

The Second Pair of Tablets

10 "At that time the LORD said to me, 'Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me on the mountain and make yourself an ark of wood.

2 'And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you shall put them in the ark.'

3 "So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand.

4 "And he wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

5 "Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me."

6 (Now the children of Israel journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Mose-rah. That was the place where Aaron died later, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his stead.

7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers of water.

8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him and to bless in his name, to this day.

³² "Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Punishment of Apostates

13 "If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder,

² "and the sign or the wonder of which he spoke to you comes to pass, saying, 'Let us go after other gods which you have not known, and let us serve them,'

³ "you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

⁵ "But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst.

⁶ "If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers,

⁷ "of the gods of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth,

⁸ "you shall not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him;

⁹ "but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

¹⁰ "And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

¹¹ "So all Israel shall hear and fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you.

¹² "If you hear someone in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell in, saying,

¹³ 'Certain corrupt men have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," gods whom you have not known,'

¹⁴ "then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination was committed among you,

¹⁶ "And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God; and it shall be a heap for ever. It shall not be built again.

¹⁷ "So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and multiply you, just as he swore to your fathers.

¹⁸ "because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all his commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Improper Mourning

14 "You are the children of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead.

² "For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Meat

³ "You shall not eat any detestable thing.

⁴ "These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, ⁵ "the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the mountain goat,¹⁵ the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

¹⁵ Or addax.

your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

9 "and you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge there in those days, and inquire of them; they shall pronounce upon you the sentence of judgment.

10 "You shall do according to the sentence which they pronounce upon you in that place which the LORD chooses. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they order you.

11 "According to the sentence of the law in which they instruct you, according to the judgment which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left from the sentence which they pronounce upon you.

12 "Now the man who acts presumptuously and will not heed the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall put away the evil person from Israel.

13 "And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Principles Governing Kings

14 "When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, 'I will set a king over me like all the nations that are around me.'

15 "you shall surely set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses; one from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.

16 "But he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for the LORD has said to you, 'You shall not return that way again.'

17 "Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.

18 "Also it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from the one before the priests, the Levites.

19 "And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes.

20 "that his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

The Portion of the Priests and Levites

18 "The priests, the Levites, indeed all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his portion.

2 "Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as he said to them.

3 "And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it is bull or sheep; they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach.

4 "The first-fruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.

5 "For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 "And if a Levite comes from any of your gates, from where he sojourns among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD chooses.

7 "then he may serve in the name of the LORD his God as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD.

8 "They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

Avoid Wicked Customs

9 "When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations.

10 "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practises witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer.

11 "or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.

23 "his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance; for he who is hanged is accursed of God.

22 "You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother. 2 "And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him.

3 "You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you must not hide yourself.

4 "You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift them up again.

5 "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God.

6 "If a bird's nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;

7 "you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

8 "When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring blood-guiltiness on your house if anyone falls from it.

9 "You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled.

10 "You shall not plough with an ox and a donkey together.

11 "You shall not wear a garment of different sorts, such as wool and linen mixed together.

12 "You shall make tassels on the four corners of the clothing with which you cover yourself.

Laws of Sexual Morality

13 "If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and detests her,

14 "and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, 'I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she was not a virgin.'

15 "then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the evidence of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

16 "And the young woman's father shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her;

17 'now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, "I found your daughter was not a virgin," and yet these are the evidences of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 "Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him:

19 "and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.

20 "But if the thing is true, and evidences of virginity are not found for the young woman, 21 "then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house; so you shall put away the evil person from among you.

22 "If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so you shall put away the evil person from Israel.

23 "If a young woman who is a virgin is betrothed to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her,

24 "then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he humbled his neighbour's wife; so you shall put away the evil person from among you.

25 "But if a man finds a betrothed young woman in the countryside, and the man

7 'Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labour and our oppression.

8 'So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, with great terror and with signs and wonders.

9 'He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, "a land flowing with milk and honey";²¹

10 'and now, behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land which you, O LORD, have given me.' Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God.

11 "So you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you and the Levite and the stranger who is among you.

12 "When you have finished laying aside all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your gates and be filled,

13 "then you shall say before the LORD your God: 'I have removed the holy tithe from my house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all your commandments which you have commanded me; I have not transgressed your commandments, nor have I forgotten them.

14 'I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed any of it for any unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that you have commanded me.

15 'Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the land which you have given us, just as you swore to our fathers, "a land flowing with milk and honey."²²

A Special People of God

16 "This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 "Today you have proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in his ways and keep his statutes, his commandments, and his judgments, and that you will obey his voice.

18 "Also today the LORD has proclaimed you to be his special people, just as he has promised you, that you should keep all his commandments,

19 "and that he will set you high above all nations which he has made, in praise, in name, and in honour, and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, just as he has spoken."

The Law Inscribed on Stones

27 Then Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying: "Keep all the commandments which I command you today.

2 "And it shall be, on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and whitewash them with lime.

3 "You shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have crossed over, that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, 'a land flowing with milk and honey.'²³ just as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you.

4 "Therefore it shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that on Mount Ebal you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall whitewash them with lime.

5 "And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use any iron tool on them.

6 "You shall build with whole stones the altar of the LORD your God, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

7 "You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God.

8 "And you shall write very plainly on the stones all the words of this law."

9 Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, "Take heed and listen, O Israel: This day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

10 "Therefore you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and observe his commandments and his statutes which I command you today."

21 Compare Exodus 3:8 22 Compare Exodus 3:8 23 Compare Exodus 3:8

65 "And among those nations you shall find no rest, nor shall the sole of your foot have a resting place; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and anguish of soul.

66 "Your life shall hang in doubt before you; you shall fear day and night, and have no assurance of life.

67 "In the morning you shall say, 'Oh, that it were evening!' And at evening you shall say, 'Oh, that it were morning!' because of the fear which terrifies your heart, and because of the sight which your eyes see.

68 "And the LORD will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, 'You shall never see it again.' And there you shall be offered for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

The Covenant Renewed in Moab

29 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 Now Moses called all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land—

3 "the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders.

4 "Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this very day.

5 "And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet:

6 "you have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or similar drink; that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

7 "And when you came to this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we conquered them.

8 "We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.

9 "Therefore keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

10 "All of you stand today before the LORD your God: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel.

11 "your little ones and your wives—also the stranger who is in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water—

12 "that you may enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into his oath, which the LORD your God makes with you today.

13 "that he may establish you today as a people for himself, and that he may be God to you, just as he has spoken to you, and just as he has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14 "I make this covenant and this oath, not with you alone.

15 "but also with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, as well as with him who is not here with us today

16 (for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we came through the nations which you passed by.

17 and you saw their abominations and their idols which were among them—wood and stone and silver and gold):

18 "so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and that there may not be among you a root bearing bitterness or worm-wood;

19 "and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall have peace, even though I walk in the imagination of my heart'—as though the drunkard could be included with the sober.

20 "The LORD would not spare him; for then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy would burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this book would settle on him, and the LORD would blot out his name from under heaven.

21 "And the LORD would separate him from all the tribes of Israel for adversity, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law.

22 "so that the coming generation of your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land,

- 14 Curds from the cattle,
and milk of the flock,
With fat of lambs;
And rams of the breed of Bashan,
and goats,
With the choicest wheat;
And you drank wine,
the blood of the grapes.
- 15 "But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;
You grew fat, you grew thick,
You are covered with fat;
Then he forsook God who made him,
And scornfully esteemed
the Rock of his salvation.
- 16 They provoked him to jealousy
with foreign gods;
With abominations they provoked him
to anger.
- 17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God,
To gods they did not know,
To new gods, new arrivals
That your fathers did not fear.
- 18 Of the Rock who begot you,
you are unmindful,
And have forgotten the God who fathered you.
- 19 "And when the LORD saw it,
he spurned them,
Because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.
- 20 And he said: 'I will hide my face
from them,
I will see what their end will be,
For they are a perverse generation,
Children in whom is no faith.
- 21 They have provoked me to jealousy
by what is not God;
They have moved me to anger
by their foolish idols.
But I will provoke them to jealousy
by those who are not a nation;
I will move them to anger
by a foolish nation.
- 22 For a fire is kindled in my anger,
And shall burn to the lowest hell;
It shall consume the earth
with her increase,
And set on fire
the foundations of the mountains.
- 23 'I will heap disasters upon them;
I will spend my arrows upon them.
- 24 They shall be wasted with hunger,
Devoured by pestilence
and bitter destruction;
I will also send against them
the teeth of beasts,
With the poison
of serpents of the dust.
- 25 The sword shall destroy outside:
There shall be terror within
For the young man and virgin,
The nursing child
with the man of gray hairs.
- 26 I would have said,
"I will dash them in pieces,
I will make the memory of them to cease from among men."
- 27 Had I not feared
the wrath of the enemy,
Lest their adversaries should misunderstand,
Lest they should say,
"Our hand is high;
And it is not the LORD
who has done all this."
- 28 "For they are a nation void of counsel,
Nor is there any understanding in them.
- 29 Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their latter end!
- 30 How could one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Unless their Rock had sold them,
And the LORD had surrendered them?
- 31 For their rock is not like our Rock, Even our enemies
themselves being judges.
- 32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom
And of the fields of Gomorrah;
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter.
- 33 Their wine is the poison of serpents,
And the cruel venom of cobras.
- 34 'Is this not laid up in store with me,
Sealed up among my treasures?
- 35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense:
Their foot shall slip in due time;
For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things to come hasten
upon them.'
- 36 "For the LORD will judge his people
And have compassion on his servants,
When he sees that their power is gone,
And there is no one remaining,
bond or free.
- 37 He will say: 'Where are their gods,
The rock in which they sought refuge?
- 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine
of their drink offering?
Let them rise and help you,
And be your refuge.

The Book of Joshua

God's Commission to Joshua

AFTER the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying:

² "Moses my servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel.

³ "Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses.

⁵ "No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you.

⁶ "Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

⁷ "Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you: do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.

⁸ "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

⁹ "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

The Order to Cross the Jordan

¹⁰ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

¹¹ "Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.'"

¹² And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying,

¹³ "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.'

¹⁵ "until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as he has given you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side of the Jordan towards the sunrise."

¹⁶ And they answered Joshua, saying, "All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

¹⁷ "Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses.

¹⁸ "Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

Rahab Hides the Spies

2 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men from Shittim to spy secretly, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went, and came to the house of a prostitute named Rahab, and lodged there.

² And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, "Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country."

³ So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal⁴ to this day.

¹⁰ So the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho.

¹¹ And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and parched grain, on the very same day.

¹² Now the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

The Commander of the Army of the LORD

¹³ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us or for our adversaries?"

¹⁴ So he said, "No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshipped, and said to him, "What does my Lord say to his servant?"

¹⁵ Then the Commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, "Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.

The Destruction of Jericho

6 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in.

² And the LORD said to Joshua: "See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valour.

³ "You shall march around the city, all you men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days.

⁴ "And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

⁵ "Then it shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him."

⁴ Literally Rolling

⁶ So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."

⁷ And he said to the people, "Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD."

⁸ So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

⁹ The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets.

¹⁰ Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout."

¹¹ So he had the ark of the LORD encircle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

¹² And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

¹⁴ And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

¹⁵ But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times.

¹⁶ And the seventh time it was so, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city!

¹⁷ "Now the city shall be doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

³³ Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

³⁴ And afterwards he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.

³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

9 And it came to pass when all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of the Great Sea towards Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard of it,

² that they gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

³ But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

⁴ they worked craftily, and went and pretended to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended,

⁵ old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

⁶ And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us."

⁷ But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you dwell among us; so how can we make a covenant with you?"

⁸ And they said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

⁹ So they said to him: "From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of his fame, and all that he did in Egypt,

¹¹ "Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, 'Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us.'"

¹² "This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and mouldy.

¹³ "And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey."

¹⁴ Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions; but they did not ask counsel of the LORD.

¹⁵ So Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

¹⁹ Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them.

²⁰ "This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them."

²¹ And the rulers said to them, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them."

²² Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why have you

²² None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; they remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

²³ So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

The Kings Conquered by Moses

12 These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan towards the rising of the sun, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain:

² Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Arer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites,

³ and the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah;

⁴ Og king of Bashan and his territory, who was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

⁵ and reigned over Mount Hermon, over Salcah, over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Machathites, and over half of Gilead as far as the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

⁶ These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

⁷ And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

⁸ in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the Jordan plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—the

Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

⁹ the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

¹⁰ the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

¹¹ the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

¹² the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

¹³ the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

¹⁴ the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

¹⁵ the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

¹⁶ the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

¹⁷ the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one;

¹⁸ the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

¹⁹ the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

²⁰ the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

²¹ the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

²² the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

²³ the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of the people of Gilgal, one;

²⁴ the king of Tirzah, one—all the kings, thirty-one.

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

13 Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: "You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.

² "This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites.

⁴ "from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;

⁵ "the land of the Gebalites,¹⁵ and all Lebanon, towards the sunrise, from Baal

¹⁵ Or Giblites

49 Dannah, Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir),

50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages;

52 Arab, Dumah, Eshean,

53 Janum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

54 Humtah, Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages;

55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages;

58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,

59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages;

60 Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

61 In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Mid-din, Secacah, 62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi: six cities with their villages.

63 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Ephraim and West Manasseh

16 The lot fell to the children of Joseph from the Jordan, by Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the mountains to Bethel,

² then went out from Bethel to Luz,¹⁹ passed along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth, ³ and went down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, as far as the boundary of Lower Beth Horon to Gezer; and it ended at the sea.

⁴ So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

The Land of Ephraim

⁵ The border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Beth Horon.

⁶ And the border went out towards the sea on the north side of Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah.

⁷ Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah,²⁰ reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

⁸ The border went out from Tappuah westward to the Brook Kanah, and it ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families.

⁹ The separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

¹⁰ And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced labourers.

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

17 There was also a portion by lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the first-born of Joseph: namely for Machir the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given Gilead and Bashan.

² And there was a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer,²¹ the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, the children of Hopher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

⁵ Ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan.

⁶ because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons;

¹⁹ Septuagint reads Bethel (that is, Luz). ²⁰ Or Naaran (compare 1 Chronicles 7:28)

²¹ Called Jeezer in Numbers 26:30 gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

⁵⁰ According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

⁵¹ These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

The Cities of Refuge

20 The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying,

² "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

³ 'that the slayer who kills any person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

⁶ 'And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.' "

⁷ So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah.

⁹ These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who sojourned among them, that whoever killed any person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Cities of the Levites

21 Now the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

² And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common lands for our livestock."

³ So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common lands:

⁵ The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

⁷ The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

⁸ And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

⁹ So they gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are mentioned here by name,

¹⁰ which were for the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for the lot was theirs first.

¹¹ And they gave them Kirjath Arba (Arba being the father of Anak), which is aside from it to the right hand or to the left.

⁷ "and lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them: you shall not serve them nor bow down to them.

⁸ "but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

⁹ "For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day.

¹⁰ "One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is he who fights for you, as he has promised you.

¹¹ "Therefore take diligent heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

¹² "Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you,

¹³ "know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

¹⁴ "Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you, and not one word of them has failed.

¹⁵ "Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you all harmful things, until he has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

¹⁶ "When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which he has given you."

The Covenant at Shechem

24 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers: and they presented themselves before God.

² And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River²⁸ in old times; and they served other gods.

³ 'Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

⁴ 'To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

⁵ 'Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterwards I brought you out.

⁷ 'So they cried out to the LORD: and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

⁸ 'And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

⁹ 'Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

¹⁰ 'But I would not listen to Balaam: therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand.

¹¹ 'Then you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you—also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand.

¹² 'I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two kings of the Amorites, but not with your sword or with your bow.

²⁸ Hebrew Nahar, the Euphrates (so also verses 3, 14, and 15)

13 They forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.⁵

14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So he delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.

16 Then the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them.

17 Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the prostitute with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so.

18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

20 Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, "Because this nation has transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded my voice.

21 "I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

22 "so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not."

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did he deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

The Nations Remaining in the Land

3 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, that he might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan

2 (this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it).

3 namely, five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

4 And they were left, that he might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which he had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 So the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons; and they served their gods.

Othniel

7 So the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and Asherahs.⁶

8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

9 When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim.

11 So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

Midianites Oppress Israel

6 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years,

2 and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains.

3 So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them.

4 Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.

5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it.

6 So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage;

9 'and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.

10 'Also I said to you, "I am the LORD your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you have not obeyed my voice."'"

Gideon

11 Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valour!"

13 And Gideon said to him, "O my lord,¹² if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all his miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites."

14 Then the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?"

15 So he said to him, "O my Lord,¹³ how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."

16 And the LORD said to him, "Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man."

17 Then he said to him, "If now I have found favour in your sight, then show me a sign that it is you who talk with me.

18 "Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to you and bring out my offering and set it before you." And he said, "I will wait until you come back."

19 Then Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to him under the terebinth tree and presented them.

20 The Angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 Now Gideon perceived that he was the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face."

23 Then the LORD said to him, "Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die."

24 So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-Shalom.¹⁴ To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, "Take your father's young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut

It became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

²⁸ Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

²⁹ Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

³⁰ Gideon had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.

³¹ And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

³² Now Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

³³ And it was so, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again played the prostitute with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith their god.

³⁴ Thus the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

³⁵ nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Abimelech's Conspiracy

9 And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

² "Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and bone."

³ And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

⁴ So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men; and they followed him.

⁵ Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.

⁶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

⁷ Now when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out, and said to them:

"Listen to me, you men of Shechem. That God may listen to you!

⁸ "The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'

⁹ But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I cease giving my oil, with which they honour God and men, and go to sway over trees?'

¹⁰ "Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and reign over us!'

¹¹ But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to sway over trees?'

¹² "Then the trees said to the vine, 'You come and reign over us!'

¹³ But the vine said to them, 'Should I cease my new wine, which cheers both God and men, and go to sway over trees?'

¹⁴ "Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'You come and reign over us!'

¹⁵ And the bramble said to the trees, 'If in truth you anoint me as king over you, Then come and take shelter in my shade; But if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon!'

¹⁶ "Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as he deserves—

¹⁷ "for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;

and Israel said to him, "Please let us pass through your land into our place."

²⁰ 'But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

²¹ 'And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

²² 'They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

²³ 'So now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel; should you then possess it?

²⁴ 'Will you not possess whatever Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess.

²⁵ 'And now, are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them?

²⁶ 'While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

²⁷ 'Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, the Judge, render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.'

²⁸ However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah's Vow and Victory

²⁹ Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced towards the people of Ammon.

³⁰ And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands,

³¹ "then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

³² So Jephthah advanced towards the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

³³ And he defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and to Abel Keramim,²¹ with a very great slaughter. Thus the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

The Daughter of Jephthah

³⁴ When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

³⁵ And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot go back on it."

³⁶ So she said to him, "My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon."

³⁷ Then she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I."

³⁸ So he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

³⁹ And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel

⁴⁰ that the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

12 Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over towards Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!"

²¹ Literally Plain of Vineyards

you into the hand of the Philistines." Then Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves."

¹³ So they spoke to him, saying, "No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you." And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

¹⁴ When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands.

¹⁵ He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

¹⁶ Then Samson said:

"With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!"

¹⁷ And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.²⁴

¹⁸ Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, "You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

¹⁹ So God split the hollow place that is in Lehi,²⁵ and water came out, and he drank; and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore,²⁶ which is in Lehi to this day.

²⁰ And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 Then Samson went to Gaza and saw a prostitute there, and went in to her.

² When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him."

³ And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gate-posts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

⁴ Now afterwards it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

⁵ And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

⁶ So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you."

⁷ And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

⁸ So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them.

¹⁰ Then Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with."

¹¹ So he said to her, "If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

¹² Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And there were men lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

¹³ Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom"—

¹⁴ So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

7 And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again.

8 Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

9 And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing towards evening; please spend the night here. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."

10 But the man was not willing to spend that night there; so he rose and departed, and came to a place opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him.

11 They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it."

12 But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on to Gibeah."

13 So he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah."

14 And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into his house to spend the night.

16 Just then an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim; he was sojourning in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveller in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

18 So he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah towards the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and now I am going to the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house.

19 "although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your maidservant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything."

20 And the old man said, "Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; only do not spend the night in the open square."

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah's Crime

22 Now as they were enjoying themselves, suddenly certain men of the city, perverted men,³¹ surrounded the house and beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him carnally!"

23 But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, do not commit this outrage. 24 "Look, here is my virgin daughter and the man's³² concubine; let me bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!"

25 But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.

26 Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

27 When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

29 When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and dis-they took themselves enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.

²⁴ So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.

²⁵ In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it."

7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything; one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was an attestation in Israel.

8 Therefore the near kinsman said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." So he took off his sandal.

9 And Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi.

10 "Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day."

11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

12 "May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman."

Descendants of Boaz and Ruth

13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went in to her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son.

14 Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a near kinsman; and may his name be famous in Israel!

15 "And may he be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him."

16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him.

17 Also the local women gave him a name, saying, "There is a son born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 Now this is the genealogy of Perez: Perez begot Hezron;

19 Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab;

20 Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon;⁶

21 Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed;

22 Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

6 Hebrew Salmah

6 And the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." And he answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

7 (Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. Then he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you did call me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy.

9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if he calls you, that you must say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Then the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel answered, "Speak, for your servant hears."

11 Then the LORD said to Samuel: "Behold, I will do something in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.

12 "In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

13 "For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile, and he did not restrain them.

14 "And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering for ever."

15 So Samuel lay down until morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" And he answered, "Here I am."

17 And he said, "What is the thing that the LORD has said to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that he said to you."

18 Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, "It is the LORD. Let him do what seems good to him."

19 So Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel had been established as a prophet of the LORD.

21 Then the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

4 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.

2 Then the Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.

3 And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies."

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who dwells between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook.

6 Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

7 So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp!" And they said, "Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before.

8 "Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 "Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!"

10 So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his

to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 "According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.

9 "Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behaviour of the king who will reign over them."

10 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king.

11 And he said, "This will be the behaviour of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots.

12 "He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plough his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 "He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

14 "And he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.

15 "He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants.

16 "And he will take your menservants and your maidservants and your finest young men and your donkeys, and put them to his work.

17 "He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants.

18 "And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day."

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us,

20 that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD.

22 So the LORD said to Samuel, "Heed their voice, and make them a king." And Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his city."

Saul Chosen to Be King

9 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice and handsome young man. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. From his shoulders upwards he was taller than any of the people.

3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, "Please, take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys."

4 So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

5 When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us."

6 And he said to him, "Look now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go."

7 Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

8 And the servant answered Saul again and said, "Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way."

9 (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10 Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 "And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, Bedan,¹⁹ Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety.

12 "And when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king.

13 "Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have desired. And take note, the LORD has set a king over you.

14 "If you fear the LORD and serve him and obey his voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God.

15 "However, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 "Now therefore, stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes:

17 "Is today not the wheat harvest? I will call to the LORD, and he will send thunder and rain, that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for yourselves."

18 So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves."

20 Then Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

21 "And do not turn aside; for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing.

22 "For the LORD will not forsake his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 "Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way.

24 "Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you.

25 "But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king."

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

13 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,²⁰

2 Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

4 Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.

5 Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 So Saul said, "Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me." And he offered the burnt offering.

10 Now it happened, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that

²⁰ The Hebrew is difficult (compare 2 Samuel 5:4, 1 Kings 14:2, see also 2 Samuel 2:10, Acts 13:21)

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

10 Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

11 "I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night.

12 So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul went to Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal."

13 Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

14 But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

15 And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

16 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak on."

17 So Samuel said, "When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel?"

18 "Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'

19 "Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"

20 And Saul said to Samuel, "But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 "But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

22 Then Samuel said:

"Has the LORD as great delight
in burnt offerings and sacrifices.
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft,
And stubbornness is
as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected
the word of the LORD,
He also has rejected you
from being king."

24 Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

25 "Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

26 But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

27 And as Samuel turned around to go away, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.

28 So Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbour of yours, who is better than you.

29 "And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor relent. For he is not a man, that he should relent."

30 Then he said, "I have sinned; yet honour me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."

31 So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." So Agag came to him cautiously. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33 But Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

55 Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."

56 And the king said, "Inquire whose son this young man is."

57 Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Saul Resents David

18 And it was so, when he had finished speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 Saul took him that day, and would not let him go home to his father's house any more.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armour, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.

5 So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 Now it had happened as they were coming home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.

7 So the women sang as they danced, and said:

"Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands."

8 Then Saul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?"

9 So Saul eyed David from that day forward.

10 And it happened on the next day that the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall with it." But David escaped his presence twice.

12 Now Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, but had departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and the LORD was with him.

15 Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

David Marries Michal

17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

18 So David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

19 But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

20 Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 So Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall be my son-in-law today."

22 And Saul commanded his servants, "Communicate with David secretly, and say, 'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king's son-in-law.'"

hand; but there is holy bread, if the young men have at least kept themselves from women."

5 Then David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was sanctified in the vessel this day."

6 So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the shewbread which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

8 And David said to Ahimelech, "Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

9 So the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David Flees to Gath

10 Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

'Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?'"²⁵

12 Now David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 So he changed his behaviour before them, feigned madness in their hands, scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard.

14 Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?"

15 "Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

David's Four Hundred Men

22 David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

2 And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.

3 Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me."

4 So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

5 Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hareth.

Saul Murders the Priests

6 When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—

7 then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?"

8 "All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 "And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

25 Compare 1 Samuel 18:7

13 Then David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword." So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14 Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he reviled them.

15 "But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.

16 "They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 "Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a scoundrel²⁹ that one cannot speak to him."

18 Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her servants, "Go on before me; see, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down towards her, and she met them.

21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good.

22 "May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light."

23 Now when Abigail saw David, she hastened to dismount from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground.

24 So she fell at his feet and said: "On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.

25 "Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: Nabal³⁰ is his name, and folly is with him. But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

26 "Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal.

27 "And now this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.

28 "Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil is not found in you throughout your days.

29 "Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies he shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.

30 "And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel.

31 "that this will be no grief to you, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant."

32 Then David said to Abigail: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!

33 "And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 "For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hastened and come to meet me, surely by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal."

35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and respected your person."

36 Then Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, holding a feast in his house.

The Philistines Reject David

29 Then the Philistines gathered together all their armies at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines marched past by hundreds and by thousands, but David and his men marched past at the rear with Achish.

3 Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And to this day I have found no fault in him since he defected to me."

4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these men?"

5 "Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

'Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?'"

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favour you.

7 "Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

8 Then David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 But Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are as good in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

10 "Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master's servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart."

11 So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David's Conflict with the Amalekites

30 Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire,

2 and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way.

3 So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive.

6 Then David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And he answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.

11 Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.

- 23 "Saul and Jonathan were beloved
and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death
they were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 "O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet,
with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold
on your apparel.
- 25 "How the mighty have fallen
in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
- 26 I am distressed for you,
my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;
Your love to me was wonderful,
Surpassing the love of women.
- 27 "How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!"

David Anointed King of Judah

2 It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And he said, "To Hebron."

2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

3 And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."

5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.

6 "And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.

7 "Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth¹ the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Israel and Judah at War

12 Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

15 So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords,² which is in Gibeon.

17 So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

18 Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.

19 So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Are you Asahel?" And he answered, "I am."

21 And Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take built all around from the Millo and inwards.

¹⁰ So David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

¹¹ Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house.

¹⁴ Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua,⁹ Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

¹⁵ Ithar, Elishua,¹⁰ Nepheg, Japhia,

¹⁶ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

¹⁷ Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

¹⁸ The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁹ And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand."

²⁰ So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like water bursting a breach." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.¹¹

²¹ And they left their images there, and David and his men carried them away.

²² Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

²³ And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

²⁴ "So it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

²⁵ And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6 Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.

² And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name, the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim.

⁶ And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

⁷ Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God.

⁸ And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah¹² to this day.

¹² And it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David

2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

3 Then the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David really honours your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

4 Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

6 So when the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from King Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

7 Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

8 Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men of Israel and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in battle array against the people of Ammon.

11 Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

12 "Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what seems good to him."

13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

14 And when the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

15 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they gathered together.

16 Then Hadadezer²² sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River,²³ and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.

18 Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

19 And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer²⁴ saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon any more.

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

11 Now it came to pass in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2 Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.

3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

4 Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her, for she was cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

Absalom Murders Amnon

23 And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheep-shearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."

25 But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27 But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant."

29 So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

30 And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, "Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!"

31 So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

32 Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 "Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

Absalom Flees to Geshur

34 Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.

35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is."

36 So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And King David longed to go to Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.

3 "Go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoa spoke²⁹ to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, "Help, O king!"

5 Then the king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, "Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.

6 "Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.

7 "And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.' So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth."

8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!"

10 And the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David.' Who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

11 And David said to Abishai and all his servants, "See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.

12 "It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day."

13 And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust.

14 Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

The Counsel of Ahithophel

15 Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

16 And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

17 So Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

19 "Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give counsel as to what we should do."

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."

22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.

2 "I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king.

3 "Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, then all the people will be at peace."

4 And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

The Counsel of Hushai

5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he says too."

6 And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up."

7 So Hushai said to Absalom: "The counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time."

8 "For," said Hushai, "you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.

9 "Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'

10 "And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

11 "Therefore I counsel that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.

18 Then a ferry boat went across to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.

David's Mercy to Shimei

Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.

19 Then he said to the king, "Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember what wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

20 "For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

22 And David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"

23 Therefore the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

David and Mephibosheth Meet

24 Now Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his moustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in peace.

25 So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

26 And he answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,' because your servant is lame.

27 "And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

28 "For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out any more to the king?"

29 So the king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, 'You and Ziba divide the land.'"

30 Then Mephibosheth said to the king, "Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house."

David's Kindness to Barzillai

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.

33 And the king said to Barzillai, "Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem."

34 But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

35 "I am today eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?"

36 "Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?"

37 "Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you."

38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you."

39 Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

The Quarrel About the King

40 Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham³³ went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

33 Masoretic Text reads Chimhan.

- 19 They confronted me in the day
of my calamity.
But the LORD was my support.
- 20 He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me,
because he delighted in me.
- 21 "The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
- 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 23 For all his judgments were before me;
And as for his statutes,
I did not depart from them.
- 24 I was also blameless before him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
- 25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to my cleanness in his eyes.
- 26 "With the merciful you will show yourself merciful;
With a blameless man you will show yourself blameless;
- 27 With the pure you will show
yourself pure;
And with the devious you will show yourself shrewd.
- 28 You will save the humble people;
But your eyes are on the haughty,
that you may bring them down.
- 29 "For you are my lamp, O LORD;
The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.
- 30 For by you I can run against a troop;
By my God I can leap over a wall.
- 31 As for God, his way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in him.
- 32 "For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
- 33 God is my strength and power,
And he makes my way perfect.
- 34 He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.
- 35 He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms
can bend a bow of bronze.
- 36 "You have also given me
the shield of your salvation,
And your gentleness
has made me great.
- 37 You enlarged my path under me;
So my feet did not slip.
- 38 "I have pursued my enemies
and destroyed them;
Neither did I turn back again
till they were destroyed.
- 39 And I have destroyed them
and wounded them.
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
- 40 For you have armed me with strength
for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose against me.
- 41 You have also given me
the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
- 42 They looked,
but there was none to save;
Even to the LORD,
but he did not answer them.
- 43 Then I beat them
as fine as the dust of the earth;
I trod them like dirt in the streets,
And I spread them out.
- 44 "You have also delivered me
from the strivings of my people;
You have kept me
as the head of the nations.
A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
- 45 The foreigners submit to me;
As soon as they hear, they obey me.
- 46 The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened
from their hide-outs.
- 47 "The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let God be exalted.
The Rock of my salvation!
- 48 It is God who avenges me,
Who subdues the people under me,
- 49 Who delivers me from my enemies,
You also lift me
above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me
from the violent man.
- 50 Therefore I will give thanks to you,
O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to your name.
- 51 He is the tower of salvation to his king,
And shows mercy to his anointed,
To David and his descendants for evermore."

The First Book of the Kings

Adonijah Presumes to Be King

NOW King David was old, advanced in years; and they put bed-covers on him, but he could not get warm.

⁵ Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

⁶ (And his father had not rebuked him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?") He was also a very good-looking man. His mother had borne him after Absalom.)

⁸ But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

¹⁰ But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or Solomon his brother.

¹¹ So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Hag-gith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?"

¹³ "Go immediately to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?"

¹⁴ "Then, while you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

¹⁷ Then she said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.'

¹⁸ "So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it."

¹⁹ "He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.

²⁰ "And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

²³ So they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'

43 "Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know, as your heart acknowledges, all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will return your wickedness on your own head.

45 "But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever."

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

3 Now Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall all around Jerusalem.

2 Meanwhile the people sacrificed at the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

4 Now the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

6 And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to your servant David my father, because he walked before you in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you; you have continued this great kindness for him, and you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 "Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

8 "And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.

9 "Therefore give to your servant an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of yours?"

10 And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice.

12 "behold, I have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you.

13 "And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honour, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days.

14 "So if you walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

15 Then Solomon awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

Solomon's Wise Judgment

16 Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him.

17 And one woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.

18 "Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together: there was no one with us in the house, except the two of us in the house.

19 "And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him.

20 "So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 "And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morn-both cherubim were of the same size and shape.

²⁶ The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.

²⁷ Then he set the cherubim inside the inner room;¹² and they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

²⁸ Also he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

²⁹ Then he carved all the walls of the temple all around, both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.

³⁰ And the floor of the temple he overlaid with gold, both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

³¹ For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and door-posts were one-fifth of the wall.

³⁵ Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold applied evenly on the carved work.

³⁶ And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷ In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

³⁸ And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

Solomon's Other Buildings

7 But Solomon took thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.

² He also built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.

³ And it was panelled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen to a row.

⁴ There were windows with bevelled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

⁵ And all the doorways and door-posts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.

⁶ He also made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.

¹⁰ The foundation was of costly stones, large stones, some ten cubits and some eight cubits.

¹¹ And above were costly stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood.

¹² The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the inner court of the house of the LORD and the vestibule of the temple.

Hiram the Craftsman

¹³ Now King Solomon sent and brought Hiram¹⁴ from Tyre.

¹⁴ He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The Bronze Pillars for the Temple

¹⁵ And he cast two pillars of bronze,

38 "whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands towards this temple:

39 "then hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and forgive, and act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart you know (for you, only you, know the hearts of all the sons of men),

40 "that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

41 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, but has come from a far country for your name's sake

42 "(for they will hear of your great name and your strong hand and your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays towards this temple,

43 "hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you, that all peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by your name.

44 "When your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD towards the city which you have chosen and towards the temple which I have built for your name, 45 "then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 "When they sin against you (for there is no one who does not sin), and you become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 "yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to you in the land of those who took them captive, saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness';

48 "and when they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray to you towards their land which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen and the temple which I have built for your name:

49 "then hear in heaven your dwelling-

place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

50 "and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against you; and grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them

51 "(for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace).

52 "that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant and the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to you.

53 "For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be your inheritance, as you spoke by the hand of your servant Moses, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt. O Lord God."

Solomon Blesses the Congregation

54 And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 Then he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised through his servant Moses.

57 "May the LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. May he not leave us nor forsake us.

58 "that he may incline our hearts to himself, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 "And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day may require.

60 "that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

61 "Let your heart therefore be loyal to the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes and keep his commandments, as at this day."

11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

12 "Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

13 "However I will not tear away the whole kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

Adversaries of Solomon

14 Now the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom.

15 For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had killed every male in Edom

16 (because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom),

17 that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child.

18 Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, that is, the sister of Queen Tahpenes.

20 Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 Now when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?" So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

23 And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.

25 He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the trouble that Hadad caused); and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

26 Then Solomon's servant, Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

27 And this is what caused him to rebel against the king: Solomon had built the Millo and repaired the damages to the City of David his father.

28 The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, made him the officer over all the labour force of the house of Joseph.

29 Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you

32 '(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),

33 'because they have forsaken me, and worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways to do what is right in my eyes and keep my statutes and my judgments, as did his father David.

34 'However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have

²⁹ And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.

³¹ So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

³⁴ And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

Judgment on the House of Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

² And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that I would be king over this people.

⁴ And Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were glazed by reason of his age.

⁵ Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

⁶ And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news."

⁷ "Go, tell Jeroboam. Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over my people Israel.

⁸ "and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments and who followed me with all his heart, to do only what was right in my eyes;

⁹ "but you have done more evil than all who were before you, for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and moulded images to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back—

¹⁰ "therefore behold! I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, bond and free; and I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone.

¹¹ "The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field; for the LORD has spoken it!"

¹² "Arise therefore, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

¹⁴ "Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; this is the day. What? Even now!

¹⁵ "For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River,²⁵ because they have made their wooden images,²⁶ provoking the LORD to anger.

¹⁸ And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word

²⁴ Literally houses ²⁵ That is, the Euphrates ²⁶ Hebrew Asherah, Canaanite goddess

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 28 So Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshipped him.

32 Then he set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a wooden image.³¹ Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation with Abiram his first-born, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD, which he had spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.³²

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except at my word."

2 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

3 "Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

4 "And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

7 And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

Elijah and the Widow

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

9 "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink."

11 And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

12 Then she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

13 And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterwards make some for yourself and your son.

14 "For thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth.'"

15 So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days.

16 The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Revives the Widow's Son

17 Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him.

18 So she said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you

Ahab Defeats the Syrians

20 Now Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; there were thirty-two kings with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and made war against it.

2 Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad:

3 'Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine.'

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours."

5 Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, "You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children";

6 'but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put in their hands and take it.'"

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him."

8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

9 Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'" And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.

10 Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people who follow me."

11 So the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not the one who puts on his armour boast like the one who takes it off.'"

12 And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were drinking at the command post, that he said to his servants, "Get ready." And they got ready to attack the city.

13 Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab

king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

14 So Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'By the young leaders of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who will set the battle in order?" And he answered, "You."

15 Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel—seven thousand.

16 So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were getting drunk at the command post.

17 The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria!"

18 So he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19 Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.

20 And each one killed his man; so the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the cavalry.

21 Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, for in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

The Syrians Again Defeated

23 Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, then surely we will be stronger than they.

24 "So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their places;

25 "and you shall muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

25 And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

26 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

27 "and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace."'"

28 Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

32 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

35 The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.

36 Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.

38 Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while the prostitutes bathed.³⁹ according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did, the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab rested with his fathers. Then Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

41 Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for the people offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

44 Also Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the might that he showed, and how he made war, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the rest of the perverted persons,⁴⁰ who remained in the days of his father Asa, he banished from the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom, only a deputy of the king.

48 Jehoshaphat made merchant ships to go to Ophir for gold; but they never sailed, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not.

25 Then he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Moab Rebels Against Israel

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he persisted in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheepbreeder, and he regularly paid the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

5 But it happened, when Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

7 Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" And he said, "I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8 And he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he answered, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."

9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

11 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?" And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." And the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

14 And Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you.

15 "But now bring me a musician." And it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Make this valley full of ditches.'

17 "For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.'

18 "And this is but a trivial thing in the sight of the LORD; he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.

19 "Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

20 Now it happened in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered; and they stood at the border.

22 Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

23 And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

24 So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites.

25 Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good

25 Now he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

26 Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?"

27 "Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants for ever." And he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow.

The Floating Axe Head

6 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

2 "Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell." And he answered, "Go."

3 Then one said, "Please consent to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."

4 So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

5 But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, master! For it was borrowed."

6 And the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float.

7 Therefore he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Syrians Captured

8 Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."

9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there."

10 Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of

Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13 So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him." And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in Dothan."

14 Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

16 So he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18 So when the Syrians⁷ came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And he struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

20 So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!

21 Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

22 And he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

23 Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their

⁷ Literally they

6 Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.'

7 'You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 'For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both bond and free.

9 'So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

10 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the vicinity of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.' And he opened the door and fled.

11 Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his babble."

12 And they said, "A lie! Tell us now." So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel."'"

13 Then each man hastened to take his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, "Jehu is king!"

Joram of Israel Killed

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.

15 But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, "If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel."

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17 Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men." And Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18 So the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me." And the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."

19 Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

20 And the watchman reported, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!"

21 So Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" So he answered, "What peace, as long as the prostitutions of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?"

23 Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!"

24 Now Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him into the tract of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that the LORD laid this burden upon him:

26 'Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD, 'and I will repay you in this plot,' says the LORD. Now therefore, take and throw him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

27 But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth Haggan.¹⁰ So Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also in the chariot." And they did so at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

10 That is, The Garden House

2 Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD—each man's census money, each man's assessment money¹⁶—and all the money that a man purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

5 "let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."

6 Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple.

7 So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take any more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple."

8 And the priests agreed that they would neither receive any more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.

9 Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the door put there all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up and put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

12 and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple.

13 However there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any articles of gold, or articles of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it.

15 Moreover they did not require an account from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be paid to workmen, for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD. It belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

17 Now Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; so Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

Death of Joash

19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash,¹⁷ and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose and made a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of the Millo, which goes down to Silla.

21 For Jozachar¹⁸ the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer,¹⁹ his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash²⁰ the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seven-teen years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not depart from them.

Then Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

²⁴ And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

³⁰ Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

³² In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

³⁸ So Jotham rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

² Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

⁴ And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him.

³⁰ Spelled Jerushah in 2 Chronicles 27:1 ³¹ Some ancient authorities read Syrans.

which was on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

¹⁸ And when they had called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

²⁰ "You speak of having counsel and strength for war; but they are vain words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?"

²¹ "Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

²² "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?'"

²³ "Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

²⁶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew³⁹ in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

²⁷ But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own water with you?"

²⁸ Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

²⁹ "Thus says the king: 'Do not let Heze-

kiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand;

³¹ "Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

³² 'until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey; that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us.'"

³³ 'Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?"

³⁶ But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

³⁷ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Prophesies Deliverance

19 And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

² Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

³ And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

³⁹ Literally Judean

¹² "therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Behold, I am bringing such calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.

¹³ 'And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

¹⁴ 'So I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies,

¹⁵ 'because they have done evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.' "

¹⁶ Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin with which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh—all that he did, and the sin that he committed—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

¹⁸ So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

¹⁹ Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

²⁰ And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

²¹ So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshipped them.

²² He forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

²³ Then the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house.

²⁴ But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

²⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²⁶ And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

³ Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying:

⁴ "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the door-keepers have gathered from the people.

⁵ "And let them deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house—

⁶ "to carpenters and builders and masons—and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

⁷ "However there need be no accounting made with them of the money delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."

⁸ Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

⁹ So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD."

¹⁰ Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

¹⁴ Also he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valour, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

¹⁶ All the valiant men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

¹⁷ Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's⁵⁶ uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

²⁰ For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that he finally cast them out from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall and Exile of Judah

25 Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

² So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

³ By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

⁴ Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still en-

camped all around against the city. And the king went by way of the plain.⁵⁷

⁵ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

⁶ So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him.

⁷ Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, put out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.

¹² But the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vine-dressers and farmers.

¹³ The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried their bronze to Babylon.

¹⁴ They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.

¹⁵ The firepans and the basins, the things made of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

¹⁷ The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of

The Family of Jerahmeel

25 The sons of Jerahmeel, the first-born of Hezron, were Ram, the first-born, and Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 The sons of Ram, the first-born of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

30 The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim; Seled died without children.

31 The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and Sheshan's child was Ahlai.

32 The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan; Jether died without children.

33 The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha.

35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai.

36 Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot Zabad;

37 Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot Obed;

38 Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu begot Azariah;

39 Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah;

40 Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum;

41 Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

The Family of Caleb

42 The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his first-born, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tapuah, Rekem, and Shema.

44 Shema begot Raham the father of Jorjoam, and Rekem begot Shammai.

45 And the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran begot Gazez.

47 And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.

49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeon; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

50 These were the descendants of Caleb: The sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephraim, were Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim.

51 Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, and half of the families of Manuhoth.²⁷

53 The families of Kirjath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaulites.

54 The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half of the Manahethites, and the Zorites.

55 And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the Kenites who came from Hamath, the father of the house of Rechab.

The Family of David

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The first-born was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel,²⁸ by Abigail the Carmelitess;

2 the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;

3 the fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

4 These six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

5 And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea,²⁹ Shobab, Nathan, and

14 Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak.

15 Jehozadak went into captivity when the LORD carried Judah and Jerusalem into captivity by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi were Gershon,⁵⁵ Kohath, and Merari.

17 These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers:

20 Of Gershon were Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,

21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son.

22 The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son.

23 Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,

24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uziah his son, and Shaul his son.

25 The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth.

26 As for Elkanah,⁵⁶ the sons of Elkanah were Zophai⁵⁷ his son, Nahath⁵⁸ his son,

27 Eliab⁵⁹ his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son.

28 The sons of Samuel were Joel⁶⁰ the first-born, and Abijah the second.⁶¹

29 The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son,

30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

Musicians in the House of the LORD

31 Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark came to rest.

32 They were ministering with music before the dwelling-place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

33 And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel.

34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel,⁶² the son of Toah,⁶³

35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,

38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea.

40 the son of Michael, the son of Basaiah, the son of Malchijah,

41 the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

42 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei.

43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

44 And their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Maluch,

45 the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,

46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,

47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

49 But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 Now these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,

53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

Dwelling-places of the Levites

54 Now these are their dwelling-places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were assigned by lot to the

to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

² And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

³ Now in Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:

⁴ Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah.

⁵ Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the first-born and his sons.

⁶ Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety.

⁷ Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

⁹ and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;

¹¹ Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the house of God;

¹² Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

¹³ and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

¹⁴ Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

¹⁵ Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

¹⁶ Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gate-keepers

¹⁷ And the gate-keepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.

¹⁸ Until then they had been gate-keepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.

²¹ Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

²³ So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment.

²⁴ The gate-keepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south.

²⁵ And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.

²⁷ And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

²⁸ Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.

²⁹ Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour

Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!
For your God helps you."

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

19 And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by counsel, saying, "He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads."

20 When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valour, and they were captains in the army.

22 For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

23 Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for the war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD:

24 of the children of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war;

25 of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour fit for war, seven thousand one hundred;

26 of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred;

27 Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

28 Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

29 of the children of Benjamin, kinsmen of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);

30 of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous men throughout their father's house;

31 of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;

32 of the children of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command;

33 of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stout-hearted men who could keep ranks;

34 of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

35 of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

36 of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;

37 of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

38 All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

13 Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said to all the congregation of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common lands, that they may gather together to us;

3 "and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul."

4 Then all the congregation said that

35 And say, "Save us,
O God of our salvation;
Gather us together,
and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to your holy name,
To triumph in your praise."

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!¹¹⁶

And all the people said, "Amen!" and
praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

37 So he left Asaph and his brothers
there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work required;

38 and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gate-
keepers;

39 and Zadok the priest and his brethren
the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon.

40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD
on the altar of burnt offering regularly
morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which he commanded Israel;

41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun
and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endures for ever;

42 and with them Heman and Jeduthun,
to sound aloud with trumpets and cym-
bals and the musical instruments of God.
Now the sons of Jeduthun were gate-
keepers.

43 Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

God's Covenant with David

17 And it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."

2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with
you."

3 But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 "Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus

says the LORD: "You shall not build me a house to dwell in.

5 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent,
and from one tabernacle to another.

6 "Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying,
'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

7 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD
of hosts: "I took you from the sheep-fold,
from following the sheep, that you should be ruler over my people Israel.

8 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

9 "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them,
that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them any more, as previously.

10 "since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build
you a house.

11 "And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed
after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 "He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 "I will be his Father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him who
was before you.

14 "And I will establish him in my house and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for ever."'"

15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I,
O LORD God? And what is my house,
that you have brought me this far?

17 "And yet this was a small thing in your sight, O God; and you have also spoken of your servant's house for a great

116 Verses 35, 36 (compare Psalm 106:47, 48)

16 Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against your people that they should be plagued."

18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

20 Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

21 Then David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing-floor, and bowed down to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, "Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

23 And Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."

24 Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing."

25 So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.

26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

27 Then the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

David Prepares to Build the Temple

22 Then David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

2 So David commanded to gather the aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure.

4 and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 Now David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.

6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon: "My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God;

8 "but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

9 'Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be Solomon,¹³⁷ for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

10 'He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.'

²⁹ the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

³⁰ the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

³¹ the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

The Gate-keepers

26 Concerning the divisions of the gate-keepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

² And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the first-born, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eljehoenaï the seventh.

⁴ Moreover the sons of Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

⁷ The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Raphaël, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

⁸ All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

⁹ And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

¹⁰ Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the first-born, his father made him the first),

¹¹ Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

¹² Among these were the divisions of the gate-keepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD.

¹³ And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.

¹⁴ The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out for the North Gate;

¹⁵ to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.¹⁵⁸

¹⁶ To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman.

¹⁷ On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse¹⁵⁹ two by two.

¹⁸ As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

¹⁹ These were the divisions of the gate-keepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

²⁰ Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the dedicated things.

²¹ The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

²² The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

²³ Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

²⁴ Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.

²⁵ And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

²⁷ Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.

²⁸ And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

²⁹ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

³⁰ Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

For all things come from you,
 And of your own we have given you.
 15 For we are aliens and pilgrims
 before you,
 As were all our fathers;
 Our days on earth are as a shadow,
 And without hope.

16 "O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name is from your hand, and is all your own.

17 "I know also, my God, that you test
 the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen your people, who are present here to offer willingly to you.

18 "O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac,
 and Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever
 in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and fix their heart towards you.

19 "And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep your commandments and your testimonies and your statutes, to do
 all these things, and to build the temple¹⁶⁵
 for which I have made provision."

20 Then David said to all the congregation, "Now bless the LORD your God."
 So all the congregation blessed the LORD
 God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before
 the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

21 And they made sacrifices to the LORD
 and offered burnt offerings to the LORD
 on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day.
 And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel
 obeyed him.

24 All the leaders and the mighty men,
 and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

25 So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David's Reign

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned
 over all Israel.

27 And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years
 he reigned in Jerusalem.

28 So he died at a good old age, full of days and riches and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book
 of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

30 with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

165 Literally palace

14 he also made carts and the lavers on the carts;

15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it;

16 also the pots, the shovels, the forks— and all their articles Hiram his master¹¹ craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

17 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay moulds, between Succoth and Zeredah.¹²

18 And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

19 Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the shewbread;

20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary,

21 with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;

22 the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were of gold.

5 So all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in all the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

2 Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the City of David, which is Zion.

3 Therefore all the men of Israel assembled together with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month.

4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

5 Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

6 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

7 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple,¹³ to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

9 And the poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions).

12 and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets—

13 indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying:

“For he is good,

For his mercy endures for ever.”¹⁴

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud.

14 so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon said:

“The LORD said

He would dwell in the dark cloud.

2 But I have built you an exalted house,

And a place for you
to dwell in for ever.”

11 Literally father 12 Spelled Zaretan in 1 Kings 7:46

13 Literally house 14 Compare Psalm 106:1

Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel

⁸ (that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy), from these Solomon raised forced labour, as it is to this day.

⁹ But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.

¹⁰ And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

¹¹ Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

¹³ according to the daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed yearly feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

¹⁴ And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the gate-keepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded.

¹⁵ They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

¹⁷ Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath²³ on the sea-coast, in the land of Edom.

¹⁸ And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

9 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

² So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.

³ And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

⁵ Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

⁶ "However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.

⁷ "Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

⁸ "Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on his throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore he made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

¹⁰ Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum²⁴ wood and precious stones.

¹¹ And the king made walkways of the alnum²⁵ wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and

Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

16 So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah³⁵ his son reigned in his place.

Abijah Reigns in Judah

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah³⁶ the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valour.

4 Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

5 "Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David for ever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

6 "Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

7 "Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.

8 "And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

9 "Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

10 "But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

11 "And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the shewbread in order on the pure table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken him.

12 "Now look, God himself is with us as our head, and his priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!"

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

17 Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.

18 Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim³⁷ with its villages.

20 So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the annals of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed."

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

12 Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

13 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."

14 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"

15 So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

16 Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.'"

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18 Then Micaiah⁴⁰ said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' And one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

20 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?'

21 "So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.'

22 "Now therefore, look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

24 And Micaiah said, "Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son:

26 "and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.'"

27 Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

31 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God moved them to turn away from him.

32 For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

33 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

34 The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.

² Ahaziah was forty-two⁴⁵ years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri.

³ He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother counselled him to do wickedly.

⁶ Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah⁴⁷ the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁸ And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.

⁹ Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

10 Now when Athaliah the mother of

Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.

¹² And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

23 In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

² And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³ Then all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David.

⁴ "This is what you shall do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors;

⁵ "one-third shall be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶ "But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

⁷ "And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

⁴⁵ Or twenty-two (compare 2 Kings 8:26)

⁴⁶ Also spelled Joram (compare verses 5 and 7; 2 Kings 8:28; and elsewhere)

⁴⁷ Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Vulgate, and 2 Kings 8:29 read Ahaziah.

⁴⁸ See note 46 ⁴⁹ Spelled Jehashaba in 2 Kings 11:2

into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

23 Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

25 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

26 Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah,⁵⁷ who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Elath⁵⁸ and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

5 He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions⁵⁹ of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

6 Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.

7 God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

8 Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vine-dressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The total number of chief officers⁶⁰ of the mighty men of valour was two thousand six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armour, bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvellously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

16 But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 So Azariah the priest went in after

57 Called Azariah in 2 Kings 14:21ff. 58 Hebrew Eloth

59 Several Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Arabic read feared. 60 Literally chief fathers

25 Then he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for thus was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.

28 So all the congregation worshipped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshipped.

30 Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD." So the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests.

35 Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king and his leaders and all the congregation in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because a sufficient number of priests had not sanctified themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.

4 And the matter pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

6 Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the commandment of the king: "Children of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then he will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 "And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see.

8 "Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 "For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn his face from you if you return to him."

10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Main abundance; for God had given him very much property.

³⁰ This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel⁶⁷ to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

³¹ However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

Death of Hezekiah

³² Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

³³ So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honoured him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

² But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

³ For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and made wooden images; and he worshipped all the host of heaven⁶⁸ and served them.

⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶ Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practised soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

⁷ He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God,

of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

⁸ "and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers—only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

⁹ So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

¹⁰ And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.

¹¹ Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks,⁶⁹ bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.

¹³ and prayed to him; and he received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

¹⁵ He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.

¹⁶ He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁷ Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

²⁴ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD,

²⁷ and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

² Jehoahaz⁷⁷ was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

³ Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

⁴ Then the king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz⁷⁸ his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiakim

⁵ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

⁶ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim,

the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

⁹ Jehoiachin was eight⁷⁹ years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁰ At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's⁸⁰ brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

¹³ And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁴ Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

¹⁵ And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending them, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling-place.

¹⁶ But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

¹⁷ Therefore he brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; he gave them all into his hand.

¹⁸ And all the articles from the house of ⁸⁰ Literally his (compare 2 Kings 24:17).

62 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.

63 And the governor¹⁸ said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

65 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers.

66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,

67 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to erect it in its place:

69 According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.

70 So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gate-keepers, and the Nethanim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

3 And when the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak¹⁹ and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.

4 They also kept the Feast of Taberna-

cles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the number required by ordinance for each day;

5 and afterwards they offered the regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a free-will offering to the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not yet been laid.

7 They also gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Begins

8 Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak,²⁰ and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah,²¹ arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

"For he is good,
For his mercy endures for ever
towards Israel."²²

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of the fathers' houses, who were

The Passover Celebrated

19 And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the filth of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel.

22 And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria towards them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

6 this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 Some of the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel:

12 Artaxerxes,³⁴ king of kings.

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:
Perfect peace, and so forth.³⁵

13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.

14 And whereas you are being sent by the king and his seven counsellors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;

15 and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;

16 and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the free-will offering of the people and the priests, are to be freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem—

17 now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.

19 Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the ³⁴ The original language of Ezra 7:12-26 is Aramaic. ³⁵ Literally and now.

10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.

11 "Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives."

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes! As you have said, so we must do.

13 "But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.

14 "Please, let the leaders of our entire congregation stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter."

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

16 Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers' households, were set apart by the fathers' households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

18 And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak,³⁶ and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

20 Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

21 of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziyah;

22 of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Also of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Also of the singers: Eliashib; and of the gate-keepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

25 And others of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Jeziah, Malchiah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

26 of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah;

27 of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza;

28 of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai;

29 of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Maluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth;³⁷

30 of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

31 of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,

32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah;

33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei;

34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluh,³⁸

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai,³⁹

38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azareel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph;

43 of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai,⁴⁰ Joel, and Benaiah.

44 All these had taken pagan wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?”

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall.”

4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!

5 Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have provoked you to anger before the builders.

6 So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

7 Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry,

8 and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

10 Then Judah said, “The strength of the labourers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall.”

11 And our adversaries said, “They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease.”

12 So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, “From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us.”

13 Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

15 And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their counsel to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

16 So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armour; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah.

17 Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon.

18 Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

19 Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

20 “Therefore, wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

21 So we laboured in the work, and half of the men¹⁸ held the spears from day-break until the stars appeared.

22 At the same time I also said to the people, “Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day.”

23 So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

5 And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brethren.

2 For there were those who said, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain for them, that we may eat and live.”

3 There were also some who said, “We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine.”

4 There were also those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax on our lands and vineyards.

5 “Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into slavery

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

8 Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel.

² So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the congregation, of men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

³ Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

⁴ So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

⁵ And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

⁶ And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. Then all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁸ So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn nor weep." For

The Covenant That Was Sealed

28 Now the rest of the people (the priests, the Levites, the gate-keepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding).

29 they joined with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes—

30 that we would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;

31 that if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forgo the seventh year's produce and the exaction of every debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

33 for the shewbread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

34 We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God as it is written in the Law.

35 And we made ordinances to bring the first-fruits of our ground and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD:

36 to bring the first-born of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstlings of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;

37 to bring the first-fruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities.

38 And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms of the storehouse.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gate-keepers and the singers are; and we will not neglect the house of our God.

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 Now these are the heads of the province who dwell in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities—Israelites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants.)

4 Also in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services!

15 In those days I saw in Judah some people treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions.

16 Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day?"

18 "Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

19 So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

21 So I warned them, and said to them, "Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your mercy!

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

24 And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

25 So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves."

26 "Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin."

27 "Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"

28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

30 Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service,

31 and to bringing the wood offering and the first-fruits at appointed times.

Remember me, O my God, for good!

2 He went as far as the square in front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them.

5 Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews.

8 He also gave him a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people.

9 So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:

11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law: put all to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden sceptre, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days."

12 So they told Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews.

14 "For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

15 Then Esther told them to return this answer to Mordecai:

16 "Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!"

17 Then Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.

Esther's Banquet

5 Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.

2 So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favour in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you—up to half my kingdom!"

4 So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 At the banquet of wine the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half my kingdom? It shall be done!"

7 Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this:

8 "If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Haman's Plot Against Mordecai

9 So Haman went out that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman

the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far.

²¹ to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar,

²⁴ because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them;

²⁶ So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them,

²⁷ the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who should join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time,

²⁸ that these days should be remembered

and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

²⁹ Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

³⁰ And Mordecai¹³ sent letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

³¹ to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for themselves and their descendants concerning matters of their fasting and lamenting.

³² So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Mordecai's Advancement

10 And King Ahasuerus imposed tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea.

² Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

³ For Mordecai the Jew was second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Jews and well-received by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his kindred.¹⁴

11 Literally she or it 12 Literally he 13 Literally he

14 Literally seed

- 4 His sons are far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And there is no deliverer.
- 5 Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
Taking it even from the thorns,
And a snare snatches their substance.
- 6 For affliction does not come
from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring
from the ground;
- 7 Yet man is born to trouble,
As the sparks fly upward.
- 8 "But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my
cause—
- 9 Who does great things,
and unsearchable,
Marvellous things without number.
- 10 He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.
- 11 He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted
to safety.
- 12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out their plans.
- 13 He catches the wise in their own
craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning
comes quickly upon them.
- 14 They meet with darkness in the daytime,
And grope at noontime as in the night.
- 15 But he saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.
- 16 So the poor have hope,
And injustice shuts her mouth.
- 17 "Behold, happy is the man
whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the
chastening of the Almighty.
- 18 For he bruises, but he binds up;
He wounds, but his hands make whole.
- 19 He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven no evil shall touch you.
- 20 In famine he shall redeem you
from death,
And in war from the power
of the sword.
- 21 You shall be hidden from the scourge
of the tongue,
And you shall not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
- 22 You shall laugh at destruction and
famine,
And you shall not be afraid of the
beasts of the earth.

- 23 For you shall have a covenant
with the stones of the field.
And the beasts of the field
shall be at peace with you.
- 24 You shall know that your tent is in
peace:
You shall visit your habitation
and find nothing amiss.
- 25 You shall also know that your descendants shall be many,
And your offspring like the grass
of the earth.
- 26 You shall come to the grave
at a full age.
As a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.
- 27 Behold, this we have searched out;
It is true.
Hear it, and know for yourself."

Job: My Complaint Is Just

- 6 Then Job answered and said:
- 2 "Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it in the balances!
- 3 For then it would be heavier than the
sand of the sea—
Therefore my words have been rash.
- 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are
within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
The terrors of God are arrayed
against me.
- 5 Does the wild donkey bray
when it has grass.
Or does the ox low over its fodder?
- 6 Can flavourless food be eaten without
salt?
Or is there any taste in the white
of an egg?
- 7 My soul refuses to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.
- 8 "Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing
that I long for!
- 9 That it would please God to crush me,
That he would loose his hand
and cut me off!
- 10 Then I would still have comfort;
Though in anguish, I would exult.
Let him not spare,
For I have not concealed the words
of the Holy One.
- 11 "What strength do I have,
that I should hope?
And what is my end,
that I should prolong my life?

- 15 If I am wicked, woe to me;
Even if I am righteous,
I cannot lift up my head.
*I am full of disgrace;
See my misery!*
- 16 If my head¹⁰ is exalted,
You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again you show yourself awesome
against me.
- 17 You renew your witnesses against me,
And increase your indignation
towards me;
Changes and war are ever with me.
- 18 ‘Why then have you brought me
out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished
and no eye had seen me!
- 19 I would have been as though
I had not been.
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
- 20 Are not my days few?
Cease! Leave me alone,
that I may take a little comfort,
- 21 Before I go to the place from which
I shall not return,
To the land of darkness
and the shadow of death.
- 22 A land as dark as darkness itself,
As the shadow of death,
without any order.
Where even the light is like darkness.’”

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

- 2 “Should not the multitude of words
be answered?
And should a man full of talk be
vindicated?
- 3 Should your empty talk make men
hold their peace?
And when you mock,
should no one rebuke you?
- 4 For you have said,
‘My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.’
5 But oh, that God would speak,
And open his lips against you,
6 That he would show you the secrets
of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that God exacts from
you
Less than your iniquity deserves.
- 7 “Can you search out the deep things
of God?

¹⁰ Literally it

- Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?
- 8 They are higher than heaven—
what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol—
what can you know?
- 9 Their measure is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.
- 10 “If he passes by, imprisons,
and gathers to judgment.
Then who can hinder him?
- 11 For he knows deceitful men;
He sees wickedness also.
Will he not then consider it?
- 12 For an empty-headed man will be wise.
When a wild donkey’s colt is born a
man.
- 13 “If you would prepare your heart,
And stretch out your hands towards
him;
- 14 If iniquity were in your hand,
and you put it far away,
And would not let wickedness dwell
in your tents;
- 15 Then surely you could lift up your face
without spot;
Yes, you could be steadfast,
and not fear;
- 16 Because you would forget your misery,
And remember it as waters that have
passed away,
- 17 And your life would be brighter than
noonday.
Though you were dark,
you would be like the morning.
- 18 And you would be secure,
because there is hope;
Yes, you would dig about you,
and take your rest in safety.
- 19 You would also lie down,
and no one would make you afraid;
Yes, many would court your favour.
- 20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they shall not escape,
And their hope—loss of life!”

Job Answers His Critics

12 Then Job answered and said:

- 2 “No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!
- 3 But I have understanding
as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know
such things as these?

6 "Though I speak,
 my grief is not relieved;
 And though I remain silent,
 how am I eased?

7 But now he has worn me out;
 You have made desolate all my company.

8 You have shrivelled me up.
 And it is a witness against me;
 My leanness rises up against me
 And bears witness to my face.

9 He tears me in his wrath,
 and hates me;
 He gnashes at me with his teeth;
 My adversary sharpens his gaze on me.

10 They gape at me with their mouth,
 They strike me reproachfully
 on the cheek.
 They gather together against me.

11 God has delivered me to the ungodly.
 And turned me over to the hands
 of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he has shattered me:
 He also has taken me by my neck,
 and shaken me to pieces;
 He has set me up for his target,

13 His archers surround me.
 He pierces my heart²⁰
 and does not pity;
 He pours out my gall on the ground.

14 He breaks me with wound upon
 wound;
 He runs at me like a warrior.²¹

15 "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
 And laid my head²² in the dust.

16 My face is flushed from weeping,
 And on my eyelids is the shadow
 of death;

17 Although no violence is in my hands,
 And my prayer is pure.

18 "O earth, do not cover my blood,
 And let my cry have no resting place!

19 Surely even now my witness is in heaven,
 And my evidence is on high.

20 My friends scorn me;
 My eyes pour out tears to God.

21 Oh, that one might plead for a man
 with God,
 As a man pleads for his neighbour!

22 For when a few years are finished,
 I shall go the way of no return.

Job Prays for Relief

17 "My spirit is broken,
 My days are extinguished,
 The grave is ready for me.

20 Literally kidney 21 Vulgate reads giant. 22 Literally horn

2 Are not mockers with me?
 And does not my eye dwell on their
 provocation?

3 "Now put down a pledge for me
 with yourself.
 Who is he who will shake hands
 with me?

4 For you have hidden their heart
 from understanding;
 Therefore you will not exalt them.

5 He who speaks flattery to his friends,
 Even the eyes of his children will fail.

6 "But he has made me a byword
 of the people,
 And I have become one in whose face
 men spit.

7 My eye has also grown dim because
 of sorrow,
 And all my members are like shadows.

8 Upright men are astonished at this,
 And the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.

9 Yet the righteous will hold to his way,
 And he who has clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

10 "But please, come back again,
 all of you.
 For I shall not find one wise man
 among you.

11 My days are past,
 My purposes are broken off,
 Even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day;
 'The light is near,' they say,
 in the face of darkness.

13 If I wait for the grave as my house,
 If I make my bed in the darkness,

14 If I say to corruption,
 'You are my father,'
 And to the worm,
 'You are my mother and my sister,'

15 Where then is my hope?
 As for my hope, who can see it?

16 Will they go down to the gates of Sheol?
 Shall we have rest together in the dust?"

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered
 and said:

2 "How long till you put an end to words?
 Gain understanding,
 and afterwards we will speak.

3 Why are we counted as beasts,
 And regarded as stupid in your sight?

- 2 "Can a man be profitable to God,
Though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?
- 3 *Is it any pleasure to the Almighty
that you are righteous?
Or is it gain to him that you make your ways blameless?*
- 4 "Is it because of your fear of him
that he reproves you,
And enters into judgment with you?
5 *Is not your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?*
- 6 For you have taken pledges from your
brother for no reason,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.
- 7 You have not given the weary water
to drink,
And you have withheld bread from
the hungry.
- 8 But the mighty man possessed the
land.
And the honourable man dwelt in it.
- 9 You have sent widows away empty,
And the strength of the fatherless
was crushed.
- 10 Therefore snares are all around you,
And sudden fear troubles you,
11 Or darkness so that you cannot see;
And an abundance of water covers
you.
- 12 "Is not God in the height of heaven?
And see the highest stars,
how lofty they are!
- 13 And you say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the deep
darkness?'
- 14 Thick clouds cover him,
so that he cannot see,
And he walks above the circle of
heaven.'
- 15 Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,
16 Who were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away
by a flood?
- 17 They said to God, 'Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do to them?'²⁹
- 18 Yet he filled their houses
with good things;
But the counsel of the wicked is far
from me.
- 19 "The righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:
20 'Surely our adversaries³⁰ are cut down,
And the fire consumes their remnant.'

- 21 "Now acquaint yourself with him,
and be at peace:
Thereby good will come to you.
- 22 Receive, please, instruction from his
mouth,
And lay up his words in your heart.
- 23 If you return to the Almighty,
you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far
from your tents.
- 24 Then you will lay your gold
in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the
stones of the brooks.
- 25 Yes, the Almighty will be your gold³¹
And your precious silver;
- 26 For then you will have your delight
in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.
- 27 You will make your prayer to him,
He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.
- 28 You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.
- 29 When they cast you down, and you say:
'Exaltation will come!'
Then he will save the humble person.
- 30 He will even deliver one who is not
innocent:
Yes, he will be delivered by the purity
of your hands."

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

- 23 Then Job answered and said:
- 2 "Even today my complaint is bitter:
My hand is listless because of my groaning.
- 3 Oh, that I knew where I might find
him,
That I might come to his seat!
4 I would present my case before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
- 5 I would know the words which he
would answer me,
And understand what he would say
to me.
- 6 Would he contend with me in his great
power?
No! But he would take note of me.
- 7 There the upright could reason with
him,
And I would be delivered for ever
from my Judge.
- 8 "Look, I go forward, but he is not there.
And backward,
but I cannot perceive him;

²⁹ Septuagint and Syriac read us. ³⁰ Septuagint reads substance.

³¹ The ancient versions suggest defence; Hebrew reads gold as in verse 24.

3 When his lamp shone upon my head,
 And when by his light I walked through
 darkness;

4 Just as I was in the days of my prime.
 When the friendly counsel of God was
 over my tent;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
 When my children were around me;

6 When my steps were bathed with cream,³⁷
 And the rock poured out rivers
 of oil for me!

7 "When I went out to the gate
 by the city,
 When I took my seat in the open
 square,

8 The young men saw me and hid,
 And the aged arose and stood;

9 The princes refrained from talking,
 And put their hand on their mouth;

10 The voice of nobles was hushed,
 And their tongue stuck to the roof
 of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard,
 then it blessed me,
 And when the eye saw,
 then it approved me;

12 Because I delivered the poor
 who cried out,
 And the fatherless and he who had no
 helper.

13 The blessing of a perishing man
 came upon me,
 And I caused the widow's heart
 to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness,
 and it clothed me;
 My justice was like a robe
 and a turban.

15 I was eyes to the blind,
 And I was feet to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor,
 And I searched out the case
 that I did not know.

17 I broke the fangs of the wicked,
 And plucked the victim from his teeth.

18 "Then I said, 'I shall die in my nest,
 And multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root is spread out to the waters,
 And the dew lies all night on my branch.

20 My glory is fresh within me,
 And my bow is renewed in my hand.'

21 "Men listened to me and waited,
 And kept silence for my counsel.

22 After my words they did not speak
 again,
 And my speech settled on them as dew.

23 They waited for me as for the rain,
 And they opened their mouth wide
as for the spring rain.

24 If I mocked at them,
 they did not believe it,
 And the light of my countenance
 they did not cast down.

25 I chose the way for them,
 and sat as chief;
 So I dwelt as a king in the army,
 As one who comforts mourners.

30 "But now they mock at me,
men younger than I,
 Whose fathers I disdained to put with
 the dogs of my flock.

2 Indeed, what profit is the strength
 of their hands to me?
 Their vigour has perished.

3 They are gaunt from want and famine,
 Fleeing late to the wilderness,
 desolate and waste.

4 Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
 And broom tree roots for their food.

5 They were driven out from among men,
 They shouted at them as at a thief.

6 They had to live in the clefts
 of the valleys,
 In caves of the earth and the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed,
 Under the nettles they nestled.

8 They were sons of fools,
 Yes, sons of vile men;
 They were scourged from the land.

9 "And now I am their taunt-song;
 Yes, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they keep far from me;
 They do not hesitate to spit in my face.

11 Because he has loosed my bowstring
 and afflicted me,
 They have cast off restraint before me.

12 At my right hand the rabble arises;
 They push away my feet,
 And they raise against me their ways
 of destruction.

13 They break up my path,
 They promote my calamity;
 They have no helper.

14 They come as broad breakers;
 Under the ruinous storm
 they roll along.

15 Terrors are turned upon me;
 They pursue my honour as the wind,
 And my prosperity has passed like a cloud.

16 "And now my soul is poured out
 because of my plight;
 The days of affliction take hold of me.

37 Masoretic Text reads wrath; ancient versions and some Hebrew manuscripts read cream (compare 20:17).

- 32 If you have anything to say,
answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
33 If not, listen to me;
Hold your peace,
And I will teach you wisdom."

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

34 Elihu further answered and said:

- 2 "Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have
knowledge.
3 For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.
4 Let us choose justice for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves
what is good.
5 "For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
But God has taken away my justice;
6 Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable,
though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job,
Who drinks scorn like water,
8 Who goes in company
with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?
9 For he has said,
'It profits a man nothing
That he should delight in God.'
10 "Therefore listen to me,
you men of understanding:
Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit
iniquity.
11 For he repays man according to his
work,
And makes man to find a reward
according to his way.
12 Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.
13 Who gave him charge over the earth?
Or who appointed him over the whole world?
14 If he should set his heart on it,
If he should gather to himself his Spirit
and his breath,
15 All flesh would perish together,
And man would return to dust.
16 "If you have understanding, hear this:
Listen to the sound of my words:
17 Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn him who is most
just?
18 Is it fitting to say to a king,
'You are worthless,'
And to nobles, 'You are wicked'?"

- 19 Yet he is not partial to princes.
Nor does he regard the rich
more than the poor;
For they are all the work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die,
in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass away:
The mighty are taken away without a
hand.

- 21 "For his eyes are on the ways of man.
And he sees all his steps.
22 There is no darkness nor shadow
of death
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he need not further consider
a man,
That he should go before God in
judgment.
24 He breaks in pieces mighty men
without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.
25 Therefore he knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.
26 He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others.
27 Because they turned back from him,
And would not consider any of his ways.
28 So that they caused the cry
of the poor to come to him;
For he hears the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he gives quietness,
who then can make trouble?
And when he hides his face,
who then can see him.
Whether it is against a nation
or a man alone?—
30 That the hypocrite should not reign,
Lest the people be ensnared.
31 "For has anyone said to God,
'I have borne chastening:
I will offend no more;
32 Teach me what I do not see:
If I have done iniquity,
I will do no more?'
33 Should he repay it according
to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what you know.
34 "Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:
35 'Job speaks without knowledge,
His words are without wisdom.'

- 33 Do you know the ordinances
of the heavens?
Can you set their dominion
over the earth?
- 34 "Can you lift up your voice
to the clouds,
That an abundance of water
may cover you?
- 35 Can you send out lightnings,
that they may go,
And say to you, 'Here we are!'"?
- 36 Who has put wisdom in the mind?⁵²
Or who has given understanding
to the heart?
- 37 Who can number the clouds by
wisdom?
Or who can pour out the water-skins
of heaven,
- 38 When the dust hardens in clumps,
And the clods cling together?
- 39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young
lions,
40 When they crouch in their dens,
Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?
41 Who provides food for the raven,
When its young ones cry to God,
And wander about for lack of food?
- 39 "Do you know the time when the
wild mountain goats bear young?
Or can you mark when the deer
gives birth?
2 Can you number the months
that they fulfil?
Or do you know the time
when they bear young?
3 They bow down,
They bring forth their young,
They deliver their offspring.⁵³
4 Their young ones are healthy,
They grow strong with grain;
They depart and do not return to
them.
- 5 "Who set the wild donkey free?
Who loosed the bonds of the onager,
6 Whose home I have made the
wilderness,
And the barren land his dwelling?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city;
He does not heed the shouts of the
driver,
8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
And he searches after every green
thing.

- 9 "Will the wild ox be willing to serve
you?
Will he bed by your manger?
10 Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow
with ropes?
Or will he plough the valleys behind
you?
11 Will you trust him because his strength
is great?
Or will you leave your labour to him?
12 Will you trust him to bring home your
grain,
And gather it to your threshing-floor?
- 13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly,
But are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork's?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground,
And warms them in the dust;
15 She forgets that a foot may crush them,
Or that a wild beast may break them.
16 She treats her young harshly,
as though they were not hers;
Her labour is in vain, without concern.
17 Because God deprived her of wisdom,
And did not endow her with understanding.
18 When she lifts herself on high,
She scorns the horse and its rider.
- 19 "Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with thunder?⁵⁴
20 Can you frighten him like a locust?
His majestic snorting strikes terror.
21 He paws in the valley,
and rejoices in his strength;
He gallops into the clash of arms,
22 He mocks at fear,
and is not frightened;
Nor does he turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against him,
The glittering spear and javelin.
24 He devours the distance with fierceness and rage;
Nor does he stand firm,
because the trumpet has sounded.
25 At the blast of the trumpet he says,
'Aha!'
He smells the battle from afar,
The thunder of captains and shouting.
- 26 "Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,
And spread its wings towards the south?
27 Does the eagle mount up at your command,
And make its nest on high?

The Book of Psalms

BOOK ONE

Psalms 1-41

PSALM 1

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

- BLESSED is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
2 But his delight is in the law of the
LORD,
And in his law he meditates day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall prosper.
4 The ungodly are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment.
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For the LORD knows the way of the
righteous,
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM 2

The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

- WHY do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying,
3 "Let us break their bonds in pieces
And cast away their cords from us."
4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh;
The LORD shall hold them in derision.
5 Then he shall speak to them in his wrath,

And distress them in his deep displeasure:

- 6 "Yet I have set my King
On my holy hill of Zion."
7 "I will declare the decree:
The LORD has said to me,
'You are my Son,
Today I have begotten you.
8 Ask of me, and I will give you
The nations for your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for your possession.
9 You shall break them with a rod of iron;
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry,
And you perish in the way,
When his wrath is kindled but a little.
Blessed are all those who put their trust in him.

PSALM 3

The LORD Helps His Troubled People

A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.

- LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!
Many are they who rise up against me.
2 Many are they who say of me,
"There is no help for him in God."
Selah
3 But you, O LORD, are a shield for me,
My glory and the one who lifts up my head.
4 I cried to the LORD with my voice,
And he heard me from his holy hill.
Selah
5 I lay down and slept;
I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.
6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me all around.

- He blesses the greedy
and renounces the LORD.
- 4 The wicked in his proud countenance
does not seek God;
God is in none of his thoughts.
- 5 His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far above,
out of his sight;
As for all his enemies,
he sneers at them.
- 6 He has said in his heart,
"I shall not be moved;
I shall never be in adversity."
- 7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit
and oppression;
Under his tongue is trouble and
iniquity.
- 8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the
innocent;
His eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.
- 9 He lies in wait secretly,
as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.
- 10 So he crouches, he lies low,
That the helpless may fall by his strength.
- 11 He has said in his heart,
"God has forgotten;
He hides his face;
He will never see it."
- 12 Arise, O LORD!
O God, lift up your hand!
Do not forget the humble.
- 13 Why do the wicked renounce God?
He has said in his heart,
"You will not require an account."
- 14 But you have seen it,
for you observe trouble and grief,
To repay it by your hand.
The helpless commits himself to you;
You are the helper of the fatherless.
- 15 Break the arm of the wicked
and the evil man;
Seek out his wickedness until you find none.
- 16 The LORD is King for ever and ever;
The nations have perished out of his
land.
- 17 LORD, you have heard the desire of the humble;

7 Or the upright beholds his countenance 8 Hebrew sheminith

- You will prepare their heart;
You will cause your ear to hear.
- 18 To do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed,
That the man of the earth may oppress
no more.

PSALM 11

Faith in the LORD'S Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- IN the LORD I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain?"
- 2 For look! The wicked bend their bow.
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.
- 3 If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?
- 4 The LORD is in his holy temple.
The LORD'S throne is in heaven;
His eyes behold,
His eyelids test the sons of men.
- 5 The LORD tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence his soul hates.
- 6 Upon the wicked he will rain coals.
Fire and brimstone and a burning wind:
This shall be the portion of their cup.
- 7 For the LORD is righteous,
He loves righteousness;
His countenance beholds the upright.

PSALM 12

Man's Treachery and God's Constancy

To the Chief Musician. On an eight-stringed harp.
A Psalm of David.

- HELP, LORD, for the godly man ceases!
For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.
- 2 They speak idly everyone with his neighbour;
With flattering lips and a double heart
they speak.
- 3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaks proud things.
- 4 Who have said,
"With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own;
Who is lord over us?"
- 5 "For the oppression of the poor,
for the sighing of the needy,

- 36 You enlarged my path under me;
So that my feet did not slip.
- 37 I have pursued my enemies
and overtaken them;
Neither did I turn back again
till they were destroyed.
- 38 I have wounded them,
So that they were not able to rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
- 39 For you have armed me with strength
for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
- 40 You have also given me
the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated
me.
- 41 They cried out, but there was none to save them,
Even to the LORD,
but he did not answer them.
- 42 Then I beat them as fine as the dust
before the wind;
I cast them out like dirt in the streets.
- 43 You have delivered me from the
strivings of the people,
You have made me the head of the nations;
A people I have not known shall serve
me.
- 44 As soon as they hear of me
they obey me;
The foreigners submit to me.
- 45 The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.
- 46 The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.
- 47 It is God who avenges me,
And subdues the peoples under me;
- 48 He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
- 49 Therefore I will give thanks to you,
O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to your name.
- 50 Great deliverance he gives to his king,
And shows mercy to his anointed,
To David and his descendants for evermore.

PSALM 19

The Perfect Revelation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- THE heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 Day unto day utters speech,
And night unto night reveals
knowledge.
- 3 There is no speech nor language
Where their voice is not heard.
- 4 Their line has gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
- In them he has set a tabernacle for the sun,
- 5 Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.
- 6 Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect,
converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure,
making wise the simple;
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean,
enduring for ever;
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
- 11 Moreover by them your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can understand his errors?
Cleanse me from secret faults.
- 13 Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me,
Then I shall be blameless,
And I shall be innocent of great transgression.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

- 18 Look on my affliction and my pain.
And forgive all my sins.
19 Consider my enemies,
for they are many;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.
20 Oh, keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be ashamed,
for I put my trust in you.
21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve
me,
For I wait for you.
22 Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all their troubles!

PSALM 26

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption

A Psalm of David.

- VINDICATE me, O LORD,
For I have walked in my integrity.
I have also trusted in the LORD;
I shall not slip.
2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.
3 For your loving-kindness is before my eyes.
And I have walked in your truth.
4 I have not sat with idolatrous mortals.
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.
5 I have hated the congregation of evil-
doers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
6 I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about your altar, O LORD.
7 That I may proclaim with the voice of
thanksgiving,
And tell of all your wondrous works.
8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of your house,
And the place where your glory dwells.
9 Do not gather my soul together with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men.
10 In whose hands is a sinister scheme,
And whose right hand is full of bribes.
11 But as for me,
I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.
12 My foot stands in an even place;
In the congregations I will bless the
LORD.

PSALM 27

An Exuberant Declaration of Faith

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my light and my
salvation:

- Whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked came against me
To eat up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
3 Though an army should encamp
against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war should rise against me,
In this I will be confident.
4 One thing I have desired of the LORD.
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the
LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in his pavilion;
In the secret place of his tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.
6 And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me;
Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy
in his tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to
the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me,
and answer me.
8 When you said, "Seek my face,"
My heart said to you,
"Your face, LORD, I will seek."
9 Do not hide your face from me;
Do not turn your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
10 When my father and my mother
forsake me,
Then the LORD will take care of me.
11 Teach me your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path,
because of my enemies.
12 Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For false witnesses have risen
against me,
And such as breathe out violence.

- 13 The LORD looks from heaven;
He sees all the sons of men.
14 From the place of his habitation he looks
On all the inhabitants of the earth;
15 He fashions their hearts individually;
He considers all their works.
- 16 No king is saved
by the multitude of an army;
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
17 A horse is a vain hope for safety;
Neither shall it deliver any
by its great strength.
- 18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him,
On those who hope in his mercy,
19 To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.
- 20 Our soul waits for the LORD;
He is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart shall rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
22 Let your mercy, O LORD, be upon us,
Just as we hope in you.

PSALM 34

The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

- I WILL bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my
mouth.
2 My soul shall make its boast in the
LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked to him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.
6 This poor man cried out,
and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
7 The angel¹³ of the LORD encamps all around those who fear him,
And delivers them.
- 8 Oh, taste and see that the LORD is
good;
Blessed is the man who trusts in him!

13 Or Angel

- 9 Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints!
There is no want to those who fear
him.
10 The young lions lack
and suffer hunger;
But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.
- 11 Come, you children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days,
that he may see good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking guile.
14 Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are on the
righteous,
And his ears are open to their cry.
16 The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them
from the earth.
- 17 The righteous cry out,
and the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite spirit.
- 19 Many are the afflictions of the
righteous,
But the LORD delivers him out of them all.
20 He guards all his bones;
Not one of them is broken.
21 Evil shall slay the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
22 The LORD redeems the soul of his servants,
And none of those who trust in him shall be condemned.

PSALM 35

The LORD the Avenger of His People

A Psalm of David.

- PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me;
Fight against those who fight against
me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
3 Also draw out the spear,
And stop those who pursue me.

- 13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
And I am like a mute who does not open his mouth.
- 14 Thus I am like a man who does not hear,
And in whose mouth is no response.
- 15 For in you, O LORD, I hope;
You will hear, O Lord my God.
- 16 For I said, "Hear me,
lest they rejoice over me,
Lest, when my foot slips,
they magnify themselves against me."
- 17 For I am ready to fall,
And my sorrow is continually before
me.
- 18 For I will declare my iniquity;
I will be in anguish over my sin.
- 19 But my enemies are vigorous,
and they are strong;
And those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.
- 20 Those also who render evil for good.
They are my adversaries,
because I follow what is good.
- 21 Do not forsake me, O LORD;
O my God, be not far from me!
- 22 Make haste to help me,
O Lord, my salvation!

PSALM 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

- I SAID, "I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me."
- 2 I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.
- 3 My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:
- 4 "LORD, make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am."
- 5 Indeed, you have made my days as hand's breadths,
And my age is as nothing before you;
Certainly every man at his best state is but vapour. Selah
- 6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,
And does not know who will gather
them.

- 7 "And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
- 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.
- 9 I was mute, I did not open my mouth,
Because it was you who did it.
- 10 Remove your plague from me:
I am consumed by the blow of your
hand.
- 11 When with rebukes you correct man
for iniquity,
You make his beauty melt away like a moth;
Surely every man is vapour. Selah
- 12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And give ear to my cry;
Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am a stranger with you,
A sojourner, as all my fathers were."
- 13 Remove your gaze from me,
that I may regain strength.
Before I go away and am no more."

PSALM 40

Faith Persevering in Trial

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- I WAITED patiently for the LORD:
And he inclined to me,
And heard my cry.
- 2 He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
Out of the miry clay,
And set my feet upon a rock,
And established my steps.
- 3 He has put a new song in my mouth—
Praise to our God;
Many will see it and fear,
And will trust in the LORD.
- 4 Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
And does not respect the proud,
nor such as turn aside to lies.
- 5 Many, O LORD my God, are your wonderful works
Which you have done;
And your thoughts which are
towards us
Cannot be recounted to you in order;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.
- 6 Sacrifice and offering
you did not desire;
My ears you have opened;
Burnt offering and sin offering you did not require.

- 13 The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace;
Her clothing is woven with gold.
14 She shall be brought to the King
in robes of many colours;
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.
15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
They shall enter the King's palace.
- 16 Instead of your fathers shall be your sons,
Whom you shall make princes in all
the earth.
17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations;
Therefore the people shall praise you
for ever and ever.

PSALM 46

God the Refuge of His People and Conqueror of the Nations

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song for Alamoth.

- GOD is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear,
Though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
3 Though its waters roar and be troubled, Though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah
- 4 There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.
5 God is in the midst of her,
she shall not be moved;
God shall help her,
just at the break of dawn.
6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
- 7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah
- 8 Come, behold the works of the LORD,
Who has made desolations in the earth.
9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow
and cuts the spear in two;
He burns the chariot in the fire.
- 10 Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!

- 11 The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

PSALM 47

Praise to God, the Ruler of the Earth

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- OH, clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
- 2 For the LORD Most High is awesome:
He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He will subdue the peoples under us,
And the nations under our feet.
4 He will choose our inheritance for us,
The excellence of Jacob whom he loves. Selah
- 5 God has gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
7 For God is the King of all the earth:
Sing praises with understanding.
- 8 God reigns over the nations:
God sits on his holy throne.
9 The princes of the people have gathered together.
The people of the God of Abraham,
For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.
- PSALM 48
- The Glory of God in Zion
- A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.
- GREAT is the LORD,
and greatly to be praised
In the city of our God,
In his holy mountain.
- 2 Beautiful in elevation,
The joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.
- 3 God is in her palaces;
He is known as her refuge.
- 4 For behold, the kings assembled,
They passed by together.
5 They saw it, and so they marvelled:
They were troubled, they hastened
away.
6 Fear took hold of them there,
And pain, as of a woman in travail.
7 As when you break the ships of Tarshish
With an east wind.

PSALM 54

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.²¹
A Contemplation²² of David when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

- SAVE me, O God, by your name.
And vindicate me by your strength.
- 2 Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
- 3 For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after
my life;
They have not set God before them.
- Selah
- 4 Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who uphold
my life.
- 5 He will repay my enemies for their evil.
Cut them off in your truth.
- 6 I will freely sacrifice to you;
I will praise your name, O LORD,
for it is good.
- 7 For he has delivered me out of all
trouble;
And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

PSALM 55

Trust in God Concerning the Treachery of Friends

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.²³
A Contemplation²⁴ of David.

- GIVE ear to my prayer, O God,
And do not hide yourself from my supplication.
- 2 Attend to me, and hear me;
I am restless in my complaint,
and moan noisily,
- 3 Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the
wicked;
For they bring down trouble upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.
- 4 My heart is severely pained within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
- 5 Fearfulness and trembling have come
upon me,
And horror has overwhelmed me.
- 6 And I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
For then I would fly away
and be at rest.
- 7 Indeed, I would wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness. Selah

- 8 I would hasten my escape
From the windy storm and tempest."
- 9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues,
For I have seen violence and strife
in the city.
- 10 Day and night they go around it on its walls;
Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.
- 11 Destruction is in its midst;
Deceit and guile do not depart from its streets.
- 12 For it is not an enemy who reproaches
me;
Then I could bear it.
Nor is it one who hates me who has magnified himself against me;
Then I could hide from him.
- 13 But it was you, a man my equal,
My companion and my acquaintance.
- 14 We took sweet counsel together,
And walked to the house of God
in the throng.
- 15 Let death seize them;
Let them go down alive into hell.
For wickedness is in their dwellings and among them.
- 16 As for me, I will call upon God,
And the LORD shall save me.
- 17 Evening and morning and at noon
I will pray, and cry aloud,
And he shall hear my voice.
- 18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle which was
against me,
For there were many against me.
- 19 God will hear, and afflict them.
Even he who abides from of old. Selah
Because they do not change,
Therefore they do not fear God.
- 20 He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him;
He has broken his covenant.
- 21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,
But war was in his heart;
His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.
- 22 Cast your burden on the LORD,
And he shall sustain you;
He shall never permit the righteous to be moved.

21 Hebrew neginoth 22 Hebrew Maschil 23 Hebrew neginoth 24 Hebrew Maschil

- 7 In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,
And my refuge, is in God.
- 8 Trust in him at all times, you people;
Pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah
- 9 Surely men of low degree are a vapour,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed in the balances,
They are altogether lighter than vapour.
- 10 Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.
- 11 God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.
- 12 Also to you, O Lord, belongs mercy;
For you render to each one according to his work.

PSALM 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- O GOD, you are my God;
Early will I seek you;
My soul thirsts for you;
My flesh longs for you
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.
- 2 So I have looked for you in the sanctuary,
To see your power and your glory.
- 3 Because your loving-kindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise you.
- 4 Thus I will bless you while I live;
I will lift up my hands in your name.
- 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness,
And my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips.
- 6 When I remember you on my bed,
I meditate on you in the night watches
- 7 Because you have been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of your wings
I will rejoice.
- 8 My soul follows close behind you;
Your right hand upholds me.
- 9 But those who seek my life,
to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

- 10 They shall fall by the sword;
They shall be a portion for jackals.
- 11 But the king shall rejoice in God;
Everyone who swears by him shall glory;
But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM 64

Oppressed by the Wicked but Rejoicing in the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- HEAR my voice, O God, in my
meditation;
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
- 2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the
wicked,
From the insurrection of the workers
of iniquity,
- 3 Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
And bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter words.
- 4 That they may shoot in secret at the blameless;
Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.
- 5 They encourage themselves in an evil
matter;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
They say, "Who will see them?"
- 6 They devise iniquities:
"We have perfected a shrewd scheme."
Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.
- 7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly they shall be wounded.
- 8 So he will make them stumble over their own tongue;
All who see them shall flee away.
- 9 All men shall fear,
And shall declare the work of God;
For they shall wisely consider his doing.
- 10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and trust in him.
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM 65

Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song

- PRAISE is awaiting you, O God, in Zion:

- 15 Let not the floodwater overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up;
And let not the pit shut its mouth on
me.
- 16 Hear me, O LORD,
for your loving-kindness is good;
Turn to me according to the multitude of your tender mercies.
- 17 And do not hide your face from your servant,
For I am in trouble;
Hear me speedily.
- 18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;
Deliver me because of my enemies.
- 19 You know my reproach, my shame,
and my dishonour;
My adversaries are all before you.
- 20 Reproach has broken my heart,
And I am full of heaviness;
I looked for someone to take pity,
but there was none;
And for comforters, but I found none.
- 21 They also gave me gall for my food,
And for my thirst they gave me vinegar
to drink.
- 22 Let their table become a snare before
them,
And their well-being a trap.
- 23 Let their eyes be darkened,
so that they do not see;
And make their loins shake continually.
- 24 Pour out your indignation upon them,
And let your wrathful anger take hold of them.
- 25 Let their habitation be desolate;
Let no one dwell in their tents.
- 26 For they persecute him whom you have struck,
And talk of the grief of those you have wounded.
- 27 Add iniquity to their iniquity,
And let them not come into your righteousness.
- 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
And not be written with the righteous.
- 29 But I am poor and sorrowful;
Let your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
- 30 I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify him with
thanksgiving.
- 31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bull,
Which has horns and hooves.

- 32 The humble shall see this and be glad;
And you who seek God,
your hearts shall live.
- 33 For the LORD hears the poor,
And does not despise his prisoners.
- 34 Let heaven and earth praise him,
The seas and everything that moves in
them.
- 35 For God will save Zion
And build the cities of Judah,
That they may dwell there and possess it.
- 36 Also, the descendants of his servants shall inherit it.
And those who love his name shall dwell in it.

PSALM 70

Prayer for Relief from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. To bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me!
Make haste to help me, O LORD!

- 2 Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back and confused
Who desire my hurt.
- 3 Let them be turned back because of their shame,
Who say, "Aha, aha!"
- 4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
And let those who love your salvation say continually,
"Let God be magnified!"
- 5 But I am poor and needy;
Make haste to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

PSALM 71

God the Rock of Salvation

- IN you, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame.
- 2 Deliver me in your righteousness,
and cause me to escape;
Incline your ear to me, and save me.
- 3 Be my strong habitation,
To which I may resort continually;
You have given the commandment to save me,
For you are my rock and my fortress.
- 4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,

- For your wondrous works declare that your name is near.
- 2 "When I choose the proper time,
I will judge uprightly.
- 3 The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly. Selah
- 4 "I said to the boastful,
'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked,
'Do not lift up the horn.
- 5 Do not lift up your horn on high;
Do not speak with a stiff neck."
- 6 For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.
- 7 But God is the Judge:
He puts down one,
And exalts another.
- 8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and he pours it out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked of
the earth
Drain and drink down.
- 9 But I will declare for ever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- 10 "All the horns of the wicked
I will also cut off.
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted."

PSALM 76

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.³⁷
A Psalm of Asaph. A Song

- IN Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
- 2 In Salem³⁸ also is his tabernacle.
And his dwelling-place in Zion.
- 3 There he broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and the sword and the battle-axe. Selah
- 4 You are more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.
- 5 The stout-hearted were plundered;
They have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
- 6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

And who may stand in your presence
When once you are angry?
- 8 You caused judgment to be heard from

The earth feared and was still.
- 9 When God arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah
- 10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise
you;
With the remainder of wrath you shall gird yourself.
- 11 Make vows to the LORD your God,
and pay them;
Let all who are around him bring presents to him who ought to be feared.
- 12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

The Consoling Memory of God's Redemptive Works

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

- I CRIED out to God with my voice—
To God with my voice;
And he gave ear to me.
- 2 In the day of my trouble I sought the
Lord;
My hand was stretched out in the night
without ceasing;
My soul refused to be comforted.
- 3 I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah
- 4 You hold my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
- 5 I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
- 6 I call to remembrance my song in the
night;
I meditate within my heart,
And my spirit makes diligent search.
- 7 Will the Lord cast off for ever?
And will he be favourable no more?
- 8 Has his mercy ceased for ever?
Has his promise failed for evermore?
- 9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah

- 13 So we, your people and sheep of your pasture.
Will give you thanks for ever;
We will show forth your praise to all generations.

PSALM 80

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."⁴⁰ A Testimony⁴¹ of Asaph. A Psalm.

- GIVE ear, O shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who dwell between the cherubim,
shine forth!
- 2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
Stir up your strength,
And come and save us!
- 3 Restore us, O God;
Cause your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!
- 4 O LORD God of hosts,
How long will you be angry
Against the prayer of your people?
- 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in great measure.
- 6 You have made us a strife to our neighbours,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- 7 Restore us, O God of hosts;
Cause your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!
- 8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt;
You have cast out the nations,
and planted it.
- 9 You prepared room for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with its shadow,
And the mighty cedars with its boughs.
- 11 She sent out her boughs to the Sea,⁴²
And her branches to the River.⁴³
- 12 Why have you broken down her hedges,
So that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit?
- 13 The boar out of the woods uproots it,
And the wild beast of the field devours it.

- 14 Return, we beseech you.
O God of hosts;
Look down from heaven and see,
And visit this vine
- 15 And the vineyard which your right hand has planted,
And the branch that you made strong for yourself.
- 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down;
They perish at the rebuke of your countenance.
- 17 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand,
Upon the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
- 18 Then we will not turn back from you;
Revive us, and we will call upon your name.
- 19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
Cause your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

PSALM 81

An Appeal for Israel's Repentance

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.⁴⁴ A Psalm of Asaph.

- SING aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Raise a song and strike the timbrel.
The pleasant harp with the lute.
- 3 Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon,
on our solemn feast day.
- 4 For this is a statute for Israel,
And a law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 This he established in Joseph for a testimony,
When he went throughout the land of Egypt,
Where I heard a language that I did not understand.
- 6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.
- 7 You called in trouble,
and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I proved you at the waters of Meribah.
Selah
- 8 "Hear, O my people,
and I will admonish you!
O Israel, if you will listen to me!

- 14 LORD, why do you cast off my soul?
Why do you hide your face from me?
- 15 I have been afflicted and ready to die
from my youth up;
I suffer your terrors;
I am distraught.
- 16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me;

PSALM 89

Remembering the Covenant with David, and Sorrow for Lost BlessingsA Contemplation⁴⁹ of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever;
With my mouth will I make known
Your faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I have said,
"Mercy shall be built up for ever;
Your faithfulness you shall establish in the very heavens."
- 3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn to my servant David:
4 'Your seed I will establish for ever,
And build up your throne to all generations.'" Selah
- 5 And the heavens will praise your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
- 6 For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD?
- 7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be held in reverence by all those who are around him.
- 8 O LORD God of hosts,
Who is mighty like you, O LORD?
Your faithfulness also surrounds you.

- 9 You rule the raging of the sea;
When its waves rise, you still them.
- 10 You have broken Rahab in pieces,
as one who is slain;
You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
- 11 The heavens are yours,
the earth also is yours;
The world and all its fullness,
you have founded them.
- 12 The north and the south,
you have created them;
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
- 13 You have a mighty arm;
Strong is your hand,
and high is your right hand.
- 14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
Mercy and truth go before your face.
- 15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
They walk, O LORD, in the light of your countenance.
- 16 In your name they rejoice all day long.
And in your righteousness they are
exalted.
- 17 For you are the glory of their strength,
And in your favour our horn is exalted.
- 18 For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.
- 19 Then you spoke in a vision to your

And in my name his horn shall be exalted.
- 25 Also I will set his hand over the sea,
And his right hand over the rivers.
26 He shall cry to me, 'You are my Father,

PSALM 95

A Call to Worship and Obedience

- OH come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to him with psalms.
3 For the LORD is the great God,
And the great King above all gods.
4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the hills are his also.
5 The sea is his, for he made it;
And his hands formed the dry land.
6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
7 For he is our God,
And we are the people of his pasture,
And the sheep of his hand.
Today, if you will hear his voice:
8 "Do not harden your hearts,
as in the rebellion,⁵¹
And as in the day of trial⁵² in the wilderness,
9 When your fathers tested me;
They proved me,
though they saw my work.
10 For forty years I was grieved with that generation,
And said, 'It is a people who go astray
in their hearts,
And they do not know my ways.'
11 So I swore in my wrath,
'They shall not enter my rest.'"

Proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

51 Hebrew Mentah 52 Hebrew Massah

- 3 Declare his glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
4 For the LORD is great
and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
6 Honour and majesty are before him;
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
7 Give to the LORD,
O kindreds of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
8 Give to the LORD the glory due his name;
Bring an offering,
and come into his courts.
9 Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!
Tremble before him, all the earth.
10 Say among the nations,
"The LORD reigns;
The world also is firmly established.
It shall not be moved;
He shall judge the peoples righteously."
11 Let the heavens rejoice,
and let the earth be glad;
Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice before the LORD.
13 For he is coming,
for he is coming to judge the earth.
He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with his truth.

PSALM 97

A Song of Praise to the Sovereign LORD

- THE LORD reigns;
Let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of isles be glad!
2 Clouds and darkness surround him;
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
3 A fire goes before him,
And burns up his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings light the world;
The earth sees and trembles.
5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,

- 5 You who laid the foundations of the earth,
So that it should not be moved for ever,
- 6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.
- 7 At your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of your thunder they hastened away.
- 8 They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which you founded for them.
- 9 You have set a boundary that they may not pass over,
That they may not return to cover the earth.
- 10 He sends the springs into the valleys,
Which flow among the hills.
- 11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- 12 By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation;
They sing among the branches.
- 13 He waters the hills from his upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of your works.
- 14 He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man.
That he may bring forth food from the earth.
- 15 And wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengthens man's heart.
- 16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
- 17 Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.
- 18 The high hills are for the wild goats;
The cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.⁵⁵
- 19 He appointed the moon for seasons;
The sun knows its going down.
- 20 You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.
- 21 The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.

55 Or rock hyrax (compare Leviticus 11:5)

- 22 When the sun arises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.
- 23 Man goes out to his work
And to his labour until the evening.
- 24 O LORD, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your possessions—
- 25 This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.
- 26 There the ships sail about;
And there is that Leviathan
Which you have made to play there.
- 27 These all wait for you.
That you may give them their food in due season.
- 28 What you give them they gather in;
You open your hand,
they are filled with good.
- 29 You hide your face, they are troubled;
You take away their breath, they die
and return to their dust.
- 30 You send forth your Spirit,
they are created;
And you renew the face of the earth.
- 31 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever;
May the LORD rejoice in his works.
- 32 He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the hills, and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
- 34 May my meditation be sweet to him;
I will be glad in the LORD.
- 35 May sinners be consumed from the earth,
And the wicked be no more.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
Praise the LORD!

PSALM 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

- OH, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon his name;
Make known his deeds among the peoples.
- 2 Sing to him, sing psalms to him;
Talk of all his wondrous works.
- 3 Glory in his holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD.

- 16 For he has broken the gates of bronze,
And cut the bars of iron in two.
- 17 Fools, because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities,
were afflicted.
- 18 Their soul abhorred all manner of food,
And they drew near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.
- 20 He sent his word and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.
- 21 Oh, that men would give thanks to the
LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
- 22 Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of
thanksgiving,
And declare his works with rejoicing.
- 23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters,
- 24 They see the works of the LORD,
And his wonders in the deep.
- 25 For he commands and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
- 26 They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths;
Their soul melts because of trouble.
- 27 They reel to and fro,
and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.
- 28 Then they cry out to the LORD in their
trouble,
And he brings them out of their
distresses.
- 29 He calms the storm,
So that its waves are still.
- 30 Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So he guides them to their desired haven.
- 31 Oh, that men would give thanks to the
LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!
- 32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people,
And praise him in the assembly of the elders.
- 33 He turns rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
- 34 A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of those who dwell
in it.
- 35 He turns a wilderness into pools of
water,
And dry land into watersprings.
- 36 There he makes the hungry dwell,
That they may establish a city for habitation,
- 37 And sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield a fruitful harvest.
- 38 He also blesses them,
and they multiply greatly;
And he does not let their cattle decrease.
- 39 When they are diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction and sorrow,
- 40 He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;
- 41 Yet he sets the poor on high,
far from affliction,
And makes their families like a flock.
- 42 The righteous see it and rejoice,
And all iniquity stops its mouth.
- 43 Whoever is wise will observe these things,
And they will understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

PSALM 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

- O GOD, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise,
even with my glory.
- 2 Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.
- 3 I will praise you, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to you among
the nations.
- 4 For your mercy is great above the
heavens,
And your truth reaches to the clouds.
- 5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
And your glory above all the earth;
That your beloved may be delivered.
Save with your right hand,
and hear me.
- 7 God has spoken in his holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem

- 15 *May you be blessed by the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.*
- 16 The heaven, even the heavens,
are the LORD'S;
But the earth he has given to the children of men.
- 17 The dead do not praise the LORD,
Nor any who go down into silence.
- 18 But we will bless the LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.
- Praise the LORD!

PSALM 116

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death

- I LOVE the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.
- 2 Because he has inclined his ear to me,
Therefore I will call upon him as long as I live.
- 3 The pains of death encompassed me,
And the pangs of Sheol laid hold of
me;
I found trouble and sorrow.
- 4 Then I called upon the name of the
LORD:
"O LORD, I implore you, deliver my soul!"
- 5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous:
Yes, our God is merciful.
- 6 The LORD preserves the simple:
I was brought low, and he saved me.
- 7 Return to your rest, O my soul,
For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
- 8 For you have delivered my soul
from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.
- 9 I will walk before the LORD
In the land of the living.
- 10 I believed, therefore I spoke,
"I am greatly afflicted."
- 11 I said in my haste,
"All men are liars."
- 12 What shall I render to the LORD
For all his benefits towards me?
- 13 I will take up the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.
- 14 I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people.
- 15 Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of his saints.

- 16 O LORD, truly I am your servant;
I am your servant,
the son of your maidservant;
You have loosed my bonds.
- 17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of
thanksgiving,
And will call upon the name of the
LORD.
- 18 I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people.
- 19 In the courts of the LORD'S house,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 117

Let All Peoples Praise the LORD

- OH, praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud him, all you peoples!
- 2 For his merciful kindness is great
towards us,
And the truth of the LORD endures for ever.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 118

Praise to God for His Everlasting Mercy

- OH, give thanks to the LORD,
for he is good!
Because his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now say,
"His mercy endures for ever."
- 3 Let the house of Aaron now say,
"His mercy endures for ever."
- 4 Let those who fear the LORD now say,
"His mercy endures for ever."
- 5 I called on the LORD in distress;
The LORD answered me
and set me in a broad place.
- 6 The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?
- 7 The LORD is for me among those who help me;
Therefore I shall see my desire on those who hate me.
- 8 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
- 9 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.
- 10 All nations surrounded me,
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

96 I have seen the consummation of all perfection.
But your commandment is exceedingly broad.

□ MEM

97 Oh, how I love your law!
It is my meditation all the day.
98 You, through your commandments, make me wiser than my enemies;
For they are ever with me.
99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,
For your testimonies are my
meditation.
100 I understand more than the ancients.
Because I keep your precepts.
101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
That I may keep your word.
102 I have not departed from your judgments,
For you yourself have taught me.
103 How sweet are your words to my taste,
Sweeter than honey to my mouth!
104 Through your precepts I get
understanding,
Therefore I hate every false way.

∩ NUN

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet
And a light to my path.
106 I have sworn and confirmed
That I will keep your righteous
judgments.
107 I am afflicted very much;
Revive me, O LORD, according to your word.
108 Accept, I pray, the free-will offerings of my mouth, O LORD,
And teach me your judgments.
109 My life is continually in my hand,
Yet I do not forget your law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, Yet I have not strayed from your precepts.
111 Your testimonies I have taken as a heritage for ever,
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
112 I have inclined my heart to perform
your statutes
For ever, to the very end.

□ SAMEK

113 I hate the double-minded,
But I love your law.

114 You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in your word.
115 Depart from me, you evil-doers,
For I will keep the commandments of my God!
116 Uphold me according to your word,
that I may live;
And do not let me be ashamed of my hope.
117 Hold me up, and I shall be safe.
And I shall observe your statutes
continually.
118 You reject all those who stray from
your statutes,
For their deceit is falsehood.
119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross;
Therefore I love your testimonies.
120 My flesh trembles for fear of you.
And I am afraid of your judgments.

∩ AYIN

121 I have done justice and righteousness;
Do not leave me to my oppressors.
122 Be surety for your servant for good:
Do not let the proud oppress me.
123 My eyes fail from seeking your salvation
And your righteous word.
124 Deal with your servant according to your mercy.
And teach me your statutes.
125 I am your servant;
Give me understanding,
That I may know your testimonies.
126 It is time for you to act, O LORD,
For they have regarded your law as void.
127 Therefore I love your commandments
More than gold, yes, than fine gold!
128 Therefore all your precepts concerning all things
I consider to be right;
I hate every false way.

∩ PE

129 Your testimonies are wonderful:
Therefore my soul keeps them.
130 The entrance of your words gives light;
It gives understanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth and panted,
For I longed for your commandments.
132 Look upon me and be merciful to me,
As your custom is towards those who love your name.

PSALM 128

Blessings of Those Who Fear the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

BLESSED is every one who fears the LORD,
Who walks in his ways.

- 2 When you eat the labour of your hands,
You shall be happy,
and it shall be well with you.
- 3 Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your children like olive plants
All around your table.
- 4 Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.
- 5 The LORD bless you out of Zion.
And may you see the good of Jerusalem
All the days of your life.
- 6 Yes, may you see your children's children.

Peace be upon Israel!

PSALM 129

Song of Victory over Zion's Enemies

A Song of Ascents.

“MANY a time they have afflicted me from my youth,”
Let Israel now say—

- 2 “Many a time they have afflicted me
from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
- 3 The ploughers ploughed on my back:
They made their furrows long.”
- 4 The LORD is righteous;
He has cut in pieces the cords of the
wicked.
- 5 Let all those who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned back.
- 6 Let them be as the grass on the house-
tops,
Which withers before it grows up.
- 7 With which the reaper does not fill his
hand,
Nor he who binds sheaves, his arms.
- 8 Neither let those who pass by them say,
“The blessing of the LORD be upon you:
We bless you in the name of the LORD!”

PSALM 130

Waiting for the Redemption of the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

OUT of the depths I have cried to you,
O LORD;

- 2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
- 3 If you, LORD, should mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
- 4 But there is forgiveness with you,
That you may be feared.
- 5 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
And in his word I do hope.
- 6 My soul waits for the Lord
More than those who watch for the morning—
I say, more than those who watch for the morning.
- 7 O Israel, hope in the LORD:
For with the LORD there is mercy,
And with him is abundant redemption
- 8 And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

Simple Trust in the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

LORD, my heart is not haughty,
Nor my eyes lofty.
Neither do I concern myself with great matters,
Nor with things too profound for me.

- 2 Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul,
Like a weaned child with his mother;
Like a weaned child is my soul within
me.
- 3 O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and for ever.

PSALM 132

The Eternal Dwelling of God in Zion

A Song of Ascents.

LORD, remember David
And all his afflictions;

- 2 How he swore to the LORD,
And vowed to the Mighty God of Jacob:
- 3 “Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house,
Or go up to the comfort of my bed;

- 17 How precious also are your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
- 18 If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;
When I awake, I am still with you.
- 19 Oh, that you would slay the wicked, O God!
Depart from me, therefore, you bloodthirsty men.
- 20 For they speak against you wickedly;
Your enemies take your name in vain.
- 21 Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate you?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against you?
- 22 I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.
- 23 Search me, O God,
and know my heart;
Try me, and know my anxieties;
- 24 And see if there is any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 140

Prayer for Deliverance from Evil Men

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- DELIVER me, O LORD, from evil men;
Preserve me from violent men,
- 2 Who plan evil things in their hearts;
They continually gather together for war.
- 3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
The poison of asps is under their lips. Selah
- 4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
Preserve me from violent men,
Who have purposed to make my steps stumble.
- 5 The proud have hidden a snare for me,
and cords;
They have spread a net by the wayside;
They have set traps for me. Selah
- 6 I said to the LORD: "You are my God;
Hear the voice of my supplications,
O LORD.
- 7 O GOD the Lord,
the strength of my salvation,
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
- 8 Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
Do not further his wicked scheme,
Lest they be exalted. Selah

- 9 "As for the head of those who surround me,
Let the evil of their lips cover them;
Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be cast into the fire,
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
- 11 Let not a slanderer be established in the earth;
Let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him."
- 12 I know that the LORD will maintain
The cause of the afflicted,
And justice for the poor.
- 13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name;
The upright shall dwell in your presence.

PSALM 141

Prayer for Safekeeping from Wickedness

A Psalm of David.

- LORD, I cry out to you;
Make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice when I cry out to you.
- 2 Let my prayer be set before you as incense,
The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
- 3 Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
- 4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practise wicked works
With men who work iniquity;
And do not let me eat of their delicacies.
- 5 Let the righteous strike me;
It shall be a kindness,
And let him reprove me;
It shall be as excellent oil;
Let my head not refuse it.
- For still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.
- 6 Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff,
And they hear my words,
for they are sweet.
- 7 Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,
As when one ploughs and breaks up the earth.

- Praise the LORD from the heavens;
Praise him in the heights!
- 2 Praise him, all his angels;
Praise him, all his hosts!
- 3 Praise him, sun and moon;
Praise him, all you stars of light!
- 4 Praise him, you heavens of heavens,
And you waters above the heavens!
- 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For he commanded
and they were created.
- 6 He has also established them for ever
and ever;
He has made a decree which shall not pass away.
- 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
You great sea creatures and all the depths;
- 8 Fire and hail, snow and clouds;
Stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
- 9 Mountains and all hills;
Fruitful trees and all cedars;
- 10 Beasts and all cattle;
Creeping things and flying fowl;
- 11 Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
- 12 Both young men and maidens;
Old men and children.
- 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For his name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and
heaven.
- 14 And he has exalted the horn of his people,
The praise of all his saints—
Of the children of Israel,
A people near to him.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 149

Praise to God for His Salvation and Judgment

PRAISE the LORD!

Sing to the LORD a new song,
And his praise in the congregation of saints.

- 2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his name with the dance;
Let them sing praises to him with the timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his
people;
He will beautify the humble with
salvation.
- 5 Let the saints be joyful in glory;
Let them sing aloud on their beds.
- 6 Let the high praises of God be in their
mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand,
7 To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;
8 To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;
9 To execute on them the written
judgment—
This honour have all his saints.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 150

Let All Things Praise the LORD

PRAISE the LORD!

- Praise God in his sanctuary;
Praise him in his mighty firmament!
- 2 Praise him for his mighty acts;
Praise him according to his excellent greatness!
- 3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet;
Praise him with the lute and harp!
- 4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance;
Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes!
- 5 Praise him with loud cymbals;
Praise him with high sounding cymbals!
- 6 Let everything that has breath praise
the LORD.

Praise the LORD!

- And their sleep is taken away unless they make someone fall.
- 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.
- 18 But the path of the just is like the shining sun,⁵
That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.
- 19 The way of the wicked is like darkness;
They do not know what makes them stumble.
- 20 My son, give attention to my words;
Incline your ear to my sayings.
- 21 Do not let them depart from your eyes;
Keep them in the midst of your heart;
- 22 For they are life to those who find
them,
And health to all their flesh.
- 23 Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of life.
- 24 Put away from you a deceitful mouth,
And put perverse lips far from you.
- 25 Let your eyes look straight ahead,
And your eyelids look right before you.
- 26 Ponder the path of your feet,
And let all your ways be established.
- 27 Do not turn to the right or the left;
Remove your foot from evil.

The Peril of Adultery

- 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
Lend your ear to my understanding,
- 2 That you may preserve discretion,
And that your lips may keep
knowledge.
- 3 For the lips of an immoral woman
drip honey,
And her mouth is smoother than oil;
4 But in the end she is bitter as
wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
- 5 Her feet go down to death,
Her steps lay hold of hell.⁶
- 6 Lest you ponder her path of life—
Her ways are unstable;
You do not know them.
- 7 Therefore hear me now, my children,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
- 8 Remove your way far from her,
And do not go near the door of her house,
- 9 Lest you give your honour to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
- 10 Lest aliens be filled with your wealth,
And your labours go to the house of a foreigner;

⁵ Literally light ⁶ Hebrew sheol

- 11 And you mourn at last,
When your flesh and your body
are consumed,
- 12 And say:
“How I have hated instruction.
And my heart despised reproof!
- 13 I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
- 14 I was on the verge of total ruin.
In the midst of the congregation and assembly.”
- 15 Drink water from your own cistern.
And running water from your own well.
- 16 Should your fountains be dispersed
abroad,
Streams of water in the streets?
- 17 Let them be only your own,
And not for strangers with you.
- 18 Let your fountain be blessed.
And rejoice with the wife of your youth.
- 19 As a loving deer and a graceful doe,
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
And always be enraptured with her love.
- 20 For why should you, my son, be enraptured by an immoral
woman,
And be embraced in the arms of a seductress?
- 21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
And he ponders all his paths.
- 22 His own iniquities entrap the wicked
man,
And he is caught in the cords of his sin.
- 23 He shall die for lack of instruction,
And in the greatness of his folly
he shall go astray.

Dangerous Promises

- 6 My son, if you become surety
for your friend,
If you have shaken hands in pledge
for a stranger,
- 2 You are snared by the words of your own mouth;
You are taken by the words of your
mouth.
- 3 So do this, my son,
and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand
of your friend:

- 16 "Whoever is simple,
let him turn in here";
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
17 "Stolen water is sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant."
18 But he does not know that the dead are there,
That her guests are in the depths of hell.¹³

Wise Sayings of Solomon

10 The Proverbs of Solomon:

- A wise son makes a glad father,
But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.
- 2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
But righteousness delivers from death.
- 3 The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish,
But he casts away the desire of the
wicked.
- 4 He who deals with a slack hand
becomes poor,
But the hand of the diligent makes one rich.
- 5 He who gathers in summer
is a wise son,
But he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.
- 6 Blessings are on the head of the
righteous,
But violence covers the mouth
of the wicked.
- 7 The memory of the righteous is
blessed,
But the name of the wicked will rot.
- 8 The wise in heart will receive commands,
But a prattling fool will fall.
- 9 He who walks with integrity
walks securely,
But he who perverts his ways
will become known.
- 10 He who winks with the eye causes
trouble,
But a prattling fool will fall.
- 11 The mouth of the righteous is a well
of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
- 12 Hatred stirs up strife,
But love covers all sins.
- 13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,
But a rod is for the back of him who is devoid of understanding.
- 14 Wise people store up knowledge,
But the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.
- 15 The rich man's wealth
is his strong city;
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
- 16 The labour of the righteous leads to life,
The wages of the wicked to sin.
- 17 He who keeps instruction is in the way
of life,
But he who refuses reproof goes astray
- 18 Whoever hides hatred has lying lips,
And whoever spreads slander is a fool.
- 19 In the multitude of words
sin is not lacking,
But he who restrains his lips is wise.
- 20 The tongue of the righteous
is choice silver;
The heart of the wicked is worth little.
- 21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
But fools die for lack of wisdom.¹⁴
- 22 The blessing of the LORD makes one
rich,
And he adds no sorrow with it.
- 23 To do evil is like sport to a fool,
But a man of understanding has
wisdom.
- 24 The fear of the wicked
will come upon him,
And the desire of the righteous will be granted.
- 25 When the whirlwind passes by,
the wicked is no more.
But the righteous
has an everlasting foundation.
- 26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So is the sluggard to those who send him.
- 27 The fear of the LORD prolongs days,
But the years of the wicked
will be shortened.

13 Hebrew sheol 14 Literally heart

- 25 The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul,
But the stomach of the wicked shall be in want.
- 14 Every wise woman builds her house,
But the foolish pulls it down with her hands.
- 2 He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,
But he who is perverse in his ways despises him.
- 3 In the mouth of a fool is a rod of pride,
But the lips of the wise will preserve them.
- 4 Where no oxen are, the trough is clean;
But much increase comes by the strength of an ox.
- 5 A faithful witness does not lie,
But a false witness will utter lies.
- 6 A scoffer seeks wisdom and does not find it,
But knowledge is easy to him who understands.
- 7 Go from the presence of a foolish man,
When you do not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.
- 8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way,
But the folly of fools is deceit.
- 9 Fools mock at sin,
But among the upright there is favour.
- 10 The heart knows its own bitterness,
And a stranger does not share its joy.
- 11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
But the tent of the upright will flourish.
- 12 There is a way which seems right to a man,
But its end is the way of death.
- 13 Even in laughter the heart may sorrow,
And the end of mirth may be grief.
- 14 The backslider in heart will be filled with his own ways,
But a good man will be satisfied from above.¹⁹
- 15 The simple believes every word,
But the prudent man considers well his steps.
- 16 A wise man fears and departs from evil,
But a fool rages and is self-confident.
- 17 He who is quick-tempered acts foolishly,
And a man of wicked intentions is hated.
- 18 The simple inherit folly,
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The evil will bow before the good,
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 The poor man is hated even by his own neighbour,
But the rich has many friends.
- 21 He who despises his neighbour sins:
But he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.
- 22 Do they not go astray who devise evil?
But mercy and truth belong to those who devise good.
- 23 In all labour there is profit,
But idle chatter²⁰ leads only to poverty.
- 24 The crown of the wise is their riches,
But the foolishness of fools is folly.
- 25 A true witness delivers souls,
But a deceitful witness speaks lies.
- 26 In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence,
And his children will have a place of refuge.
- 27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
To avoid the snares of death.
- 28 In a multitude of people is a king's honour,
But in the lack of people is the downfall of a prince.
- 29 He who is slow to wrath has great understanding,
But he who is impulsive²¹ exalts folly.
- 30 A sound heart is life to the body,
But envy is rottenness to the bones.
- 31 He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker,
But he who honours him has mercy on the needy.

19 Literally from above himself 20 Literally talk of the lips 21 Literally short of spirit

- 19 He who loves transgression loves strife,
And he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.
- 20 He who has a deceitful heart
finds no good,
And he who has a perverse tongue falls into evil.
- 21 He who begets a scoffer does so to his sorrow,
And the father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A merry heart does good,
*like medicine,*²⁹
But a broken spirit dries the bones.
- 23 A wicked man accepts a bribe behind
the back³⁰
To pervert the ways of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is in the sight of him who has
understanding,
But the eyes of a fool are on the ends
of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.
- 26 Also, to punish the righteous is not
good,
Nor to strike princes for their uprightness.
- 27 He who has knowledge
spares his words,
And a man of understanding is of a calm spirit.
- 28 Even a fool is counted wise
when he holds his peace;
When he shuts his lips,
he is considered perceptive.
- 18 A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire;
He rages against all wise judgment.
- 2 A fool has no delight in understanding,
But in expressing his own heart.
- 3 When the wicked comes,
contempt comes also;
And with dishonour comes reproach.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
The well-spring of wisdom
is a flowing brook.
- 5 It is not good to show partiality
to the wicked,
Or to overthrow the righteous in
judgment.
- 6 A fool's lips enter into contention,
And his mouth calls for blows.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
- 8 The words of a tale-bearer are like tasty trifles,³¹
And they go down into the inmost body.
- 9 He who is slothful in his work
Is a brother to him who is a great destroyer.
- 10 The name of the LORD
is a strong tower;
The righteous run to it and are safe.
- 11 The rich man's wealth
is his strong city.
And like a high-wall in his own esteem.
- 12 Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty,
And before honour is humility.
- 13 He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.
- 14 The spirit of a man will sustain him
in sickness,
But who can bear a broken spirit?
- 15 The heart of the prudent
acquires knowledge,
And the ear of the wise
seeks knowledge.
- 16 A man's gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.
- 17 The first one to plead his cause seems right,
Until his neighbour comes and examines him.
- 18 Casting lots causes contentions to
cease,
And keeps the mighty apart.
- 19 A brother offended is harder to win
than a strong city,
And contentions are like the bars of a castle.

29 Or makes medicine even better 30 Literally from the basom 31 A Jewish tradition reads wounds.

- 21 He who follows righteousness and mercy
Finds life, righteousness and honour.
- 22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
And brings down the trusted stronghold.
- 23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue
Keeps his soul from troubles.
- 24 A proud and haughty man—
“Scoffer” is his name;
He acts with arrogant pride.
- 25 The desire of the slothful kills him,
For his hands refuse to labour.
- 26 He covets greedily all day long,
But the righteous gives
and does not spare.
- 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an
abomination;
How much more when he brings it with wicked intent!
- 28 A false witness shall perish,
But the man who hears him will speak endlessly.
- 29 A wicked man hardens his face,
But as for the upright,
he establishes⁴⁴ his way.
- 30 There is no wisdom or understanding
Or counsel against the LORD.
- 31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle,
But deliverance is of the LORD.

22 A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,
Loving favour rather than silver and gold.

- 2 The rich and the poor have this in common,
The LORD is the maker of them all.
- 3 A prudent man foresees evil
and hides himself.
But the simple pass on
and are punished.
- 4 By humility and the fear of the LORD
Are riches and honour and life.

⁴⁴ Qere and Septuagint read understands.

- 5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
He who guards his soul will be far
from them.
- 6 Train up a child
in the way he should go,
And when he is old
he will not depart from it.
- 7 The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.
- 8 He who sows iniquity will reap sorrow,
And the rod of his anger will fail.
- 9 He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed,
For he gives of his bread to the poor.
- 10 Cast out the scoffer,
and contention will leave;
Yes, strife and reproach will cease.
- 11 He who loves purity of heart
And has grace on his lips,
The king will be his friend.
- 12 The eyes of the LORD preserve
knowledge.
But he overthrows the words of the faithless.
- 13 The slothful man says,
“There is a lion outside!
I shall be slain in the streets!”
- 14 The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit;
He who is abhorred of the LORD will fall there.
- 15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child.
But the rod of correction will drive it far from him.
- 16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches,
And he who gives to the rich,
will surely come to poverty.

Sayings of the Wise

- 17 Incline your ear
and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your heart to my
knowledge:

- 18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbour
Is like a club, a sword, and a sharp arrow.
- 19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble
Is like a bad tooth and a foot out of joint.
- 20 Like one who takes away a garment in cold weather, And like vinegar on soda, Is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- 21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
- 22 For so you will heap coals of fire on his head, And the LORD will reward you.
- 23 The north wind brings forth rain, And a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.
- 24 It is better to dwell in a corner of a house-top, Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.
- 25 As cold water to a weary soul, So is good news from a far country.
- 26 A righteous man who falters before the wicked
Is like a murky spring and a polluted well.
- 27 It is not good to eat much honey; So to seek one's own glory is not glory.
- 28 Whoever has no rule over his own spirit
Is like a city broken down, without walls.
- 26 As snow in summer and rain in harvest,
So honour is not fitting for a fool.
- 2 Like a flitting sparrow, like a flying swallow,
So a curse without cause shall not alight.
- 3 A whip for the horse, A bridle for the donkey, And a rod for the fool's back.
- 4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest you also be like him.
- 5 Answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest he be wise in his own eyes.
- 6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
- 7 Like the legs of the lame that hang limp Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
- 8 Like one who binds a stone in a sling
Is he who gives honour to a fool.
- 9 Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
- 10 The great God who formed all things Gives the fool his hire and the transgressor *his wages.*⁴⁸
- 11 As a dog returns to his own vomit, So a fool repeats his folly.
- 12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 13 The slothful man says,
"There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion is in the streets!"
- 14 As a door turns on its hinges,
So does the slothful turn on his bed.
- 15 The slothful man buries his hand in the bowl;⁴⁹
It wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.
- 16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes
Than seven men who can answer sensibly.
- 17 He who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own
Is like one who takes a dog by the ears.
- 18 Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death, 19 Is the man who deceives his neighbour, And says, "I was only joking!"
- 20 Where there is no wood, the fire goes out;
And where there is no tale-bearer, strife ceases.
- 21 As charcoal is to burning coals, and wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to kindle strife.
- 22 The words of a tale-bearer are like tasty trifles,
And they go down into the inmost body.

48 The Hebrew is difficult; ancient and modern translators differ greatly. 49 Compare 19:24

- 26 Many seek the ruler's favour,
But justice for man comes from the
LORD.
- 27 An unjust man is an abomination to
the righteous,
And he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

The Wisdom of Agur

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

- 2 Surely I am more stupid than any man,
And do not have the understanding of
a man.
- 3 I neither learned wisdom
Nor have knowledge of the Holy One.
- 4 Who has ascended into heaven,
or descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name,
and what is his Son's name,
If you know?
- 5 Every word of God is pure;
He is a shield to those who put their
trust in him.
- 6 Do not add to his words,
Lest he reprove you,
and you be found a liar.
- 7 Two things I request of you (Deprive me not before I die):
- 8 Remove falsehood and lies far from
me;
Give me neither poverty nor riches—
Feed me with the food you prescribe for me;
- 9 Lest I be full and deny you,
And say, "Who is the LORD?"
Or lest I be poor and steal,
And profane the name of my God.
- 10 Do not malign a servant to his master,
Lest he curse you,
and you be found guilty.
- 11 There is a generation
that curses its father,
And does not bless its mother.

- 12 There is a generation
that is pure in its own eyes,
Yet is not washed from its filthiness.
- 13 There is a generation—
oh, how lofty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are lifted up.
- 14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
And whose fangs are like knives,
To devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.
- 15 The leech has two daughters,
Crying, "Give! Give!"

- There are three things that are never satisfied,
Four things never say, "It is enough":
- 16 The grave.⁵⁷
The barren womb,
The earth that is not satisfied with
water,
And the fire that never says,
"It is enough."
- 17 The eye that mocks his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother,
The ravens of the valley will pick it out,
And the young eagles will eat it.
- 18 There are three things which are too
wonderful for me,
Yes, four which I do not understand:
- 19 The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
And the way of a man with a virgin.
- 20 This is the way of an adulterous
woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
And says,
"I have done no wickedness."
- 21 For three things the earth is perturbed,
Yes, for four it cannot bear up:
- 22 For a servant when he reigns,
A fool when he is filled with food,
- 23 A hateful woman when she is married,
And a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.
- 24 There are four things which are little on
the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
- 25 The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;

⁵⁷ Hebrew sheol

flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me.

8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and musical instruments² of all kinds.

9 So I became great and excelled more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

10 Whatever my eyes desired
I did not keep from them.
I did not withhold my heart
from any pleasure,
For my heart rejoiced in all my labour;
And this was my reward from all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done
And on the labour in which I had toiled;
And indeed all was vanity
and grasping for the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

The End of the Wise and the Fool

12 Then I turned myself to consider wisdom and madness and folly:
For what can the man do who succeeds
the king?—
Only what he has already done.

13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly
As light excels darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head,
But the fool walks in darkness.
Yet I myself perceived
That the same event happens to them all.

15 So I said in my heart,
"As it happens to the fool,
It also happens to me,
And why was I then more wise?"
Then I said in my heart,
"This also is vanity."

16 For there is no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool for ever, Since all that now is will be forgotten
in the days to come.
And how does a wise man die?
As the fool!

17 Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was grievous to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

18 Then I hated all my labour in which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after
me.

19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labour in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

20 Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labour in which I had toiled under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his heritage to a man who has not laboured for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what has man for all his labour, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun?

23 For all his days are sorrowful, and his work grievous; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labour.
This also, I saw, was from the hand of
God.

25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment more than I?³

26 For God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in his sight;
but to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and collecting, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Everything Has Its Time

3 To everything there is a season,
A time for every purpose under
heaven:

- 2 A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck what is planted;
- 3 A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
- 4 A time to weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
- 5 A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones;

2 Exact meaning unknown 3 Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read without him.

- But the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life
 to those who have it.
- 13 Consider the work of God;
 For who can make straight what he has made crooked?
- 14 In the day of prosperity be joyful,
 But in the day of adversity consider:
 Surely God has appointed the one as well as the other,
 So that man can find nothing that will happen after him.
- 15 I have seen all things in my days of vanity:
 There is a just man who perishes
 in his righteousness,
 And there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness.
- 16 Do not be excessively righteous,
 Nor be excessively wise:
 Why should you destroy yourself?
- 17 Do not be excessively wicked,
 Nor be foolish:
 Why should you die before your time?
- 18 It is good that you grasp this,
 And also not remove your hand
 from the other;
 For he who fears God
 will escape them all.
- 19 Wisdom strengthens the wise
 More than ten rulers of the city.
- 20 For there is not a just man on earth who does good
 And does not sin.
- 21 Also do not take to heart everything
 people say,
 Lest you hear your servant cursing you.
- 22 For many times, also, your own heart has known
 That even you have cursed others.
- 23 All this I have proved by wisdom.
 I said, "I will be wise";
 But it was far from me.
- 24 As for that which is far off
 and exceedingly deep,
 Who can find it out?
- 25 I applied my heart to know,
 To search and seek out wisdom and the reason of things,
 To know the wickedness of folly,
 Even of foolishness and madness.
- 26 And I find more bitter than death

- The woman whose heart is snares
 and nets,
 Whose hands are fetters,
 He who pleases God shall escape from her,
 But the sinner shall be taken by her.
- 27 "Here is what I have found,"
 says the Preacher,
 "Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason,"
- 28 Which my soul still seeks but I cannot find:
 One man among a thousand
 I have found,
 But a woman among all these
 I have not found.
- 29 Truly, this only I have found:
 That God made man upright,
 But they have sought out many schemes."

- 8 Who is like a wise man?
 And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
 A man's wisdom makes his face shine,
 And the sternness of his face is changed.

Obey Authorities for God's Sake

- 2 I counsel you, "Keep the king's commandment for the sake of your oath to God.
- 3 "Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him."
- 4 Where the word of a king is,
there is power:
 And who may say to him,
 "What are you doing?"
- 5 He who keeps his command will experience nothing harmful:
 And a wise man's heart discerns both
 time and judgment.
- 6 Because for every matter there is a
 time and judgment,
 Though the misery of man increases greatly.
- 7 For he does not know what will happen;
 So who can tell him when it will occur?
- 8 No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit,
 And no one has power in the day of
 death.
There is no discharge in that war,
 And wickedness will not deliver those who are given to it.

The Song of Solomon

THE song of songs, which is Solomon's.

The Banquet

THE SHULAMITE¹

- 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
For your² love is better than wine.
3 Because of the fragrance of your good ointments,
Your name is ointment poured forth;
Therefore the virgins love you.
4 Lead me away!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

We will run after you.³

THE SHULAMITE

The king has brought me into his chambers.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

We will be glad and rejoice in you.⁴
We will remember your⁵ love more than wine.

THE SHULAMITE

Rightly do they love you.⁶

- 5 I am dark, but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
Like the tents of Kedar,
Like the curtains of Solomon.
6 Do not look upon me,
because I am dark,
Because the sun has tanned me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
They made me the keeper of the vineyards,
But my own vineyard I have not kept.

(TO HER BELOVED)

- 7 Tell me, O you whom I love,
Where you feed your flock,

Where you make it rest at noon.
For why should I be as one who veils herself
By the flocks of your companions?

THE BELOVED

- 8 If you do not know,
O fairest among women,
Follow in the footsteps of the flock,
And feed your little goats
Beside the shepherds' tents.
9 I have compared you, my love,
To my favourite foal among Pharaoh's chariots.
10 Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments,
Your neck with chains of gold.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

- 11 We will make you⁷ ornaments of gold
With studs of silver.

THE SHULAMITE

- 12 While the king is at his table,
My spikenard sends forth its fragrance.
13 A bundle of myrrh is my beloved
to me,
That lies all night between my breasts.
14 My beloved is to me
a cluster of henna blooms
In the vineyards of En Gedi.

THE BELOVED

- 15 Behold, you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes.

THE SHULAMITE

- 16 Behold, you are handsome, my beloved!
Yes, pleasant!
Also our bed is green.
17 The beams of our houses are cedar,
And our rafters of fir.

2 I am the rose of Sharon,
And the lily of the valleys.

- 6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
Which have come up from the washing;
Every one bears twins,
And none is barren among them.
- 7 Like a piece of pomegranate
Are your temples behind your veil.
- 8 There are sixty queens
And eighty concubines,
And virgins without number.
- 9 My dove, my perfect one,
Is the only one,
The only one of her mother,
The favourite of the one who bore her.
The daughters saw her
And called her blessed,
The queens and the concubines,
And they praised her.
- 10 Who is she who looks forth
as the morning,
Fair as the moon,
Clear as the sun,
Awesome as an army with banners?

THE SHULAMITE

- 11 I went down to the garden of nuts
To see the verdure of the valley,
To see whether the vine had budded
And the pomegranates had bloomed.
- 12 Before I was even aware,
My soul had made me
As the chariots of my noble people.¹⁰

THE BELOVED AND HIS FRIENDS

- 13 Return, return, O Shulamite; Return, return,
that we may look upon you!

THE SHULAMITE

What would you see in the Shulamite—
As it were, the dance of the double camp?¹¹

Expressions of Praise

THE BELOVED

- 7 How beautiful are your feet
in sandals,
O prince's daughter!
The curves of your thighs
are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skilful workman.
- 2 Your navel is a rounded goblet
Which lacks no blended beverage.

- Your waist is a heap of wheat
Set about with lilies.
- 3 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle.
- 4 Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes like the pools in Heshbon
By the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks towards Damascus.
- 5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
And the hair of your head
is like purple;
The king is held captive by its tresses.
- 6 How fair and how pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!
- 7 This stature of yours is like a palm tree,
And your breasts like its clusters.
- 8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches."
Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The fragrance of your breath
like apples,
- 9 And the roof of your mouth
like the best wine.

THE SHULAMITE

- The wine¹² goes down smoothly for my beloved.
Moving gently the lips of sleepers.
- 10 I am my beloved's,
And his desire is towards me.
- 11 Come, my beloved,
Let us go forth to the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.
- 12 Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see if the vine has budded,
Whether the grape blossoms are open.
And the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.
- 13 The mandrakes give off a fragrance,
And at our gates are pleasant fruits.
All manner, new and old,
Which I have laid up for you,
my beloved.
- 8 Oh, that you were like my brother,
Who nursed at my mother's breasts!
If I should find you outside,
I would kiss you; .
I would not be despised.
- 2 I would lead you and bring you
Into the house of my mother,
She who used to instruct me.

10 Hebrew Ammi Nadab 11 Hebrew mahanaim 12 Literally it

- From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of his majesty.
- 11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
The haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.
- 12 For the day of the LORD of hosts
Shall come upon everything proud and lofty,
Upon everything lifted up—
And it shall be brought low—
- 13 Upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,
And upon all the oaks of Bashan;
- 14 Upon all the high mountains,
And upon all the hills
that are lifted up;
- 15 Upon every high tower,
And upon every fortified wall;
- 16 Upon all the ships of Tarshish,
And upon all the beautiful sloops.
- 17 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
The LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
- 18 But the idols he shall utterly abolish.
- 19 They shall go into the holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the earth,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of his majesty,
When he arises to shake the earth mightily.
- 20 In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver
And his idols of gold,
Which they made,
each for himself to worship,
To the moles and bats,
- 21 To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the crags of the rugged rocks,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of his majesty,
When he arises to shake the earth mightily.
- 22 Sever yourselves from such a man,
Whose breath is in his nostrils;
For of what account is he?
- Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem
- 3 For behold, the Lord,
the LORD of hosts,
- Takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
The stock and the store,
The whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;
- 2 The mighty man and the man of war,
The judge and the prophet,
And the diviner and the elder;
- 3 The captain of fifty and the honourable man,
The counsellor and the skilful artisan,
And the expert enchanter.
- 4 "I will give children to be their princes,
And babes shall rule over them.
- 5 The people will be oppressed,
Every one by another and every one
by his neighbour;
The child will be insolent towards the elder,
And the base towards the honourable."
- 6 When a man takes hold of his brother
In the house of his father, saying,
"You have clothing;
You be our ruler,
And let these ruins be under your hand,"
- 7 In that day he will protest, saying,
"I cannot cure your ills,
For in my house is neither food
nor clothing;
Do not make me a ruler of the people."
- 8 For Jerusalem stumbled,
And Judah is fallen,
Because their tongue and their doings
Are against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of his glory.
- 9 The look on their countenance
witnesses against them,
And they declare their sin as Sodom:
They do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!
For they have brought evil upon themselves.
- 10 "Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them,
For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
- 11 Woe to the wicked!
It shall be ill with him,
For the reward of his hands shall be given him.
- 12 As for my people,
children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.

Whose stump remains when it is cut down.

So the holy seed shall be its stump.”

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

7 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told to the house of David, saying, “Syria’s forces are deployed in Ephraim.” So his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the woods are moved with the wind.

3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-Jashub² your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller’s Field,

4 “and say to him: ‘Take heed, and be quiet; do not fear or be faint-hearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and the son of Remaliah.

5 ‘Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against you, saying,

6 “Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and let us make a gap in its wall for ourselves, and set a king over them, the son of Tabeel”—

7 ‘thus says the Lord GOD:

“It shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus.
And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years
Ephraim will be broken,

So that it will not be a people.

9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son.

If you will not believe,
Surely you shall not be established.””

The Immanuel Prophecy

10 Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying,

11 “Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth or in the height above.”

12 But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!”

13 Then he said, “Hear now, O house of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also?

14 “Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call his name Immanuel.³

15 “Curds and honey he shall eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

16 “For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread will be forsaken by both her kings.

17 “The LORD will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father’s house—days that have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah.”

18 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will whistle for the fly
That is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 They will come,
and all of them will rest
In the desolate valleys and in the clefts of the rocks.
And on all thorns and in all pastures.

20 In the same day the Lord will shave with a hired razor,
With those from beyond the River,⁴
with the king of Assyria.
The head and the hair of the legs,
And will also remove the beard.

21 It shall be in that day
That a man will keep alive
a young cow and two sheep;
22 So it shall be, from the abundance of milk they give.
That he will eat curds;
For curds and honey everyone will eat
who is left in the land.

23 It shall happen in that day,
That wherever there could be a thousand vines
Worth a thousand shekels of silver,
It will be for briers and thorns.
24 With arrows and bows men will come there,
Because all the land will become briers and thorns.

² Literally A Remnant Shall Return ³ Literally God-With-Us ⁴ That is, the Euphrates

- 22 For though your people, O Israel,
be as the sand of the sea,
Yet a remnant of them will return;
The destruction decreed shall overflow with righteousness.
- 23 For the Lord GOD of hosts
Will make a determined end
In the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O my people, who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod and lift up his staff against you, in the manner of Egypt.

25 "For yet a very little while and the indignation will cease, as will my anger in their destruction."

26 And the LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge for him like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; as his rod was on the sea, so will he lift it up in the manner of Egypt.

27 It shall come to pass in that day
That his burden will be taken away from your shoulder,
And his yoke from your neck,
And the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

28 He has come to Aiath,
He has passed Migron;
At Michmash he has attended to his equipment.

29 They have gone along the ridge,
They have taken up lodging at Geba.
Ramah is afraid,
Gibeah of Saul has fled.

30 Lift up your voice,
O daughter of Gallim!
Cause it to be heard as far as Laish—
O poor Anathoth!

31 Madmenah has fled,
The inhabitants of Gebim seek refuge.

32 As yet he will remain at Nob that day;
He will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion,
The hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord,
The LORD of hosts,
Will lop off the bough with terror;
Those of high stature
will be hewn down,
And the haughty will be humbled.

34 He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,
And Lebanon will fall by the Mighty
One.

The Reign of Jesse's Offspring

1 There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots.

2 The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him,
The Spirit of wisdom
and understanding,
The Spirit of counsel and might,
The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.

3 His delight is in the fear of the LORD.
And he shall not judge by the sight of his eyes.

Nor decide by the hearing of his ears;
4 But with righteousness he shall judge
the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of
the earth;
He shall strike the earth with the rod
of his mouth,

And with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked.

5 Righteousness shall be the belt of his loins,
And faithfulness the belt of his waist.

6 "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb.

The leopard shall lie down with the young goat.
The calf and the young lion
and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.

7 The cow and the bear shall graze;
Their young ones shall lie down
together;

And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 The nursing child shall play
by the cobra's hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain.
For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD
As the waters cover the sea.

10 "And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse,
Who shall stand as a banner to the
people:
For the Gentiles shall seek him,
And his resting place shall be glorious."

- 2 He has gone up to the temple¹⁴
and Dibon,
To the high places to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo
and over Medeba;
On all their heads will be baldness,
And every beard cut off.
- 3 In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;
On the tops of their houses
And in their streets
Everyone will wail, weeping bitterly.
- 4 Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out,
Their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz;
Therefore the armed soldiers of Moab
will cry out;
His life will be burdensome to him.
- 5 "My heart will cry out for Moab;
His fugitives shall flee to Zoar,
Like a three-year-old heifer.¹⁵
For by the ascent of Luhith
They will go up with weeping;
For in the way of Horonaim
They will raise up a cry of destruction,
- 6 For the waters of Nimrim
will be desolate,
For the green grass has withered away;
The grass fails, there is nothing green.
- 7 Therefore the abundance they have gained,
And what they have laid up,
They will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.
- 8 For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab,
Its wailing to Eglaim
And its wailing to Beer Elim.
- 9 For the waters of Dimon will be full of blood;
Because I will bring more upon
Dimon,
Lions upon him who escapes from Moab,
And on the remnant of the land."

Moab Destroyed

- 16 Send the lamb to the ruler of the
land,
From Sela to the wilderness,
To the mount of the daughter of Zion.
- 2 For it shall be as a wandering bird thrown out of the nest;
So shall be the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.
- 3 "Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night
in the middle of the day;

- Hide the outcasts.
Do not betray him who escapes.
4 Let my outcasts dwell with you.
O Moab;
Be a shelter to them from the face of the spoiler.
For the extortioner is at an end,
Devastation ceases,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
- 5 In mercy the throne will be established;
And one will sit on it in truth,
in the tabernacle of David,
Judging and seeking justice and hastening righteousness."
- 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab—
He is very proud—
Of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;
But his lies shall not be so.
- 7 Therefore Moab shall wail for Moab;
Everyone shall wail.
For the foundations of Kir Hareseth
you shall mourn;
Surely they are stricken.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish,
And the vine of Sibmah;
The lords of the nations have broken down its choice plants,
Which have reached to Jazer
And wandered through the wilderness.
Her branches are stretched out,
They are gone over the sea.
- 9 Therefore I will bewail the vine
of Sibmah,
With the weeping of Jazer;
I will drench you with my tears,
O Heshbon and Elealeh;
For battle cries have fallen
Over your summer fruits and your harvest.
- 10 Gladness is taken away,
And joy from the plentiful field;
In the vineyards there will be no singing,
Nor will there be shouting;
No treaders will tread out wine
in their presses;
I have made their shouting cease.
- 11 Therefore my heart shall resound
like a harp for Moab,
And my inner being for Kir Heres.
- 12 And it shall come to pass,
When it is seen that Moab is weary
on the high place,

¹⁴ Hebrew bayith (house) ¹⁵ Or The Third English, an unknown city (compare Jeremiah 48:34)

9 And look, here comes a chariot of men with a pair of horsemen!"
And he answered and said,
"Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And all the carved images of her gods
He has broken to the ground."

10 Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor!
That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,
I have declared to you.

Proclamation Against Edom

11 The burden against Dumah.

He calls to me out of Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"

12 The watchman said,
"The morning comes, and also the night.
If you will inquire, inquire;
Return! Come back!"

Proclamation Against Arabia

13 The burden against Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
O you travelling companies of Dedanites.

14 O inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to him who is thirsty;
With their bread they met him who fled.

15 For they fled from the swords,
from the drawn sword,
From the bent bow,
and from the distress of war.

16 For thus the LORD has said to me:
"Within a year, according to the year of a hired man, all the glory of Kedar will fail; 17 "and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD
God of Israel has spoken it."

Proclamation Against Jerusalem

22 The burden against the Valley of Vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the house-tops,

2 You who are full of noise,
A tumultuous city, a joyous city?
Your slain men are not slain
with the sword,
Nor dead in battle.

3 All your rulers have fled together;
They are captured by the archers.
All who are found in you are bound
together,
Who have fled from afar.

4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me,
I will weep bitterly;
Do not labour to comfort me Because of the plundering of the daughter of my people."

5 For it is a day of trouble and treading down and perplexity
By the Lord GOD of hosts
In the Valley of Vision—
Breaking down the walls
And of crying to the mountain.

6 Elam bore the quiver
With chariots of men and horsemen,
And Kir uncovered the shield.

7 It shall come to pass that your choicest valleys
Shall be full of chariots.
And the horsemen shall set themselves
in array at the gate.

8 He removed the protection of Judah.
You looked in that day to the armour of the House of the Forest;

9 You also saw the damage to the city of David,
That it was great;
And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 You numbered the houses of Jerusalem,
And the houses you broke down
To fortify the wall.

11 You also made a reservoir between the two walls
For the water of the old pool.
But you did not look to its Maker.
Nor did you have respect for him who fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts
Called for weeping and for mourning,
For baldness and for girding with sackcloth.

13 But instead, joy and gladness,
Slaying oxen and killing sheep,
Eating meat and drinking wine:
"Let us eat and drink,
for tomorrow we die!"

14 Then it was revealed in my hearing
by the LORD of hosts,
"Surely for this iniquity there will be no
atonement for you,
Even to your death."
says the Lord GOD of hosts.

- God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
- 2 Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.
- 3 You will keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on you,
Because he trusts in you.
- 4 Trust in the LORD for ever,
For in YAH, the LORD,
*is everlasting strength.*²⁵
- 5 For he brings down those who dwell on high,
The lofty city;
He lays it low,
He lays it low to the ground,
He brings it down to the dust.
- 6 The foot shall tread it down—
The feet of the poor
And the steps of the needy.”
- 7 The way of the just is uprightness;
O Most Upright,
You weigh the path of the just.
- 8 Yes, in the way of your judgments,
O LORD, we have waited for you;
The desire of our soul is for your name
And for the remembrance of you.
- 9 With my soul I have desired you in the
night,
Yes, by my spirit within me
I will seek you early;
For when your judgments
are in the earth,
The inhabitants of the world
will learn righteousness.
- 10 Let grace be shown to the wicked,
Yet he will not learn righteousness;
In the land of uprightness
he will deal unjustly,
And will not behold the majesty
of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, when your hand is lifted up,
they will not see.
But they will see and be ashamed
For their envy of people;
Yes, the fire of your enemies shall devour them.
- 12 LORD, you will establish peace for us,
For you have also done all our works in us.
- 13 O LORD our God,
other masters besides you
Have had dominion over us;
But by you only we make mention of your name.
- 14 They are dead, they will not live;
They are deceased, they will not rise.

²⁵ Or Rock of Ages

- Therefore you have punished
and destroyed them,
And made all their memory to perish.
- 15 You have increased the nation,
O LORD,
You have increased the nation;
You are glorified;
You have expanded all the borders of the land.
- 16 LORD, in trouble they have visited you.
They poured out a prayer when your chastening was upon them.
- 17 As a woman with child
Is in pain and cries out in her pangs.
When she draws near the time
of her delivery,
So have we been in your sight,
O LORD.
- 18 We have been with child,
we have been in pain;
We have, as it were,
brought forth emptiness;
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth.
Nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.
- 19 Your dead shall live;
Together with my dead body
they shall arise.
Awake and sing,
you who dwell in dust;
For your dew is like the dew of herbs.
And the earth shall cast out the dead.

Take Refuge from the Coming Judgment

- 20 Come, my people,
enter your chambers.
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide yourself, as it were,
for a little moment.
Until the indignation is past.
- 21 For behold, the LORD comes out of his place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth
for their iniquity;
The earth will also disclose her blood.
And will no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with his severe sword, great and strong,
Will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent,
Leviathan that twisted serpent;
And he will slay the reptile that is in the sea.

The Restoration of Israel

- 2 In that day sing to her,
“A vineyard of red wine!

- And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.
- 19 The humble also shall increase their joy
in the LORD,
And the poor among men shall rejoice
In the Holy One of Israel.
- 20 For the terrible one is brought to nothing,
The scornful one is consumed,
And all who watch for iniquity
are cut off—
- 21 Who make a man an offender by a word,
And lay a snare for him who reproves
in the gate,
And turn aside the just for a thing of naught.
- 22 Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

- “Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
Nor shall his face now grow pale;
- 23 But when he sees his children,
The work of my hands, in his midst,
They will hallow my name,
And hallow the Holy One of Jacob,
And fear the God of Israel.
- 24 These also who erred in spirit will come to understanding,
And those who murmured
will learn doctrine.”

Futile Confidence in Egypt

- 30 “Woe to the rebellious children,”
says the LORD,
“Who take counsel, but not of me,
And who devise plans,
but not of my Spirit,
That they may add sin to sin;
- 2 Who walk to go down to Egypt,
And have not asked my advice,
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
- 3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh
Shall be your shame,
And trust in the shadow of Egypt
Shall be your humiliation.
- 4 For his princes were at Zoan,
And his ambassadors came to Hanes.
- 5 They were all ashamed of a people who could not benefit them,
Or be help or benefit,
But a shame and also a reproach.”

6 The burden against the beasts of the South.

29 Literally Rahab Sits Idle

- Through a land of trouble and anguish,
From which came the lioness and lion,
The viper and fiery flying serpent,
They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys,
And their treasures on the humps
of camels,
To a people who shall not benefit them;
- 7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain
and to no purpose.
Therefore I have called her
Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.²⁹

A Rebellious People

- 8 Now go, write it before them
on a tablet,
And note it on a scroll,
That it may be for time to come.
For ever and ever:
- 9 That this is a rebellious people,
Lying children,
Children who will not hear the law
of the LORD;
- 10 Who say to the seers, “Do not see.”
And to the prophets,
“Do not prophesy to us right things;
Speak to us smooth things.
prophecy deceits.
- 11 Get out of the way,
Turn aside from the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel
To cease from before us.”

12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

- “Because you despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perversity,
And rely on them,
- 13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
Like a breach ready to fall,
A bulge in a high wall,
Whose breaking comes suddenly,
in an instant.
- 14 And he shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
Which is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare.
So there shall not be found among its fragments
A shard to take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water from the cistern.”

15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy
One of Israel:

“In returning and rest
you shall be saved;

- 15 He who walks righteously
and speaks uprightly,
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
Who gestures with his hands,
refusing bribes,
Who stops his ears from hearing
of bloodshed,
And shuts his eyes from seeing evil:
16 He will dwell on high;
His place of defence will be the fortress of rocks;
Bread will be given him,
His water will be sure.

The Land of the Majestic King

- 17 Your eyes will see the King in his beauty;
They will see the land that is very far off.
18 Your heart will meditate on terror:
"Where is the scribe?
Where is he who weighs?
Where is he who counts the towers?"
19 You will not see a fierce people,
A people of obscure speech,
beyond perception,
Of a stammering tongue that you cannot understand.
20 Look upon Zion,
the city of our appointed feasts;
Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a quiet habitation,
A tabernacle that will not be taken down;
Not one of its stakes will ever be removed,
Nor will any of its cords be broken.
21 But there the majestic LORD will be for us
A place of broad rivers and streams,
In which no galley with oars will sail,
Nor majestic ships pass by 22 (For the LORD is our Judge,
The LORD is our Law-giver,
The LORD is our King;
He will save us);
23 Your tackle is loosed,
They could not strengthen their mast,
They could not spread the sail.

Then the prey of great plunder is divided;
The lame take the prey.
24 And the inhabitant will not say,
"I am sick";
The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

Judgment on the Nations

- 34 Come near, you nations, to hear;
And heed, you people!
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
The world and all things that come forth from it.
2 For the indignation of the LORD is against all nations,
And his fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the slaughter.
3 Also their slain shall be thrown out;
Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted
with their blood.
4 All the host of heaven shall be
dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll;
All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,
And as fruit falling from a fig tree.
5 "For my sword shall be bathed in
heaven;
Indeed it shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of my curse,
for judgment.
6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made overflowing with fatness,
And with the blood of lambs and goats,
With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7 The wild oxen shall come down with
them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
And their dust saturated with fatness."
8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance,
The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
9 Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.
10 It shall not be quenched night or day;
Its smoke shall ascend for ever,
From generation to generation
it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it for ever
and ever.

And as the green herb,
As the grass on the house-tops
And as grain blighted before it is grown.

- 28 "But I know your dwelling-place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against me.
29 Because your rage against me
and your tumult
Have come up to my ears,
Therefore I will put my hook
in your nose
And my bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back
By the way which you came."

30 "This shall be a sign to you:

- You shall eat this year such as grows of itself,
And the second year what springs
from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards,
and eat the fruit of them.
31 And the remnant who have escaped
of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downwards,
And bear fruit upwards.
32 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount
Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

- 'He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege-mound against it.
34 By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,'
Says the LORD.
35 'For I will defend this city, to save it
For my own sake
and for my servant David's sake.'"

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

36 Then the angel³² of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people³³ arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.

32 Or Angel 33 Literally they 34 Hebrew YAH·YAH

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home,
and remained at Nineveh.

38 Now it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat.
Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

38 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him
and said to him, "Thus says the LORD:
'Set your house in order, for you shall die
and not live.'"

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face towards the wall, and prayed to the LORD,
3 and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before you in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying,

5 "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says
the LORD, the God of David your father:
'I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; and I will add to your days fifteen years.

6 "I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.'"

7 "And this is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing which he has spoken:

8 "Behold, I will bring the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.

9 This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

10 I said,
"In the prime of my life
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years."

11 I said,
"I shall not see YAH,
The LORD³⁴ in the land of the living;
I shall observe man no more among
the inhabitants of the world.

- 17 "When the poor and needy seek water,
and there is none,
And their tongues fail for thirst,
I, the LORD, will hear them;
I, the God of Israel,
will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers in desolate heights,
And fountains in the midst of the
valleys;
I will make the wilderness a pool of
water,
And the dry land springs of water.
- 19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree,
The myrtle and the oil tree;
I will set in the desert the cypress tree and the pine
And the box tree together,
20 That they may see and know,
And consider and understand together,
That the hand of the LORD has done
this,
And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

- 21 "Present your case," says the LORD.
"Bring forth your strong reasons," says
the King of Jacob.
- 22 "Let them bring forth and show us
what will happen;
Let them show the former things,
what they were,
That we may consider them,
And know the latter end of them;
Or declare to us things to come.
- 23 Show the things that are to come hereafter.
That we may know that you are gods;
Yes, do good or do evil,
That we may be dismayed
and see it together.
- 24 Indeed you are nothing,
And your work is nothing;
He who chooses you is an abomination.
- 25 "I have raised up one from the north,
And he shall come;
From the rising of the sun he shall call on my name;
And he shall come against princes as though mortar,
As the potter treads clay.
- 26 Who has declared from the beginning,
that we may know?
And former times, that we may say,
'He is righteous'?
Surely there is no one who shows,
Surely there is no one who declares.

Surely there is no one who hears your words.

- 27 The first time I said to Zion,
'Look, there they are!'
And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.
- 28 For I looked, and there was no man;
I looked among them,
but there was no counsellor,
Who, when I asked of them,
could answer a word.
- 29 Indeed they are all worthless;
Their works are nothing;
Their moulded images are wind and confusion.

The Servant of the LORD

- 42 "Behold! My Servant whom I uphold,
My Elect One in whom my soul delights!
I have put my Spirit upon him;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
- 2 He will not cry out, nor raise his voice.
Nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.
- 3 A bruised reed he will not break,
And smoking flax he will not quench;
He will bring forth justice for truth.
- 4 He will not fail nor be discouraged,
Till he has established justice in the
earth;
And the coastlands shall wait for his law."
- 5 Thus says God the LORD,
Who created the heavens
and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth
and that which comes from it,
Who gives breath to the people on it,
And spirit to those who walk on it:
- 6 "I, the LORD, have called you in
righteousness,
And will hold your hand;
I will keep you and give you as a covenant to the people,
As a light to the Gentiles.
- 7 To open blind eyes,
To bring out prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in darkness from the prison house.
- 8 I am the LORD, that is my name;
And my glory I will not give to
another,
Nor my praise to graven images.
- 9 Behold, the former things have come to pass,
And new things I declare:

Nor say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

Israel Is Not Forgotten

- 21 "Remember these, O Jacob,
And Israel, for you are my servant;
I have formed you, you are my servant;
O Israel, you will not be forgotten
by me!
- 22 I have blotted out, like a thick cloud,
your transgressions,
And like a cloud, your sins.
Return to me, for I have redeemed
you."
- 23 Sing, O heavens,
for the LORD has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing,
you mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And glorified himself in Israel.

Judah Will Be Restored

- 24 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
And he who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD, who makes all things,
Who stretches out the heavens all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by myself;
- 25 Who frustrates the signs of the babblers,
And drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward,
And makes their knowledge
foolishness;
- 26 Who confirms the word of his servant,
And performs the counsel of his messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem,
'You shall be inhabited,'
To the cities of Judah,
'You shall be built,'
And I will raise up her waste places;
- 27 Who says to the deep, 'Be dry!
And I will dry up your rivers';
- 28 Who says of Cyrus,
'He is my shepherd,
And he shall perform all my pleasure,
Even saying to Jerusalem,
'You shall be built,'
And to the temple,
'Your foundation shall be laid.'"

Cyrus, God's Instrument

45 "Thus says the LORD to his anointed,

To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held—

- To subdue nations before him
And loose the armour of kings.
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:
2 'I will go before you
And make the crooked places straight;
I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron.
3 I will give you the treasures of
darkness
And hidden riches of secret places,
That you may know that I, the LORD,
Who call you by your name,
Am the God of Israel.
4 For Jacob my servant's sake,
And Israel my elect,
I have even called you by your name:
I have named you,
though you have not known me.
5 I am the LORD, and there is no other;
There is no God besides me.
I will gird you,
though you have not known me,
6 That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting
That there is none besides me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other;
7 I form the light and create darkness,
I make peace and create calamity;
I, the LORD, do all these things.'
- 8 "Rain down, you heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down
righteousness:
Let the earth open,
let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up
together.
I, the LORD, have created it.
- 9 "Woe to him who strives with his Maker!
Let the potsherd strive
with the potsherds of the earth.
Shall the clay say to him who forms it,
'What are you making?'
Or shall your handiwork say,
'He has no hands'?
- 10 Woe to him who says to his father,
'What are you begetting?'
Or to the woman,
'What have you brought forth?'"
- 11 Thus says the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel,
and his Maker:

- From the time that it was, I was there.
And now the Lord GOD and his Spirit
have³⁷ sent me.”
- 17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
“I am the LORD your God,
Who teaches you to profit,
Who leads you by the way you should go.
- 18 Oh, that you had heeded my commandments!
Then your peace would have been
like a river,
And your righteousness like the waves
of the sea.
- 19 Your descendants also would have been like the sand,
And the offspring of your body
like the grains of sand;
His name would not have been cut off
Nor destroyed from before me.”
- 20 Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldees!
With a voice of singing,
Declare, proclaim this,
Utter it even to the end of the earth;
Say, “The LORD has redeemed
His servant Jacob!”
- 21 And they did not thirst
When he led them through the deserts;
He caused the waters to flow from the rock for them;
He also split the rock,
and the waters gushed out.
- 22 “There is no peace,” says the LORD,
“for the wicked.”
- The Servant, the Light to the Gentiles
- 49 “Listen, O coastlands, to me,
And take heed,
you peoples from afar!
The LORD has called me
from the womb;
From the matrix of my mother
he has made mention of my name.
- 2 And he has made my mouth like a sharp sword;
In the shadow of his hand he has hidden me,
And made me a polished shaft;
In his quiver he has hidden me.”
- 3 “And he said to me,
‘You are my servant, O Israel,
In whom I will be glorified.’
- 4 Then I said, ‘I have laboured in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing
and in vain;
Yet surely my just reward is with the
LORD,
And my work with my God.’ ”
- 5 “And now the LORD says,
Who formed me from the womb
to be his Servant,
To bring Jacob back to him,
So that Israel is gathered to him³⁸ (For I shall be glorious in the eyes of
the LORD,
And my God shall be my strength),
Indeed he says,
‘It is too small a thing that you should be my Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the preserved ones
of Israel;
I will also give you as a light to the Gentiles,
That you should be my salvation to the ends of the earth.’ ”
- 7 Thus says the LORD,
The Redeemer of Israel,
their Holy One,
To him whom man despises,
To him whom the nation abhors,
To the Servant of rulers:
“Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of the LORD who is faithful,
The Holy One of Israel;
And he has chosen you.”
- 8 Thus says the LORD:
“In an acceptable time I have heard you,
And in the day of salvation
I have helped you;
I will preserve you and give you
As a covenant to the people,
To restore the earth,
To cause them to inherit
the desolate heritages;
- 9 That you may say to the prisoners,
‘Go forth,’
To those who are in darkness,
‘Show yourselves.’
- “They shall feed along the roads,
And their pastures shall be on all desolate heights.
- 10 They shall neither hunger nor thirst,
Neither heat nor sun shall strike them;

37 The Hebrew verb is singular.

38 Masoretic Text Qere, Dead Sea Scrolls, and Septuagint read is gathered to him: Masoretic Text Kethiv reads is not gathered.

- 5 Now therefore, what have I here,"
says the LORD,
"That my people are taken away
for nothing?
Those who rule over them
Make them wail," says the LORD,
"And my name is blasphemed continually every day.
- 6 Therefore my people shall know my
name;
Therefore they shall know in that day
That I am he who speaks:
'Behold, it is I.'"
- 7 How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who proclaims peace,
Who brings glad tidings of good things,
Who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,
"Your God reigns!"
- 8 Your watchmen shall lift up their voices,
With their voices they shall sing
together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the LORD brings back Zion.
- 9 Break forth into joy, sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted his
people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 10 The LORD has made bare his holy arm
In the eyes of all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see
The salvation of our God.
- 11 Depart! Depart! Go out from there,
Touch no unclean thing;
Go out from the midst of her,
Be clean,
You who bear the vessels of the LORD.
- 12 For you shall not go out with haste,
Nor go by flight;
For the LORD will go before you,
And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Sin-Bearing Servant

- 13 Behold, my Servant shall deal
prudently,
He shall be exalted and extolled
and be very high.
- 14 Just as many were appalled at you,
So his visage was marred more than any man,
And his form more than the sons of men;

- 15 So shall he sprinkle⁴⁰ many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at him;
For what had not been told them
they shall see,
And what they had not heard they shall consider.

53 Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

- 2 For he shall grow up before him
as a tender plant,
And as a root out of dry ground.
He has no form or comeliness;
And when we see him,
There is no beauty
that we should desire him.
- 3 He is despised and rejected by men,
A man of sorrows
and acquainted with grief.
And we hid, as it were,
our faces from him;
He was despised,
and we did not esteem him.
- 4 Surely he has borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows;
Yet we esteemed him stricken,
Smitten by God, and afflicted.
- 5 But he was wounded for our
transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was
upon him,
And by his stripes we are healed.
- 6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one,
to his own way;
And the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
- 7 He was oppressed and he was afflicted,
Yet he opened not his mouth;
He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So he opened not his mouth.
- 8 He was taken from prison
and from judgment,
And who will declare his generation?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
For the transgressions of my people he was stricken.
- 9 And they⁴¹ made his grave
with the wicked—
But with the rich at his death,
Because he had done no violence,
Nor was any deceit in his mouth.

40 Or stir 41 Literally he

- 13 When you cry out,
Let your collection of idols deliver you.
But the wind will carry them all away,
A breath will take them.
But he who puts his trust in me shall possess the land,
And shall inherit my holy mountain."

Healing for the Backslider

- 14 And one shall say,
"Heap it up! Heap it up!
Prepare the way,
Take the stumbling-block out of the way of my people."
- 15 For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
"I dwell in the high and holy place,
With him who has a contrite and humble spirit,
To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
- 16 For I will not contend for ever,
Nor will I always be angry;
For the spirit would fail before me,
And the souls which I have made.
- 17 For the iniquity of his covetousness
I was angry and struck him;
I hid and was angry,
And he went on backsliding
in the way of his heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways,
and will heal him;
I will also lead him,
And restore comforts to him
And to his mourners.
- 19 "I create the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace to him who is far off and to him who is near,"
Says the LORD,
"And I will heal him."
- 20 But the wicked are like the troubled
sea,
When it cannot rest,
Whose waters cast up mire and dirt.
- 21 "There is no peace,"
Says my God, "for the wicked."

Fasting That Pleases God

- 58 "Cry aloud, spare not;
Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
Tell my people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sins.
- 2 Yet they seek me daily,
And delight to know my ways,
As a nation that did righteousness,

And did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of me the ordinances of justice;
They take delight in approaching God.

3 "Why have we fasted," they say,
'and you have not seen?'
Why have we afflicted our souls,
and you take no notice?'

- "In fact, in the day of your fast
you find pleasure.
And exploit all your labourers.
- 4 Indeed you fast for strife and debate,
And to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day,
To make your voice heard on high.
- 5 Is it a fast that I have chosen,
A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,
And to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast,
And an acceptable day to the LORD?
- 6 "Is this not the fast that I have chosen:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo the heavy burdens,
To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke?
- 7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out;
When you see the naked,
that you cover him,
And not hide yourself from your own flesh?
- 8 Then your light shall break forth like
the morning,
Your healing shall spring forth
speedily,
And your righteousness shall go before
you;
The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.
- 9 Then you shall call,
and the LORD will answer;
You shall cry, and he will say,
'Here I am.'
- "If you take away the yoke
from your midst,
The pointing of the finger,
and speaking wickedness,
- 10 If you extend your soul to the hungry
And satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the
darkness,

- All who see them
shall acknowledge them,
That they are the posterity whom the LORD has blessed.”
- 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For he has clothed me
with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me
with the robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom decks himself
with ornaments,
And as a bride adorns herself
with her jewels.
- 11 For as the earth brings forth its bud,
As the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth,
So the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Assurance of Zion's Salvation

- 62 For Zion's sake I will not hold my
peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness goes forth
as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burns.
- 2 The Gentiles shall see your
righteousness,
And all kings your glory.
You shall be called by a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD will
name.
- 3 You shall also be a crown of glory
In the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem
In the hand of your God.
- 4 You shall no longer be termed Forsaken,
Nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate;
But you shall be called Hephzibah,⁴²
and your land Beulah;⁴³
For the LORD delights in you,
And your land shall be married.
- 5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over
the bride,
So shall your God rejoice over you.
- 6 I have set watchmen on your walls,
O Jerusalem,
Who shall never hold their peace
day or night.
You who make mention of the LORD,
do not keep silent,

42 Literally My Delight in Her 43 Literally Married

- 7 And give him no rest till he establishes
And till he makes Jerusalem
a praise in the earth.
- 8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand
And by the arm of his strength:
“Surely I will no longer give your grain
To be food for your enemies;
And the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine,
For which you have laboured.
- 9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD;
Those who have brought it together shall drink it in my holy courts.”
- 10 Go through,
Go through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people;
Build up,
Build up the highway!
Take out the stones,
Lift up a banner for the peoples!
- 11 Indeed the LORD has proclaimed
To the end of the world:
“Say to the daughter of Zion,
“Surely your salvation is coming;
Behold, his reward is with him,
And his work before him.”
- 12 And they shall call them
The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD;
And you shall be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

The LORD in Judgment and Salvation

- 63 Who is this who comes from
Edom,
With dyed garments from Bozrah,
This one who is glorious in his apparel,
Travelling in the greatness of his strength?—
- “I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.”
- 2 Why is your apparel red,
And your garments like one who treads
in the winepress?
- 3 “I have trodden the winepress alone,
And from the peoples no one was with
me.
For I have trodden them in my anger,
And trampled them in my fury;
Their blood is sprinkled upon my garments,
And I have stained all my robes.

The LORD Vindicates Zion

5 Hear the word of the LORD,
You who tremble at his word:
"Your brethren who hated you,
Who cast you out for my name's sake,
said,
'Let the LORD be glorified,
That we may see your joy.'
But they shall be ashamed."

6 The sound of noise from the city!
A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD,
Who fully repays his enemies!

7 "Before she travailed, she gave birth;
Before her pain came,
She delivered a male child.

8 Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?

Or shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion travailed,
She gave birth to her children.

9 Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD.
"Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.

10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem,
And be glad with her,
all you who love her;
Rejoice for joy with her,
all you who mourn for her;

11 That you may feed and be satisfied
With the consolation of her bosom,
That you may drink deeply and be delighted
With the abundance of her glory."

12 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will extend peace to her
like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles
like a flowing stream.
Then you shall feed;
On her sides shall you be carried,
And be dandled on her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforts,
So I will comfort you;
And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

The Reign and Indignation of God

14 When you see this,
your heart shall rejoice.

And your bones shall flourish like grass;
The hand of the LORD shall be known to his servants,

15 And his indignation to his enemies.
For behold, the LORD will come with fire
And with his chariots, like a whirlwind,
To render his anger with fury,
And his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword
The LORD will judge all flesh;
And the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 "Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves,
To go to the gardens
After an idol in the midst, Eating swine's flesh and the abomination and the mouse, Shall be consumed together,"
says the LORD.

18 "For I know their works and their thoughts. It shall be that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see my glory.

19 "I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard my fame nor seen my glory.
And they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 "Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations, on horses and in chariots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of
the LORD.

21 "And I will also take some of them for priests and Levites," says the LORD.

22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth
Which I will make shall remain before me," says the LORD,

"So shall your descendants and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass
That from one New Moon to another,
And from one Sabbath to another,
All flesh shall come to worship before
me," says the LORD.

- 22 For though you wash yourself with lye,
and use much soap,
Yet your iniquity is marked before me," says the Lord GOD.
- 23 "How can you say, 'I am not polluted,
I have not gone after the Baals'?
See your way in the valley;
Know what you have done:
You are a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways,
- 24 A wild donkey used to the wilderness,
That sniffs at the wind in her desire;
In her time of mating,
who can turn her away?
All those who seek her will not weary themselves;
In her month they will find her.
- 25 Withhold your foot from being unshod,
and your throat from thirst.
But you said, 'There is no hope.
No! For I have loved aliens, and after them I will go.'
- 26 "As the thief is ashamed
when he is found out,
So is the house of Israel ashamed;
They and their kings and their princes,
and their priests and their prophets,
- 27 Saying to a tree, 'You are my father,'
And to a stone, 'You gave birth to me.'
For they have turned their back to me,
and not their face.
But in the time of their trouble
They will say, 'Arise and save us.'
- 28 But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise,
If they can save you in the time of your trouble;
For according to the number of your cities
Are your gods, O Judah.
- 29 "Why will you plead with me?
You all have transgressed against me,"
says the LORD.
- 30 "In vain I have chastened your children;
They received no correction.
Your sword has devoured your prophets
Like a destroying lion.
- 31 "O generation,
see the word of the LORD!
Have I been a wilderness to Israel,
Or a land of darkness?
Why do my people say, 'We are lords;
We will come no more to you?'
- 32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments,
Or a bride her attire?
Yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
- 33 "Why do you beautify your way to seek love?
Therefore you have also taught
The wicked women your ways.
- 34 Also on your skirts is found
The blood of the lives of the poor innocents.
I have not found it by secret search,
But plainly on all these things.
- 35 Yet you say, 'Because I am innocent,
Surely his anger shall turn from me.'
Behold, I will plead my case against
you,
Because you say, 'I have not sinned.'
- 36 Why do you gad about so much to change your way?
Also you shall be ashamed of Egypt - as you were ashamed of Assyria.
- 37 Indeed you will go forth from him
With your hands on your head;
For the LORD has rejected your trusted allies,
And you will not prosper by them.

Israel Is Shameless

3 "They say, 'If a man divorces his wife,
And she goes from him
And becomes another man's,
May he return to her again?'
Would not that land be greatly polluted?
But you have played the prostitute with many lovers;
Yet return to me," says the LORD.

- 2 "Lift up your eyes to the desolate heights and see:
Where have you not lain with men?
By the road you have sat for them
Like an Arabian in the wilderness;
And you have polluted the land
With your prostitutions and your wickedness.
- 3 Therefore the showers have been withheld,
And there has been no latter rain.
You have had a prostitute's forehead;
You refuse to be ashamed.
- 4 Will you not from this time cry to me,
'My father, you are the guide
of my youth?'
- 5 Will he remain angry for ever?
Will he keep it to the end?'

- 7 "How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken me
And sworn by those that are not gods.
When I had fed them to the full,
Then they committed adultery
And assembled themselves by troops in the prostitutes' houses.
- 8 They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
Every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.
- 9 Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"And shall I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?"
- 10 "Go up on her walls and destroy,
But do not make a complete end.
Take away her branches,
For they are not the LORD's.
- 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah
Have dealt very treacherously with me," says the LORD.
- 12 They have lied about the LORD,
And said, "It is not he.
Neither will evil come upon us,
Nor shall we see sword or famine.
- 13 And the prophets become wind,
For the word is not in them.
Thus shall it be done to them."
- 14 Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:

"Because you speak this word,
Behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire,
And this people wood,
And it shall devour them.
- 15 Behold, I will bring a nation against you from afar,
O house of Israel," says the LORD.
"It is a mighty nation,
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language
you do not know,
Nor can you understand what they say.
- 16 Their quiver is like an open tomb;
They are all mighty men.
- 17 And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread,
Which your sons and daughters should eat.
They shall eat up your flocks
and your herds;
They shall eat up your vines
and your fig trees;
They shall destroy your fortified cities,
In which you trust, with the sword.
- 18 "Nevertheless in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a complete end of
you.
- 19 "And it will be when you say, 'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours.'
- 20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob
And proclaim it in Judah, saying,
21 'Hear this now, O foolish people,
Without understanding,
Who have eyes and see not,
And who have ears and hear not:
22 Do you not fear me?' says the LORD.
'Will you not tremble at my presence,
Who have placed the sand
as the bound of the sea,
By a perpetual decree,
that it cannot pass beyond it?
And though its waves toss to and fro,
Yet they cannot prevail;
Though they roar,
yet they cannot pass over it.
- 23 But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart;
They have revolted and departed.
- 24 They do not say in their heart,
'Let us now fear the LORD our God,
Who gives rain, both the former
and the latter, in its season.
He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'
- 25 Your iniquities have turned these things
away,
And your sins have withheld good things from you.
- 26 'For among my people are found
wicked men;
They lie in wait as one who sets snares;
They set a trap;
They catch men.
- 27 As a cage is full of birds,
So their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become great and grown rich.
- 28 They have grown fat, they are sleek;
Yes, they surpass the deeds of the
wicked;
They do not plead the cause,
The cause of the fatherless;
Yet they prosper,
And the right of the needy
they do not defend.
- 29 Shall I not punish them for these
things?" says the LORD.

all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

The Peril of False Teaching

4 "Moreover you shall say to them. Thus says the LORD:

"Will they fall and not rise?
Will one turn away and not return?"

5 Why then has this people slidden back, Jerusalem, in a perpetual backsliding? They hold fast to deceit, They refuse to return.

6 I listened and heard, But they do not speak aright. No man repented of his wickedness, Saying, 'What have I done?' Everyone turned to his own course, As the horse rushes into the battle.

7 "Even the stork in the heavens Knows her appointed times; And the turtle-dove, the swift, and the swallow Observe the time of their coming. But my people do not know the judgment of the LORD.

8 "How can you say, 'We are wise, And the law of the LORD is with us'? Look, the false pen of the scribe certainly works falsehood.

9 The wise men are ashamed, They are dismayed and taken. Behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD; So what wisdom do they have?

10 Therefore I will give their wives to others, And their fields to those who will inherit them; Because from the least even to the greatest

Everyone is given to covetousness; From the prophet even to the priest Everyone deals falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, Saying, 'Peace, peace!' When there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed, Nor did they know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; In the time of their punishment They shall be cast down," says the LORD.

13 "I will surely consume them," says the LORD.

"There shall be no grapes on the vine, Nor figs on the fig tree, And the leaf shall fade; And the things I have given them shall pass away from them."

14 "Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, And let us enter the fortified cities. And let us be silent there. For the LORD our God has put us to silence And given us water of gall to drink. Because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 "We looked for peace, but no good came;

And for a time of health, and there was trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan. The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; For they have come and devoured the land and all that is in it, The city and those who dwell in it."

17 "For behold, I will send serpents among you, Vipers which cannot be charmed. And they shall bite you," says the LORD.

The Prophet Mourns for the People

18 I would comfort myself in sorrow; My heart is faint in me.

19 Listen! The voice, The cry of the daughter of my people From a far country: "Is not the LORD in Zion? Is not her King in her?"

"Why have they provoked me to anger With their carved images, And with foreign idols?"

20 "The harvest is past, The summer is ended, And we are not saved!"

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt. I am mourning; Astonishment has taken hold of me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead, Is there no physician there? Why then is there no recovery to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 "For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

14 "Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to me because of their trouble.

15 "What has my beloved to do in my house,
Having done lewd deeds with many?
And the holy flesh has passed from you.
When you do evil, then you rejoice.

16 The LORD called your name,
Green Olive Tree,
Lovely and of Good Fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has kindled fire on it,
And its branches are broken.

17 "For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced doom against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense to Baal."

Jeremiah's Life Threatened

18 Now the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I know it; for you showed me their doings.

19 But I was like a docile lamb brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more."

20 But, O LORD of hosts,
You who judge righteously,
Testing the mind and the heart,
Let me see your vengeance on them,
For to you I have revealed my cause.

21 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, 'Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, lest you die by our hand'—

22 "therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

23 'and there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring catastrophe on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.' "

Jeremiah's Question

12 Righteous are you, O LORD,
when I plead with you;
Yet let me talk with you about your judgments.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why are those happy who deal so treacherously?

2 You have planted them,
yes, they have taken root:
They grow, yes, they bear fruit.
You are near in their mouth
But far from their mind.

3 But you, O LORD, know me;
You have seen me,
And you have tested my heart towards you.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
And prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long will the land mourn,
And the herbs of every field wither?
The beasts and birds are consumed,
For the wickedness of those who dwell there.
Because they said,
"He will not see our final end."

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you,
Then how can you contend with horses?
And if in the land of peace,
In which you trusted, they wearied you.
Then how will you do in the flooding of the Jordan?

6 For even your brothers,
the house of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously with you;
Yes, they have called a multitude after you.
Do not believe them,
Even though they speak smooth words to you.

of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 "I will hand them over to trouble, to all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

5 "For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?

Or who will bemoan you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are faring?

6 You have forsaken me,"

says the LORD,
"You have gone backward.
Therefore I will stretch out my hand against you and destroy you;
I am weary of relenting!

7 And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the
land;

I will bereave them of children;
I will destroy my people,
Since they do not return from their
ways.

8 Their widows will be increased to me more than the sand of the seas;
I will bring against them,
Against the mother of the young men,
A plunderer at noonday;
I will cause anguish and terror to fall on them suddenly.

9 "She languishes who has borne seven;
She has breathed her last;
Her sun has gone down
While it was yet day;
She has been ashamed and confounded.

And the remnant of them
I will deliver to the sword
Before their enemies," says the LORD.

Jeremiah's Dejection

10 Woe is me, my mother,
That you have borne me,
A man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
I have neither lent for interest,
Nor have men lent to me for interest.
Every one of them curses me.

11 The LORD said:

"Surely it will be well with your remnant;
Surely I will cause the enemy to intercede with you

In the time of adversity and in the time of affliction.

12 Can anyone break iron,
The northern iron and the bronze?
13 Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder without price,
Because of all your sins,
Throughout your territories.

14 And I will make you cross over with your enemies
Into a land which you do not know;
For a fire is kindled in my anger,
Which shall burn upon you."

15 O LORD, you know;
Remember me and visit me,
And take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
Do not take me away in your long-suffering.

Know that for your sake
I have suffered rebuke.

16 Your words were found,
and I ate them,
And your word was to me
the joy and rejoicing of my heart;
For I am called by your name,
O LORD God of hosts.

17 I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers,
Nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone because of your hand,
For you have filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetual
And my wound incurable,
Which refuses to be healed?
Will you surely be to me like an unreliable stream,
As waters that fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

19 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"If you return,
Then I will bring you back;
You shall stand before me;
If you take out the precious from the vile,
You shall be as my mouth.
Let them return to you.

But you must not return to them.
20 And I will make you to this people
a fortified bronze wall;
And they will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you;
For I am with you to save you
And deliver you," says the LORD.

21 "I will deliver you from the hand
of the wicked,

with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

- 19 Give heed to me, O LORD,
And listen to the voice of those who contend with me!
- 20 Shall evil be repaid for good?
For they have dug a pit for my life.
Remember that I stood before you
To speak good for them,
And to turn away your wrath from them.
- 21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood
By the force of the sword;
Let their wives become widows
And bereaved of their children.
Let their men be put to death,
Their young men be slain
By the sword in battle.
- 22 Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When you bring a troop suddenly upon them;
For they have dug a pit to take me,
And hidden snares for my feet.
- 23 Yet, LORD, you know all their counsel
Which is against me, to slay me.
Provide no atonement for their iniquity,
Nor blot out their sin from your sight;
But let them be overthrown before you.
Deal thus with them
In the time of your anger.

The Sign of the Broken Flask

19 Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests.

2 "And go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I will tell you.

3 "and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring such a catastrophe on this place, that whoever hears of it, his ears will tingle.

4 "Because they have forsaken me and made this an alien place, because they have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with the blood of the innocents

5 "(they have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into my mind),

6 "therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that this place shall no more be called Tophet or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

7 "And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives; their corpses I will give as meat for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth.

8 "I will make this city desolate and a hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues.

9 "And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and everyone shall eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the desperation with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall drive them to despair."

10 "Then you shall break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you.

11 "and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, which cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet till there is no place to bury.

12 "Thus I will do to this place," says the LORD, "and to its inhabitants, and make this city like Tophet.

13 "And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to other gods."

14 Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the Lord's house and said to all the people.

15 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the doom that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks that they might not hear my words.'"

2 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, driven them away, and not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for the evil of your doings," says the LORD.

3 "But I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 "I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking," says the LORD.

5 "Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,

"That I will raise to David
a Branch of righteousness;
A King shall reign and prosper,
And execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.

6 In his days Judah will be saved,
And Israel will dwell safely;
Now this is his name by which he will be called:

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.¹⁵

7 "Therefore, behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that they shall no longer say, 'As the LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,'

8 but, 'As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the north country and from all the countries where I had driven them.' And they shall dwell in their own land."

False Prophets and Empty Oracles

9 My heart within me is broken
Because of the prophets;
All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine has overcome,

Because of the LORD.
And because of his holy words.

10 For the land is full of adulterers;
For because of a curse the land
mourns,

The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up.

Their course of life is evil,
And their might is not right.

11 "For both prophet and priest are profane;
Yes, in my house I have found their wickedness," says the LORD.

12 "Therefore their way shall be to them
Like slippery ways;
In the darkness they shall be driven on
And fall in them;
For I will bring disaster on them,
The year of their punishment,"
says the LORD.

13 "And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria:

They prophesied by Baal
And caused my people Israel to err.

14 Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:
They commit adultery and walk in lies;
They also strengthen the hands of evil-
doers,

So that no one turns back from his wickedness.

All of them are like Sodom to me,
And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

'Behold, I will feed them with
wormwood,

And make them drink the water
of gall;

For from the prophets of Jerusalem Profanity has gone out into all the
land.'

16 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They make you worthless;
They speak a vision of their own heart.
Not from the mouth of the LORD.

17 They continually say to those who despise me,

'The LORD has said,

"You shall have peace";

And to everyone who walks according to the imagination of his own heart,
'No evil shall come upon you.'

18 For who has stood in the counsel of
the LORD,
And has perceived and heard his word?
Who has marked his word
and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—
A violent whirlwind!
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.

¹⁵ Hebrew YHWH Tsidkenu

words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word.

3 'Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings.'

4 "And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you,

5 "to heed the words of my servants the prophets whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not heeded),

6 "then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth."'"

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You will surely die!

9 "Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without an inhabitant?'" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 And the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city with all the words that you have heard.

13 "Now therefore, amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent concerning the doom that he has pronounced against you.

14 "As for me, here I am, in your hand; do with me as seems good and proper to you.

15 "But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

16 So the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve to die. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17 Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying:

18 "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Zion shall be ploughed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple¹⁷
Like the bare hills of the forest."¹⁸

19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah ever put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and seek the LORD's favour? And the Lord relented concerning the doom which he had pronounced against them. But we are doing great evil against ourselves."

20 Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt.

22 Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor, and other men who went with him to Egypt.

23 And they brought Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

17 Literally house 18 Compare Micah 3:12

houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.' ”

29 Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:

31 “Send to all those in captivity, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I have not sent him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie,”

32 ‘therefore thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his family: he shall not have anyone to dwell among this people, nor shall he see the good that I will do for my people,” says the LORD, “because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.” ’ ”

Restoration of Israel and Judah

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 “Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying: ‘Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you.

3 ‘For behold, the days are coming,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will bring back from captivity my people Israel and Judah,’ says the LORD. ‘And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.’ ”

4 Now these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.

5 “For thus says the LORD:

‘We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask now, and see,
Whether a man is ever in labour with child?

So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins
Like a woman in labour,
And all faces turned pale?

7 Alas! For that day is great,
So that none is like it;
And it is the time of Jacob’s trouble.
But he shall be saved out of it.

8 ‘For it shall come to pass in that day,’
Says the LORD of hosts,
‘That I will break his yoke
from your neck,
And will burst your bonds;
Foreigners shall no more enslave them.

9 But they shall serve the LORD
their God,
And David their king,
Whom I will raise up for them.

10 ‘Therefore do not fear, O my servant
Jacob,’ says the LORD,
‘Nor be dismayed, O Israel:
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your seed from the land of their captivity.

Jacob shall return,
have rest and be quiet,
And no one shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with you,’ says the LORD,
‘to save you;
Though I make a full end of all nations
where I have scattered you, Yet I will not make a complete end of
you.

But I will correct you in justice,
And will not let you go altogether unpunished.’

12 “For thus says the LORD:

‘Your affliction is incurable,
Your wound is severe.

13 There is no one to plead your cause,
That you may be bound up;
You have no healing medicines.

14 All your lovers have forgotten you;
They do not seek you;
For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy.
With the chastisement of a cruel one,
For the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased.

15 Why do you cry about your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased,
I have done these things to you.

16 ‘Therefore all those who devour
you shall be devoured;
And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;
Those who plunder you shall become plunder,
And all who prey upon you
I will make a prey.

17 For I will restore health to you
And heal you of your wounds,’
says the LORD,
‘Because they called you an outcast saying:

“This is Zion:
No one seeks her.” ’

who signed the purchase deed, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

13 "Then I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these deeds, both this purchase deed which is sealed and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may last many days."

15 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land."

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

16 "Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:

17 "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. There is nothing too hard for you.

18 "You show loving-kindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them—the Great, the Mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

19 "You are great in counsel and mighty in work, for your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings.

20 "You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and you have made yourself a name, as it is this day.

21 "You have brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror;

22 "you have given them this land, of which you swore to their fathers to give them—"a land flowing with milk and honey."²¹

23 "And they came in and took possession of it, but they have not obeyed your voice or walked in your law. They have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do; therefore you have caused all this calamity to come upon them.

24 "Look, the siege-mounds! They have come to the city to take it; and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword and famine and pestilence. What you have spoken has happened: there you see it!

25 "And you have said to me, O Lord GOD, "Buy the field for money, and take witnesses!"—yet the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

God's Assurance of the People's Return

26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

27 "Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for me?"

28 Therefore thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 "And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come and set fire to this city and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger;

30 "because the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only evil before me from their youth. For the children of Israel have provoked me only to anger with the work of their hands," says the LORD.

31 "For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and my fury from the day that they built it, even to this day; so I will remove it from before my face

32 "because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 "And they have turned to me the back, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction.

34 "But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 "And they built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech, which I did not command them, nor did it come into my mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

21 Exodus 3:8

10 "But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 "But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians.' So we dwell at Jerusalem."

12 Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,

13 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to obey my words?"' says the LORD.

14 "The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, and obey their father's commandment. But although I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, you did not obey me.

15 "I have also sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Turn now everyone from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; then you will dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.' But you have not inclined your ear, nor obeyed me.

16 "Surely the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed me."

17 "Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the doom that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them but they have not heard, and I have called to them but they have not answered.'"

18 And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts and done according to all that he commanded you,

19 'therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before me for ever."'

The Scroll Read in the Temple

36 Now it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:

2 "Take a scroll of a book and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah even to this day.

3 "It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the adversities which I purpose to bring upon them, that everyone may turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote on a scroll of a book, at the instruction of Jeremiah,²⁶ all the words of the LORD which he had spoken to him.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

6 "You go, therefore, and read from the scroll which you have written at my instruction,"²⁷ the words of the LORD, in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house on the day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come from their cities.

7 "It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem.

10 Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, in the hearing of all the people.

26 Literally from Jeremiah's mouth 27 Literally from my mouth you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,'

26 "then you shall say to them, 'I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard.

28 Now Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was penetrated.

3 Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris,³⁵ Nergal-Sarezer, Rabmag,³⁶ with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the plain.³⁷

5 But the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him.

6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes in Riblah: the king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained.

10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah Goes Free

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 "Take him and look after him, and do him no harm; but do to him just as he says to you."

13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's chief officers:

14 then they sent someone to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

15 Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 "Go and speak to Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for adversity and not for good, and they shall be performed in that day before you.'

17 "But I will deliver you in that day," says the LORD, "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

18 "For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but your life shall be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in me," says the LORD."

Jeremiah with Gedaliah the Governor

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and hold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 "When he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt and deliver to death those appointed for death, and to captivity those appointed for captivity, and to the sword those appointed for the sword.

12 "I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away captive. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace.

13 "He shall also break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh³⁹ that are in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire." "

Israelites Will Be Punished in Egypt

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph,⁴⁰ and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them,

3 'because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and to serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.

4 'However I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!"

5 'But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.

6 'So my fury and my anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.'

7 "Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Why do you commit this great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain,

8 'in that you provoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 'Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 'They have not been humbled, to this day, nor have they feared; they have not walked in my law or in my statutes that I set before you and your fathers.'

11 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will set my face against you for catastrophe and for cutting off all Judah.

12 'And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and they shall be an oath and an astonishment and a curse and a reproach!

13 'For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

14 'so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and dwell. For none shall return except those who escape.'

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:

16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you!

17 "But we will certainly do whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had

- You also shall be taken,
And Chemosh shall go forth into
captivity,
His priests and his princes together.
- 8 And the plunderer shall come against every city;
No one shall escape.
The valley also shall perish,
And the plain shall be destroyed,
As the LORD has spoken.
- 9 "Give wings to Moab,
That she may flee and get away;
For her cities shall be desolate,
Without any to dwell in them.
- 10 Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,
And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.
- 11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth;
He has settled on his dregs,
And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel.
Nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent has not changed.
- 12 "Therefore behold, the days are
coming," says the LORD,
"That I shall send him wine-workers
Who will tip him over
And empty his vessels
And break the bottles.
- 13 Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh,
As the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.
- 14 "How can you say, 'We are mighty
And strong men for the war'?"
- 15 Moab is plundered and gone up from
her cities;
Her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16 "The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.
- 17 Bemoan him,
all you who are around him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, 'How the strong staff is broken,
The beautiful rod!'
- 18 "O daughter inhabiting Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.
- 19 O inhabitant of Aroer,
Stand by the way and watch;
Ask him who flees
And her who escapes:
Say, 'What has happened?'
- 20 Moab is shamed,
for he is broken down.
Wail and cry!
Tell it in Arnon,
that Moab is plundered.
- 21 "And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
- 22 On Dibon and Nebo
and Beth Diblathaim,
- 23 On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul
and Beth Meon,
- 24 On Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.
- 25 The horn of Moab is cut off,
And his arm is broken."
says the LORD.
- 26 "Make him drunk,
For he magnified himself against the
LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.
- 27 For was not Israel a derision to you?
Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You shake your head in scorn.
- 28 You who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities and dwell in the rock,
And be like the dove which makes her nest
In the sides of the cave's mouth.
- 29 "We have heard the pride of Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance
and pride,
And of the haughtiness of his heart."
- 30 "I know his wrath," says the LORD,
"But it is not right;
His lies have made nothing right.
- 31 Therefore I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres
- 32 O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you
with the weeping of Jazer.
Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.
The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.
- 33 Joy and gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;

- 5 They shall ask the way to Zion,
With their faces towards it, saying,
'Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In a perpetual covenant
That will not be forgotten.'
- 6 "My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray;
They have turned them away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.
- 7 All who found them have devoured
them;
And their adversaries said,
'We have not offended,
Because they have sinned against the
LORD, the habitation of justice,
The LORD, the hope of their fathers.'
- 8 "Move from the midst of Babylon,
Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the rams before the flocks.
- 9 For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations
from the north country,
And they shall array themselves against her;
From there she shall be captured.
Their arrows shall be like those of an expert warrior;
None shall return in vain.
- 10 And Chaldea shall become plunder;
All who plunder her shall be satisfied,"
says the LORD.
- 11 "Because you were glad,
because you rejoiced,
You destroyers of my heritage,
Because you have grown fat
like a heifer threshing grain,
And you bellow like bulls,
- 12 Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;
She who bore you shall be ashamed.
Behold, the least of the nations shall be a wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the LORD
She shall not be inhabited,
But she shall be wholly desolate.
Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be horrified
And hiss at all her plagues.
- 14 "Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around,
All you who bend the bow;
Shoot at her, spare no arrows,
For she has sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Shout against her all around;
She has given her hand,
Her foundations have fallen,
Her walls are thrown down;
For it is the vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
As she has done, so do to her.
- 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handles the sickle at harvest-time.
For fear of the oppressing sword
Everyone shall turn to his own people.
And everyone shall flee to his own
land.
- 17 "Israel is like scattered sheep;
The lions have driven him away.
First the king of Assyria devoured him;
Now at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."
- 18 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
- "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of Assyria.
- 19 But I will bring back Israel to his
habitation.
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.
- 20 In those days and in that time,"
says the LORD,
"The iniquity of Israel shall be sought,
but there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah,
but they shall not be found;
For I will pardon those whom I preserve.
- 21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim,
against it,
And against the inhabitants of Pekod.
Waste and utterly destroy them,"
says the LORD.
"And do according to all that I have commanded you.
- 22 A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
- 23 How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation
among the nations!
I have laid a snare for you;
- 24 You have indeed been trapped.
O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught.

- 37 Babylon shall become a heap,
A dwelling-place for jackals,
An astonishment and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.
- 38 They shall roar together like lions,
They shall growl like lions' whelps.
- 39 In their excitement
I will prepare their feasts;
I will make them drunk,
That they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says the LORD.
- 40 I will bring them down
Like lambs to the slaughter,
Like rams with male goats.
- 41 "Oh, how Sheshach⁵⁷ is taken!
Oh, how the praise of the whole earth is seized!
How Babylon has become desolate among the nations!
- 42 The sea has come up over Babylon;
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.
- 43 Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land and a wilderness,
A land where no one dwells,
Through which no son of man passes.
- 44 I will punish Bel in Babylon,
And I will bring out of his mouth
what he has swallowed;
And the nations shall not stream
to him any more.
Yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall.
- 45 "My people, go out of the midst of her!
And let everyone deliver himself from the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 46 And lest your heart faint,
And you fear for the rumour that will be heard in the land
(A rumour will come one year,
And after that, in another year
A rumour will come,
And violence in the land,
Ruler against ruler),
- 47 Therefore behold, the days are coming
That I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon;
Her whole land shall be ashamed,
And all her slain shall fall in her midst.
- 48 Then the heavens and the earth and all that is in them
Shall sing joyously over Babylon;
For the plunderers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.
- 49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.
- 50 You who have escaped the sword,
Get away! Do not stand still!
Remember the LORD afar off,
And let Jerusalem come to your mind.
- 51 We are ashamed because we have heard reproach.
Shame has covered our faces.
For strangers have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.
- 52 "Therefore behold, the days are
coming," says the LORD,
"That I will bring judgment on her carved images,
And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.
- 53 Though Babylon were to mount up to
heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength,
Yet from me plunderers would come to her," says the LORD.
- 54 The sound of a cry
comes from Babylon,
And great destruction
from the land of the Chaldeans.
- 55 Because the LORD is plundering
Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered,
- 56 Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men are taken,
Every one of their bows is broken;
For the LORD is the God of recompense,
He will surely repay.
- 57 "And I will make drunk
Her princes and wise men,
Her governors, her deputies,
and her mighty men.
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 58 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken,
And her high gates
shall be burned with fire;
The people will labour in vain,
And the nations, because of the fire;
And they shall be weary."

57 A code word for Babylon (compare Jeremiah 25:26)

- And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.*
- 15 "The Lord has trampled underfoot
all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
The Lord trampled as in a winepress
The virgin daughter of Judah.
- 16 "For these things I weep;
My eye, my eye overflows with water;
Because the comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate
Because the enemy prevailed."
- 17 Zion spreads out her hands,
But there is no one to comfort her;
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob
That those around him become his adversaries;
Jerusalem has become an unclean thing
among them.
- 18 "The LORD is righteous,
For I rebelled against his commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,
And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.
- 19 "I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food
To restore their life.
- 20 "See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My soul is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
Outside the sword bereaves,
At home it is like death.
- 21 "They have heard that I sigh,
With no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my
trouble;
They are glad that you have done it.
Bring on the day that you have announced,
That they may become like me.
- 22 "Let all their wickedness come
before you,
And do to them as you have done to
me
For all my transgressions;
For my sighs are many,
And my heart is faint."
- God's Anger with Jerusalem
- 2 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a cloud in his anger!
He cast down from heaven to the earth
The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember his footstool
In the day of his anger.
- 2 The Lord has swallowed up and has not pitied
All the habitations of Jacob.
He has thrown down in his wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the
ground;
He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.
- 3 He has cut off in fierce anger
Every horn of Israel;
He has drawn back his right hand
From before the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
Which devours all around.
- 4 Standing like an enemy,
he has bent his bow;
With his right hand, like an adversary,
He has slain all who were pleasing to his eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,
He has poured out his fury like fire.
- 5 The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Judah.
- 6 He has done violence to his tabernacle,
As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed his place
of assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.
In his burning indignation he has spurned the king and the priest.

- 9 Those slain by the sword are better off
Than those who die of hunger;
For these pine away,
Stricken for lack of the fruits of the field.
- 10 The hands of the compassionate
women
Have cooked their own children;
They became food for them
In the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 11 The LORD has fulfilled his fury,
He has poured out his fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion,
And it has devoured its foundations.
- 12 The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,
Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy
Could enter the gates of Jerusalem—
- 13 Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
Who shed in her midst
The blood of the just.
- 14 They wandered blind in the streets;
They have defiled themselves
with blood,
So that no one would touch their
garments.
- 15 They cried out to them,
“Go away, unclean!
Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!”
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,
“They shall no longer dwell here.”
- 16 The face⁹ of the LORD scattered them;
He no longer regards them.
The people¹⁰ do not respect the priests
Nor show favour to the elders.
- 17 Still our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;
In our watching we watched
For a nation that could not save us.
- 18 They tracked our steps
So that we could not walk
in our streets.
Our end was near;
Our days were over,
For our end had come.
- 19 Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They pursued us on the mountains
And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
- 20 The breath of our nostrils,
the anointed of the LORD,
Was caught in their pits.
Of whom we said, “Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations.”
- 21 Rejoice and be glad,
O daughter of Edom.
You who dwell in the land of Uz!
The cup shall also pass over to you
And you shall become drunk and make yourself naked.
- 22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished.
O daughter of Zion:
He will no longer send you into
captivity.
He will punish your iniquity,
O daughter of Edom:
He will uncover your sins!

A Prayer for Restoration

- 5 Remember, O LORD,
what has come upon us:
Look, and behold our reproach!
- 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens,
And our houses to foreigners.
- 3 We have become orphans and waifs,
Our mothers are like widows.
- 4 We pay for the water we drink,
And our wood comes at a price.
- 5 They pursue at our heels;¹¹
We labour and have no rest.
- 6 We have given our hand to the Egyptians
And the Assyrians,
to be satisfied with bread.
- 7 Our fathers sinned and are no more,
But we bear their iniquities.
- 8 Servants rule over us;
There is none to deliver us from their hand.
- 9 We get our bread at the risk
of our lives,
Because of the sword in the wilderness
- 10 Our skin is hot as an oven,
Because of the fever of famine.
- 11 They ravished the women in Zion,
The maidens in the cities of Judah.

9 Targum reads anger. 10 Literally they. 11 Literally necks voice: "Blessed is the glory of the LORD from his place!"

13 I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise.

14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 Then I came to the captives at Tel Abib, who dwelt by the River Chebar; and I sat where they sat, and remained there desolated among them seven days.

Ezekiel Is a Watchman

16 Now it came to pass at the end of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from my mouth, and give them warning from me:

18 "When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.

19 "Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.

21 "Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

22 Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there, and he said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and there I shall talk with you."

23 So I arose and went out into the plain, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face.

24 Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself inside your house.

25 "And you, O son of man, surely they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them.

26 "I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be mute and not be a reprover to them, for they are a rebellious house.

27 "But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

4 "You also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem.

2 "Lay siege against it, build a siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around.

3 "Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 "Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity.

5 "For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 "And when you have completed them, lie again on your right side; then you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.

7 "Therefore you shall set your face towards the siege of Jerusalem; your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it.

8 "And surely I will constrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another till you have ended the days of your siege.

9 "Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days

Then they shall know
that I am the LORD!"

Abominations in the Temple

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house with the elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.

² Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire—from the appearance of his waist and downwards, fire; and from his waist and upwards, like the appearance of brightness, like the colour of amber.

³ He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy.

⁴ And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

⁵ Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift your eyes now towards the north." So I lifted my eyes towards the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

⁶ Furthermore he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make me go far away from my sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations."

⁷ So he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall.

⁸ Then he said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall"; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.

⁹ And he said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there."

¹⁰ So I went in and saw, and there—every sort of creeping thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls.

¹¹ And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

¹² Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.'"

¹³ And he said to me, "Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing."

¹⁴ So he brought me to the door of the north gate of the LORD's house; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

¹⁵ Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these."

¹⁶ So he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs towards the temple of the LORD and their faces towards the east, and they were worshipping the sun towards the east.

¹⁷ Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke me to anger. Indeed they put the branch to their nose.

¹⁸ "Therefore I also will act in fury. My eye will not spare nor will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

The Wicked Are Slain

9 Then he called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand."

² And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-axe in his hand. One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer's inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³ Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple.² And he called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side;

⁴ and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the proverb in Israel." But say to them, "The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision.

² Literally house

24 "For no more shall there be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 "For I am the LORD. I speak, and the word which I speak will come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and perform it," says the Lord GOD."

26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 "Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.'

28 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "None of my words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak will be done," says the Lord GOD.'

Woe to Foolish Prophets

13 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD!'"

3 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!

4 "O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts.

5 "You have not gone up into the gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

6 "They have envisioned futility and false divination, saying, 'Thus says the LORD!' But the LORD has not sent them; yet they hope that the word may be confirmed.

7 "Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken false divination? You say, 'The LORD says,' but I have not spoken."

8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you," says the Lord GOD.

9 "My hand will be against the prophets who envision futility and who divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of my people, nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 "Because, indeed, because they have seduced my people, saying, 'Peace!' when there is no peace—and one builds a boundary wall, and they plaster it with untempered mortar—

11 "say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. There will be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down.

12 "Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?' "

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in my fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in my anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it.

14 "So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

15 "Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, 'The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, 16 that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,' " says the Lord GOD.

17 "Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart: prophesy against them.

18 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and keep yourselves alive?"

19 "And will you profane me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing people who should not die, and keeping people alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies?"

20 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against your magic charms by which you hunt souls there like birds. I will tear them from your arms, and let the souls go, the souls you hunt like birds.

41 "They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will make you cease playing the prostitute, and you shall no longer hire lovers.

42 "So I will lay to rest my fury towards you, and my jealousy shall depart from you. I will be quiet, and be angry no more.

43 "Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but agitated me with all these things, surely I will also recompense your deeds on your own head," says the Lord GOD. "And you shall not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

More Wicked than Samaria and Sodom

44 "Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: 'Like mother, like daughter!'

45 "You are your mother's daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children; your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46 "Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 "You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you became more corrupt than they in all your ways.

48 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "neither your sister Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done.

49 "Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had pride, fullness of food, and abundance of idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 "And they were haughty and committed abomination before me; therefore I took them away as I saw fit.

51 "Samaria did not commit half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done.

52 "You who judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also, and bear your own shame, because you justified your sisters.

53 "When I bring back their captives, the captives of Sodom and her daughters, and the captives of Samaria and her daughters, then I will also bring back the captives of your captivity among them.

54 "that you may bear your own shame and be disgraced by all that you did when you comforted them.

55 "When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state.

56 "For your sister Sodom was not a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, 57 "before your wickedness was uncovered. It was like the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria and all who were around her, and of the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you everywhere.

58 "You have paid for your lewdness and your abominations," says the LORD.

59 'For thus says the Lord GOD: "I will deal with you as you have done, who despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

An Everlasting Covenant

60 "Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

61 "Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters; for I will give them to you for daughters, but not because of my covenant with you.

62 "And I will establish my covenant with you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD,

63 "that you may remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth any more because of your shame, when I provide you an atonement for all you have done," says the Lord GOD.'

The Eagles and the Vine

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel.

3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"A great eagle with large wings and long pinions,

This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

The Rebellions of Israel

20 It came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

² Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

³ "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Have you come to inquire of me? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will not be inquired of by you."'

⁴ "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then make known to them the abominations of their fathers.

⁵ "Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On the day when I chose Israel and lifted my hand in an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I lifted my hand in an oath to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God.'

⁶ "On that day I lifted my hand in an oath to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands.

⁷ "Then I said to them, 'Each of you, throw away the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'

⁸ "But they rebelled against me and would not obey me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will pour out my fury on them and fulfil my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.'

⁹ "But I acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made myself known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ "Therefore I made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

¹¹ "And I gave them my statutes and showed them my judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them.'

¹² "Moreover I also gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

¹³ "Yet the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not walk in my statutes; they despised my judgments, which, if a man does, he shall live by them; and they greatly defiled my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them.

¹⁴ "But I acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.

¹⁵ "So I also lifted my hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands.

¹⁶ "because they despised my judgments and did not walk in my statutes, but profaned my Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.

¹⁷ "Nevertheless my eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

¹⁸ "But I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

¹⁹ 'I am the LORD your God: Walk in my statutes, keep my judgments, and do them;

²⁰ 'hallow my Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'

²¹ "Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me: they did not walk in my statutes, and were not careful to observe my judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them'; but they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them and fulfil my anger against them in the wilderness.

²² "Nevertheless I withdrew my hand and acted for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.

²³ "Also I lifted my hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the Gentiles and disperse them throughout the countries.

²⁴ "because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes.

made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst.

14 "Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and will do it.

15 "I will scatter you among the nations, disperse you throughout the countries, and remove your filthiness completely from you.

16 "You shall defile yourself in the sight of the nations; then you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

Israel in the Furnace

17 The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a furnace; they have become dross from silver.

19 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 'As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there and melt you.

21 'Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst.

22 'As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on you.'"

Israel's Wicked Leaders

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

24 "Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that is not cleansed or rained on in the day of indignation.'

25 "The conspiracy of her prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured people; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst.

26 "Her priests have violated my law and profaned my holy things; they have not distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

27 "Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy people, and to get dishonest gain.

28 "Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD had not spoken.

29 "The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and they wrongfully oppress the stranger.

30 "So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.

31 "Therefore I have poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath; and I have recompensed their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

Two Prostitute Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, there were two women, The daughters of one mother.

3 They committed prostitution in Egypt. They committed prostitution in their youth;

Their breasts were there embraced, Their virgin bosom was there pressed.

4 Their names: Oholah¹⁰ the elder and Oholibah¹¹ her sister; They were mine.

And they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

The Older Sister, Samaria

5 "Oholah played the prostitute even though she was mine; And she lusted for her lovers, the neighbouring Assyrians.

6 Who were clothed in purple, Captains and rulers, All of them desirable young men, Horsemen riding on horses.

7 Thus she committed her prostitution with them,

All of them choice men of Assyria; And with all for whom she lusted, With all their idols, she defiled herself.

10 Literally Her Own Tabernacle 11 Literally My Tabernacle Is In Her

26 'on that day one who escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears;

27 'on that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you shall speak and no longer be mute. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.' "

Proclamation Against Ammon

25 The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them.

3 "Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you said, 'Aha!' against my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity,

4 "indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the men of the East, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.

5 "And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

6 'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel,

7 "indeed, therefore, I will stretch out my hand against you, and give you as plunder to the nations; I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you, then you shall know that I am the LORD."

Proclamation Against Moab

8 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because Moab and Seir say, 'Look! The house of Judah is like all the nations,'

9 "therefore, behold, I will clear the territory of Moab of cities, of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kirjathaim.

10 "To the men of the East I will give it as a possession, together with the Ammonites, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 "And I will execute judgments upon Moab, then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Proclamation Against Edom

12 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them,"

13 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also stretch out my hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 "I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to my anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance," says the Lord GOD.

Proclamation Against Philistia

15 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the old hatred,"

16 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 "I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance upon them." "

Proclamation Against Tyre

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha! She is broken who was the gateway of the peoples; now she is turned over to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste.'

3 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.

4 'And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 'It shall be a place for spreading nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,' says the Lord GOD; 'it shall become plunder for the nations.

6 'Also her daughter villages which are

By the iniquity of your trading;
Therefore I brought fire from your midst;
It devoured you,
And I turned you to ashes
upon the earth
In the sight of all who saw you.
19 All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you;
You have become a horror,
And shall be no more for ever.”

Proclamation Against Sidon

20 Then the word of the LORD came to
me, saying,

21 “Son of man, set your face towards
Sidon, and prophesy against her,

22 “and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, I am against you, O Sidon;
I will be glorified in your midst;
And they shall know that I am the
LORD.

When I execute judgments in her and am hallowed in her.

23 For I will send pestilence upon her,
And blood in her streets;
The wounded shall be judged in her
midst

By the sword against her on every side;
Then they shall know
that I am the LORD.

24 “And there shall no longer be a pricking brier or a painful thorn for the house of Israel from among all who are around them, who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Israel's Future Blessing

25 ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am hallowed in them in the sight of the Gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob.

26 “And they will dwell safely there, build houses, and plant vineyards; yes,
they will dwell securely, when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God.”

Proclamation Against Egypt

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to
me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt.

3 “Speak, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord
GOD:

“Behold, I am against you,
O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
O great monster who lies in the midst of his rivers.

Who has said, ‘My River¹⁶ is my own;
I have made it for myself.’

4 But I will put hooks in your jaws,
And cause the fish of your rivers
to stick to your scales;

I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,

And all the fish in your rivers will stick to your scales.

5 I will leave you in the wilderness.
You and all the fish of your rivers;
You shall fall on the open field;
You shall not be picked up or gathered.

I have given you as food
To the beasts of the field
And to the birds of the heavens.

6 “Then all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, Because they have been a staff of reed
to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of you with the
hand,

You broke and tore all their shoulders;
When they leaned on you,
You broke

and made all their loins shake.”

8 ‘Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
“Surely I will bring a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast.

9 “And the land of Egypt shall become desolate and waste; then they will know that I am the LORD, because he said, ‘The River is mine, and I have made it.’

10 “Indeed, therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from Migdol¹⁷ to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.

11 “Neither foot of man shall pass through it nor foot of beast pass through it, and it shall be uninhabited forty years.

12 “I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities shall be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Eryp-

16 That is, the Nile 17 Or tower sword before them; and they shall tremble every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.'

11 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you.

12 'By the swords of the mighty warriors, all of them the most terrible of the nations, I will cause your multitude to fall.

'They shall plunder the pomp of Egypt, And all its multitude shall be destroyed.

13 Also I will destroy all its beasts From beside its great waters; The foot of man shall muddy them no more, Nor shall the hooves of beasts muddy them.

14 Then I will make their waters clear, And make their rivers run like oil,' Says the Lord God.

15 'When I make the land of Egypt desolate, And the country is destitute of all that once filled it, When I strike all who dwell in it, Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

16 'This is the lamentation With which they shall lament her; The daughters of the nations shall lament her; They shall lament for her, for Egypt. And for all her multitude,' Says the Lord God."

Egypt and Others Consigned to the Pit

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

18 "Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt, And cast them down to the depths of the earth. Her and the daughters of the famous nations,

19 'Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down, be placed with the uncircumcised.'

20 "They shall fall in the midst of those slain by the sword; She is delivered to the sword, Drawing her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty Shall speak to him out of the midst of hell With those who help him: 'They have gone down, They lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22 "Assyria is there, and all her company, With their graves all around her. All of them slain, fallen by the sword.

23 Her graves are set in the recesses of the Pit, And her company is all around her grave, All of them slain, fallen by the sword, Who caused terror in the land of the living.

24 "There is Elam and all her multitude, All around her grave, All of them slain, fallen by the sword, Who have gone down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, Who caused their terror in the land of the living; Now they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

25 They have set her bed in the midst of the slain, With all her multitude, With her graves all around it, All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; Though their terror was caused In the land of the living, Yet they bear their shame With those who go down to the Pit: It was put in the midst of the slain.

26 "There are Meshech and Tubal and all their multitudes, With all their graves around it, All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, Though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 They do not lie with the mighty Who are fallen of the uncircumcised, Who have gone down to hell with their weapons of war; They have laid their swords under their heads, But their iniquities will be on their bones, . . . Because of the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yes, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, And lie with those slain by the sword.

- "Behold, O Mount Seir,
 I am against you;
 I will stretch out my hand against you,
 And make you most desolate;
 4 I shall lay your cities waste,
 And you shall be desolate.
 Then you shall know
 that I am the LORD.
- 5 "Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, when their iniquity came to an end,
- 6 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.
- 7 "Thus I will make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns.
- 8 "And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword shall fall.
- 9 "I will make you perpetually desolate, and your cities shall be uninhabited; then you shall know that I am the LORD.
- 10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess them,' although the LORD was there,
- 11 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will do according to your anger and according to the envy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them when I judge you.
- 12 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD. I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.'
- 13 "Thus with your mouth you have boasted against me and multiplied your words against me: I have heard them."
- 14 "Thus says the Lord GOD: "The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate.
- 15 "As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, so I will do to you; you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom—all of it! Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Blessing on Israel

36 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD!'

2 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession,'"

3 "therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you are taken up by the lips of talkers and slandered by the people"—

4 'therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which became plunder and mockery to the rest of the nations all around—

5 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I have spoken in my burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who gave my land to themselves as a possession, with whole-hearted joy and spiteful minds, in order to plunder its open country."

6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and my fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations."

7 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I have lifted my hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall bear their own shame.

8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to my people Israel, for they are about to come.

9 "For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown.

10 "I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

11 "I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do better for you than

and all men who are on the face of the earth shall shake at my presence. The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.'

21 "I will call for a sword against Gog throughout all my mountains," says the Lord GOD. "Every man's sword will be against his brother.

22 "And I will bring him to judgment with pestilence and bloodshed; I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 "Thus I will magnify myself and sanctify myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."'

Gog's Armies Destroyed

39 "And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh,²⁹ Meshech, and Tubal;

2 "and I will turn you around and lead you on, bringing you up from the far north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

3 "Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrows to fall out of your right hand.

4 "You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 "You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken," says the Lord GOD.

6 "And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in security in the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 "So I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let them profane my holy name any more. Then the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 "Surely it is coming, and it shall be done," says the Lord GOD. "This is the day of which I have spoken.

9 "Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the javelins and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years.

10 "They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; and they will plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them," says the Lord GOD.

The Burial of Gog

11 "It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travellers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.³⁰

12 "For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land.

13 "Indeed all the people of the land will be burying them, and they will gain renown for it on the day that I am glorified," says the Lord GOD.

14 "They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party, to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search.

15 "The search party will pass through the land; and whenever anyone sees a man's bone, he shall set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

16 "The name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land."'

A Triumphant Festival

17 "And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, 'Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field:

"Assemble yourselves and come;
Gather together from all sides to my sacrificial meal which I am sacrificing for you.
A great sacrificial meal
on the mountains of Israel,
That you may eat flesh
and drink blood.

18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, Drink the blood of the princes of the earth.
Of rams and lambs,
Of goats and bulls,
All of them fatlings of Bashan.

29 See note at 38:2 30 Literally The Multitude of Gog

the north and another towards the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

The Building at the Western End

12 The building that fronted the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

Dimensions and Design of the Temple Area

13 So he measured the temple, one hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long;

14 also the width of the eastern face of the temple, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits.

15 He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner temple and the porches of the court,

16 their door-posts and the bevelled window frames. And the galleries all around their three storeys opposite the threshold were panelled with wood from the ground to the windows—the windows were covered—

17 from the space above the door, even to the inner room,³³ as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces,

19 so that the face of a man was towards a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion towards a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the temple all around.

20 From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the sanctuary, cherubim and palm trees were carved.

21 The door-posts of the temple were square, and so also the front of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one was like the appearance of the other.

22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."

23 The temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 The doors had two panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door.

25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the vestibule outside.

26 There were bevelled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the vestibule—also on the side chambers of the temple and on the canopies.

The Chambers for the Priests

42 Then he brought me out into the outer court, by the way towards the north; and he brought me into the chamber which was opposite the separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building towards the north.

2 Facing the length, which was one hundred cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door.

3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three storeys.

4 In front of the chambers, towards the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle storeys of the building.

6 For they were in three storeys and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.

7 And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, towards the outer court; its length was fifty cubits.

8 The length of the chambers towards the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the temple was one hundred cubits.

9 At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

10 There were also chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court towards the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building.

33 Literally house, here the Most Holy Place

3 "So this is the district you shall measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide; in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

4 "It shall be a holy portion of the land, belonging to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

5 "An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the temple; they shall have twenty chambers as a possession.

Properties of the City and the Prince

6 "You shall appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the district of the holy portion; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

7 "The prince shall have a portion on one side and the other of the holy district and the city's property; and bordering on the holy district and the city's property, extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length shall be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border.

8 "The land shall be his possession in Israel; and my princes shall no more oppress my people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes."

Laws Governing the Prince

9 "Thus says the Lord GOD: "Enough, O princes of Israel! Remove violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing my people," says the Lord GOD.

10 "You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 "The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; their measure shall be according to the homer.

12 "The shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

13 "This is the offering which you shall offer: you shall give one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley.

14 "The ordinance concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a kor. A kor is a homer or ten baths, for ten baths are a homer.

15 "And one lamb shall be given from a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel. These shall be for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them," says the Lord GOD.

16 "All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel.

17 "Then it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the New Moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed seasons of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel."

Keeping the Feasts

18 "Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary.

19 "The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the door-posts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gate-posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 "And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who has sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.

21 "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 "And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

23 "On the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 "And he shall prepare a grain offering of one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.

25 "In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall do likewise for seven days, according to the 22 "Moreover, apart from the possession of the Levites and the possession of the city which are in the midst of what belongs to the prince, the area between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall belong to the prince.

23 "As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west, Benjamin shall have one portion;

The Gates of the City and Its Name

34 "on the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits with their three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali.

The Image of Gold

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

3 So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald cried aloud: "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,

5 "that at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up;

6 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

7 So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshipped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel's Friends Disobey the King

8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and accused the Jews.

9 They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live for ever!

10 "You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the gold image;

11 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 "There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-

Nego; these men. O king, have not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up?

15 "Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.

17 "If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us from your hand, O king.

18 "But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up."

Saved in Fiery Trial

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed towards Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. Therefore he spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.

20 And he commanded certain mighty men of valour who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas¹² were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

The Writing on the Wall Explained

¹³ Then Daniel was brought in before the king. And the king spoke, and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives¹³ from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?"

¹⁴ "I have heard of you, that the Spirit of God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

¹⁵ Now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the thing.

¹⁶ "And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and explain enigmas. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

¹⁸ "O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honour.

¹⁹ "And because of the majesty that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished, he executed; whomever he wished, he kept alive; whomever he wished, he set up; and whomever he wished, he put down.

²⁰ "But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

²¹ "Then he was driven from the sons of men, his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever he chooses.

²² "But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this.

²³ "And you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or know; and the God who holds your breath in his hand and owns all your ways, you have not glorified.

²⁴ "Then the fingers¹⁴ of the hand were sent from him, and this writing was written.

²⁵ "And this is the inscription that was written:

MENE,¹⁵ MENE, TEKEL,¹⁶
UPHARSIN.¹⁷

²⁶ "This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it;

²⁷ "TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting;

²⁸ "PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."¹⁸

²⁹ Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Belshazzar's Fall

³⁰ That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain.

³¹ And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

The Plot Against Daniel

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, to be over the whole kingdom;

² and over these, three governors, of whom Daniel was one, that the satraps might give account to them, so that the king would suffer no loss.

³ Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and four notable ones came up towards the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great towards the south, towards the east, and towards the Glorious Land.

10 And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them.

11 He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered.

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

14 And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days;²⁷ then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

Gabriel Interprets the Vision

15 Now it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me one having the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

17 So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright.

19 And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; for at the appointed time the end shall be.

20 "The ram which you saw, having the two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 "And the male goat is the kingdom;²⁸ of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king.

22 "As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom,
When the transgressors have reached their fullness,
A king shall arise,
Having fierce features,
Who understands sinister schemes.

24 His power shall be mighty,
but not by his own power;
He shall destroy fearfully,
And shall prosper and thrive;
He shall destroy the mighty,
and also the holy people.

25 "Through his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper
under his hand;
And he shall magnify himself in his heart.
He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
He shall even rise against the Prince of princes;
But he shall be broken without human hand.

26 "And the vision of the evenings and mornings
Which was told is true;
Therefore seal up the vision,
For it refers to many days in the future."

27 And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days; afterwards I arose and went about the king's business. I was astonished by the vision, but no one understood it.

Daniel's Prayer for the People

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans—

2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD, given through Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

them to an end; and with the reproach removed, he shall turn back on him.

19 "Then he shall turn his face towards the fortress of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 "There shall arise in his place one who imposes taxes on the glorious kingdom; but within a few days he shall be destroyed, but not in anger or in battle.

21 "And in his place shall arise a vile person, to whom they will not give the honour of royalty; but he shall come in peaceably, and seize the kingdom by intrigue.

22 "With the force⁴¹ of a flood they shall be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant.

23 "And after the league is made with him he shall act deceitfully, for he shall come up and become strong with a small number of people.

24 "He shall enter peaceably, even into the richest places of the province; and he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: he shall disperse among them the plunder, spoil, and riches; and he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time.

25 "He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him.

26 "Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies shall destroy him; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain.

27 "Both these kings' hearts shall be bent on evil, and they shall speak lies at the same table; but it shall not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time.

28 "While returning to his land with great riches, his heart shall be moved against the holy covenant; so he shall do damage and return to his own land.

The Northern King's Blasphemies

29 "At the appointed time he shall return and go towards the south; but it shall not be like the former or the latter.

30 "For ships from Cyprus⁴² shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return in rage against the holy covenant, and do damage. So he shall return and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "And forces⁴³ shall be mustered by him, and they shall defile the sanctuary fortress; then they shall take away the daily sacrifices, and place there the abomination of desolation.

32 "Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.

33 "And those of the people who understand shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering.

34 "Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue.

35 "And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purge them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

36 "Then the king shall do according to his own will: he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done.

37 "He shall regard neither the God⁴⁴ of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above them all.

38 "But in their place he shall honour a god of fortresses; and a god which his fathers did not know he shall honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things.

39 "Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

The Northern King's Conquests

40 "At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through.

41 "He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley.

3 And I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days; you shall not play the prostitute, nor shall you have a man; thus I will also be towards you."

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

5 Afterwards the children of Israel shall return, seek the LORD their God and David their king, and fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

God's Charge Against Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD,
You children of Israel,
For the LORD brings a charge against the inhabitants of the land:

"There is no truth or mercy
Or knowledge of God in the land.
2 By swearing and lying,
Killing and stealing and committing adultery,
They break all restraint,
With bloodshed after bloodshed.
3 Therefore the land will mourn;
And everyone who dwells there will waste away
With the beasts of the field
And the birds of the air;
Even the fish of the sea will be taken
away.

4 "Now let no man contend,
or reprove another,
For your people are like those who contend with the priest.
5 Therefore you shall stumble in the day;
The prophet also shall stumble with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being priest
for me;
Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

7 "The more they increased,
The more they sinned against me;
I will change their glory into shame.
8 They eat up the sin of my people;
They set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And it shall be: like people, like priest.
So I will punish them for their ways,
And reward them for their deeds.

10 For they shall eat,
but not have enough;
They shall commit prostitution,
but not increase;
Because they have ceased obeying
the LORD.

The Idolatry of Israel

11 "Prostitution, wine, and new wine enslave the heart.

12 My people ask counsel from their wooden idols.
And their staff informs them.
For the spirit of prostitution has caused them to stray.
And they have played the prostitute against their God.

13 They offer sacrifices
on the mountaintops,
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths.
Because their shade is good.
Therefore your daughters commit prostitution,
And your brides commit adultery.

14 "I will not punish your daughters when they commit prostitution,
Nor your brides when they commit
adultery;
For the men themselves go apart with prostitutes,
And offer sacrifices with a ritual
prostitute.¹³
Therefore people who do not understand will be trampled.

15 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute,
Let not Judah offend.
Do not come up to Gilgal,
Nor go up to Beth Aven,
Nor swear an oath, saying,
'As the LORD lives'—

16 "For Israel is stubborn
Like a stubborn calf;
Now the LORD will let them forage
Like a lamb in open country.

17 "Ephraim is joined to idols.
Let him alone.

18 Their drink is rebellion,
They commit prostitution continually.
Her rulers dearly¹⁴ love dishonour.

19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings,
And they shall be ashamed
because of their sacrifices.

13 Compare Deuteronomy 23:18 14 Hebrew is difficult; a Jewish tradition reads Her rulers shamefully love, 'Give!'

- 13 Just as I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place,
So Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.”
- 14 Give them, O LORD—
What will you give?
Give them a miscarrying womb
And dry breasts.
- 15 “All their wickedness is in Gilgal,
For there I hated them.
Because of the evil of their deeds
I will drive them from my house;
I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebellious.
- 16 Ephraim is stricken,
Their root is dried up;
They shall bear no fruit.
Yes, were they to bear children,
I would kill the beloved fruit of their
womb.”
- 17 My God will cast them away,
Because they did not obey him;
And they shall be wanderers among
the nations.

Israel's Sin and Captivity

- 10 Israel empties his vine;
He brings forth fruit for himself.
According to the multitude of his fruit
He has increased the altars;
According to the bounty of his land
They have embellished his sacred pillars.
- 2 Their heart is divided;
Now they are held guilty.
He will break down their altars;
He will ruin their sacred pillars.
- 3 For now they say,
“We have no king,
Because we did not fear the LORD.
And as for a king,
what would he do for us?”
- 4 They have spoken words,
Swearing falsely in making a covenant.
Thus judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field.
- 5 The inhabitants of Samaria fear
Because of the calf²¹ of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
And its priests shriek for it—
Because its glory has departed from it.
- 6 The idol also shall be carried to Assyria
As a present for King Jareb.
Ephraim shall receive shame,

And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

- 7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off
Like a twig on the water.
- 8 Also the high places of Aven,
the sin of Israel,
Shall be destroyed.
The thorn and thistle shall grow on their altars;
They shall say to the mountains,
“Cover us!”
And to the hills, “Fall on us!”
- 9 “O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah;
There they stood.
The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity²²
Did not overtake them.
- 10 When it is my desire,
I will chasten them.
Peoples shall be gathered against them
When I bind them for their two transgressions.²³
- 11 Ephraim is a trained heifer
That loves to thresh grain;
But I harnessed her fair neck.
I will make Ephraim pull a plough.
Judah shall plough;
Jacob shall break his clods.”
- 12 Sow for yourselves righteousness;
Reap in mercy;
Break up your fallow ground,
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- 13 You have ploughed wickedness;
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
Because you trusted in your own way,
In the multitude of your mighty men.
- 14 Therefore tumult shall arise among your people,
And all your fortresses shall be plundered
As Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle—
A mother dashed in pieces upon her
children.
- 15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel,
Because of your great wickedness.
In a morning the king of Israel
Shall be cut off utterly.

The Land Laid Waste

- 2 Hear this, you elders,
And give ear, all you inhabitants of the
land!
Has anything like this happened in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
- 3 Tell your children about it,
Let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.
- 4 What the chewing locust¹ left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
What the swarming locust left,
the crawling locust has eaten;
And what the crawling locust left,
the consuming locust has eaten.
- 5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep;
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine,
For it has been cut off from your
mouth.
- 6 For a nation has come up against my
land,
Strong, and without number;
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he has the fangs of a fierce lion.
- 7 He has laid waste my vine,
And ruined my fig tree;
He has stripped it bare
and thrown it away;
Its branches are made white.
- 8 Lament like a virgin girded with
sackcloth
For the husband of her youth.
- 9 The grain offering and the drink offering
Have been cut off from the house of
the LORD;
The priests mourn,
who minister to the LORD.
- 10 The field is wasted,
The land mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
The new wine is dried up,
The oil fails.

- 11 Be ashamed, you farmers,
Wail, you vine-dressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the harvest of the field has perished.
- 12 The vine has dried up,
And the fig tree has withered;
The pomegranate tree,
The palm tree also,
And the apple tree—
All the trees of the field are withered:
Surely joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Mourning for the Land

- 13 Gird yourselves and lament,
you priests:
Wail, you who minister before the altar;
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
You who minister to my God:
For the grain offering
and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.
- 14 Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry out to the LORD.
- 15 Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is at hand;
It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.
- 16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes,
Joy and gladness from the house of our God?
- 17 The seed grain shrivels under the clods,
Storehouses are in shambles;
Barns are broken down,
For the grain has withered.
- 18 How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are restless,
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer your punishment.²
- 19 O LORD, to you I cry out:
For fire has devoured the open pastures.

1 Exact identity of these locusts is unknown. 2 Septuagint and Vulgate read are made desolate.

“The LORD roars from Zion,
And utters his voice from Jerusalem:
The pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the top of Carmel withers.”

Judgment on the Nations

3 Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Damascus,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have threshed Gilead with implements of iron.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazeel,
Which shall devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

5 I will also break the gate bar of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven,
And the one who holds the sceptre
from Beth Eden.
The people of Syria shall go captive to Kir.”
Says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Gaza,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they took captive the whole
captivity
To deliver them up to Edom.

7 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour its palaces.

8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,

And the one who holds the sceptre
from Ashkelon;

I will turn my hand against Ekron,
And the remnant of the Philistines shall perish.”
Says the Lord God.

9 Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Tyre,
and for four,

I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they delivered up the whole
captivity to Edom,

And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

10 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre,
Which shall devour its palaces.”

11 Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Edom,
and for four,

I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he pursued his brother with the sword,

And cast off all pity;
His anger tore perpetually,
And he kept his wrath for ever.

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman,
Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.”

13 Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of the people of Ammon, and for four,

I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they ripped open the women
with child in Gilead,

That they might enlarge their territory.”

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,

And it shall devour its palaces,
Amid shouting in the day of battle,
And a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

15 Their king shall go into captivity,
He and his princes together.”
Says the LORD.

- 17 In all vineyards there shall be wailing,
For I will pass through you,"
Says the LORD.
- 18 Woe to you who desire the day of the
LORD!
For what good is the day of the LORD
to you?
It will be darkness, and not light.
- 19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion,
And a bear met him;
Or as though he went into the house,
Leaned his hand on the wall,
And a serpent bit him.
- 20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness,
and not light?
Is it not very dark,
with no brightness in it?
- 21 "I hate, I despise your feast days,
And I do not savour your sacred assemblies.
- 22 Though you offer me burnt offerings
and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
Nor will I regard your fattened peace
offerings.
- 23 Take away from me the noise of your songs,
For I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments.
- 24 But let justice run down like water,
And righteousness like a mighty stream.
- 25 "Did you offer me sacrifices and
offerings
In the wilderness forty years,
O house of Israel?
- 26 You also carried Sikkuth⁵ your king⁶
And Chiun,⁷ your idols,
The star of your gods,
Which you made for yourselves.
- 27 Therefore I will send you into captivity beyond Damascus,"
Says the LORD,
whose name is the God of-hosts.

Warnings to Zion and Samaria

- 6 Woe to you who are at ease in Zion,
And trust in Mount Samaria,
Notable persons in the chief nation,
To whom the house of Israel comes!
- 2 Go over to Calneh and see;
And from there go to Hamath the great;
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory greater than your territory?

- 3 Woe to you who put far off the day of doom,
Who cause the seat of violence to come near;
- 4 Who lie on beds of ivory,
Stretch out on your couches,
Eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of the stall;
- 5 Who chant to the sound of stringed instruments,
And invent for yourselves musical instruments like David;
- 6 Who drink wine from bowls,
And anoint yourselves with the best ointments,
But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
- 7 Therefore they shall now go captive as the first of the captives,
And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.
- 8 The Lord GOD has sworn by himself,
The LORD God of hosts says:
"I abhor the pride of Jacob,
And hate his palaces;
Therefore I will deliver up the city
And all that is in it."
- 9 Then it shall come to pass, that if ten men remain in one house, they shall die.
- 10 And when a kinsman of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the bodies⁸ to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, "Are there any more with you?" Then someone will say, "None." And he will say,
"Hold your tongue! For we dare not mention the name of the LORD."
- 11 For behold, the LORD gives a
command:
He will break the great house into bits,
And the little house into pieces.
- 12 Do horses run on rocks?
Does one plough there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into gall,
And the fruit of righteousness into
wormwood.
- 13 You who rejoice over Lo Debar,⁹
Who say, "Have we not taken
Karnaim¹⁰ for ourselves
By our own strength?"

The Book of Obadiah

The Coming Judgment on Edom

THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD
concerning Edom
(We have heard a report from the
LORD,

And a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,

“Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle”):

- 2 “Behold, I will make you small among
the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.
- 3 The pride of your heart has deceived
you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
You who say in your heart,
“Who will bring me down to the ground?”
- 4 Though you exalt yourself as high as the eagle,
And though you set your nest among
the stars,
From there I will bring you down,”
says the LORD.
- 5 “If thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If grape-gatherers had come to you,
Would they not have left some
 gleanings?
- 6 “Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
- 7 All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
The men at peace with you Shall deceive you
and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap¹ for you.
No one is aware of it.
- 8 “Will I not in that day,” says the LORD,
“Even destroy the wise men from Edom,

And understanding from the mountains of Esau?”

- 9 Then your mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed.
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter.

Edom Mistreated His Brother

- 10 “For your violence against your brother
Jacob,
Shame shall cover you.
And you shall be cut off for ever.
- 11 In the day that you stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.
- 12 But you should not have gazed on the day of your brother
In the day of his captivity;²
Nor should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.
- 13 You should not have entered the gate
of my people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.
- 14 You should not have stood at the crossroads
To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained
In the day of distress.
- 15 “For the day of the LORD upon all the nations is near;
As you have done,
it shall be done to you;
Your reprisal shall return upon your own head.

1 Or wound, or plot 2 Literally on the day he became a foreigner

The Book of Micah

THE word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

The Coming Judgment on Israel

- 2 Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it!
Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you.
The Lord from his holy temple.
- 3 For behold, the LORD is coming out of his place;
He will come down
And tread on the high places of the earth.
- 4 The mountains will melt under him,
And the valleys will split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.
- 5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?
- 6 "Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field,
Places for planting a vineyard;
I will pour down her stones into the valley,
And I will uncover her foundations.
- 7 All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces,
And all her earnings as a prostitute shall be burned with the fire;
All her idols I will lay desolate.
For she gathered it from the earnings of a prostitute,
And they shall return to the earnings of a prostitute."

Mourning for Israel and Judah

- 8 Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go stripped and naked;
I will make a wailing like the jackals
And a mourning like the ostriches.

9 For her wounds are incurable.
For it has come to Judah;
It has come to the gate of my people.
Even to Jerusalem.

- 10 Tell it not in Gath.
Weep not at all in Beth Aphrah,¹
Roll yourself in the dust.
- 11 Pass by in naked shame,
you inhabitant of Shaphir;
The inhabitant of Zaanah²
does not go out.
Beth Ezel mourns;
Its place to stand is taken away from you.
- 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth pined³ for good,
But disaster came down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 O inhabitant of Lachish.
Harness the chariot to the swift steeds
(She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion).
For the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
- 14 Therefore you shall give presents to Moresheth Gath;⁴
The houses of Achzib⁵ shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
- 15 I will yet bring an heir to you,
O inhabitant of Mareshah;⁶
The glory of Israel
shall come to Adullam.
- 16 Make yourself bald
and cut off your hair,
Because of your precious children;
Enlarge your baldness like an eagle,
For they shall go from you into captivity.

Woe to Evil-doers

- 2 Woe to those who devise iniquity,
And work out evil on their beds!
At morning light they practise it,
Because it is in the power of their hand.
- 2 They covet fields
and take them by violence,
Also houses, and seize them.
So they oppress a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance.

1 Literally House of Dust 2 Literally Going Out 3 Literally was sick 4 Literally Possession of Gath
5 Literally Lie 6 Literally Inheritance

Or ten thousand rivers of oil?
 Shall I give my first-born for my
 transgression,
 The fruit of my body for the sin of my
 soul?

- 8 He has shown you, O man, what is
 good;
 And what does the LORD require of
 you
 But to do justly,
 To love mercy,
 And to walk humbly with your God?

Punishment of Israel's Injustice

- 9 The LORD's voice cries to the city—
 Wisdom shall see your name:
 "Hear the Rod!
 Who has appointed it?
 10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness
 In the house of the wicked,
 And the short measure that is an abomination?
 11 Shall I count pure
 those with the wicked balances,
 And with the bag of deceitful weights?
 12 For her rich men are full of violence,
 Her inhabitants have spoken lies,
 And their tongue is deceitful in their
 mouth.
 13 "Therefore I will also make you sick by striking you,
 By making you desolate because of your sins.
 14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied;
 Hunger¹⁶ shall be in your midst.
 You may carry some away,¹⁷
 but shall not save them;
 And what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.
 15 "You shall sow, but not reap;
 You shall tread the olives,
 but not anoint yourselves with oil;
 And make sweet wine,
 but not drink wine.
 16 For the statutes of Omri are kept:
 All the works of Ahab's house are done;
 And you walk in their counsels,
 That I may make you a desolation,
 And your inhabitants a hissing.
 Therefore you shall bear the reproach
 of my people."

Sorrow for Israel's Sins

- 7 Woe is me!
 For I am like those who gather summer fruits,

Like those who glean vintage grapes:
 There is no cluster to eat
 Of the first-ripe fruit which my soul desires.

- 2 The faithful man has perished from the
 earth,
 And there is no one upright among
 men.
 They all lie in wait for blood;
 Every man hunts his brother with a net.
 3 That they may successfully do evil with both hands—
 The prince asks for gifts,
 The judge seeks a bribe,
 And the great man utters his evil desire:
 So they scheme together.
 4 The best of them is like a brier:
 The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge;
 The day of your watchman and your punishment comes;
 Now shall be their perplexity.
 5 Do not trust in a friend:
 Do not put your confidence in a companion;
 Guard the doors of your mouth
 From her who lies in your bosom.
 6 For son dishonours father,
 Daughter rises against her mother, Daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law:
 A man's enemies are the men of his own house.
 7 Therefore I will look to the LORD:
 I will wait for the God of my
 salvation:
 My God will hear me.

Israel's Confession and Comfort

- 8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy;
 When I fall, I will arise:
 When I sit in darkness,
 The LORD will be a light to me.
 9 I will bear the indignation of the
 LORD,
 Because I have sinned against him,
 Until he pleads my case
 And executes justice for me;
 He will bring me forth to the light,
 And I will see his righteousness.
 10 Then she who is my enemy will see,
 And shame will cover her who said to
 me,
 "Where is the LORD your God?"
 My eyes will see her;
 Now she will be trampled down
 Like mire in the streets.

16 Or emptiness, or humiliation 17 Targum and Vulgate read you shall take hold.

- If they are shaken,
They fall into the mouth of the eater.
- 13 Surely, your people in your midst are
women!
The gates of your land are wide open for your enemies;
Fire shall devour the bars of your gates.
- 14 Draw your water for the siege!
Fortify your strongholds!
Go into the clay and tread the mortar!
Make strong the brick kiln!
- 15 There the fire will devour you,
The sword will cut you off;
It will eat you up like a locust.
- Make yourself many—
like the locust!
Make yourself many—
like the swarming locusts!
- 16 You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of heaven.
- The locust plunders and flies away.
- 17 Your commanders are like swarming
locusts,
And your captains like great
grasshoppers,
Which camp in the hedges on a cold
day;
But when the sun rises they flee away,
And the place where they are is not known.
- 18 Your shepherds slumber,
O king of Assyria;
Your nobles rest in the dust.
Your people are scattered on the
mountains,
And no one gathers them.
- 19 Your injury has no healing,
Your wound is severe.
All who hear news of you
Will clap their hands over you,
For upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually?

The Book of Zephaniah

THE word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

- 2 "I will utterly consume all things
From the face of the land,"
Says the LORD;
- 3 "I will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the
heavens,
The fish of the sea,
And the stumbling-blocks¹ along with the wicked.
I will cut off man from the face of the
land."
Says the LORD.
- 4 "I will stretch out my hand against Judah,
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every trace of Baal from
this place,
The names of the idolatrous priests²
with the pagan priests—
- 5 Those who worship the host of heaven
on the house-tops;
Those who worship and swear oaths by
the LORD,
But who also swear by Milcom;³
- 6 Those who have turned back from following the LORD,
And have not sought the LORD, nor inquired of him."
- 7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD;
For the day of the LORD is at hand,
For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
He has invited⁴ his guests.
- 8 "And it shall be,
In the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
That I will punish the princes
and the king's children,
And all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.

- 9 In the same day I will punish
All those who leap over the threshold,⁵
Who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

- 10 "And there shall be on that day,"
says the LORD.
"The sound of a mournful cry from the Fish Gate,
A wailing from the Second Quarter,
And a loud crashing from the hills.
11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh!⁶
For all the merchant people are cut down;
All those who handle money
are cut off.

- 12 "And it shall come to pass at that time
That I will search Jerusalem with lamps,
And punish the men
Who are settled in complacency,⁷
Who say in their heart,
'The LORD will not do good,
Nor will he do evil.'
13 Therefore their goods shall become booty,
And their houses a desolation;
They shall build houses,
but not inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards,
but not drink their wine."

- 14 The great day of the LORD is near;
It is near and hastens quickly.
The noise of the day of the LORD is bitter;
There the mighty men shall cry out.
15 That day is a day of wrath,
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of devastation and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of trumpet and alarm
Against the fortified cities
And against the high towers.

- 17 "I will bring distress upon men,
And they shall walk like blind men.

Egypt, so my Spirit remains among you; do not fear!

6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: "Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land;

7 "and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations,³ and I will fill this temple with glory," says the LORD of hosts.

8 "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine," says the LORD of hosts.

9 "The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former," says the LORD of hosts. "And in this place I will give peace," says the LORD of hosts."

The People Are Defiled

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Now, ask the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 "If one carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?"'" Then the priests answered and said, "No."

13 And Haggai said, "If one who is unclean because of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?" So the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean."

14 Then Haggai answered and said, "So is this people, and so is this nation before me," says the LORD, "and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Promised Blessing

15 "And now, carefully consider from this day forward: from before stone was laid upon stone in the temple of the LORD—

³ Or the desire of all nations

16 'since those days, when one came to a heap of twenty ephahs, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty baths from the press, there were but twenty.

17 'I struck you with blight and mildew and hail in all the labours of your hands: yet you did not turn to me,' says the LORD.

18 'Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid—consider it:

19 'Is the seed still in the barn? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day forward I will bless you.'"

Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet

20 And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,

21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying:

'I will shake heaven and earth.

22 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms;

I will destroy the strength of the Gentile kingdoms.

I will overthrow the chariots

And those who ride in them:

The horses and their riders shall come down.

Every one by the sword of his brother.

23 'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you as a signet ring; for I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

¹⁰ So I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"

¹¹ And he said to me, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar;⁶ when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base."

Vision of the Four Chariots

6 Then I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

² With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses,

³ with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses—strong steeds.

⁴ Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ And the angel answered and said to me, "These are four spirits of heaven, who go out from their station before the Lord of all the earth.

⁶ "The one with the black horses is going to the north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going towards the south country."

⁷ Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might walk to and fro throughout the earth. And he said, "Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth." So they walked to and fro throughout the earth.

⁸ And he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "See, those who go towards the north country have given rest to my Spirit in the north country."

The Command to Crown Joshua

⁹ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

¹⁰ "Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

¹¹ "Take the silver and gold, make an elaborate crown, and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

¹² "Then speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, saying:

"Behold, the man whose name is the BRANCH!

From his place he shall branch out, And he shall build the temple of the LORD;

¹³ Yes, he shall build the temple of the LORD.

He shall bear the glory,

And shall sit and rule on his throne;

So he shall be a priest on his throne,

And the counsel of peace shall be between them both.'"

¹⁴ "Now the elaborate crown shall be for a memorial in the temple of the LORD for Helém, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

¹⁵ "Even those who are far away shall come and build the temple of the LORD. Then you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

Obedience Better than Fasting

7 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu,

² when the people⁷ sent Sherezer,⁸ with Regem-Melech and his men, to the house of God,⁹ to pray before the LORD.

³ and to ask the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month and fast as I have done for so many years?"

⁴ Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

⁵ "Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months during those seventy years, did you really fast for me—for me?'

⁶ 'When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?'

⁷ 'Should you not have obeyed the words which the LORD proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and the South¹⁰ and the Lowland were inhabited?'

Disobedience Resulted in Exile

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

⁶ That is, Babylon ⁷ Literally they (compare verse 5) ⁸ Or Sar-Ezer ⁹ Hebrew Bethel ¹⁰ Hebrew Negvo

Desolation of Israel

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon,
That fire may devour your cedars.
2 Wail, O cypress,
for the cedar has fallen,
Because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the pride²⁰ of the Jordan is in ruins.

Prophecy of the Shepherds

4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Feed
the flock for slaughter, 5 "whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt; those who sell them say,
'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich'; and their shepherds do not pity them.
6 "For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbour's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."
7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock. I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Beauty,²¹ and the other I called Bonds;²²
and I fed the flock.
8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh."
10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the
LORD.
12 Then I said to them, "If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.
13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter.

14 Then I cut in two my other staff,
Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, "Next, take for yourself the implements of a foolish shepherd.

16 "For indeed I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces.

17 Woe to the worthless shepherd,
Who leaves the flock!
A sword shall be against his arm
And against his right eye;
His arm shall completely wither,
And his right eye shall be totally blinded.

The Coming Deliverance of Judah

12 The burden²³ of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him:

2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem.

3 "And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it.

4 "In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

5 "And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts,
their God.'

6 "In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left, but Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place—Jerusalem.

7 "The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah.

"And my name is to be feared among the nations.

Corrupt Priests

- 2 "And now, O priests,
this commandment is for you.
² If you will not hear,
And if you will not take it to heart,
To give glory to my name,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"I will send a curse upon you,
And I will curse your blessings.
Yes, I have cursed them already,
Because you do not take it to heart.
- ³ "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants
And spread refuse on your faces,
The refuse of your solemn feasts;
And one will take you away with it.
- ⁴ Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you,
That my covenant with Levi may continue,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
⁵ "My covenant was with him,
one of life and peace,
And I gave them to him that he might fear me;
So he feared me
And was reverent before my name.
- ⁶ The law of truth³ was in his mouth,
And injustice was not found on his lips.
He walked with me in peace and equity,
And turned many away from iniquity.
- ⁷ "For the lips of a priest should keep
knowledge,
And people should seek the law from his mouth;
For he is the messenger of the LORD of
hosts.
- ⁸ But you have departed from the way;
You have caused many to stumble at the law.
You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
- ⁹ "Therefore I also have made you contemptible and base
Before all the people,
Because you have not kept my ways
But have shown partiality in the law."

Treachery of Infidelity

- ¹⁰ Have we not all one Father?
Has not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously with one another

By profaning the covenant of the fathers?

- ¹¹ Judah has dealt treacherously.
And an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem,
For Judah has profaned
The LORD's holy institution which he loves:
He has married the daughter of a foreign god.
- ¹² May the LORD cut off from the tents of
Jacob
The man who does this,
being awake and aware,⁴
And who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.
- ¹³ And this is the second thing you do:
You cover the altar of the LORD with tears,
With weeping and crying;
So he does not regard the offering any more,
Nor receive it with good will from your hands.
- ¹⁴ Yet you say, "For what reason?"
Because the LORD has been witness Between you and the wife of your youth,
With whom you have dealt treacherously;
Yet she is your companion
And your wife by covenant.
- ¹⁵ But did he not make them one,
Having a remnant of the Spirit?
And why one?
He seeks godly offspring.
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.
- ¹⁶ "For the LORD God of Israel says
That he hates divorce.
For it covers one's garment with violence."
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Therefore take heed to your spirit,
That you do not deal treacherously."
- ¹⁷ You have wearied the LORD with your words;
Yet you say,
"In what way have we wearied him?"
In that you say,
"Everyone who does evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD,
And he delights in them."
Or, "Where is the God of justice?"

17 From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

18 Now Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

19 And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

20 Then they immediately left their nets and followed him.

21 And going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. And he called them.

22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

23 Now Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.

24 Then his fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought to him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them.

25 And great multitudes followed him—from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Beatitudes

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up on a mountain, and when he was seated his disciples came to him.

2 Then he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
For they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful,
For they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called sons of God.

10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 “Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for my sake.

12 “Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

13 “You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its taste, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.

14 “You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 “Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house.

16 “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

Christ Fulfills the Law

17 “Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.

18 “For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled.

19 “Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 “For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

21 “You have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder,’¹⁶ and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.

15 Isaiah 9:1, 2 16 Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17

26 "Now everyone who hears these sayings of mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand:

27 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at his teaching.

29 for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

8 When he had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, a leper came and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

3 Then Jesus put out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus said to him, "See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

5 Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, pleading with him,

6 saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralysed, dreadfully tormented."

7 And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed.

9 "For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!

11 "And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

12 "But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

Peter's Mother-in-law Healed

14 Now when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she arose and served them.²⁹

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

16 When evening had come, they brought to him many who were demon-possessed. And he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick,

17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

*"He himself took our infirmities
And bore our sicknesses."*³⁰

The Cost of Discipleship

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave a command to depart to the other side.

19 Then a certain scribe came and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

20 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 Then another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Winds and Waves Obey Jesus

23 Now when he got into a boat, his disciples followed him.

24 And suddenly a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But he was asleep.

25 Then his disciples came to him and awoke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

26 But he said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he arose and rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.

29 NU-Text and M-Text read him. 30 Isaiah 53:4

4 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see:

6 "And blessed is he who is not offended because of me."

7 As they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

8 "But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

10 "For this is he of whom it is written:

*'Behold, I send my messenger
before your face,
Who will prepare your way
before you.'*⁴⁵

11 "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 "And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 "For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 "And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come.

15 "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

16 "But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to their companions.

17 "and saying:

*'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not lament.'*

18 "For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'

19 "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a gluttonous man and a wine-bibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."⁴⁶

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

20 Then he began to upbraid the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent:

21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 "But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.

23 "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be⁴⁷ brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 "But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

Jesus Gives True Rest

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.

26 "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in your sight.

27 "All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son wills to reveal him.

28 "Come to me, all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

30 "For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time Jesus went through the cornfields on the Sabbath. And his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck ears of corn and to eat.

The Parable of the Tares Explained

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37 He answered and said to them: "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 "The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one.

39 "The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.

40 "Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age.

41 "The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and those who practise lawlessness.

42 "and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 "Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, 46 "who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Dragnet

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and gathered some of every kind,

48 "which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away.

49 "So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, separate the wicked from among the just,

50 "and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 Jesus said to them,⁵⁹ "Have you understood all these things?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."⁶⁰

52 Then he said to them, "Therefore every scribe instructed concerning⁶¹ the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that he departed from there.

54 And when he had come to his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these mighty works?"

55 "Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And his brothers James, Joses,⁶² Simon, and Judas?"

56 "And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?"

57 So they were offended at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his own country and in his own house."

58 And he did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus

² and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."

³ For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.

⁴ For John had said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."

⁵ And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

⁶ But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod.

⁷ Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

⁸ So she, having been prompted by her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter."

⁹ And the king was sorry; nevertheless,

28 "Assuredly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

17 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, brought them up on a high mountain by themselves,

2 and was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light.

3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him.

4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, let us⁷⁷ make here three booths; one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear him!"

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid.

7 But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid."

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Elijah truly is coming first⁷⁸ and will restore all things.

12 "But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands."

13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.

A Boy Is Healed

14 And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him and saying,

15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic⁷⁹ and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

16 "So I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."

17 Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to me."

18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and he came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast him out?"

20 So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief;⁸⁰ for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.

21 "However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."⁸¹

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

22 Now while they were staying⁸² in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men.

23 "and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up." And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

Peter and His Master Pay Their Taxes

24 And when they had come to Capernaum,⁸³ those who received the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?"

25 He said, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their own sons or from strangers?"

26 Peter said to him, "From strangers."

21 And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right hand and the other on the left, in your kingdom."

22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"¹⁰⁴ They said to him, "We are able."

23 So he said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;¹⁰⁵ but to sit on my right hand and on my left is not mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by my Father."

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers.

25 But Jesus called them to himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.

26 "Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.

27 "And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—

28 "just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

29 Now as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David!"

31 Then the multitude warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David!"

32 So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, "What do you want me to do for you?"

33 They said to him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."

34 So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 Now when they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,¹⁰⁶ at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to me.

3 "And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."

4 All¹⁰⁷ this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

5 "Tell the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your King is coming to you.
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.'¹⁰⁸

6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them.

7 They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their clothes on them, and set *him*¹⁰⁹ on them.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments on the road; others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the son of David!
'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!'¹¹⁰
Hosanna in the highest!"

10 And when he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"

11 So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 Then Jesus went into the temple of God¹¹¹ and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

13 And he said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer.'¹¹² but you have made it a 'den of thieves.'¹¹³

17 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies¹²⁵ the gold?"

18 "And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obliged to perform it.'"

19 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift?"

20 "Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it.

21 "He who swears by the temple, swears by it and by him who dwells¹²⁶ in it.

22 "And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by him who sits on it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithe of mint and anise and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

24 "Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!"

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence.¹²⁷

26 "Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.

28 "Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous.

30 "and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

31 "Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

32 "Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt.

33 "Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell?"

34 "Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, 35 "that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

36 "Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!

38 "See! Your house is left to you desolate;

39 "for I say to you, you shall see me no more till you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!'"¹²⁸

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

24 Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

3 Now as he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one deceives you.

5 "For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many.

6 "And you will hear of wars and rumours of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all¹²⁹ these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And

9 "For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."

10 But when Jesus was aware of it, he said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for me.

11 "For you have the poor with you always, but me you do not have always.

12 "For in pouring this fragrant oil on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.

16 So from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

17 Now on the first day of the Feast of the Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

18 And he said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples."'"

19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

20 Now when evening had come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 Now as they were eating, he said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will betray me."

22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to him, "Lord, is it I?"

23 Then he answered and said, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish will betray me.

24 "The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, who was betraying him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed¹⁴¹ it and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."

27 Then he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you.

28 "For this is my blood of the new¹⁴² covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 "But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me this night, for it is written:

*"I will strike the shepherd,
And the sheep of the flock will be scattered."¹⁴³*

32 "But after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee."

33 Peter answered and said to him, "Even if all are made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

35 Peter said to him, "Even if I have to die with you, I will not deny you!" And so said all the disciples.

The Prayer in the Garden

36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there."

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and he began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed.

38 Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with me."

39 He went a little farther and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "O my Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will."

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

57 Now when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

Pilate Sets a Guard

62 On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate,

63 saying, "Sir, we remember, while he was still alive, how that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise.'

64 "Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples should come by night¹⁶¹ and steal him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how."

66 So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard.

He Is Risen

28 Now after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door,¹⁶² and sat on it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.

4 And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men.

5 But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.

6 "He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 "And go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead, and indeed he is going before you into Galilee; there you will see him. Behold, I have told you."

8 So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.

The Women Worship the Risen Lord

9 And as they went to tell his disciples,¹⁶³ behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" And they came and held him by the feet and worshipped him.

10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

The Soldiers Are Bribed

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened.

12 When they had assembled with the elders and taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers.

13 saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole him away while we slept.'

14 "And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure."

15 So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

The Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.

18 Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.

19 "Go therefore¹⁶⁴ and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the rified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

13 Then he went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's post and said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

15 Now it happened, as he was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and⁸ Pharisees saw him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples, "How is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."⁹

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. And they came and said to him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

19 So Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.

20 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.

21 "No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on to an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse.

22 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

23 Now it happened that he went through the cornfields on the Sabbath; and as they went his disciples began to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said to him, "Look, why do they do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

25 But he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:

26 "how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

27 And he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

28 "Therefore the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

3 And he entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him closely, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

3 Then he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Step forward."

4 And he said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent.

5 So when he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.¹⁰

6 Then the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

A Great Multitude Follows Jesus

7 But Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea

8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how many things he was doing, came to him.

9 And he told his disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for him because of the multitude, lest they should crush him.

10 For he healed many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about him to touch him.

11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him and

8 NU-Text reads of the. 9 NU-Text omits to repentance. 10 NU-Text omits as whole as the other.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out of him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 But his disciples said to him, "You see the multitude thronging you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

32 And he looked around to see her who had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

34 And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

35 While he was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only believe."

37 And he permitted no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

38 Then he came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who wept and wailed loudly.

39 When he came in, he said to them, "Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but sleeping."

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with him, and entered where the child was lying.

41 Then he took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise."

42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were overcome with great amazement.

43 But he commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6 Then he went out from there and came to his own country, and his disciples followed him.

2 And when the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to him, that such mighty works are performed by his hands!"

3 "Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his own house."

5 Now he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. Then he went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

Sending Out the Twelve

7 And he called the twelve to him, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits.

8 He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their purses—

9 but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.

10 Also he said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place.

11 "And whoever²² will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.²³ Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

12 So they went out and preached that people should repent.

13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 Now King Herod heard of him, for his name had become well-known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."

15 Others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is the prophet, or²⁴ like one of the prophets."

16 But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!"

22 NU-Text reads whatever place. 23 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse. 24 NU-Text and M-Text omit or.

15 Then he charged them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

16 So they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17 And Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "Why do you reason because you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still³⁷ hardened?"

18 "Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember?"

19 "When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" They said to him, "Twelve."

20 "And when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?" And they said, "Seven."

21 So he said to them, "How is it you do not understand?"

A Blind Paralytic Healed at Bethsaida

22 Then he came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him.

23 So he took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when he had spat on his eyes and put his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

24 And he looked up and said, "I see men like trees, walking."

25 Then he put his hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the town, nor tell anyone in the town."³⁸

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

27 Now Jesus and his disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road he asked his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"

28 And they answered, "John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."

29 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered and said to him, "You are the Christ."

30 Then he charged them that they should tell no one about him.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 He spoke this word openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned around and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

34 And when he had called the people to him, with his disciples also, he said to them, "Whoever desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

36 "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?

37 "Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

38 "For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

9 And he said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see the kingdom of God present with power."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

2 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them.

3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three booths: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—

6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.

7 And a cloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Hear him!"

37 NU-Text omits still. 38 NU-Text reads "Do not even go into the town."

44 "And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all.
45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

46 Then they came to Jericho. And as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging.
47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me!"
48 Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"
49 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, he is calling you."
50 And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.
51 And Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "Rabboni that I may receive my sight."
52 Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 Now when they came near Jerusalem, to Bethphage⁵¹ and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent out two of his disciples;
2 and he said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it.
3 "And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."
4 So they went their way, and found the⁵² colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it.
5 And some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"
6 So they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. And they let them go.
7 Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments on it, and he sat on it.

8 And many spread their garments on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!

*'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!'*⁵³

10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David

That comes in the name of the Lord!⁵⁴
Hosanna in the highest!"

11 And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when he had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Fig Tree Withered

12 Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry.
13 And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, he went to see if perhaps he might find something on it. And when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
14 In response Jesus said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again." And his disciples heard it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 So they came to Jerusalem. And Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves.
16 And he would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple.
17 Then he taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'?⁵⁵ But you have made it a 'den of thieves'."⁵⁶
18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy him; for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his teaching.
19 And when evening had come, he went out of the city.

51 M-Text reads Bethsphage. 52 NU-Text and M-Text read a. 53 Psalm 118:26

54 NU-Text omits in the name of the Lord. 55 Isaiah 56:7 56 Jeremiah 7:11

26 "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 "And then he will send his angels, and gather together his elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

28 "Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.

29 "So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it⁷³ is near, at the very doors.

30 "Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.

31 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

32 "But of that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

33 "Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time is.

34 "It is like a man going to a far country, who left his house and gave authority to his servants, and to each his work, and commanded the door-keeper to watch.

35 "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming—in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the cock, or in the morning—

36 "lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 "And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After two days it was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by trickery and put him to death.

2 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

3 And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. And she broke the flask and poured it on his head.

4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted?"

5 "For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor." And they criticized her sharply.

6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me.

7 "For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; but me you do not have always.

8 "She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint my body for burial.

9 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the whole world, what this woman did will also be spoken of as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray him to them.

11 So when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

12 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare, that you may eat the Passover?"

13 So he sent out two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him.

14 "And wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'

15 "Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

16 And his disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as he had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

17 In the evening he came with the twelve.

73 Or he

from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Younger and of Joses, and Salome,⁴¹ who also followed him and ministered to him when he was in Galilee; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

⁴² Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath,

⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁴⁴ Pilate marvelled that he was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if he had been dead for some time.

⁴⁵ And when he had it confirmed by the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

⁴⁶ Then he bought fine linen, took him down, and wrapped him in the linen. And he laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

⁴⁷ And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed where he was laid.

He Is Risen

16 Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.

² Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

³ And they said among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"

⁴ But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large.

⁵ And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

⁶ But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him.

⁷ "But go and tell his disciples—and Peter—that he is going before you into Galilee; there you will see him, as he said to you."

⁸ And they went out quickly⁸⁸ and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

⁹ Now when he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.

¹⁰ She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

¹¹ And when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

Jesus Appears to Two Disciples

¹² After that, he appeared in another form to two of them as they walked and went into the country.

¹³ And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

The Great Commission

¹⁴ Afterwards he appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and he rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

¹⁵ And he said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

¹⁶ "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned.

¹⁷ "And these signs will follow those who believe: In my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues;

¹⁸ "they⁸⁹ will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Christ Ascends to God's Right Hand

¹⁹ So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.

²⁰ And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.⁹⁰

⁸⁸ NU-Text and M-Text omit quickly. ⁸⁹ NU-Text reads and in their hands they.

⁹⁰ Verses 9-20 are bracketed in NU-Texts as not original. They are lacking in Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus, although nearly all other manuscripts of Mark contain them.

15 So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us."

16 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 Now when they had seen him, they made widely⁸ known the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all those who heard it marvelled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.

20 Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Circumcision of Jesus

21 And when eight days were completed for the circumcision of the child,⁹ his name was called JESUS, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

22 Now when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD"),¹⁰

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons."¹¹

Simeon Sees God's Salvation

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law,

28 he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

29 "Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace,

According to your word;

30 For my eyes have seen your salvation

31 Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples,

32 A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles,

And the glory of your people Israel."

33 And Joseph and his mother¹² marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be spoken against 35 (yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna Bears Witness to the Redeemer

36 Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;

37 and this woman was a widow of about eighty-four years,¹³ who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And coming in that instant she gave thanks to the Lord,¹⁴ and spoke of him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

The Family Returns to Nazareth

39 So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.

40 And the child grew and became strong in spirit,¹⁵ filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

The Boy Jesus Amazes the Scholars

41 His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast.

43 When they had finished the days, as wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they made request of him concerning her.

³⁹ So he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

⁴⁰ Now when the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.

⁴¹ And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ,³⁴ the Son of God!" And he, rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that he was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

⁴² Now when it was day, he departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought him and came to him, and tried to keep him from leaving them;

⁴³ but he said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent."

⁴⁴ And he was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.³⁵

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

5 Now so it was, as the multitude pressed about him to hear the word of God, that he stood by the Lake of Gennesaret,

² and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets.

³ Then he got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

⁴ Now when he had stopped speaking, he said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

⁵ But Simon answered and said to him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at your word I will let down the net."

⁶ And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.

⁷ So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

⁹ For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken;

¹⁰ and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men."

¹¹ So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed him.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

¹² And it happened when he was in a certain city, that behold, a man who was full of leprosy saw Jesus; and he fell on his face and implored him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

¹³ Then he put out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

¹⁴ And he charged him to tell no one. "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them, just as Moses commanded."

¹⁵ Then the report went around concerning him all the more; and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

¹⁶ So he himself often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

¹⁷ Now it happened on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.³⁶

¹⁸ Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralysed. And they sought to bring him in and lay him before him.

¹⁹ And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the house-top and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus.

still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise."

15 And he who was dead sat up and began to speak. And he presented him to his mother.

16 Then fear came upon all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, "God has visited his people."

17 And this report about him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

18 Then the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things.

19 And John, calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to Jesus,⁵³ saying, "Are you the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the Coming One, or do we look for another?'"

21 And that very hour he cured many people of their infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them.

23 "And blessed is he who is not offended because of me."

24 When the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 "But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously apparelled and live in luxury are in kings' courts.

26 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

27 "This is he of whom it is written:

*'Behold, I send my messenger
before your face,
Who will prepare your way
before you.'*⁵⁴

28 "For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist;⁵⁵ but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And when all the people heard him, even the tax collectors justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.

31 And the Lord said,⁵⁶ "To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children sitting in the market-place and calling to one another, saying:

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not weep.'

33 "For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.'

34 "The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a wine-bibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

35 "But wisdom is justified by all her children."

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

36 Then one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him. And he went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil,

38 and stood at his feet behind him weeping; and she began to wash his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed his feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This man, if he were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said, "Teacher, say it."

blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.
 17 So they all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

18 And it happened, as he was alone praying, that his disciples joined him, and he asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

19 So they answered and said, "John the Baptist, but some say Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21 And he strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one,

22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

23 Then he said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,⁶⁹ and follow me.

24 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

25 "For what advantage is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost?

26 "For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his own glory, and in his Father's, and in the glory of the holy angels.

27 "But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

28 And it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that he took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his face was altered, and his robe became white and glistening.

30 Then behold, two men talked with him, who were Moses and Elijah.

31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

33 And it happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three booths: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"— not knowing what he said.

34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the cloud.

35 Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son.⁷⁰ Hear him!"

36 And when the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. But they kept quiet, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

A Boy Is Healed

37 Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met him.

38 Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore you, look on my son, for he is my only child.

39 "And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out: it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth, and bruising him, it departs from him with great difficulty.

40 "So I implored your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

41 Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

42 And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

43 And they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But while everyone marvelled at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 "Let these words sink down into your

Keeping the Word

27 And it happened, as he spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"

28 But he said, "Instead of that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Seeking a Sign

29 And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.⁹²

30 "For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation.

31 "The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

32 "The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

The Lamp of the Body

33 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light.

34 "The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

35 "Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness.

36 "If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

Woe to the Pharisees and Lawyers

37 And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. So he went in and sat down to eat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness.

40 "Foolish ones! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also?

41 "But rather give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass by justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the market-places.

44 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!" For you are like graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45 Then one of the lawyers answered and said to him, "Teacher, by saying these things you reproach us also."

46 And he said, "Woe to you also, you lawyers! For you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 "In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,'

50 "that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation,

51 "from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

53 And as he said these things to them,⁹⁴ the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail him vehemently, and to cross-examine him about many things.

of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out.

29 "They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 "And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

31 On that very day¹⁰⁴ some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill you."

32 And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.'

33 "Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing!

35 "See! Your house is left to you desolate; and assuredly,¹⁰⁵ I say to you, you shall not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!'"¹⁰⁶

A Man with Dropsy Healed on the Sabbath

14 Now it happened, as he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched him closely.

2 And behold, there was a certain man before him who had dropsy.

3 And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"¹⁰⁷

4 But they kept silent. And he took him and healed him, and let him go.

5 Then he answered them, saying, "Which of you, having a donkey¹⁰⁸ or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"

6 And they could not answer him regarding these things.

Take the Lowly Place

7 So he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noted how they chose the best places, saying to them:

8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honourable than you be invited by him;

9 "and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place.

10 "But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you.

11 "For whoever exalts himself will be abased, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

12 Then he also said to him who invited him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor your rich neighbours, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid.

13 "But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind.

14 "And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

The Parable of the Great Supper

15 Now when one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who shall eat bread¹⁰⁹ in the kingdom of God!"

16 Then he said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper and invited many,

17 "and sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.'

18 "But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.'

19 "And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.'

20 "Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.'

21 "So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the mas-

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11 Now it happened as he went to Jerusalem that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 Then as he entered a certain village, there met him ten men who were lepers, who stood afar off.

13 And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 So when he saw them, he said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Now one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice glorified God,

16 and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

17 So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?"

18 "Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?"

19 And he said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

20 Now when he was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation;

21 "nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!'"¹¹⁹ For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you."

22 Then he said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it."

23 "And they will say to you, 'Look here!' or 'Look there!'"¹¹⁹ Do not go after them or follow them.

24 "For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in his day.

25 "But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 "And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man:

27 "They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 "Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 "but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 "Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

31 "In that day, he who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back.

32 "Remember Lot's wife.

33 "Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.

34 "I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left."¹²⁰

35 "Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left.

36 "Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."¹²⁰

37 And they answered and said to him, "Where, Lord?" So he said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then he spoke a parable to them to this end, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart.

² saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man.

³ "Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Avenge me of my adversary.'

⁴ "And he would not for a while; but afterwards he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man,

⁵ 'yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

⁶ Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said.

⁷ "And shall God not avenge his own elect who cry out day and night to him, though he bears long with them?"

⁸ "I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he really find faith on the earth?"

12 "And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

13 "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.'

14 "But when the vine-dressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.'

15 "So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

16 "He will come and destroy those vine-dressers and give the vineyard to others." And when they heard it they said, "God forbid!"

17 And he looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

*'The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief corner-stone'*?¹³²

18 "Whoever falls on that stone will be broken; but on whoever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

19 And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on him, but they feared the people¹³³—for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

20 So they watched him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on his words, in order to deliver him to the power and the authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach rightly, and you do not show personal favouritism, but teach the way of God truly:

22 "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me?¹³⁴

24 "Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They answered and said, "Caesar's."

25 And he said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26 But they could not catch him in his words in the presence of the people. And they marvelled at his answer and kept silent.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

27 Then some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, came to him and asked him,

28 saying: "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

29 "Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 "And the second¹³⁵ took her as wife, and he died childless.

31 "Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children,¹³⁶ and died.

32 "Last of all the woman died also.

33 "Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."

34 And Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage.

35 "But those who are counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;

36 "nor can they die any more, for they are equal to the angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 "Now even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'¹³⁷

38 "For he is not the God of the dead but of the living, for all live to him."

39 Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, you have spoken well."

40 But after that they dared not question him any more.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

41 And he said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son?

42 "Now David himself said in the Book of Psalms,

132 Psalm 118:22 133 M-Text reads but they were afraid. 134 NU-Text omits Why do you test me?

135 NU-Text ends verse 30 here. 136 NU-Text and M-Text read the seven also left no children

137 Exodus 3:6, 15

53 "When I was with you daily in the temple, you did not try to seize me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

54 Then, having arrested him, they led him and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed at a distance.

55 Now when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with him."

57 But he denied him,¹⁴⁸ saying, "Woman, I do not know him."

58 And after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 Then after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Surely this fellow also was with him, for he is a Galilean."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!" And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock¹⁴⁹ crowed.

61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows,¹⁵⁰ you will deny me three times."

62 Then Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

63 Now the men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him.

64 And having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him,¹⁵¹ saying, "Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?"

65 And many other things they blasphemously spoke against him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

66 As soon as it was day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led him into their council, saying,

67 "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you will by no means believe.

68 "And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer me or let me go.¹⁵²

69 "Hereafter the Son of Man will sit on the right hand of the power of God."

70 Then they all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You rightly say that I am."

71 And they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from his own mouth."

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

23 Then the whole multitude of them arose and led him to Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this fellow perverting the¹⁵³ nation, and forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a King."

3 So Pilate asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him and said, "It is as you say."

4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no fault in this man."

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place."

Jesus Faces Herod

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee,¹⁵⁴ he asked if the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see him, because he had heard many things about him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned him with many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 Then Herod, with his men of war, treated him with contempt and mocked him, arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him back to Pilate.

12 That very day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for before that they had been at enmity between themselves.

148 NU-Text reads denied it. 149 NU-Text and M-Text read a cock. 150 NU-Text adds today.

151 NU-Text reads And having blindfolded him, they asked him. 152 NU-Text omits also and me or let me go.

153 NU-Text reads our. 154 NU-Text omits of Galilee.

any, and he lifted up his hands and blessed them.

⁵¹ Now it came to pass, while he blessed them, that he was parted from them and carried up into heaven.

⁵² And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,

⁵³ and were continually in the temple, praising and¹⁷⁷ blessing God. Amen.¹⁷⁸

¹⁷⁷ NU-Text omits praising and. ¹⁷⁸ NU-Text omits Amen.

17 "For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.

18 "He who believes in him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 "For everyone practising evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.

21 "But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judea, and there he remained with them and baptized.

23 Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. And they came and were baptized.

24 For John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification.

26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified—behold, he is baptizing, and all are coming to him!"

27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven.

28 "You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before him.'

29 "He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled.

30 "He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 "He who comes from above is above all; he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.

32 "And what he has seen and heard, that he testifies; and no one receives his testimony.

33 "He who has received his testimony has certified that God is true.

34 "For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure.

35 "The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.

36 "He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

A Samaritan Woman Meets Her Messiah

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John

2 (though Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples),

3 He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

4 But he needed to go through Samaria.

5 So he came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from his journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

8 For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do you get that living water?"

12 "Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, his disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost."

13 Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Sea

15 Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he departed again to a mountain by himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

17 got into the boat, and went over the sea towards Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.

18 Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing.

19 So when they had rowed about three or four miles,¹⁷ they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were afraid.

20 But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid."

21 Then they willingly received him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

The Bread from Heaven

22 On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which his disciples had entered,¹⁸ and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but his disciples had gone away alone—

23 however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks—

24 when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.

27 "Do not labour for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set his seal on him."

28 Then they said to him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he sent."

30 Therefore they said to him, "What sign will you perform then, that we may see it and believe you? What work will you do?"

31 "Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"¹⁹

32 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

33 "For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 Then they said to him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me shall never hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.

36 "But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe.

37 "All that the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will by no means cast out.

38 "For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

39 "This is the will of the Father who sent me, that of all he has given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day.

40 "And this is the will of him who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Rejected by His Own

41 The Jews then murmured against him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven."

42 And they said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that he says, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

17 Greek twenty-five or thirty stadia 18 NU-Text omits that and which his disciples had entered

19 Exodus 16:4; Nehemiah 9:15; Psalm 78:24

17 "It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.

18 "I am one who bears witness of myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness of me."

19 Then they said to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also."

20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple; and no one laid a hand on him, for his hour had not yet come.

Jesus Predicts His Departure

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come."

22 So the Jews said, "Will he kill himself, because he says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?"

23 And he said to them, "You are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 "Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

25 Then they said to him, "Who are you?" And Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning.

26 "I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but he who sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I heard from him."

27 They did not understand that he spoke to them of the Father.

28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father taught me, I speak these things.

29 "And he who sent me is with me. The Father has not left me alone, for I always do those things that please him."

The Truth Shall Make You Free

30 As he spoke these words, many believed in him.

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are my disciples indeed.

32 "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

47 NU-Text reads heard from.

33 They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin.

35 "And a slave does not abide in the house for ever, but a son abides for ever.

36 "Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

Abraham's Seed and Satan's

37 "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you.

38 "I speak what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have seen with⁴⁷ your father."

39 They answered and said to him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

40 "But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.

41 "You do the deeds of your father." Then they said to him, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father—God."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; nor have I come of myself, but he sent me.

43 "Why do you not understand my speech? Because you are not able to listen to my word.

44 "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.

45 "But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me.

46 "Which of you convicts me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?"

47 "He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

Before Abraham Was, I AM

48 Then the Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not say rightly that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

lately the Jews sought to stone you, and are you going there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

10 "But if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

11 These things he said, and after that he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up."

12 Then his disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well."

13 However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that he was speaking about taking rest in sleep.

14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead.

15 "And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had already been in the tomb four days.

18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles⁵⁹ away.

19 And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary was sitting in the house.

21 Then Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 "But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you."

23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, even though he dies, he shall live.

26 "And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

⁵⁹ Greek fifteen stadia ⁶⁰ NU-Text adds still.

⁶¹ NU-Text reads supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

⁶² NU-Text omits from the place where the dead man was lying.

Jesus and Death, the Last Enemy

28 And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you."

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was⁶⁰ in the place where Martha met him.

31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."⁶¹

32 Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, he groaned in the spirit and was troubled.

34 And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

37 And some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

38 Then Jesus, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?"

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.⁶² And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

42 "And I know that you always hear me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that you sent me."

he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 But no one at the table knew for what reason he said this to him.

29 For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

30 Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

31 So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 "If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him immediately.

33 "Little children, I shall be with you a little while longer. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you.

34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you shall follow me afterwards."

37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake."

38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for my sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the cock shall not crow till you have denied me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in me.

2 "In my Father's house are many mansions;⁷⁷ if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.⁷⁸

77 Literally dwellings

78 NU-Text adds a word which would cause the text to read either if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? or if it were not so I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.

79 NU-Text adds me. 80 NU-Text reads you will keep.

3 "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there you may be also.

4 "And where I go you know, and the way you know."

5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going, and how can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

The Father Revealed

7 "If you had known me, you would have known my Father also; and from now on you know him and have seen him."

8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."

9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

10 "Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own authority; but the Father who dwells in me does the works.

11 "Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me, or else believe me for the sake of the works themselves.

The Answered Prayer

12 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to my Father.

13 "And whatever you ask in my name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 "If you ask⁷⁹ anything in my name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises Another Helper

15 "If you love me, keep⁸⁰ my commandments.

16 "And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Helper, that he may abide with you for ever.

17 "even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him; but you know 19 "And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20 "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will⁹² believe in me through their word;

21 "that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me, and I in you; that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that you sent me.

22 "And the glory which you gave me I have given them, that they may be one just as we are one:

23 "I in them, and you in me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that you have sent me, and have loved them as you have loved me.

24 "Father, I desire that they also whom you gave me may be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which you have given me; for you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25 "O righteous Father! The world has not known you, but I have known you; and these have known that you sent me.

26 "And I have declared to them your name, and will declare it, that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the Brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.

2 And Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place; for Jesus often met there with his disciples.

3 Then Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that would come upon him, went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"

5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." And Judas, who betrayed him, also stood with them.

6 Then—when he said to them, "I am he,"—they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

8 Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am he. Therefore, if you seek me, let these go their way."

9 that the saying might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you gave me I have lost none."

10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which my Father has given me?"

Before the High Priest

12 Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound him.

13 And they led him away to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas who was high priest that year.

14 Now it was Caiaphas who gave counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another⁹³ disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in.

17 Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not."

18 And the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

Jesus Questioned by the High Priest

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples and his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where the Jews always meet,⁹⁴ and in secret I have said nothing.

92 NU-Text and M-Text omit will. 93 M-Text reads the other. 94 NU-Text reads where all the Jews meet.

to you! As the Father has sent me, I also send you."

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Seeing and Believing

24 But Thomas, called Didymus, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

26 And after eight days his disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!"

27 Then he said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at my hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into my side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing."

28 And Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus said to him, "Thomas,¹⁰⁵ because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

That You May Believe

30 And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book;

31 but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

Breakfast by the Sea

21 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and in this way he showed himself:

2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together.

3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately¹⁰⁶ got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered him, "No."

6 And he said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish.

9 Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.

10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11 Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken.

12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?"—knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

14 This is now the third time Jesus showed himself to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah,¹⁰⁷ do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."

16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah,¹⁰⁷ do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."

17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah,¹⁰⁷ do you love me?" Peter

Moreover my flesh will also rest in hope,
27 Because you will not leave
my soul in Hades,
Nor will you allow your Holy One to see corruption.
28 You have made known to me
the ways of life;
You will make me full of joy
in your presence.¹⁰

29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 "Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne.¹¹

31 "he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that his soul was not left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.

32 "This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses.

33 "Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he poured out this which you now see and hear.

34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself:

*"The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand,
35 Till I make your enemies your footstool."'¹²*

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"

38 Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 "For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

A Vital Church Grows

40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation."

41 Then those who gladly¹³ received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 Then fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

44 Now all who believed were together,
and had all things in common,

45 and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need.

46 So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart.

47 praising God and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church¹⁴ daily those who were being saved.

A Lame Man Healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple;

3 who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms.

4 And fixing his eyes on him, with John,
Peter said, "Look at us."

5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you:
In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

31 "Him God has exalted to his right hand to be Prince and Saviour, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

32 "And we are his witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Gamaliel's Advice

33 When they heard this, they were furious and took counsel to kill them.

34 Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while.

35 And he said to them: "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as to what you intend to do regarding these men.

36 "For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing.

37 "After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed.

38 "And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing;

39 "but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found to fight against God."

40 And they agreed with him, and when they had called for the apostles and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 So they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.²⁶

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease from teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring against the Hebrews by the Hellenists, because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution.

2 Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.

3 "Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business;

4 "but we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch,

6 whom they set before the apostles; and when they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

7 And the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

8 And Stephen, full of faith²⁷ and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

9 Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."

12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council.

13 They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous²⁸ words against this holy place and the law;

14 "for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us."

15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

26 NU-Text reads the name; M-Text reads the name of Jesus. 27 NU-Text reads grace.

28 NU-Text omits blasphemous.

27 So he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

*"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And like a lamb silent before its shearer,
So he did not open his mouth.*

33 In his humiliation his justice was taken away.

*And who will declare his generation?
For his life is taken from the earth."⁴³*

34 So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?"

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him.

36 Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What hinders me from being baptized?"

37 Then Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."⁴⁴

38 So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him.

39 Now when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to Caesarea.

The Damascus Road: Saul Converted

9 Then Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

2 and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven.

4 Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

5 And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.⁴⁵ It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

6 So he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do you want me to do?" And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one.

8 Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11 So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying.

12 "And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hands on him, so that he might receive his sight."

13 Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem.

14 "And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

43 Isaiah 53:7, 8

44 NU-Text and M-Text omit this verse. It is found in Western texts, including the Latin tradition.

45 NU-Text and M-Text omit the last sentence of verse 5 and begin verse 6 with But arise and go

11 "At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea.

12 "Then the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

13 "And he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter,

14 'who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.'

15 "And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, as upon us at the beginning.

16 "Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

17 "If therefore God gave them the same gift as he gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?"

18 When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life."

Barnabas and Saul at Antioch

19 Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only.

20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.

22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch.

23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Relief to Judea

27 And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar.

29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

30 This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Herod's Violence to the Church

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church.

2 Then he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during the days of Unleavened Bread.

4 So when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after the Passover.

Peter Freed from Prison

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but constant⁵⁴ prayer was offered to God for him by the church.

6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were keeping the prison.

7 Now behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands.

8 Then the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me."

9 So he went out and followed him, and did not know that what was done by the 54 NU-Text reads constantly (or earnestly).

and ran in among the multitude, crying out

15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 16 "who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 "Nevertheless he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good, gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."

18 And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

Stoning, Escape to Derbe

19 Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead.

20 However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Converts

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,

22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

23 So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

24 And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.

27 And when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

28 So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Conflict over Circumcision

15 And certain men came down from Judea and taught the brethren, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders, about this question.

3 So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.

4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

The Jerusalem Council

6 So the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: "Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.

8 "So God, who knows the heart, acknowledged them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, 9 "and made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 "Now therefore, why do you test God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 "But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ⁶⁷ we shall be saved in the same manner as they."

12 Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God

The Philosophers at Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was given over to idols.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshippers, and in the market-place daily with those who happened to be there.

18 Then⁷⁶ certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection.

19 And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak?"

20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."

21 For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either telling or hearing some new thing.

Addressing the Areopagus

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;

23 "for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore, the one whom you worship without knowing, him I proclaim to you:

24 "God, who made the world and everything in it, since he is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands.

25 "Nor is he worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed anything, since he gives to all life, breath, and all things.

26 "And he has made from one blood⁷⁷ every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their pre-appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation,

27 "so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us;

28 "for in him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'

29 "Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the divine nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising.

30 "Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all men everywhere to repent,

31 "because he has appointed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all, by raising him from the dead."

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter."

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Ministering at Corinth

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth.

2 And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them.

3 So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5 When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ.

6 But when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook his garments and said to them, "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named Justus,⁷⁸ one who worshipped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

76 NU-Text and M-Text add also. 77 NU-Text omits blood. 78 NU-Text reads Titus Justus.

that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

25 "And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.

26 "Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men.

27 "For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God.

28 "Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God⁸⁹ which he purchased with his own blood.

29 "For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 "Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.

31 "Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

32 "And now, brethren, I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel.

34 "Yes,⁹⁰ you yourselves know that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me.

35 "I have shown you in every way, by labouring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36 And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 Then they all wept freely, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

3 When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

4 And finding disciples,⁹¹ we stayed there seven days. They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.

5 When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And we knelt down on the shore and prayed.

6 When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day.

8 On the next day we who were Paul's companions⁹² departed and came to Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

10 And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

11 When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

12 And when we heard these things, both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14 So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

Paul Urged to Make Peace

15 And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem.

16 Also some of the disciples from

89 M-Text reads of the Lord and God. 90 NU-Text and M-Text omit Yes. 91 NU-Text reads the disciples.
92 NU-Text omits who were Paul's companions.

- 26 Claudius Lysias,
To the most excellent governor Felix:
Greetings.
- 27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.
- 28 And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council.
- 29 I found out that he was accused concerning questions of their law, but had nothing charged against him worthy of death or chains.
- 30 And when it was told me that the Jews lay in wait for the man,¹⁰¹ I sent him immediately to you, and also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him.
Farewell.
- 31 Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
- 32 The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks.
- 33 When they came to Caesarea and had delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.
- 34 And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia,
- 35 he said, "I will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

Accused of Sedition

24 Now after five days Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight,

3 "we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 "Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your courtesy, a few words from us.

5 "For we have found this man to be a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

6 "He even tried to profane the temple, and we seized him,¹⁰² and wanted to judge him according to our law.

7 "But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands,

8 "commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

9 And the Jews also assented, maintaining that these things were so.

The Defence Before Felix

10 Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself.

11 "because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

12 "And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city.

13 "Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.

14 "But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and in the Prophets.

15 "I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, that there will be a resurrection of the dead,¹⁰³ both of the just and the unjust.

16 "This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offence towards God and men.

17 "Now after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, 18 "in the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with a multitude nor with tumult.

19 "They ought to have been here before you to object if they had anything against me.

20 "Or else let those who are here themselves say if they found any wrongdoing¹⁰⁴ in me while I stood before the council.

101 NU-Text reads there would be a plot against the man.

102 NU-Text ends the sentence here and omits the rest of verse 6, all of verse 7, and the first clause of verse 8.

103 NU-Text omits of the dead. 104 NU-Text and M-Text read what wrongdoing they have found.

In the Tempest

13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose, called Euroclydon.¹¹⁰

15 So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under the shelter of an island called Clau¹¹¹, we secured the skiff with difficulty.

17 When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the Syrtis¹¹² Sands, they struck sail and so were driven.

18 And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship.

19 On the third day we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.

20 Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

21 But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss.

22 "And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 "For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve.

24 "saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.'

25 "Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me.

26 "However, we must run aground on a certain island."

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land.

28 And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come.

30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretence of putting out anchors from the prow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

33 And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing.

34 "Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you."

35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat.

36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves.

37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship.

38 So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Shipwrecked on Malta

39 Now when it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, on to which they planned to run the ship if possible.

40 And they let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore.

41 But striking a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

42 Now the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land.

110 NU-Text reads Euraquilon. 111 NU-Text reads Cauda. 112 M-Text reads Syrtis.

27 Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting;

29 being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality,³ wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers,

30 backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving,⁴ unmerciful;

32 who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practise them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge do the same things.

2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practise such things.

3 And do you think this, O man, you who judge those who do such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?

4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?

5 But in accordance with your hardness and your impenitent heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

6 who "will render to each one according to his deeds";⁵

7 eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honour, and immortality;

8 but to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—indignation and wrath,

9 tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek;

10 but glory, honour, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

11 For there is no partiality with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law

13 (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified;

14 for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things contained in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves.

15 who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them)

16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

The Jews as Guilty as the Gentiles

17 Indeed⁶ you are called a Jew, and rest on the law, and make your boast in God,

18 and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law.

19 and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having the form of knowledge and truth in the law.

21 You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

23 You who make your boast in the law, do you dishonour God through breaking the law?

24 For "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,"⁷ as it is written.

Circumcision of No Avail

25 For circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

3 NU-Text omits sexual immorality. 4 NU-Text omits unforgiving. 5 Psalm 62:12; Proverbs 24:12

6 NU-Text reads But if. 7 Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:22

Death no longer has dominion over him.

10 For the death that he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life that he lives, he lives to God.

11 Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.

13 And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not!

16 Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves as slaves to obey, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?

17 But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered.

18 And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.

20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

21 What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Freed from the Law

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives?

2 For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man.

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also have become dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit to God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death.

6 But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

Sin's Advantage in the Law

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."²³

8 But sin, taking opportunity by the commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For apart from the law sin was dead.

9 I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died.

10 And the commandment, which was to bring life, I found to bring death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me.

12 Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

The Law Cannot Save from Sin

13 Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear to be sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.

²³ Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21

6 But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'"⁴³ (that is, to bring Christ down from above)

7 or, "Who will descend into the abyss?'"⁴⁴ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, even in your mouth and in your heart"⁴⁵ (that is, the word of faith which we preach):

9 that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

10 For with the heart one believes to righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made to salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on him will not be put to shame."⁴⁶

12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon him.

13 For "whoever calls upon the name of the LORD shall be saved."⁴⁷

Israel Rejects the Gospel

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

*"How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace,
Who bring glad tidings of good things!"*⁴⁸

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"⁴⁹

17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

*"Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
And their words to the ends of the world."*⁵⁰

19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

*"I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation,
I will anger you by a foolish nation."*⁵²

20 But Isaiah is very bold and says:

*"I was found by those who did not seek me;
I was made manifest to those who did not ask for me."*⁵³

21 But to Israel he says:

*"All day long I have stretched out my hands
To a disobedient and contrary people."*⁵⁴

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I say then, has God cast away his people? Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God has not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying,

3 "LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life"⁵⁵

4 But what does the divine answer say to him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."⁵⁶

5 Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.⁵⁷ But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise works are no longer works.

7 What then? Israel has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were hardened.

8 Just as it is written:

*"God has given them a spirit of stupor,
Eyes that they should not see
And ears that they should not hear.
To this very day."*⁵⁸

9 And David says:

"Let their table become a snare and a trap."

43 Deuteronomy 30:12 44 Deuteronomy 30:13 45 Deuteronomy 30:14 46 Isaiah 28:16 47 Joel 2:32
48 NU-Text omits preach the gospel of peace, Who. 49 Isaiah 52:7; Nahum 1:15 50 Isaiah 53:1
51 Psalm 19:4 52 Deuteronomy 32:21 53 Isaiah 65:1 54 Isaiah 65:2 55 1 Kings 19:10, 14
56 1 Kings 19:18 57 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse. 58 Deuteronomy 29:4; Isaiah 29:10

3 For even Christ did not please himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me."⁷⁷

4 For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded towards one another, according to Christ Jesus,

6 that you may with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Glorify God Together

7 Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us,⁷⁸ to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers,

9 and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy, as it is written:

*"For this reason I will confess to you among the Gentiles,
And sing to your name."*⁷⁹

10 And again he says:

*"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people!"*⁸⁰

11 And again:

*"Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud him, all you peoples!"*⁸¹

12 And again, Isaiah says:

*"There shall be a root of Jesse;
And he who shall rise to reign
over the Gentiles,
In him the Gentiles shall hope."*⁸²

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

14 Now I myself am confident concerning you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.⁸³

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written more boldly to you on some points, as reminding you, because of the grace given to me by God,

16 that I might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus in the things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, to make the Gentiles obedient—

19 in mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation,

21 but as it is written:

*"To whom he was not announced,
they shall see;
And those who have not heard shall understand."*⁸⁴

Plan to Visit Rome

22 For this reason I also have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now no longer having a place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you,

24 whenever I journey to Spain, I shall come to you. For I hope⁸⁵ to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while.

25 But now I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints.

26 For it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem.

27 It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things.

77 Psalm 69:9 78 NU-Text and M-Text read you. 79 2 Samuel 22:50; Psalm 18:49 80 Deuteronomy 32:43

81 Psalm 117:1 82 Isaiah 11:10 83 M-Text reads others. 84 Isaiah 52:15

85 NU-Text reads whenever I journey to Spain, for I hope that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.

27 But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty;

28 and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,

29 that no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption—

31 that, as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory in the LORD."³

Christ Crucified

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony⁴ of God.

2 For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

3 I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human⁵ wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

5 that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

6 However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory,

8 which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written:

*"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
Nor have entered into the heart of man
The things which God has prepared for those who love him."*⁶

10 But God has revealed them to us through his Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

13 These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy⁷ Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one.

16 For "Who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct him?"⁸ But we have the mind of Christ.

Factions Are Carnal

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ.

2 I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able;

3 for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?

4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

Watering, Working, Warning

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one?

6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.

8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labour.

be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it.

22 For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is Christ's slave.

23 You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men.

24 Brethren, let each one remain with God in that calling in which he was called.

To the Unmarried and Widows

25 Now concerning virgins: I have no commandment from the Lord; yet I give judgment as one whom the Lord in his mercy has made trustworthy.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress—that it is good for a man to remain as he is:

27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

28 But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none.

30 those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess,

31 and those who use this world as not misusing it. For the form of this world is passing away.

32 But I want you to be without care. He who is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord—how he may please the Lord.

33 But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife.

34 There is¹⁹ a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly towards his virgin, if she is past the flower of her youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes; he does not sin; let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his virgin,²⁰ does well.

38 So then he who gives *her*²¹ in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39 A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she remains as she is, according to my judgment—and I think I also have the Spirit of God.

Be Sensitive to Conscience

8 Now concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies.

2 And if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by him.

4 Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.

5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords).

6 yet for us there is only one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we live for him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and through whom we live.

7 However, there is not in everyone that knowledge; for some, with consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

8 But food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

9 But beware lest somehow this liberty of yours should become a stumbling-block to those who are weak.

10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

19 M-Text adds also 20 Or virgin daughter 21 NU-Text reads his own virgin.

Spiritual Gifts: Unity in Diversity

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:

² You know that⁴⁰ you were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, in whatever way you were led.

³ Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

⁵ There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord.

⁶ And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all.

⁷ But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all:

⁸ for to one is given the word of wisdom by the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit.

⁹ to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same⁴¹ Spirit, ¹⁰ to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

¹¹ But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as he wills.

Unity and Diversity in One Body

¹² For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ.

¹³ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and have all been made to drink into⁴² one Spirit.

¹⁴ For in fact the body is not one member but many.

¹⁵ If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?

¹⁶ And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?

¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?

¹⁸ But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as he pleased.

¹⁹ And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

²⁰ But now indeed there are many members, yet one body.

²¹ And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

²² No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.

²³ And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, on these we bestow greater honour; and our un-presentable parts have greater modesty, ²⁴ but our presentable parts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honour to that part which lacks it.

²⁵ that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually.

²⁸ And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, varieties of tongues.

²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

³⁰ Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

³¹ But earnestly desire the best⁴³ gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

The Greatest Gift

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

² And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

40 NU-Text and M-Text add when. 41 NU-Text reads one. 42 NU-Text omits into.
43 NU-Text reads greater.

Our Final Victory

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed—

52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."⁵⁶

55 "O Death, where is your sting?"⁵⁷

O Hades, where is your victory?"⁵⁸

56 The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Collection for the Saints

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also:

2 On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come.

3 And when I come, whoever you approve by your letters, I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem.

4 But if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Personal Plans

5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia).

6 But it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey, wherever I go.

7 For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.

8 But I will tarry in Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

12 Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was quite unwilling to come at this time; however, he will come when he has a convenient time.

Final Exhortations

13 Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong.

14 Let all that you do be done with love.

15 I urge you, brethren—you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints—

16 that you also submit to such, and to everyone who works and labours with us.

17 I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for what was lacking on your part they supplied.

18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours; therefore acknowledge such men.

Greetings and a Solemn Farewell

19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation with my own hand—Paul.

22 If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed.⁵⁹ O Lord, come!⁶⁰

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

56 Isaiah 25:8 57 Hosea 13:14 58 NU-Text reads O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?
59 Greek anathema 60 Aramaic Maranatha

The Judgment Seat of Christ

9 Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

11 Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

Be Reconciled to God

12 For we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity to glory on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who glory in appearance and not in heart.

13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

14 For the love of Christ constrains us, because we judge thus: that if one died for all, then all died;

15 and he died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died for them and rose again.

16 Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him thus no longer.

17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.

18 Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation,

19 that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God.

21 For he made him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as workers together with him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

2 For he says:

*"In an acceptable time I have heard you,
And in the day of salvation I have helped you."*⁷

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

3 We give no offence in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed.

4 But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses,

5 in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in sleeplessness, in fastings;

6 by purity, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love,

7 by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 as unknown, and yet well known: as dying, and behold we live; as chastened, and yet not killed;

10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Be Holy

11 O Corinthians! We have spoken openly to you, our heart is wide open.

12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections.

13 Now in return for the same (I speak as to children), you also be open.

14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness?

15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God.⁸ As God has said:

"I will dwell in them

7 Isaiah 49:8 8 NU-Text reads we.

speech, yet I am not in knowledge. But we have been²³ thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Did I commit sin in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you.

9 And when I was present with you, and in need, I was a burden to no one, for what was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows!

12 But what I do, I will also continue to do, that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.

14 And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

Reluctant Boasting

16 I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little.

17 What I speak, I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast.

19 For you put up with fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise!

20 For you put up with it if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face.

21 To our shame, I say that we were too weak for that! But in whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

23 NU-Text omits been. 24 NU-Text reads necessary, though not profitable to boast.

Suffering for Christ

22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often.

24 From the Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one.

25 Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren:

27 in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness—

28 besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: my deep concern for all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

30 If I must boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for ever, knows that I am not lying.

32 In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to apprehend me;

33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

The Vision of Paradise

12 It is doubtless not profitable²⁴ for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord:

2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—

4 how he was caught up into Paradise

5 to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But from those who seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God shows personal favouritism to no man—for those who seemed to be something added nothing to me.

7 But on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised had been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter

8 (for he who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised also worked effectively in me towards the Gentiles),

9 and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

10 They desired only that we should remember the poor, the very thing which I also was eager to do.

No Return to the Law

11 But when Peter² had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed;

12 for before certain men came from James, he would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.

13 And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all. "If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, why do you³ compel Gentiles to live as Jews?"⁴

15 "We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners from among the Gentiles, 16 "knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

17 "But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not!

18 "For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 "For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God.

20 "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

21 "I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

Justification by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth,⁵ before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you⁶ as crucified?

2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5 Therefore he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?—

6 just as Abraham "believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."⁷

7 Therefore know that only those who are of faith are sons of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the nations by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, "In you all the nations shall be blessed."⁸

9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Law Brings a Curse

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them."⁹

2 NU-Text reads Cephas. 3 NU-Text reads How can you. 4 Some interpreters stop the quotation here.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians

Opening Greeting

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption in Christ

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.

⁴ just as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.

⁵ having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.

⁶ to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he has made us accepted in the Beloved.

⁷ In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace

⁸ which he made to abound towards us in all wisdom and prudence,

⁹ having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself.

¹⁰ that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both¹ which are in heaven and which are on earth—in him.

¹¹ in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will.

¹² that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of his glory.

¹³ In him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴ who² is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

¹⁵ Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,

¹⁶ do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers:

¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.

¹⁸ the eyes of your understanding³ being enlightened: that you may know what is the hope of his calling, what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

¹⁹ and what is the exceeding greatness of his power towards us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power

²⁰ which he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

²¹ far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

²² And he put all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

By Grace Through Faith

2 And you he made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins,

² in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience.

³ among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.

1 NU-Text and M-Text omit both. 2 NU-Text reads which. 3 NU-Text and M-Text read hearts

30 For we are members of his body,¹⁵ of his flesh and of his bones.

31 *"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."*¹⁶

32 This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

2 *"Honour your father and mother,"*¹⁷ which is the first commandment with a promise:

3 *"that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."*¹⁷

4 And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Servants and Masters

5 Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ;

6 not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

7 with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men,

8 knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

9 And you, masters, do the same things to them, giving up threats, knowing that your own Master also¹⁸ is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

The Whole Armour of God

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age,¹⁹ against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

13 Therefore take up the whole armour of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God;

18 praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints—

19 and for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

A Messenger Coming

21 But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you;

22 whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

15 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse. 16 Genesis 2:24

17 Deuteronomy 5:16

18 NU-Text reads he who is both their Master and yours.

19 NU-Text reads rulers of this darkness.

whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.

9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippian Generosity

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content:

12 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ who⁸ strengthens me.

14 Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress.

15 Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only.

16 For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities.

17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account.

18 Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.

19 And my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now to our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you.

22 All the saints greet you, but especially those who are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.⁹ Amen.

8 NU-Text reads him who. 9 NU-Text reads your spirit.

ferently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete¹² in all the will of God.

¹³ For I bear him witness that he has a great zeal¹³ for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis.

¹⁴ Luke the beloved physician and Demas greet you.

¹⁵ Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas and the church that is in his¹⁴ house.

Closing Exhortations and Blessing

¹⁶ Now when this epistle is read among you, see that it is read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

¹⁷ And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfil it."

¹⁸ This salutation by my own hand—Paul. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians

Opening Greeting

PAUL, Silvanus, and Timothy,
To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus
Christ:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds towards each other,

4 so that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure,

5 which is manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer;

6 since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you,

7 and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power,

10 when he comes, in that day, to be glorified in his saints and to be admired among all those who believe,¹ because our testimony among you was believed.

11 Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness and the work of faith with power,

12 that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Great Apostasy

2 Now, we ask you brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to him, 2 not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ² had come.

3 Let no one deceive you by any means;
for that day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin³ is revealed, the son of perdition,

4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he sits as God⁴ in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?

6 And now you know what is restrain-ing, that he may be revealed in his own time.

7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way,

8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of his mouth and destroy with the brightness of his coming.

9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders,

10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie,

12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

1 NU-Text and M-Text read have believed. 2 NU-Text reads the Lord.

3 NU-Text reads lawlessness. 4 NU-Text omits as God.

faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed.

⁷ But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself rather to godliness.

⁸ For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come.

⁹ This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

¹⁰ For to this end we both labour and suffer reproach,⁶ because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those who believe.

Take Heed to Your Ministry

¹¹ These things command and teach.

¹² Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit,⁷ in faith, in purity.

¹³ Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

¹⁴ Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

¹⁵ Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

¹⁶ Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Treatment of Church Members

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, the younger men as brothers,

² the older women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

Honour True Widows

³ Honour widows who are really widows.

⁴ But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and to repay their parents; for this is good and⁸ acceptable before God.

⁵ Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day.

⁶ But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives.

⁷ And these things command, that they may be blameless.

⁸ But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, and not unless she has been the wife of one man, ¹⁰ with a reputation for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.

¹¹ But refuse the younger widows; for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry,

¹² having condemnation because they have cast off their first faith.

¹³ And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.

¹⁵ For some have already turned aside after Satan.

¹⁶ If any believing man or⁹ woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

Honour the Elders

¹⁷ Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and doctrine.

¹⁸ For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain,"¹⁰ and, "The labourer is worthy of his wages."¹¹

¹⁹ Do not receive an accusation against an elder except from two or three witnesses.

²⁰ Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear.

²¹ I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing with partiality.

⁶ NU-Text reads we labour and strive. ⁷ NU-Text omits in spirit. ⁸ NU-Text and M-Text omit good and.
⁹ NU-Text omits man or. ¹⁰ Deuteronomy 25:4. ¹¹ Luke 10:7.

13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

14 But as for you, continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

15 and that from childhood you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness,

17 that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Preach the Word

4 I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at⁶ his appearing and his kingdom:

2 Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and teaching.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers;

4 and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables.

5 But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil your ministry.

Paul's Valedictory

6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

8 Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.

The Abandoned Apostle

9 Be diligent to come to me quickly;

10 for Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed for Thessalonica—Crescens for Galatia, Titus for Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry.

12 And Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

13 Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come—and the books, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm. May the Lord repay him according to his works.

15 You also must beware of him, for he has greatly resisted our words.

16 At my first defence no one stood with me, but all forsook me. May it not be charged against them.

The Lord Is Faithful

17 But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen!

Come Before Winter

19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, but Trophimus I have left in Miletus sick.

21 Do your utmost to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.

Farewell

22 The Lord Jesus Christ⁷ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrews

God's Supreme Revelation

GOD, who at various times and in different ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,

² has in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds;

³ who being the brightness of his glory and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself¹ purged our² sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

⁴ having become so much better than the angels, as he has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

The Son Exalted Above Angels

⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say:

*"You are my Son,
Today I have begotten you"?*³

And again:

*"I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son"?*⁴

⁶ But when he again brings the first-born into the world, he says:

*"Let all the angels of God worship him."*⁵

⁷ And of the angels he says:

*"Who makes his angels spirits
And his ministers a flame of fire."*⁶

⁸ But to the Son he says:

*"Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
A sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of your Kingdom.*

⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;

*Therefore God, your God, has anointed you
With the oil of gladness more than your companions."*⁷

¹⁰ And:

*"You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work
of your hands;*

¹¹ *They will perish, but you remain;
And they will all grow old
like a garment;*

¹² *Like a cloak you will fold them up,
And they will be changed.
But you are the same,
And your years will not fail."*⁸

¹³ But to which of the angels has he ever said:

*"Sit at my right hand,
Till I make your enemies
your footstool"?*⁹

¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation?

Do Not Neglect Salvation

2 Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we should drift away.

² For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward,

³ how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard him,

⁴ God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?

The Son Made Lower than Angels

⁵ For he has not put the world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to angels.

1 NU-Text omits by himself. 2 NU-Text omits our. 3 Psalm 2:7 4 2 Samuel 7:14

5 Deuteronomy 32:43 (Septuagint, Dead Sea Scrolls), Psalm 97:7 6 Psalm 104:4 7 Psalm 45:6, 7

8 Psalm 102:25-27 9 Psalm 110:1

soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the inner part behind the veil, ²⁰ where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become high priest for ever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The King of Righteousness

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

² to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated "king of righteousness," and then also king of Salem, meaning "king of peace,"

³ without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.

⁴ Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils.

⁵ And indeed those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham;

⁶ but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises.

⁷ Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better.

⁸ Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives.

⁹ Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak,

¹⁰ for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

Need for a New Priesthood

11 Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?

¹² For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law.

¹³ For he of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar.

¹⁴ For it is evident that our Lord arose from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.²⁹

¹⁵ And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest

¹⁶ who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life.

¹⁷ For he testifies:³⁰

*"You are a priest for ever
According to the order of Melchizedek."*³¹

¹⁸ For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness,

¹⁹ for the law made nothing perfect: on the other hand, there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

Greatness of the New Priest

²⁰ And inasmuch as he was not made priest without an oath

²¹ (for they have become priests without an oath, but he with an oath by him who said to him:

*"The LORD has sworn
And will not relent.
'You are a priest for ever'³²
According to the order of Melchizedek' "*).³³

²² by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a better covenant.

²³ And there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing.

²⁴ But he, because he continues for ever, has an unchangeable priesthood.

²⁵ Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through him, since he ever lives to make intercession for them.

²⁶ For such a high priest was fitting for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and has become higher than the heavens;

²⁷ who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins and then for the people's, for this he did once for all when he offered up himself.

²⁹ NU-Text reads priests. ³⁰ NU-Text reads it is testified. ³¹ Psalm 110:4

³² NU-Text ends the quotation here. ³³ Psalm 110:4

so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Faith at the Dawn of History

4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks.

5 By faith Enoch was taken so that he did not see death, "and was not found because God had taken him";⁵¹ for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him, for he who comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

The Faith of Abraham

8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would afterwards receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise;

10 for he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child⁵² when she was past the age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

The Heavenly Hope

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, they were assured of them,⁵³ embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland.

15 And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son.

18 of whom it was said, "In Isaac your seed shall be called."⁵⁴

19 accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's command.

24 By faith Moses, when he came of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin.

26 esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in⁵⁵ Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.

51 Genesis 5:24 52 NU-Text omits she bore a child.

54 Genesis 21:12 55 NU-Text and M-Text read of.

53 NU-Text and M-Text omit were assured of them.

The Epistle of James

Greetings to the Twelve Tribes

JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

Trials and Doubts

² My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials,

³ knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.

⁴ But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

⁶ But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind.

⁷ For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord;

⁸ he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Lowly and the Rich

⁹ Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation,

¹⁰ but the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of the field he will pass away.

¹¹ For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

¹² Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been proved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love him.

¹³ Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he himself tempt anyone.

¹⁴ But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed.

¹⁵ Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death.

¹⁶ Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

¹⁷ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

¹⁸ Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

The Wrath of Man

¹⁹ Therefore,¹ my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath;

²⁰ for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Doers—Not Hearers

²¹ Therefore lay aside all filthiness and overflowing wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

²² But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

²³ For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror;

²⁴ for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.

²⁵ But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does.

²⁶ If anyone among you² thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless.

²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit or-

The First Epistle of Peter

Greetings to the Elect Pilgrims

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ,
To the pilgrims of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
² elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A Heavenly Inheritance

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

⁴ to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you,

⁵ who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

⁶ In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials,

⁷ that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honour, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

⁸ whom having not seen¹ you love.
Though now you do not see him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,

⁹ receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come
to you,

¹¹ searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when he testified beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.

¹² To them it was revealed that not to themselves but to us² they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which angels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

¹³ Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

¹⁴ as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;

¹⁵ but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct,

¹⁶ because it is written, "Be holy, for I am holy."³

¹⁷ And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your sojourning
here in fear;

¹⁸ knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers,

¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ,

The First Epistle of John

The Word of Life

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life—

² the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us—

³ that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

⁴ And these things we write to you that your joy may be full.

The Basis of Fellowship with Him

⁵ This is the message which we have heard from him and declare to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all.

⁶ If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practise the truth.

⁷ But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin.

⁸ If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

¹⁰ If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

² And he himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

³ Now by this we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

⁴ He who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

⁵ But whoever keeps his word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in him.

⁶ He who says he abides in him ought himself also to walk just as he walked.

⁷ Brethren,² I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.³

⁸ Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

⁹ He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.

¹⁰ He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

¹¹ But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

¹² I write to you, little children, Because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

¹³ I write to you, fathers, Because you have known him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, Because you have overcome the wicked one.

I write to you, little children, Because you have known the Father.

¹⁴ I have written to you, fathers, Because you have known him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, Because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you.

The Second Epistle of John

Opening Greeting

THE ELDER,

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth,² because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us for ever:

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you¹ from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

⁴ I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father.

⁵ And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.

⁶ This is love, that we walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

⁷ For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This sort of person is a deceiver and an antichrist.

⁸ Look to yourselves, that we² do not lose those things we worked for, but that we² may receive a full reward.

⁹ Whoever transgresses³ and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him;

¹¹ for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

John's Farewell Greeting

¹² Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

¹³ The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

The Revelation

of Jesus Christ

Introduction and Benediction

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants—things which must shortly take place. And he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John,² who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, and to all things that he saw.

³ Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Greetings to the Seven Churches

⁴ John, to the seven churches which are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne,

⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first-born from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To him who loved us and washed¹ us from our sins in his own blood,

⁶ and has made us kings² and priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

⁷ Behold, he is coming with clouds, and every eye will see him, and they also who pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him. Even so, Amen.

⁸ "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,"³ says the Lord,⁴ "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

Vision of the Son of Man

⁹ I, John, both your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet.

¹¹ saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last," and,⁵ "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia:⁶ to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

¹² Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands.

¹³ and in the midst of the seven lampstands one like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.

¹⁴ His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes like a flame of fire;

¹⁵ his feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and his voice as the sound of many waters;

¹⁷ And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying to me, "Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last.

¹⁸ "I am he who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of death.

¹⁹ "Write⁸ the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this.

²⁰ "The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw⁹ are the seven churches.

Worthy Is the Lamb

8 Now when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

9 And they sang a new song, saying:

“You are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For you were slain,
And have redeemed us to God
by your blood
Out of every tribe and tongue
and people and nation,

10 And have made us³¹ kings³² and priests
to our God;
And we³³ shall reign on the earth.”

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 saying with a loud voice:

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and
wisdom,
And strength and honour and glory
and blessing!”

13 And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

“Blessing and honour and glory and power
Be to him who sits on the throne,
And to the Lamb, for ever and ever!”³⁴

14 Then the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four³⁵ elders fell down and worshipped him who lives for ever and ever.³⁶

First Seal: The Conqueror

6 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals,³⁷ and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, “Come and see.”

2 And I looked, and behold, a white horse. And he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Second Seal: Conflict on Earth

3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come and see.”³⁸

4 And another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Scarcity on Earth

5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come and see.” And I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart³⁹ of wheat for a denarius,⁴⁰ and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine.”

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see.”

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?”

11 And a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they had been, was completed.

two lampstands standing before the God⁵³ of the earth.

⁵ And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.

⁶ These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

⁷ Now when they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.

⁹ Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three and a half days, and not allow their dead bodies to be put into graves.

¹⁰ And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

¹¹ Now after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

¹² And they⁵⁵ heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them.

¹³ In the same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand men were killed, and the rest were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

¹⁵ Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have⁵⁶ become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever!"

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshipped God,

¹⁷ saying:

"We give you thanks,

O Lord God Almighty,
The one who is and who was
and who is to come,⁵⁷

Because you have taken your great power and reigned.

¹⁸ The nations were angry,

and your wrath has come,

And the time of the dead,

that they should be judged,

And that you should reward your servants the prophets and the saints,

And those who fear your name,

small and great,

And should destroy those who destroy the earth."

¹⁹ Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of his covenant⁵⁸ was seen in his temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.

² Then being with child, she cried out in labour and in pain to give birth.

³ And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

⁴ His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her child as soon as it was born.

⁵ And she bore a male child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her child was caught up to God and to his throne.

⁶ Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.

11 And they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: The Euphrates Dried Up

12 Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and⁸⁰ of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he should walk naked and they see his shame."

16 And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.⁸¹

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

18 And there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on the earth.

19 Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail from heaven fell upon men, every hailstone about the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me.⁸² "Come. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters.

2 "with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.⁸³

5 And on her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY,
BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS
OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marvelled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

7 But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.⁸⁴

9 "Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

2 Then I, John,⁹⁸ saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.

4 "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying; and there shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

5 Then he who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And he said to me,⁹⁹ "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

6 And he said to me, "It is done!¹⁰⁰ I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.

7 "He who overcomes shall inherit all things,¹⁰¹ and I will be his God and he shall be my son.

8 "But the cowardly, unbelieving,¹⁰² abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me¹⁰³ and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."¹⁰⁴

10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem,¹⁰⁵ descending out of heaven from God,

11 having the glory of God. And her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 Also she had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

14 Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names¹⁰⁶ of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he who talked with me had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

16 And the city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.

17 Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

18 And the construction of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chryso-prase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

The Glory of the New Jerusalem

22 But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

23 And the city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it,¹⁰⁷ for the glory¹⁰⁸ of God illuminated it, and the Lamb is its light.

24 And the nations of those who are saved¹⁰⁹ shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honour into it.¹¹⁰

25 Its gates shall not be shut at all by day (there shall be no night there).

him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them and come'—then, as the LORD lives, there is safety for you and no harm.

22 "But if I say thus to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you'—go your way, for the LORD has sent you away.

23 "And as for the matter which you and I have spoken of, indeed the LORD be between you and me for ever."

24 So David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast.

25 Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him; he is unclean, surely he is unclean."

27 And it happened the next day, the second day of the month, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat, either yesterday or today?"

28 So Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem.

29 "And he said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favour in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

30 Then Saul's anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

31 "For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die."

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, "Why should he be killed? What has he done?"

33 Then Saul cast a spear at him to kill him, by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.

35 And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him.

36 Then he said to his lad, "Now run, find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

38 And Jonathan cried out after the lad, "Make haste, hurry, do not delay!" So Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master.

39 But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

41 Now as soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place towards the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so.

42 Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, 'May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, for ever.'" So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

David and the Holy Bread

21 Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid when he met David, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one is with you?"

2 So David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, 'Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.' And I have directed my young men to such and such a place.

3 "Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found."

4 And the priest answered David and said, "There is no common bread on hand; but there is holy bread, if the young men have at least kept themselves from women."

5 Then David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was sanctified in the vessel this day."

6 So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the shewbread which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

8 And David said to Ahimelech, "Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

9 So the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David Flees to Gath

10 Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

"Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?"²⁵

12 Now David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 So he changed his behaviour before them, feigned madness in their hands, scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard.

14 Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?"

15 "Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

David's Four Hundred Men

22 David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

2 And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.

3 Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me."

4 So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

5 Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hareth.

Saul Murders the Priests

6 When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—

7 then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?"

8 "All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 "And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king.

12 And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!" And he answered, "Here I am, my lord."

13 Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"

14 So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honourable in your house?"

15 "Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."

16 And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!"

17 Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to strike the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, "You turn and kill the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, and killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod.

19 Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.

20 Now one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD's priests.

22 So David said to Abiathar, "I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house.

23 "Stay with me; do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe."

David Saves the City of Keilah

23 Then they told David, saying, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing-floors."

2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah."

3 And David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

4 Then David inquired of the LORD once again. And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."

5 And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 Now it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.

7 And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."

8 Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

9 When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."

10 Then David said, "O LORD God of Israel, your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11 "Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell your servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down."

12 Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will deliver you."

13 So David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go. Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah; so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

14 And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in the mountains in the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.

15 So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a forest.²⁶

16 Then Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David in the woods and strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said to him, "Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. Even my father Saul knows that."

18 So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.

19 Then the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?"

20 "Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."

21 And Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me.

22 "Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hide-out is, and who has seen him there. For I am told that he is very crafty.

23 "See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the clans²⁷ of Judah."

24 So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon.

26 Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were encircling David and his men to take them.

27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hasten and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!"

28 Therefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; so they called that place the Rock of Escaping.²⁸

29 Then David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at En Gedi.

David Spares Saul

24 Now it happened, when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, "Take note! David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi."

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

3 So he came to the sheep-folds by the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to attend to his needs. (David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.)

4 Then the men of David said to him, "This is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.'" And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

5 Now it happened afterwards that David's heart troubled him because he had cut Saul's robe.

6 And he said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD."

7 So David restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterwards, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down.

9 And David said to Saul: "Why do you

26 Or in Horesh 27 Literally thousands 28 Hebrew Selu Hammahlekoth

listen to the words of men who say, 'Indeed David seeks your harm'?

10 "Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed.'

11 "Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my life to take it.

12 "Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against you.

13 "As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.' But my hand shall not be against you.

14 "After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea?

15 "Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and see and plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand."

16 So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 Then he said to David: "You are more righteous than I; for you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil.

18 "And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me.

19 "For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

20 "And now I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

21 "Therefore swear now to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name from my father's house."

22 So David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

Death of Samuel

25 Then Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

David and the Wife of Nabal

2 Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. And he was of the house of Caleb.

4 When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep,

5 David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

6 "And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity: 'Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!'

7 'Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel.

8 'Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favour in your eyes, for we come on a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.'

9 So when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.

10 Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away each one from his master.

11 "Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?"

12 So David's young men turned on their heels and went back; and they came and told him all these words.

13 Then David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword." So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14 Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he reviled them.

15 "But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.

16 "They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 "Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a scoundrel²⁹ that one cannot speak to him."

18 Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her servants, "Go on before me; see, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down towards her, and she met them.

21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good.

22 "May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light."

23 Now when Abigail saw David, she hastened to dismount from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground.

24 So she fell at his feet and said: "On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.

25 "Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: Nabal³⁰ is his name, and folly is with him. But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

26 "Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal.

27 "And now this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.

28 "Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil is not found in you throughout your days.

29 "Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies he shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.

30 "And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel.

31 "that this will be no grief to you, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant."

32 Then David said to Abigail: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!

33 "And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 "For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hastened and come to meet me, surely by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal."

35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and respected your person."

36 Then Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, holding a feast in his house.

29 Literally son of Behai 30 Literally Fool like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; therefore she told him nothing, little or much, until morning light.

37 So it was, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

38 Then it happened, after about ten days, that the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

39 So when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept his servant from evil! For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head." And David sent and proposed to Abigail, to take her as his wife.

40 And when the servants of David had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her saying, "David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife."

41 Then she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, "Here is your maidservant, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."

42 So Abigail rose in haste and rode on a donkey, attended by five of her maidens; and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and so both of them were his wives.

44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti³¹ the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

David Sparing Saul a Second Time

26 Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon?"

2 Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, by the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had indeed come.

5 So David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul lay within the camp, with the people encamped all around him.

6 Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him.

8 Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!"

9 And David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?"

10 David said furthermore, "As the LORD lives, the LORD shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish.

11 "The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go."

12 So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul's head, and they got away; and no man saw it or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great distance being between them.

14 And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you, calling out to the king?"

15 So David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king.

16 "This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head."

31 Spelled Paltiel in 2 Samuel 3:15

17 Then Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

18 And he said, "Why does my lord thus pursue his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?"

19 "Now therefore, please, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

20 "Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

21 Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David. For I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Indeed I have played the fool and erred exceedingly."

22 And David answered and said, "Here is the king's spear. Let one of the young men come over and get it.

23 "May the LORD repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 "And indeed, as your life was valued much this day in my eyes, so let my life be valued much in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation."

25 Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed, my son David! You shall both do great things and also still prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Allied with the Philistines

27 And David said in his heart, "Now I shall perish someday by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any longer in any part of Israel. So I shall escape out of his hand."

2 Then David arose and went over with the six hundred men who were with him to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

3 So David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow.

4 And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; so he sought him no more.

5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have now found favour in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

7 Now the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months.

8 And David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites,¹² and the Amalekites. For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt.

9 Whenever David attacked the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

10 Then Achish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the southern area of Judah, or against the southern area of the Jerahmeelites, or against the southern area of the Kenites."

11 David would save neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gath, saying, "Lest they should inform on us, saying, 'Thus David did.'" And so was his behaviour all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

12 So Achish believed David, saying, "He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; therefore he will be my servant for ever."

28 Now it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, "You assuredly know that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men."

32 Or Girzites

2 And David said to Achish, "Surely you know what your servant can do." And Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you one of my chief guardians for ever."

Saul Consults a Medium

3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.

4 Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at Gilboa.

5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets.

7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor."

8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please conduct a séance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you."

9 Then the woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"

10 And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!"

13 And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I saw a spirit³³ ascending out of the earth."

14 So he said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle." And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down.

15 Now Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me any longer, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do."

16 Then Samuel said: "Why then do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy?"

17 "And the LORD has done for himself³⁴ as he spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbour, namely, David.

18 "Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

19 "Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

20 Then immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.

21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me.

22 "Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."

23 But he refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. So he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

25 So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

³³ Hebrew elohim ³⁴ Or him, that is, David

The Philistines Reject David

29 Then the Philistines gathered together all their armies at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines marched past by hundreds and by thousands, but David and his men marched past at the rear with Achish.

3 Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And to this day I have found no fault in him since he defected to me."

4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these men?"

5 "Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

'Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?'"

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favour you.

7 "Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

8 Then David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 But Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are as good in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

10 "Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master's servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart."

11 So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David's Conflict with the Amalekites

30 Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire,

2 and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way.

3 So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive.

6 Then David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And he answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.

11 Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.

¹² And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. So when he had eaten, his strength came back to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk any water for three days and three nights.

¹³ Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man from Egypt, servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind, because three days ago I fell sick.

¹⁴ "We made an invasion of the southern area of the Cherethites, in the territory which belongs to Judah, and of the southern area of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

¹⁵ And David said to him, "Can you take me down to this troop?" And he said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this troop."

¹⁶ So when he had brought him down, there they were, spread out over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

¹⁷ And David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.

¹⁸ So David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.

¹⁹ And nothing of theirs was lacking, either small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything which they had taken from them: David recovered all.

²¹ Now David came to the two hundred men who had been so weary that they could not follow David, whom they also had made to stay at the Brook Besor. So they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And when David came near the people, he greeted them.

²² Then all the wicked and worthless men³⁶ of those who went with David answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except for every man's wife and children, that they may lead them away and depart."

²³ But David said, "My brethren, you shall not do so with what the LORD has given us, who has preserved us and delivered into our hand the troop that came against us.

²⁵ And so it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

²⁶ Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD"—

²⁷ to those who were in Bethel, those who were in Ramoth of the South, those who were in Jattir,

²⁸ those who were in Aroer, those who were in Siphmoth, those who were in Esh-temoa,

²⁹ those who were in Rachal, those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

³⁰ those who were in Hormah, those who were in Chorashan,³⁷ those who were in Athach, ³¹ those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to rove.

The Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

31 So the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

² Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

³ Now the battle became intense against Saul; and the archers hit him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.

⁴ Then Saul said to his armour-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and abuse me." But his armour-bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

³⁶ Literally men of Belial ³⁷ Or Borashan

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul, his three sons, his armour-bearer, and all his men died together that same day.

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 So it came to pass the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armour, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim it in the temple of their idols and among the people.

10 Then they put his armour in the temple of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.³⁸

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 all the valiant men arose and travelled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

13 Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

The Second Book of Samuel

The Report of Saul's Death

NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag.

² on the third day, behold, it happened that a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head. So it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

³ And David said to him, "Where have you come from?" So he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

⁴ Then David said to him, "How did the matter go? Please tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, many of the people are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

⁵ So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"

⁶ And the young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, there was Saul, leaning on his spear; and indeed the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

⁷ "Now when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'

⁸ "And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

⁹ "He said to me again, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, but my life still remains in me.'

¹⁰ "So I stood over him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

¹¹ Then David took hold of his own clothes and tore them, and so did all the men who were with him.

¹² And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

¹³ Then David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?" And he answered, "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite."

¹⁴ And David said to him, "How was it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"

¹⁵ Then David called one of the young men and said, "Go near, and execute him!" And he struck him so that he died.

¹⁶ So David said to him, "Your blood is on your own head, for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed the LORD's anointed.'"

The Song of the Bow

¹⁷ Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son,

¹⁸ and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written in the Book of Jasher:

¹⁹ "The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!

How the mighty have fallen!

²⁰ Tell it not in Gath,

Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon—

Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

²¹ "O mountains of Gilboa,

Let there be no dew,

nor let there be rain upon you,

Nor fields of offerings.

For the shield of the mighty is cast away there!

The shield of Saul,

not anointed with oil.

²² From the blood of the slain,

From the fat of the mighty,

The bow of Jonathan

did not turn back,

And the sword of Saul

did not return empty.

- 23 "Saul and Jonathan were beloved
and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death
they were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 "O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet,
with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold
on your apparel.
- 25 "How the mighty have fallen
in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
- 26 I am distressed for you,
my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;
Your love to me was wonderful,
Surpassing the love of women.
- 27 "How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!"

David Anointed King of Judah

- 2 It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And he said, "To Hebron."
- 2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
- 3 And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.
- 4 Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."
- 5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.
- 6 "And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.
- 7 "Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

- 8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth¹ the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim;
9 and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel.
- 10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.
- 11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Israel and Judah at War

- 12 Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.
- 13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.
- 14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."
- 15 So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.
- 16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords,² which is in Gibeon.
- 17 So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.
- 18 Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.
- 19 So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.
- 20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Are you Asahel?" And he answered, "I am."
- 21 And Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armour for yourself." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. 22 So Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?"

¹ Called Esh-Haul in 1 Chronicles 8:33 and 9:39. ² Hebrew Heikath Hazzurim.

23 However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. And the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah by the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon.

25 Now the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became a unit, and took their stand on top of a hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour for ever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?"

27 And Joab said, "As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren."

28 So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel any more, nor did they fight any more.

29 Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.

30 So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner's men, three hundred and sixty men who died.

32 Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

3 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

Sons of David

2 Sons were born to David in Hebron: His first-born was Amnon by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;

4 the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

6 Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

8 Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?"

9 "May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as the LORD has sworn to him—

10 "to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."

11 And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, "Whose is the land?" saying also, "Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you."

13 And David³ said, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

14 So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Give me my

3 Literally he

wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.”

15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel⁴ the son of Laish.

16 Then her husband went along with her to Bahurim, weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, “Go, return!” And he returned.

17 Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, “In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

18 “Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of my servant David, I⁵ will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’”

19 And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

21 Then Abner said to David, “I will arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

22 At that moment the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace.”

24 Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?”

25 “Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.”

26 And when Joab had gone from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

27 Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterwards, when David heard it, he said, “My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD for ever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 “Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and let there never fail to be in the house of Joab one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.”

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

David's Mourning for Abner

31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner.” And King David followed the coffin.

32 So they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the king sang a lament over Abner and said:

“Should Abner die as a fool dies?

34 Your hands were not bound
Nor your feet put into fetters;
As a man falls before wicked men,
so you fell.”

Then all the people wept over him again.

35 And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David took an oath, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!”

36 Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king's intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.

38 Then the king said to his servants,

4 Spelled Palti in 1 Samuel 25:44

5 Masoretic Text reads he, the ancient versions and many Hebrew manuscripts read I

"Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"
 39 "And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me. The LORD shall repay the evil-doer according to his wickedness."

Ishbosheth Is Murdered

4 And when Saul's son⁶ heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel was troubled.

² Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth also was part of Benjamin,

³ because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.)

⁴ Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. So his name was Mephibosheth.⁷

⁵ Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.

⁶ And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

⁷ For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.

⁸ And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants."

⁹ Then David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all adversity,

¹⁰ "when someone told me, saying, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag—the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.

¹¹ "How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?"

¹² So David commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

David Reigns over All Israel

5 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

² "Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.'"

³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.

⁴ David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

⁵ In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

The Conquest of Jerusalem

⁶ And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here: but the blind and the lame will repel you," thinking, "David cannot come in here."

⁷ Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

⁸ Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), he shall be chief and captain."⁸ Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

⁹ So David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the City of David. Then David

6 That is, Ishbosheth 7 Called Meribbaal in 1 Chronicles 8:34 and 9:40 8 Compare 1 Chronicles 11:6

built all around from the Millo and inwards.

¹⁰ So David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

¹¹ Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house.

¹² So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

¹⁴ Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua,⁹ Shobab, Nathan, Solomon.

¹⁵ Ithar, Elishua,¹⁰ Nepheg, Japhia,

¹⁶ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

¹⁷ Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

¹⁸ The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁹ And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand."

²⁰ So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like water bursting a breach." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.¹¹

²¹ And they left their images there, and David and his men carried them away.

²² Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

²³ And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

²⁴ "So it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

²⁵ And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6 Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.

² And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name, the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim.

⁴ And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.

⁵ Then David and all the house of Israel played music before the LORD on all kinds of instruments made of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.

⁶ And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

⁷ Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God.

⁸ And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah¹² to this day.

¹⁰ So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

¹¹ The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

¹² And it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David

⁹ Spelled Shimea in 1 Chronicles 3:5 ¹⁰ Spelled Elishama in 1 Chronicles 3:6

¹¹ Literally Baal Is Broken ¹² Literally Outburst Against Uzzah

went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness.

13 And so it was, when those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed oxen and fatted sheep.

14 Then David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was wearing a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 So they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

21 So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD.

22 "And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honour."

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

God's Covenant with David

7 Now it came to pass when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around.

2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells inside tent curtains."

3 Then Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you."

4 But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

5 "Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: "Would you build a house for me to dwell in?"

6 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 "In all the places where I have walked with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

8 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you from the sheep-fold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel.

9 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

10 "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them any more, as previously,

11 "since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that he will make you a house.

12 "When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 "He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 "I will be his Father, and he shall be my son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.

15 "But my mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

16 "And your house and your kingdom shall be established for ever before you.¹³ Your throne shall be established for ever."¹⁴

17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Thanksgiving to God

18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that you have brought me this far?

19 "And yet this was a small thing in your sight, O Lord GOD; and you have also spoken of your servant's house for a great while to come. Is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20 "Now what more can David say to you? For you, Lord GOD, know your servant.

21 "For your word's sake, and according to your own heart, you have done all these great things, to make your servant know them.

22 "Therefore you are great, O Lord GOD.¹⁴ For there is none like you, nor is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 "And who is like your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for himself as a people, to make for himself a name— and to do for you great and awesome deeds for your land—before your people whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 "For you have made your people Israel your very own people for ever; and you, LORD, have become their God.

25 "And now, O LORD God, the word which you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, establish it for ever and do as you have said.

26 "So let your name be magnified for ever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel.' And let the house of your servant David be established before you.

27 "For you, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house.' Therefore your servant found it in his heart to pray this prayer to you.

28 "And now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true, and you have promised this goodness to your servant.

29 "Now therefore, let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue for ever before you; for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with your blessing let the house of your servant be blessed for ever."

David's Further Conquests

8 After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them. And David took Gath from the hand of the Philistines.

2 Then he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his territory at the River Euphrates.

4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven hundred¹⁵ horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. The LORD preserved David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that had belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Also from Bethah¹⁶ and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a large amount of bronze.

¹³ Septuagint reads me ¹⁴ Targum and Syriac read O LORD God.

¹⁵ Or seven thousand (compare 1 Chronicles 18:4) ¹⁶ Spelled Tibhah in 1 Chronicles 18:8

9 When Toi¹⁷ king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer, ¹⁰ then Toi sent Joram¹⁸ his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him; for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze.

¹¹ King David dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued—

¹² from Syria,¹⁹ from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, from Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

¹³ And David made himself a name when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Syrians²⁰ in the Valley of Salt.

¹⁴ He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

¹⁵ So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered judgment and justice to all his people.

¹⁶ Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

¹⁷ Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Seraiah²¹ was the scribe;

¹⁸ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

9 Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

² And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "At your service!"

³ Then the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is lame in his feet."

⁴ So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

⁵ Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

⁶ Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he answered, "Here is your servant!"

⁷ So David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."

⁸ Then he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?"

⁹ And the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.

¹⁰ "You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread at my table always." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

¹¹ Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do." "As for Mephibosheth," said the king, "he shall eat at my table like one of the king's sons."

¹² Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.

¹³ So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

10 And it happened after this that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.

17 Spelled Tou in 1 Chronicles 18:9 18 Spelled Hadoram in 1 Chronicles 18:10

19 Septuagint, Syriac, and some Hebrew manuscripts read Edom.

20 Septuagint, Syriac, and some Hebrew manuscripts read Edomites (compare 1 Chronicles 18:12).

21 Spelled Shavsha in 1 Chronicles 18:16

2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

3 Then the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David really honours your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

4 Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

6 So when the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from King Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

7 Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

8 Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men of Israel and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in battle array against the people of Ammon.

11 Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

12 "Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what seems good to him."

13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

14 And when the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

15 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they gathered together.

16 Then Hadadezer²² sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River,²³ and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.

18 Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

19 And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer²⁴ saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon any more.

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

11 Now it came to pass in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2 Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.

3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

4 Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her, for she was cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

22 Hebrew Hadarezer 23 That is, the Euphrates 24 Hebrew Hadarezer

6 Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was, and how the people were, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

10 So when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

11 And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

12 Then David said to Uriah, "Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

13 Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

14 Then in the morning it was so that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck down and die."

16 So it happened, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men.

17 Then the men of the city came out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war,

19 and charged the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king,

20 if it happens that the king's wrath rises, and he says to you: 'Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?"

21 'Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?²⁵ Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?'—then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'

22 So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him.

23 And the messenger said to David, "Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.

24 "The archers shot from the wall at your servants; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."

25 Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab: 'Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.' So encourage him."

26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

Nathan's Parable and David's Confession

12 Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him: "There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor.

2 "The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds.

3 "But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him.

4 "And a traveller came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

25 Same as Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon (Judges 6:32f)

5 Then David's anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die!

6 "And he shall restore fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity."

7 Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

8 'I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more!

9 'Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon.

10 'Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

11 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbour, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

12 'For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun.'

13 Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

14 "However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."

15 Then Nathan departed to his house.

The Death of David's Son

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became very ill.

16 David therefore pleaded with God for the child, and David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.

17 So the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

18 Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, "Indeed, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!"

19 When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

20 So David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshipped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.

21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

22 So he said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who can tell whether the LORD²⁶ will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'

23 "But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."

Solomon Is Born

24 Then David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. So she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent word by the hand of Nathan the prophet; so he²⁷ called his name Jedidiah,²⁸ because of the LORD.

Rabbah Is Captured

26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city's water supply."

28 "Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name."

26 A few Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac read God.

27 Qere, Syriac, Targum, and some Hebrew manuscripts read she.

28 Literally Beloved of the LORD.

29 So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.

30 Then he took their king's crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did with all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 Now after this it was so that Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.

4 And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, becoming thinner day after day? Will you not tell me?" And Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

5 So Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.'"

6 Then Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

7 And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

9 And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, "Have everyone go out from me." And they all went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

11 Now when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

12 And she answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me, for no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing!

13 "And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

14 However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone!"

16 And she said to him, "No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me." But he would not listen to her.

17 Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, "Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her."

18 Now she had on a robe of many colours, for the king's virgin daughters wore such apparel. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

19 Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.

20 And Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

22 And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor bad. For Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Murders Amnon

23 And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheep-shearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."

25 But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27 But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant."

29 So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

30 And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, "Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!"

31 So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

32 Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 "Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

Absalom Flees to Geshur

34 Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.

35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is."

36 So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And King David longed to go to Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.

3 "Go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoa spoke²⁹ to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, "Help, O king!"

5 Then the king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, "Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.

6 "Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.

7 "And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.' So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth."

8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go

29 Septuagint, Syriac, Vulgate, and many Hebrew manuscripts read came.

to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father's house, and the king and his throne be guiltless."

10 So the king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more."

11 Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit the avenger of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son." And he said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

12 Then the woman said, "Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king." And he said, "Say on."

13 And the woman said: "Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again.

14 "For we will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; but he devises means, so that his banished ones are not expelled from him.

15 "Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. And your maidservant said, 'I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant.'

16 'For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.'

17 "Your maidservant said, 'The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.'"

18 Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you." And the woman said, "Please, let my lord the king speak."

19 And the king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

20 "To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth."

21 And the king said to Joab, "All right, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom."

22 Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favour in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant."

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, "Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king's face.

David Forgives Absalom

25 Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him—when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king's standard.

27 To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28 And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but did not see the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 So he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose and came to Absalom's house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

32 And Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still." Now therefore, let me see the king's face; but if there is any iniquity in me, let him execute me."

³³ So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Absalom.

Absalom's Treason

15 After this it happened that Absalom provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

² Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel."

³ Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear you."

⁴ Moreover Absalom would say, "Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice."

⁵ And so it was, whenever anyone came near him to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him.

⁶ In this manner Absalom acted towards all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷ And it came to pass after forty³⁰ years that Absalom said to the king, "Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I vowed to the LORD."

⁸ "For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.'"

⁹ And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

¹⁰ Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom reigns in Hebron!'"

¹¹ And with Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem who were invited, and they went along innocently and did not know anything.

¹² Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, namely from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy grew strong, for the people with Absalom continually increased in number.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

¹³ And a messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom."

¹⁴ So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; or else we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

¹⁵ And the king's servants said to the king, "We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands."

¹⁶ Then the king went out with all his household after him. But the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house.

¹⁷ And the king went out with all the people after him, and stopped at the outskirts.

¹⁹ And the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place."

²⁰ "In fact, you came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you."

²¹ And Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be."

²² So David said to Ittai, "Go, and cross over." Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.

²³ And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over.

³⁰ Septuagint manuscripts, Syriac, and Josephus read four

The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over towards the way of the wilderness. 24 There was Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.

25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me back and show me both it and his habitation.

26 "But if he says thus: 'I have no delight in you,' here I am, let him do to me as seems good to him."

27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 "See, I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."

29 Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

30 So David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up.

31 Then someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"

32 Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshipped God, that there was Hushai the Archite, coming to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

33 David said to him, "If you go on with me, then you will become a burden to me.

34 "But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; just as I have been your father's servant previously, so I will now also be your servant,' then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35 "And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king's house, you shall tell to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 "Indeed they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear."

37 So Hushai, David's friend, went into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

Mephibosheth's Servant

16 When David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2 And the king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" So Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink."

3 Then the king said, "And where is your master's son?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.'"

4 So the king said to Ziba, "Here, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I humbly bow before you, that I may find favour in your sight, my lord, O king!"

Shimei Curses David

5 Now when King David came to Bahurim, there was a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came.

6 And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You blood-thirsty man, you rogue!"

8 "The LORD has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!"

9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!"

10 And the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David.' Who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

11 And David said to Abishai and all his servants, "See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.

12 "It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day."

13 And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust.

14 Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

The Counsel of Ahithophel

15 Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

16 And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

17 So Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

19 "Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give counsel as to what we should do."

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."

22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.

2 "I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king.

3 "Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, then all the people will be at peace."

4 And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

The Counsel of Hushai

5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he says too."

6 And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up."

7 So Hushai said to Absalom: "The counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time."

8 "For," said Hushai, "you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.

9 "Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'

10 "And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

11 "Therefore I counsel that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

12 "So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 "Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there."

14 So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had purposed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom.

Hushai Warns David to Escape

15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so Ahithophel counselled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have counselled.

16 "Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, 'Do not spend this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.'

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed at En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a maidservant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it.

19 Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" So the woman said to them, "They have gone over the water brook." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel counselled against you."

22 So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By morning light not one of them was left who had not gone over the Jordan.

23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, and arose and went home to his house, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.

24 Then David went to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Jithra,³¹ an Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

27 Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

28 brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds,

29 honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

Absalom's Defeat and Death

18 And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 Then David sent out one-third of the people under the hand of Joab, one-third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one-third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself."

3 But the people answered, "You shall not go out. For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city."

31 Spelled Jether in 1 Chronicles 2:17 and elsewhere

4 So the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim.

7 The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand men took place there that day.

8 For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 Then Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom rode on a mule. The mule went under the thick boughs of a great terebinth tree, and his head caught in the terebinth; so he was left hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule which was under him went on.

10 Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!"

11 So Joab said to the man who told him, "You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt."

12 But the man said to Joab, "Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!'"³²

13 "Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me."

14 Then Joab said, "I cannot linger with you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.

15 And ten young men who bore Joab's armour surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.

16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and laid a very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a pillar for himself, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar after his own name. And to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

David Hears of Absalom's Death

19 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies."

20 And Joab said to him, "You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king's son is dead."

21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.

22 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?"

23 "But whatever happens," he said, "let me run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.

25 Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came rapidly and drew near.

26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gate-keeper and said, "There is another man, running alone!" And the king said, "He also brings news."

27 So the watchman said, "I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news."

28 And Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "All is well!" Then he bowed

³² The ancient versions read "Protect the young man Absalom for me!"

down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!"

²⁹ The king said, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" And Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about."

³⁰ And the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.

³¹ Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you."

³² And the king said to the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" And the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do you harm, be as that young man is!"

David's Mourning for Absalom

³³ Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: "O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!"

19 And Joab was told, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."

² So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved for his son."

³ And the people stole back into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

⁴ But the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!"

⁵ Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,

⁶ "in that you love your enemies and hate your friends. For you have declared today that you regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.

⁷ "Now therefore, arise, go out and speak comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now."

⁸ Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, "There is the king, sitting in the gate." So all the people came before the king. For everyone of Israel had fled to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

⁹ Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.

¹⁰ "But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?"

¹¹ Then King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the words of all Israel have come to the king, even to his house?'

¹² 'You are my brethren, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?'

¹³ "And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.'"

¹⁴ So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah, just as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word to the king: "Return, you and all your servants!"

¹⁵ Then the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to escort the king across the Jordan.

¹⁶ And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

¹⁷ There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.

18 Then a ferry boat went across to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.

David's Mercy to Shimei

Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.

19 Then he said to the king, "Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember what wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

20 "For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

22 And David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"

23 Therefore the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

David and Mephibosheth Meet

24 Now Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his moustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in peace.

25 So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

26 And he answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,' because your servant is lame.

27 "And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

28 "For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out any more to the king?"

29 So the king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, 'You and Ziba divide the land.'"

30 Then Mephibosheth said to the king, "Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house."

David's Kindness to Barzillai

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.

33 And the king said to Barzillai, "Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem."

34 But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

35 "I am today eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?"

36 "Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?"

37 "Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you."

38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you."

39 Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

The Quarrel About the King

40 Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham³³ went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

33 Masoretic Text reads Chimhan.

41 Just then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king, his household, and all David's men with him across the Jordan?"

42 So all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is a close relative of ours. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we ever eaten at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more right to David than you. Why then do you despise us—were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?" Yet the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

The Rebellion of Sheba

20 And there happened to be there a rebel,³⁴ whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet, and said:

"We have no part in David,
Nor do we have inheritance
in the son of Jesse;
Every man to his tents, O Israel!"

2 So every man of Israel deserted David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem, remained loyal to their king.

3 Now David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in seclusion and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Assemble the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself."

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah. But he delayed longer than the set time which David had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities, and escape us."

7 So Joab's men, with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, went out after him. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. Now Joab was dressed in battle armour; on it was a belt with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips; and as he was going forward, it fell out.

9 Then Joab said to Amasa, "Are you in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his entrails poured out on the ground; and he did not strike him again. Thus he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 Meanwhile one of Joab's men stood near Amasa, and said, "Whoever favours Joab and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!"

12 But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.

13 When he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth Maachah and all the Berites. So they were gathered together and also went after Sheba.

15 Then they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maachah; and they cast up a siege-mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.

16 Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Hear, Hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come nearby, that I may speak with you.'"

17 When he had come near to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

18 Then she spoke, saying, "They used to talk in former times, saying, 'They shall

³⁴ Literally man of Belial

surely ask counsel at Abel,' and so they would end disputes.

19 "I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

20 And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy!

21 "That is not so. But a man from the mountains of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

22 Then the woman in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew a trumpet, and they withdrew from the city, every man to his tent. So Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

David's Government Officers

23 And Joab was over all the army of Israel; Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

24 Adoram was in charge of revenue; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

25 Sheva was scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were the priests;

26 and Ira the Jairite was a chief minister under David.

David Avenges the Gibeonites

21 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites."

2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; the children of Israel had sworn protection to them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.

3 Therefore David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

4 And the Gibeonites said to him, "We will have no silver or gold from Saul or from his house, nor shall you kill any man in Israel for us." And he said, "Whatever you say, that will I do for you."

5 So they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territories of Israel,

6 "let seven men of his descendants be delivered to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD chose." And the king said, "I will give them."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of Michal³⁵ the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

9 and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD. So they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 Now Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of Jabesh Gilead who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan,³⁶ where the Philistines had hung them up, after the Philistines had struck down Saul in Gilboa.

13 So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there; and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

14 They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded the prayer for the land.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

15 When the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David and his servants with him went down and fought against the Philistines; and David grew faint.

16 Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel."

18 Now it happened afterwards that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph,³⁷ who was one of the sons of the giant.

19 Again there was a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim³⁸ the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 Yet again there was a battle in Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah,³⁹ the brother of David, killed him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Praise for God's Deliverance

22 Then David spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

2 And he said:⁴⁰

"The LORD is my rock,
my fortress and my deliverer;

3 The God of my strength,
in him I will trust,

My shield and the horn of my
salvation.

My stronghold and my refuge;
My Saviour, you save me from violence.

4 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

5 "When the waves of death
encompassed me,
The floods of ungodliness
made me afraid;
6 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me,
The snares of death confronted me.
7 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried to my God.
He heard my voice from his temple,
And my cry entered his ears.

8 "Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of heaven moved and shook.

Because he was angry.
9 Smoke went up from his nostrils,
And devouring fire from his mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also,
and came down
With darkness under his feet.
11 He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
And he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12 He made darkness canopies around him,
Dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

13 From the brightness before him
Coals of fire were kindled.

14 "The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered his voice.

15 He sent out arrows and scattered them;
Lightning bolts,
and he vanquished them.

16 Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world
were uncovered,
At the rebuke of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 "He sent from above, he took me,
He drew me out of many waters.

18 He delivered me
from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me;
For they were too strong for me.

He delivered me,
because he delighted in me.

And as for his statutes,
I did not depart from them.

Who subdues the people under me,
49 Who delivers me from my enemies,
You also lift me
above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me
from the violent man.
- 50 Therefore I will give thanks to you,
O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to your name.
- 51 He is the tower of salvation to his king,
And shows mercy to his anointed,
To David and his descendants for evermore."

David's Last Words

23 Now these are the last words of David.

*Thus says David the son of Jesse,
Thus says the man raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel:*

- 2 "The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And his word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
'He who rules over men must be just,
4 Ruling in the fear of God.
And he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds,
Like the tender grass
springing out of the earth,
By clear shining after rain.'
- 5 "Although my house is not so with God,
Yet he has made with me
an everlasting covenant.
Ordered in all things and secure.
For this is all my salvation
and all my desire;
Will he not make it increase?
6 But the sons of rebellion shall all be
as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands.
7 But the man who touches them
Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place."

David's Mighty Men

8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-Basshebeth⁴¹ the Tachmonite, chief among the captains. He was called Adino the Eznrite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo,⁴² the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.

10 He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder.

11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. Then the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD brought about a great victory.

13 Then three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest-time and came to David at the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

14 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

15 And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

16 So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

17 And he said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

18 Now Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of another three. He lifted his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and won a name among these three.

19 Was he not the most honoured of three? Therefore he became their captain. However, he did not attain to the first three.

20 Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

21 And he killed an Egyptian, a spectacular man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; so he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

22 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honoured than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite,

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

27 Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29 Heleb the son of Baanah (the Netophathite), Ittai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,

30 Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash,

31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite (of the sons of Jashen), Jonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite.

34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hezrai⁴³ the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite (armour-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah),

38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

39 and Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

David's Census of Israel and Judah

24 Again the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

² So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Now go throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, that I may know the number of the people."

³ And Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundredfold more than there are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king desire this thing?"

⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the army. So Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel.

⁵ And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the town which is in the midst of the ravine of Gad, and towards Jazer.

⁶ Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; they came to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon;

⁷ and they came to the stronghold of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to South Judah as far as Beersheba.

⁸ So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

⁹ Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

The Judgment on David's Sin

¹⁰ And David's heart condemned him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, I pray, O LORD, take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

¹¹ Now when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,

¹² "Go and tell David, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.'"

¹³ So Gad came to David and told him; and he said to him, "Shall seven⁴⁴ years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should take back to him who sent me."

¹⁴ And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercies are great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

¹⁵ So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel

43 Spelled Hezro in 1 Chronicles 11:37 44 Or three in 1 Chronicles 21:12 from the morning till the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men of the people died.

16 And when the angel⁴⁵ stretched out his hand over Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-floor of Araunah⁴⁶ the Jebusite.

17 Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, "Surely I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house."

The Altar on the Threshing-floor

18 And Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

19 So David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 Now Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming towards him. So Araunah went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

21 Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

22 Now Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good to him. Look, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing implements and the yokes of the oxen for wood.

23 "All these, O king, Araunah has given to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you."

24 Then the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God with that which costs me nothing." So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

The First Book of the Kings

Adonijah Presumes to Be King

NOW King David was old, advanced in years; and they put bed-covers on him, but he could not get warm.

² Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young woman, a virgin, be sought for our lord the king, and let her stand before the king, and let her care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that our lord the king may be warm."

⁵ Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

⁶ (And his father had not rebuked him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" He was also a very good-looking man. His mother had borne him after Absalom.)

⁸ But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

⁹ And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En Rogel; he also invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants.

¹⁰ But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or Solomon his brother.

¹¹ So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Hag-

gith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?"

¹² "Come, please, let me now give you counsel, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

¹³ "Go immediately to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?"

¹⁴ "Then, while you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

¹⁵ So Bathsheba went into the chamber to the king. (Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.)

¹⁷ Then she said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.'

¹⁸ "So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it."

¹⁹ "He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.

²⁰ "And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

²² And just then, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

²³ So they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'?"

25 "For he has gone down today, and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look! They are eating and drinking before him; and they say, 'Long live King Adonijah!'"

26 "But he has not invited me, even me your servant, nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon.

27 "Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not told your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

David Proclaims Solomon King

28 Then King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.

29 And the king took an oath and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every distress,

30 "just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' so I certainly will do this day."

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did homage to the king, and said, "Let my lord King David live for ever!"

32 And King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.

33 The king also said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon.

34 "There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel; and blow the horn, and say, 'Long live King Solomon!'"

35 "Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place. For I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! May the LORD God of my lord the king say so too."

37 "As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and took him to Gihon.

39 Then Zadok the priest took a horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew the horn, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

40 And all the people went up after him; and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth seemed to split with their sound.

41 So Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the horn, he said, "Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?"

42 While he was still speaking, there came Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest. And Adonijah said to him, "Come in, for you are a prominent man, and bring good tidings."

43 Then Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

44 "The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king's mule.

45 "So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.

46 "Also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom.

47 "And moreover the king's servants have gone to bless our lord King David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may he make his throne greater than your throne.' Then the king bowed himself on the bed.

48 "Also the king said thus, 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see it!' "

49 Then all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and each one went his way.

50 Now Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; so he arose, and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, "Indeed Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'"

52 Then Solomon said, "If he proves himself a worthy man, not one hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

53 So King Solomon sent them to bring him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

David's Instructions to Solomon

2 Then the days of David drew near that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying:

2 "I go the way of all the earth; be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man.

3 "And keep the charge of the LORD your God: to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

4 "that the LORD may fulfil his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' he said, 'you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

5 "Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.

6 "Therefore do according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to the grave in peace.

7 "But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

8 "And see, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a malicious curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'

9 "Now therefore, do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man and know what you ought to do to him; but bring his gray hair down to the grave with blood."

Death of David

10 So David rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David.

11 The period that David reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

12 Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon Executes Adonijah

13 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Do you come peaceably?" And he said, "Peaceably."

14 Moreover he said, "I have something to say to you." And she said, "Say it."

15 Then he said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their expectations on me, that I should reign. However, the kingdom has been turned over, and has become my brother's; for it was his from the LORD.

16 "Now I ask one petition of you; do not deny me." And she said to him, "Say it."

17 Then he said, "Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

18 So Bathsheba said, "Very well, I will speak for you to the king."

19 Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her and bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother; so she sat at his right hand.

20 Then she said, "I desire one small petition of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask it, my mother, for I will not refuse you."

²¹ So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

²² And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also—for he is my older brother—for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."

²³ Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "May God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life!

²⁴ "Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

²⁵ So King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

Abiathar Exiled, Joab Executed

²⁶ And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are worthy of death; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted every time my father was afflicted."

²⁷ So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might fulfil the word of the LORD which he spoke concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

²⁸ Then news came to Joab, for Joab had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. So Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

²⁹ And King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD; there he is, by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."

³⁰ So Benaiah went to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out!'" And he said, "No, but I will die here." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

³¹ And the king said to him, "Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, that you may take away from me and from the house of my father the innocent blood which Joab shed.

³² "So the LORD will return his blood on his head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword—Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah—though my father David did not know it.

³³ "Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants for ever. But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne, there shall be peace for ever from the LORD."

³⁴ So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

³⁵ The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

Shimei Executed

³⁶ Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere.

³⁷ "For it shall be, on the day you go out and cross the Brook Kidron, know for certain you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head."

³⁸ And Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

³⁹ Now it happened at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shimei ran away to Achish the son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your slaves are in Gath!"

⁴⁰ So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Achish at Gath to seek his slaves. And Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.

⁴¹ And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back.

⁴² Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go out and travel anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'

43 "Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know, as your heart acknowledges, all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will return your wickedness on your own head.

45 "But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever."

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

3 Now Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall all around Jerusalem.

2 Meanwhile the people sacrificed at the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

4 Now the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

6 And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to your servant David my father, because he walked before you in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you; you have continued this great kindness for him, and you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 "Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

8 "And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.

9 "Therefore give to your servant an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of yours?"

10 And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice.

12 "behold, I have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you.

13 "And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honour, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days.

14 "So if you walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

15 Then Solomon awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

Solomon's Wise Judgment

16 Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him.

17 And one woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.

18 "Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together: there was no one with us in the house, except the two of us in the house.

19 "And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him.

20 "So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 "And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morning, indeed, he was not my son whom I had borne."

²² Then the other woman said, "No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son." And the first woman said, "No! But the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

²³ And the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one'; and the other says, 'No! But your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'"

²⁴ Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king.

²⁵ And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other."

²⁶ Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!" But the other said, "Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him."

²⁷ So the king answered and said, "Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother."

²⁸ And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

Solomon's Administration

4 So King Solomon was king over all Israel.

² And these were his officials: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest;

³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder;

⁴ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, over the army; Zadok and Abiathar, the priests;

⁵ Azariah the son of Nathan, over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan, a priest and the king's friend;

⁶ Ahishar, over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda, over the labour force.

⁷ And Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each one made provision for one month of the year.

⁸ These are their names: Ben-Hur,¹ in the mountains of Ephraim;

⁹ Ben-Deker,² in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan;

¹⁰ Ben-Hesed,³ in Arubboth; to him belonged Sochoh and all the land of Hephher;

¹¹ Ben-Abinadab,⁴ in all the regions of Dor; he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife;

¹² Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth Shean, which is beside Zaretan below Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokneam;

¹³ Ben-Geber,⁵ in Ramoth Gilead; to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, in Gilead; to him also belonged the region of Argob in Bashan—sixty large cities with walls and bronze gate-bars;

¹⁴ Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

¹⁵ Ahimaaz, in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife;

¹⁶ Baanah the son of Hushai, in Asher and Aloth;

¹⁷ Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

¹⁸ Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin;

¹⁹ Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only governor who was in the land.

Prosperity and Wisdom of Solomon's Reign

²⁰ Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

²¹ So Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the River⁶ to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

²² Now Solomon's provision for one day was thirty kors of fine flour, sixty kors of meal,

²³ ten fatted oxen, twenty oxen from the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.

²⁴ For he had dominion over all the region on this side of the River⁷ from Tiph-sah even to Gaza, namely over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace on every side all around him.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, each man under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan as far as Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And these governors, each man in his month, provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table. There was no lack in their supply.

28 They also brought barley and straw to the proper place, for the horses and steeds, each man according to his charge.

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and exceedingly great understanding, and largeness of heart like the sand on the sea-shore.

30 Thus Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the men of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than all men—than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the surrounding nations.

32 He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were one thousand and five.

33 Also he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish.

34 And men of all nations, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, came to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

5 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, because he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always loved David.

2 Then Solomon sent to Hiram, saying:

3 "You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put his foes^a under the soles of his feet.

4 "But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrence.

5 "And behold, I propose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for my name.'

6 "Now therefore, command that they cut down cedars for me from Lebanon; and my servants will be with your servants, and I will pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who has skill to cut timber like the Sidonians."

7 So it was, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, for he has given David a wise son over this great people!"

8 Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying: "I have considered the message which you sent me, and I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.

9 "My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you indicate to me, and will have them broken apart there; then you can take them away. And you shall fulfil my desire by giving food for my household."

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar and cypress logs according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of pressed oil. Thus Solomon gave to Hiram year by year.

12 So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together.

13 Then King Solomon raised up a labour force out of all Israel; and the labour force was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts; they were one month in Lebanon and two months at home; Adoniram was in charge of the labour force.

15 Solomon had seventy thousand who carried burdens, and eighty thousand who quarried stone in the mountains.

16 besides three thousand three hundred from the chiefs of Solomon's deputies, who supervised the people who laboured in the work.

17 And the king commanded them to quarry large stones, costly stones, and

^a Literally them

hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the temple.⁹

¹⁸ So Solomon's builders, Hiram's builders, and the Gebalites quarried them; and they prepared timber and stones to build the temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6 And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

² Now the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits.

⁴ And he made for the house windows with bevelled frames.

⁵ Against the wall of the temple he built chambers all around, against the walls of the temple, all around both the sanctuary and the inner sanctuary.¹¹ Thus he made side chambers all around it.

⁶ The lowest chamber was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the temple, so that the support beams would not be fastened into the walls of the temple.

⁷ And the temple, when it was being built, was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

⁸ The doorway for the middle story was on the right side of the temple. They went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.

⁹ So he built the temple and finished it, and he panelled the temple with beams and boards of cedar.

¹⁰ And he built side chambers against the entire temple, each five cubits high; they were attached to the temple with cedar beams.

¹¹ Then the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying:

¹² "Concerning this temple which you are building, if you walk in my statutes, execute my judgments, keep all my commandments, and walk in them, then I will perform my word with you, which I spoke to your father David.

¹³ "And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."

¹⁴ So Solomon built the temple and finished it.

¹⁶ Then he built the twenty-cubit room at the rear of the temple, from floor to ceiling, with cedar boards; he built it inside as the inner sanctuary, as the Most Holy Place.

¹⁷ And in front of it the temple sanctuary was forty cubits long.

¹⁸ The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with ornamental buds and open flowers. All was cedar; there was no stone to be seen.

¹⁹ And he prepared the inner sanctuary inside the temple, to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

²¹ So Solomon overlaid the inside of the temple with pure gold. He stretched gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary; and he overlaid it with gold.

²² The whole temple he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the temple; also he overlaid with gold the entire altar that was by the inner sanctuary.

²³ Inside the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

²⁴ One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub five cubits: ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

²⁵ And the other cherub was ten cubits;

⁹ Literally house, and so frequently throughout the book

¹⁰ Hebrew heykal; here the main room of the temple, elsewhere called the holy place (compare Exodus 26:33 and Ezekiel 41:1)

¹¹ Hebrew debir; here the inner room of the temple, elsewhere called the Most Holy Place (compare verse 16)

both cherubim were of the same size and shape.

²⁶ The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.

²⁷ Then he set the cherubim inside the inner room;¹² and they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

²⁸ Also he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

²⁹ Then he carved all the walls of the temple all around, both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.

³⁰ And the floor of the temple he overlaid with gold, both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

³¹ For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and door-posts were one-fifth of the wall.

³² The two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

³³ So for the door of the sanctuary he also made door-posts of olive wood, one-fourth of the wall.

³⁴ And the two doors were of cypress wood; two panels comprised one folding door, and two panels comprised the other folding door.

³⁵ Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold applied evenly on the carved work.

³⁶ And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷ In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

³⁸ And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

Solomon's Other Buildings

7 But Solomon took thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.

² He also built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.

³ And it was panelled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen to a row.

⁴ There were windows with bevelled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

⁵ And all the doorways and door-posts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.

⁶ He also made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.

⁷ Then he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Judgment, where he might judge; and it was panelled with cedar from floor to ceiling.¹³

⁸ And the house where he dwelt had another court inside the hall, of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken as wife.

⁹ All these were of costly stones hewn to size, trimmed with saws, inside and out, from the foundation to the eaves, and also on the outside to the great court.

¹⁰ The foundation was of costly stones, large stones, some ten cubits and some eight cubits.

¹¹ And above were costly stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood.

¹² The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the inner court of the house of the LORD and the vestibule of the temple.

Hiram the Craftsman

¹³ Now King Solomon sent and brought Hiram¹⁴ from Tyre.

¹⁴ He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker: he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The Bronze Pillars for the Temple

¹⁵ And he cast two pillars of bronze,

¹² Literally house ¹³ Literally floor, that is, of the upper level ¹⁴ Spelled Huram in 2 Chronicles 2:13 each one eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of each.

16 Then he made two capitals of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

17 He made a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the pillars: seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital.

18 So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top; and thus he did for the other capital.

19 And the capitals which were on top of the pillars in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four cubits.

20 The capitals on the two pillars also had pomegranates above, by the convex surface which was next to the network; and there were two hundred such pomegranates in rows on each of the capitals all around.

21 Then he set up the pillars by the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the right and called its name Jachin, and he set up the pillar on the left and called its name Boaz.

22 The tops of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. So the work of the pillars was finished.

The Sea and the Oxen

23 Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

24 And below its brim were ornamental buds encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The ornamental buds were cast in two rows when it was cast.

25 It stood on twelve oxen: three looking towards the north, three looking towards the west, three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

26 It was a hand's breadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained two thousand baths.

The Carts and the Lavers

27 He also made ten carts of bronze; four cubits was the length of each cart, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height.

28 And this was the design of the carts: They had panels, and the panels were between frames;

29 on the panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And on the frames was a pedestal on top. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of plaited work.

30 Every cart had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the laver were supports of cast bronze beside each wreath.

31 Its opening inside the crown at the top was one cubit in diameter; and the opening was round, shaped like a pedestal, one and a half cubits in outside diameter; and also on the opening were engravings, but the panels were square, not round.

32 Under the panels were the four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the cart. The height of a wheel was one and a half cubits.

33 The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel; their axle pins, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all of cast bronze.

34 And there were four supports at the four corners of each cart, and its supports were part of the cart itself.

35 On the top of the cart, at the height of half a cubit, it was perfectly round. And on the top of the cart, its flanges and its panels were of the same casting.

36 On the plates of its flanges and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was a clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

37 After this manner he made the ten carts. All of them were of the same mould, one measure, and one shape.

38 Then he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver contained forty baths, and each laver was four cubits. On each of the ten carts was a laver.

39 And he put five carts on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the Sea on the right side of the house towards the southeast.

Furnishings of the Temple

40 Hiram made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work that he was to do for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:

41 the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars, and the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

42 four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars);

43 the ten carts, and ten lavers on the carts;

44 one Sea, and twelve oxen under the Sea;

45 the pots, the shovels, and the bowls. All these articles which Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

46 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay moulds, between Succoth and Zaretan.

47 And Solomon did not weigh all the articles, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

48 Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold on which was the shewbread;

49 the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left in front of the inner sanctuary, with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold;

50 the basins, the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner room (the Most Holy Place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

51 Thus all the work that King Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

8 Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled to King Solomon at the feast in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 Then all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

5 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

6 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

7 For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

8 And the poles extended so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. So they are there to this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD.

11 so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then Solomon spoke:

“The LORD said he would dwell in the dark cloud.

13 I have surely built you an exalted house, and a place for you to dwell in for ever.”

Solomon's Speech at Completion of the Work

14 And the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel.

while all the congregation of Israel was standing.

15 Then he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to my father David, and with his hand has fulfilled it, saying,

16 'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'

17 "Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 "But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart.

19 'Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son, who shall come from your loins, he shall build the house for my name.'

20 "So the LORD has fulfilled his word which he spoke; and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 "And there I have made a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands towards heaven;

23 and he said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven above or on earth below like you, who keep your covenant and mercy with your servants who walk before you with all their heart.

24 "You have kept what you promised your servant David my father; you have both spoken with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.

25 "Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what you promised your servant David my father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man sit before me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before me as you have walked before me.'

26 "And now I pray, O God of Israel, let your word come true, which you have spoken to your servant David my father.

27 "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain you. How much less this temple which I have built!

28 "Yet regard the prayer of your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which your servant is praying before you today:

29 "that your eyes may be open towards this temple night and day, towards the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may hear the prayer which your servant makes towards this place.

30 "And may you hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel. When they pray towards this place, then hear in heaven your dwelling-place; and when you hear, forgive.

31 "When anyone sins against his neighbour, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before your altar in this temple, 32 "then hear in heaven, and act and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

33 "When your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against you, and when they turn back to you and confess your name, and pray and make supplication to you in this temple, 34 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which you gave to their fathers.

35 "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, when they pray towards this place and confess your name, and turn from their sin because you afflict them,

36 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, that you may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and give rain on your land which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

37 "When there is famine in the land, or pestilence, blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

38 "whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands towards this temple:

39 "then hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and forgive, and act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart you know (for you, only you, know the hearts of all the sons of men),

40 "that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

41 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, but has come from a far country for your name's sake

42 "(for they will hear of your great name and your strong hand and your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays towards this temple,

43 "hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you, that all peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by your name.

44 "When your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD towards the city which you have chosen and towards the temple which I have built for your name,

45 "then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 "When they sin against you (for there is no one who does not sin), and you become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 "yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to you in the land of those who took them captive, saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness';

48 "and when they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray to you towards their land which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen and the temple which I have built for your name:

49 "then hear in heaven your dwelling-

place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

50 "and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against you; and grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them

51 "(for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace).

52 "that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant and the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to you.

53 "For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be your inheritance, as you spoke by the hand of your servant Moses, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt. O Lord God."

Solomon Blesses the Congregation

54 And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 Then he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised through his servant Moses.

57 "May the LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. May he not leave us nor forsake us.

58 "that he may incline our hearts to himself, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 "And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day may require.

60 "that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

61 "Let your heart therefore be loyal to the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes and keep his commandments, as at this day."

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

62 Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 At that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven more days—fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for his servant David, and for Israel his people.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

9 And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he wanted to do, 2 that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said to him: "I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before me; I have sanctified this house which you have built to put my name there for ever, and my eyes and my heart will be there perpetually.

4 "Now if you walk before me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep my statutes and my judgments,

5 "then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

6 "But if you or your sons at all turn from following me, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

7 "then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for my name I will cast out of my sight. Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

8 "And this house will be exalted; yet everyone who passes by it will be astonished and will hiss, and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

9 "Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, and worshipped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this calamity on them.'

Solomon and Hiram Exchange Gifts

10 Now it happened at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house

11 (Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired), that King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 Then Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him.

13 So he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Cabul,¹⁵ as they are to this day.

14 Then Hiram sent the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

Solomon's Additional Achievements

15 And this is the reason for the labour force which King Solomon raised: to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it with fire, had killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.)

17 And Solomon built Gezer, Lower Beth Horon,

15 Literally Good for Nothing

18 Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

19 all the storage cities that Solomon had, cities for his chariots and cities for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 All the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel—

21 that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel had not been able to destroy completely—from these Solomon raised forced labour, as it is to this day.

22 But of the children of Israel Solomon made no forced labourers, because they were men of war and his servants: his officers, his captains, commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.

23 Others were chiefs of the officials who were over Solomon's work: five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.

24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to her house which Solomon had built for her. Then he built the Millo.

25 Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the temple.

26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Elath¹⁶ on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 Then Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they went to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

10 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

3 So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

5 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cup-bearers, and his way of access by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

6 Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

7 "However I did not believe the words until I came and saw it with my own eyes; and indeed the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame of which I heard.

8 "Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

9 "Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD has loved Israel for ever, therefore he made you king, to do justice and righteousness."

10 Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones. There never again came such abundance of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

11 Also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought great quantities of almug¹⁷ wood and precious stones from Ophir.

12 And the king made steps of the almug wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers. There never again came such almug wood, nor has the like been seen to this day.

13 And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon had given her according to the royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

16 Hebrew Eloth (compare 2 Kings 14:22) 17 Or algum (compare 2 Chronicles 9:10, 11)

Solomon's Great Wealth

14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

15 besides that from the travelling merchants, from the income of traders, from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the country.

16 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.

17 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas of gold went into each shield. And the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back; there were arm rests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the arm rests.

20 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

21 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; not one was of silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had merchant ships¹⁸ at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant ships came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.¹⁹

23 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armour, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

26 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamore-figs which are in the lowland.

28 And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.

29 Now a chariot that was imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty; and thus, through their agents,²⁰ they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon's Heart Turns from the LORD

11 But King Solomon loved many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites—

2 from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, "You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. For surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it was so, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not fully follow the LORD, as did his father David.

7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon.

8 And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded.

18 Literally ships of Tarshish (deep-sea vessels) 19 Or peacocks 20 Literally by their hands

11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

12 "Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

13 "However I will not tear away the whole kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

Adversaries of Solomon

14 Now the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom.

15 For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had killed every male in Edom

16 (because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom),

17 that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child.

18 Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, that is, the sister of Queen Tahpenes.

20 Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 Now when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?" So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

23 And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.

25 He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the trouble that Hadad caused); and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

26 Then Solomon's servant, Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

27 And this is what caused him to rebel against the king: Solomon had built the Millo and repaired the damages to the City of David his father.

28 The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, made him the officer over all the labour force of the house of Joseph.

29 Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you

32 '(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),

33 'because they have forsaken me, and worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways to do what is right in my eyes and keep my statutes and my judgments, as did his father David.

34 'However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of my servant David, whom I chose because he kept my commandments and my statutes.

³⁵ 'But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and give it to you—ten tribes.

³⁶ 'And to his son I will give one tribe, that my servant David may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for myself, to put my name there.

³⁷ 'So I will take you, and you shall reign over all your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel.

³⁸ 'Then it shall be, if you heed all that I command you, walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as my servant David did, then I will be with you and build for you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.

³⁹ 'And I will afflict the descendants of David because of this, but not for ever.' "

⁴⁰ Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Death of Solomon

⁴¹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

⁴² And the period that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

⁴³ Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

12 Now Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

² So it was, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was still in Egypt, for he had fled from the presence of King Solomon and had been dwelling in Egypt).

³ that they sent and called him. Then Jeroboam and the whole congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

⁴ "Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

⁵ So he said to them, "Depart for three days, then come back to me." And the people departed.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he said, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

⁷ And they spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants for ever."

⁸ But he rejected the counsel which the elders gave him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

⁹ And he said to them, "What counsel do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

¹⁰ Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!'

¹¹ 'And now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!'"²¹

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

¹³ Then the king answered the people roughly, and rejected the counsel which the elders had given him;

¹⁴ and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"²²

¹⁵ So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of affairs was from the LORD, that he might fulfil his word, which the LORD had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

"What portion have we in David?
We have no inheritance
in the son of Jesse.
 To your tents, O Israel!
 Now, see to your own house,
 O David!"

So Israel departed to their tents.

17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the revenue; but all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

20 Now it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,

24 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from me."'" Therefore they obeyed the word of the LORD, and turned back, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Gold Calves

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and dwelt there. Also he went out from there and built Peniel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart,

"Now the kingdom may return to the house of David:

27 "If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn back to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and go back to Rehoboam king of Judah."

28 Therefore the king took counsel and made two calves of gold, and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!"

29 And he set up one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

30 Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

31 He made shrines²³ on the high places, and made priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

32 Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast that was in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And at Bethel he installed the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart. And he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and offered sacrifices on the altar and burned incense.

The Message of the Man of God

13 And behold, a man of God went from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 Then he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, a child, Josiah by name, shall be born to the house of David; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be burned on you.'"

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Surely the altar shall split apart, and the ashes on it shall be poured out."

4 So it came to pass when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of

23 Literally houses

God, who cried out against the altar in Bethel, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" Then his hand, which he stretched out towards him, withered, so that he could not pull it back to himself.

5 The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please entreat the favour of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as it was before.

7 Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

8 But the man of God said to the king, "If you were to give me half your house, I would not go in with you; nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9 "For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.'"

10 So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

Death of the Man of God

11 Now an old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" For his sons had seen which way the man of God went who came from Judah.

13 Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it,

14 and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. Then he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."

15 Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

16 And he said, "I cannot return with you nor go in with you; neither can I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place.

17 "For I have been told by the word of the LORD, 'You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.'"

18 He said to him, "I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.' " But he lied to him.

19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

20 Now it happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

21 and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

22 'but you came back, ate bread, and drank water in the place of which the LORD said to you, 'Eat no bread and drink no water,' your corpse shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.' "

23 So it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 So when he was gone, a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood by it; the lion also stood by the corpse.

25 And there, men passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road, and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 So when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke to him."

27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled it.

28 Then he went and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse nor torn the donkey.

²⁹ And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.

³¹ So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

³³ After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from every class of people for the high places; whoever wished, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

³⁴ And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

Judgment on the House of Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

² And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that I would be king over this people.

⁴ And Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were glazed by reason of his age.

⁵ Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

⁶ And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news."

⁷ "Go, tell Jeroboam. Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over my people Israel.

⁸ "and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments and who followed me with all his heart, to do only what was right in my eyes;

⁹ "but you have done more evil than all who were before you, for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and moulded images to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back—

¹⁰ "therefore behold! I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, bond and free; and I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone.

¹¹ "The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field; for the LORD has spoken it!"

¹² "Arise therefore, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

¹⁴ "Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; this is the day. What? Even now!

¹⁵ "For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River,²⁵ because they have made their wooden images,²⁶ provoking the LORD to anger.

¹⁷ Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

¹⁸ And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word

²⁴ Literally houses ²⁵ That is, the Euphrates ²⁶ Hebrew Asherah, Canaanite goddess of the LORD which he spoke through his servant Ahijah the prophet.

Death of Jeroboam

19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 The period that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years. So he rested with his fathers. Then Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Reigns in Judah

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king. He reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

22 Now Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

24 And there were also perverted persons²⁷ in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

25 Now it happened, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the gold shields which Solomon had made.

27 Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guards, who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

28 And so it was, whenever the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guards carried them, then brought them back into the guard chamber.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31 So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Then Abijam²⁸ his son reigned in his place.

Abijam Reigns in Judah

15 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his son after him and by establishing Jerusalem;

5 because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 So Abijam rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa Reigns in Judah

9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah.

10 And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom.

11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did his father David.

12 And he banished the perverted persons²⁹ from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 Also he removed Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Ashe-

²⁷ Hebrew qedeshim, that is, those practising sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals

²⁸ Spelled Abijah in 2 Chronicles 12:16ff ²⁹ See note 27

rah.³⁰ And Asa cut down her obscene image and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's heart was loyal to the LORD all his days.

15 He also brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

16 Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

19 "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

20 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. He attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in Tirzah.

22 Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted. And they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 So Asa rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab Reigns in Israel

25 Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

27 Then Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha killed him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

29 And it was so, when he became king, that he killed all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite,

30 because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he had sinned and by which he had made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

Baasha Reigns in Israel

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

34 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

16 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying:

2 "Inasmuch as I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins,

³⁰ A Canaanite goddess

3 "surely I will take away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 "The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the fields."

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. Then Elah his son reigned in his place.

7 And also the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed them.

Elah Reigns in Israel

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Tirzah.

9 Now his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah;

10 and Zimri went in and struck him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

11 Then it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave him one male, neither of his kinsmen nor of his friends.

12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,

13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Israel sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Zimri Reigns in Israel

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri had reigned in Tirzah seven days. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 Now the people who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and also has killed the king." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house down upon himself with fire, and died,

19 because of the sins which he had sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed to make Israel sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Omri Reigns in Israel

21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years he reigned in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; then he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Samaria, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.

25 Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.

26 For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 28 So Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshipped him.

32 Then he set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a wooden image.³¹ Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation with Abiram his first-born, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD, which he had spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.³²

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except at my word."

2 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

3 "Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

4 "And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

7 And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

Elijah and the Widow

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

9 "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink."

11 And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

12 Then she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

13 And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterwards make some for yourself and your son.

14 "For thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth.'"

15 So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days.

16 The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Revives the Widow's Son

17 Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him.

18 So she said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you

31 Hebrew Asherah, a Canaanite goddess 32 Compare Joshua 6:26 come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"

19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

20 Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have you also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?"

21 And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him."

22 Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives!"

24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."

Elijah's Message to Ahab

18 Now it came to pass after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the earth."

2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab; and there was a severe famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab had called Obadiah, who was in charge of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly.)

4 For so it was, while Jezebel massacred the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so that we will not have to kill any livestock.

6 So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 Now as Obadiah was on his way, suddenly Elijah met him; and he recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

8 And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.'"

9 Then he said, "How have I sinned, that you are delivering your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?"

10 "As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to hunt for you; and when they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath from the kingdom or nation that they could not find you.

11 "And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here!"'

12 "And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

13 "Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?"

14 "And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here!"' and he will kill me."

15 Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today."

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 Then it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, O troubler of Israel?"

18 And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have followed the Baals.

19 "Now therefore, send and gather all Israel to me on Mount Carmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, and the four hundred prophets of Asherah,³³ who eat at Jezebel's table."

Elijah's Mount Carmel Victory

20 So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came to all the people, and said, "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him." But the people answered him not a word.

33 A Canaanite goddess

22 Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 "Therefore let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it.

24 "Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, he is God." So all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

25 Now Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

26 So they took the bul which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!" But there was no voice; no one answered. And they leaped about the altar which they had made.

27 And so it was, at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened."

28 So they cried aloud, and cut themselves, as was their custom, with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.

29 And it was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was no voice; no one answered, no one paid attention.

30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name."³⁴

32 Then with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four water-pots with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood."

34 Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time; and he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.

35 So the water ran all around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

36 And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word.

37 "Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that you are the LORD God, and that you have turned their hearts back to you again."

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, he is God! The LORD, he is God!"

40 And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon and executed them there.

The Drought Ends

41 Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain."

42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees.

43 and said to his servant, "Go up now, look towards the sea." So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And seven times he said, "Go again."

44 Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, "There is a cloud, as small as a man's hand, rising out of the sea!" So he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you.'"

45 Now it happened in the meantime that the sky became black with clouds

³⁴ Compare Genesis 32:28

and wind, and there was a heavy rain. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel.

⁴⁶ Then the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah Escapes from Jezebel

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had executed all the prophets with the sword.

² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time."

³ And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

⁴ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he prayed that he might die, and said, "It is enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!"

⁵ Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an angel³⁵ touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."

⁶ Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.

⁷ And the angel³⁶ of the LORD came back the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

⁸ So he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Horeb, the mountain of God.

⁹ And there he went into a cave, and spent the night in that place; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

¹⁰ So he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, torn down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

God's Revelation to Elijah

¹¹ Then he said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

¹² and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

¹³ So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

¹⁴ So he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, torn down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to him: "Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Damascus; and when you arrive, anoint Hazael as king over Syria.

¹⁶ "Also you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel. And Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

¹⁷ "It shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill.

¹⁸ "Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Elisha Follows Elijah

¹⁹ So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him.

²⁰ And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"

²¹ So Elisha³⁷ turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and boiled their flesh, using the oxen's equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and served him.

³⁵ Or Angel ³⁶ Or Angel ³⁷ Literally he

Ahab Defeats the Syrians

20 Now Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; there were thirty-two kings with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and made war against it.

2 Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad:

3 'Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine.'

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours."

5 Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, "You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children";

6 'but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put in their hands and take it.'

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him."

8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

9 Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'" And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.

10 Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people who follow me."

11 So the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not the one who puts on his armour boast like the one who takes it off.'"

12 And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were drinking at the command post, that he said to his servants, "Get ready." And they got ready to attack the city.

13 Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab

king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

14 So Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'By the young leaders of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who will set the battle in order?" And he answered, "You."

15 Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel—seven thousand.

16 So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were getting drunk at the command post.

17 The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria!"

18 So he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19 Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.

20 And each one killed his man; so the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the cavalry.

21 Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, for in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

The Syrians Again Defeated

23 Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, then surely we will be stronger than they.

24 "So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their places;

25 "and you shall muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely we will be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so.

²⁶ So it was, in the spring of the year, that Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

²⁷ And the children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went against them. Now the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the countryside.

²⁸ Then a man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys," therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

²⁹ And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians in one day.

³⁰ But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; then a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner chamber.

Ahab's Treaty with Ben-Hadad

³¹ And his servants said to him, "Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please, let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."

³² So they wore sackcloth around their waists and put ropes around their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

³³ Now the men were diligently watching to see whether any sign of mercy would come from him; and they quickly grasped at this word and said, "Your brother Ben-Hadad." So he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.

³⁴ Then Ben-Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may set up market-places for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." Then Ahab said, "I will send you away with this treaty." So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

Ahab Condemned

³⁵ Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of the LORD, "Strike me, please." And the man refused to strike him.

³⁶ Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

³⁷ And he found another man, and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, inflicting a wound.

³⁸ Then the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

³⁹ Now as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and there, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'

⁴⁰ "And while your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." And the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

⁴¹ Then he hastened to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

⁴² And he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have let slip out of your hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

⁴³ So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and displeased, and came to Samaria.

Naboth Is Murdered for His Vineyard

21 And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

² So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near, next to my house; and for it I will give you a vineyard better than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

³ And Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"

⁴ So Ahab went into his house sullen and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.

⁵ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you eat no food?"

⁶ So he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' And he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" "

⁷ Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise and eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth with high honour among the people;

¹⁰ "and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying, 'You have blasphemed God and the king.' Then take him out, and stone him, that he may die."

¹¹ So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

¹² They proclaimed a fast, and seated Naboth with high honour among the people.

¹³ And two men, scoundrels, came in and sat before him; and the scoundrels witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed God and the king!" Then they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.

¹⁴ Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

¹⁶ So it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

The LORD Condemns Ahab

¹⁷ Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

¹⁸ "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who lives in Samaria. There he is, in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

¹⁹ "You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?"' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours."'" "

²⁰ Then Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD:

²¹ 'Behold, I will bring calamity on you. I will take away your posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every male in Israel, both bond and free.

²² 'I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and made Israel sin.'

²³ "And concerning Jezebel the LORD also spoke, saying, 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.'

²⁴ "The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field."

²⁵ But there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do wickedness in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife stirred him up.

²⁶ And he behaved very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

27 So it was, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about mourning.

28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 "Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the calamity in his days; but in the days of his son I will bring the calamity on his house."

Micaiah Warns Ahab

22 Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel.

2 Then it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"

4 So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?" And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to fight, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king."

7 And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of him?"

8 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!"

10 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, at a threshing-floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

13 Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

14 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

15 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain?" And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king!"

16 So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

17 Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.'"

18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

19 Then Micaiah³⁸ said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on his right hand and on his left.

20 "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

21 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.'

22 "The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.'

23 "Now therefore, look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these

38 Literally he

prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

25 And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

26 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

27 "and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace."'"

28 Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

32 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

35 The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.

36 Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.

38 Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while the prostitutes bathed.³⁹ according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did, the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab rested with his fathers. Then Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

41 Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for the people offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

44 Also Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the might that he showed, and how he made war, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the rest of the perverted persons,⁴⁰ who remained in the days of his father Asa, he banished from the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom, only a deputy of the king.

48 Jehoshaphat made merchant ships to go to Ophir for gold; but they never sailed, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not.

39 Synac and Targum read they washed his armour

40 Hebrew qedeshim, that is, those practising sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals

⁵⁰ And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Israel

⁵¹ Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

⁵² He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin;

⁵³ for he served Baal and worshipped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of the Kings

God Judges Ahaziah

MOAB rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

² Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury."

³ But the angel¹ of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'"

⁴ "Now therefore, thus says the LORD: 'You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'" So Elijah departed.

⁵ And when the messengers returned to him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?"

⁶ So they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.''"

⁷ Then he said to them, "What kind of man was it who came up to meet you and told you these words?"

⁸ So they answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wore a leather belt around his waist." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹ Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!'"

¹⁰ So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

¹¹ Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he answered and said to him: "Man of God, thus has the king said, 'Come down quickly!'"

¹² So Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

¹³ Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight."

¹⁴ "Look, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight."

¹⁵ And the angel² of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶ Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'"

¹⁷ So Ahaziah³ died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Because he had no son, Jehoram⁴ became king in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Elijah Ascends to Heaven

2 And it came to pass, when the LORD was about to take up Elijah into

1 Or Angel 2 Or Angel 3 Literally he 4 The son of Ahab king of Israel (compare 3:1) heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

² Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Bethel." And Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they went down to Bethel.

³ And the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

⁴ Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Jericho." And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they came to Jericho.

⁵ And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" So he answered, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

⁶ Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan." And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So the two of them went on.

⁷ And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

⁸ Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

⁹ And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" And Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

¹⁰ So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."

¹¹ Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

¹² Now Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.

¹³ He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

¹⁴ Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵ Now when the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

¹⁶ Then they said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send anyone."

¹⁷ But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send them out." Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him.

¹⁸ And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

Elisha Performs Miracles

¹⁹ Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren."

²⁰ And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

²¹ Then he went out to the source of the water, and cast in the salt there, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'I have healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness.'"

²² So the water remains healed to this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.

²³ And he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up the road, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"

²⁴ So he turned around and looked at them, and pronounced a curse on them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

25 Then he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Moab Rebels Against Israel

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he persisted in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheepbreeder, and he regularly paid the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

5 But it happened, when Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

7 Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" And he said, "I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8 And he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he answered, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."

9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

11 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?" And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." And the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

14 And Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you.

15 "But now bring me a musician." And it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Make this valley full of ditches.'

17 "For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.'

18 "And this is but a trivial thing in the sight of the LORD; he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.

19 "Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

20 Now it happened in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered; and they stood at the border.

22 Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

23 And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

24 So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites.

25 Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it; and they stopped up all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees, except that they left intact the stones of Kir Hareseeth. However the slingers surrounded and attacked it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too intense for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great indignation against Israel. So they departed from him and returned to their own land.

Elisha and the Widow's Oil

4 A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves."

2 So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil."

3 Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbours—empty vessels; do not gather just a few.

4 "And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones."

5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out.

6 Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

8 Now it happened one day that Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a notable woman, and she constrained him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, that he turned in there to eat some food.

9 And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly.

10 "Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."

11 And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.

12 Then he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Look, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?'" And she answered, "I dwell among my own people."

14 So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."

15 And he said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

16 Then he said, "About this time next year you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord. Man of God, do not lie to your maidservant!"

17 And the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had told her.

18 So the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, "My head, my head!" So he said to a servant, "Carry him to his mother."

20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 Then she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back."

23 So he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Sabbath." And she said, "It is well."

24 Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."

25 So she departed, and went to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

And so it was, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, there is the Shunammite woman.

26 "Please run now to meet her, and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?'" And she answered, "It is well."

27 Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."

28 And she said, "Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me?'"

29 Then he said to Gehazi, "Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but lay my staff on the face of the child."

30 And the mother of the child said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her.

31 Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, "The child has not awakened."

32 And when Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed.

33 He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.

34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm.

35 He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son."

37 So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies the Pot of Stew

38 And Elisha returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

39 So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lap full of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

40 Then they served it to the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

41 So he said, "Then bring some flour." And he put it into the pot, and said, "Serve it to the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

Elisha Feeds One Hundred Men

42 Then a man came from Baal Shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, "Give it to the people, that they may eat."

43 And his servant said, "What? Shall I set this before one hundred men?" He said again, "Give it to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: 'They shall eat and have some left over.'"

44 So he set it before them; and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman's Leprosy Healed

5 Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great and honourable man in the eyes of his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valour, but he was a leper. 2 And the Syrians had gone out on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She waited on Naaman's wife.

3 Then she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy."

4 And Naaman⁵ went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus said the girl who is from the land of Israel."

5 So the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing.

6 Then he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said:

Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.

7 And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and make alive, that this man sends a man to me to heal him of his leprosy? Therefore please consider, and see how he seeks a quarrel with me."

8 So it was, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Please let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

9 Then Naaman went with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you, and you shall be clean."

11 But Naaman became furious, and went away and said, "Indeed, I said to myself, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy.'

12 "Are not the Abanah⁶ and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

14 So he went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his aides, and came and stood before him; and he said, "Indeed, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

16 But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

17 So Naaman said, "Then, if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer either burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

18 "Yet in this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD please pardon your servant in this thing."

19 Then he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

Gehazi's Greed

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, while not receiving from his hands what he brought; but as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him."

21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

22 And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Indeed, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of garments.'

23 So Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants; and they carried them on ahead of him.

24 When he came to the citadel, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house; then he let the men go, and they departed.

5 Literally he 6 Many manuscripts, Qere, Targum, and Syriac read Amanah.

25 Now he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

26 Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it lime to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?"

27 "Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants for ever." And he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow.

The Floating Axe Head

6 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

2 "Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell." And he answered, "Go."

3 Then one said, "Please consent to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."

4 So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

5 But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, master! For it was borrowed."

6 And the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float.

7 Therefore he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Syrians Captured

8 Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."

9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there."

10 Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of

Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13 So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him." And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in Dothan."

14 Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

16 So he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18 So when the Syrians⁷ came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And he struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

20 So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!

21 Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

22 And he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

23 Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their

⁷ Literally they

master. So the bands of Syrian raiders came no more into the land of Israel.

Syria Besieges Samaria in Famine

24 And it happened after this that Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove droppings for five shekels of silver.

26 Then, as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27 And he said, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing-floor or from the winepress?"

28 Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'

29 "So we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

30 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body.

31 Then he said, "God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today."

32 But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king⁸ sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33 And while he was still talking with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him; and then he said, "Surely this calamity is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: 'Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.'"

2 So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, "Look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" And he said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

The Syrians Flee

3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die?"

4 "If we say, 'We will enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die."

5 And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there.

6 For the LORD had caused the army of the Syrians to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses—the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!"

7 Therefore they arose and fled at twilight, and left the camp intact—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—and they fled for their lives.

8 And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said to one another, "We are not doing what is right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king's household."

10 So they went and called to the gate-keepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We went to the Syrian camp, and to our surprise no one was there, not a human sound—only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact."

11 And the gate-keepers called out, and they told it to the king's household inside.

12 Then the king arose in the night and

8 Literally he said to his servants, "Let me now tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'"

¹³ And one of his servants answered and said, "Please, let several men take five of the remaining horses which are left in the city. Look, they may either become like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; or indeed, I say, they may become like all the multitude of Israel left from those who are consumed; so let us send them and see."

¹⁴ Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them in the direction of the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see."

¹⁵ And they went after them to the Jordan; and indeed all the road was full of garments and weapons which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king.

¹⁶ Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁷ Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

¹⁸ So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be sold tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria."

¹⁹ Then that officer had answered the man of God, and said, "Now look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he had said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

²⁰ And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

The King Restores the Shunammite's Land

8 Then Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn; for the LORD has called for a famine, and furthermore, it will come upon the land for seven years."

² So the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God, and she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

³ It came to pass, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and for her land.

⁴ Then the king talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, please, all the great things Elisha has done."

⁵ Now it happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that there was the woman whose son he had restored to life, appealing to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

⁶ And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

Death of Ben-Hadad

⁷ Then Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

⁸ And the king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'"

⁹ So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, of every good thing of Damascus, forty camel-loads; and he came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'"

¹⁰ And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover.' However the LORD has shown me that he will really die."

¹¹ Then he set his countenance in a stare until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" And he answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword; and you will dash their children, and rip open their women with child."

13 So Hazael said, "But what is your servant—a dog, that he should do this gross thing?" And Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you will become king over Syria."

14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would surely recover."

15 But it happened on the next day that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

16 Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat having been king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat began to reign as king of Judah.

17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of his servant David, as he promised him to give a lamp to him and his sons for ever.

20 In his days Edom revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots, but his people fled to their tents.

22 Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. And Libnah revolted at that time.

23 Now the rest of the acts of Joram,⁹ and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 So Joram rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign.

26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 Now he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 Then King Joram went back to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Get yourself ready, take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead.

2 "Now when you arrive at that place, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among his associates, and take him to an inner room.

3 "Then take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel."' Then open the door and flee, and do not delay."

4 So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, "I have a message for you, O commander." And Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, commander."

9 Spelled Jehoram in verse 16ff

6 Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.'

7 'You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 'For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both bond and free.

9 'So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

10 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the vicinity of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.' And he opened the door and fled.

11 Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his babble."

12 And they said, "A lie! Tell us now." So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel."'"

13 Then each man hastened to take his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, "Jehu is king!"

Joram of Israel Killed

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.

15 But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, "If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel."

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17 Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men." And Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18 So the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me." And the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."

19 Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

20 And the watchman reported, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!"

21 So Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" So he answered, "What peace, as long as the prostitutions of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?"

23 Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!"

24 Now Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him into the tract of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that the LORD laid this burden upon him:

26 'Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD, 'and I will repay you in this plot,' says the LORD. Now therefore, take and throw him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

27 But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth Haggan.¹⁰ So Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also in the chariot." And they did so at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

10 That is, The Garden House

28 And his servants carried him in the chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.

29 In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

Jezebel's Violent Death

30 And when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.

31 Then, as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?"

32 And he looked up at the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" And two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

33 Then he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot.

34 And when he had gone in, he ate and drank. Then he said, "Go now, see to this accursed woman, and bury her, for she was a king's daughter."

35 So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

36 Therefore they came back and told him. And he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;'"

37 "and the corpse of Jezebel shall be as refuse on the surface of the field, in the plot at Jezreel, so that they shall not say, 'Here lies Jezebel.'"

Ahab's Seventy Sons Killed

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to those who reared Ahab's sons, saying:

2 Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and weapons,

3 choose the best qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, two kings could not stand up to him; how then can we stand?"

5 And he who was in charge of the house, and he who was in charge of the city, the elders also, and those who reared the sons, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, we will do all you tell us; but we will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight."

6 Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying:

If you are for me, and if you will obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow.

Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.

7 So it was, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and slaughtered seventy persons, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

8 Then a messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." And he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

9 So it was, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Indeed I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?"

10 "Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of the LORD which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what he spoke by his servant Elijah."

11 So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his close acquaintances and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

Ahaziah's Forty-two Brothers Killed

12 And he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way, at Beth Eked of the Shepherds,¹²

13 Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah; we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

14 And he said, "Take them alive!" So they took them alive, and killed them at 11 Compare 1 Kings 21:23 12 Or The Shearing House

the well of Beth Eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

The Rest of Ahab's Family Killed

15 Now when he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab, coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is towards your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 Then he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So they had him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke to Elijah.

Worshippers of Baal Killed

18 Then Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much.

19 "Now therefore, call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to make to Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.

21 Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the temple¹³ of Baal, and the temple of Baal was full from one end to the other.

22 And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshippers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them.

23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshippers of Baal."

24 So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, "If anyone whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be his life for the life of the other."

25 Now it was so, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them; let no one come out!" And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal. 26 And they brought the sacred pillars out of the temple of Baal and burned them.

27 Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the temple of Baal and made it a dung-heap to this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal from Israel.

29 However Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin, that is, from the golden calves that were at Bethel and Dan.

30 And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in doing what is right in my sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in my heart, your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin.

Death of Jehu

32 In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel; and Hazael conquered them in all the territory of Israel

33 from the Jordan eastward; all the land of Gilead—Gad, Reuben, and Manasse—from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, including Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 So Jehu rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.

36 And the period that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

11 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs.

13 Literally house, and so elsewhere in this chapter

2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

3 So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

4 In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds, of the bodyguards and the escorts, and brought them into the house of the LORD to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

5 Then he commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall do: One-third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall be keeping watch over the king's house.

6 "one-third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the escorts. You shall keep the watch of the house, lest it be broken down.

7 "The two contingents of you who go off duty on the Sabbath shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king.

8 "But you shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within range, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in."

9 So the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 Then the escorts stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, all around the king, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the Testimony;¹⁴ they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

13 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the escorts and the people, she came to the people, into the temple of the LORD.

14 When she looked, there was the king, standing by a pillar according to custom; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, "Treason! Treason!"

15 Then Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not let her be killed in the house of the LORD."

16 So they seized her; and she went by way of the horses' entrance to the king's house, and there she was killed.

17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD's people, and also between the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal, and tore it down. They thoroughly broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the bodyguards, the escorts, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went by way of the gate of the escorts to the king's house; and he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword in the king's house.

21 Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash¹⁵ became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

14 That is, the Law (compare Exodus 25:16, 21 and Deuteronomy 31:9) 15 Spelled Joash in 11:2ff

2 Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD—each man's census money, each man's assessment money¹⁶—and all the money that a man purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

5 "let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."

6 Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple.

7 So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take any more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple."

8 And the priests agreed that they would neither receive any more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.

9 Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the door put there all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up and put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

12 and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple.

13 However there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any articles of gold, or articles of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it.

15 Moreover they did not require an account from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be paid to workmen, for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD. It belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

17 Now Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; so Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

Death of Joash

19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash,¹⁷ and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose and made a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of the Millo, which goes down to Silla.

21 For Jozachar¹⁸ the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer,¹⁹ his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash²⁰ the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seven-teen years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not depart from them.

16 Compare Leviticus 27:2f 17 Spelled Jehoash in 12:1-18 18 Called Zabad in 2 Chronicles 24:26

19 Called Shimrith in 2 Chronicles 24:26 20 Spelled Jehoash in 12:1-18

3 Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 So Jehoahaz pleaded with the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 Then the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before.

6 Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin, but walked in them; and the wooden images²¹ also remained in Samaria.

7 For he left of the army of Jehoahaz only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 So Jehoahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash Reigns in Israel

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash²² the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; but he walked in them.

12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 So Joash rested with his fathers. Then Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

14 Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he took himself a bow and some arrows.

16 Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

17 And he said, "Open the east window"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you must strike the Syrians at Aphek till you have destroyed them."

18 Then he said, "Take the arrows"; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; so he struck three times, and stopped.

19 And the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it. But now you will strike Syria only three times."

20 Then Elisha died, and they buried him. And the raiding bands from Moab invaded the land in the spring of the year.

21 So it was, as they were burying a man, that suddenly they spied a band of raiders; and they put the man in the tomb of Elisha; and when the man was let down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

Israel Recaptures Cities from Syria

22 And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 But the LORD was gracious to them, had compassion on them, and regarded them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them or cast them from his presence.

24 Now Hazael king of Syria died. Then Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his place.

25 And Jehoash²³ the son of Jehoahaz recaptured from the hand of Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times Joash defeated him and recaptured the cities of Israel.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

14 In the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king.

21 Hebrew Asherah, a Canaanite goddess 22 Spelled Joash in verse 9 23 Spelled Joash in verses 14-19, 25

2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he did everything as his father Joash had done.

4 However the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5 Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

6 But the children of the murderers he did not execute, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor shall the children be put to death for the fathers; but a person shall be put to death for his own sin."²⁴

7 He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel to this day.

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash²⁵ the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

9 And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

10 "You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in your success, and stay at home; for why should you meddle with trouble so that you fall—you and Judah with you?"

11 But Amaziah would not heed. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went out; so he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

12 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

13 Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh; and he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did—his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 So Jehoash rested with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Then Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

17 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

20 Then they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah,²⁶ who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

Jeroboam II Reigns in Israel

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.

24 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

25 He restored the territory of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he had spoken through his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath Hopher.

26 For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and whether bond or free, there was no helper for Israel.

²⁴ Deuteronomy 24:16 ²⁵ Spelled Joash in 13:14-19ff and 2 Chronicles 25:17ff

²⁶ Called Uzziah in 2 Chronicles 26:1ff, Isaiah 6:1, and elsewhere

27 And the LORD did not say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did—his might, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israel, from Damascus and Hamath, what had belonged to Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 So Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. Then Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

Azariah Reigns in Judah

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king.

2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

4 except that the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5 Then the LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death; so he dwelt in an isolated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the royal house, judging the people of the land.

6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah Reigns in Israel

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

9 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

10 Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck and killed him in front of the people; and he reigned in his place.

11 Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of the LORD which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."²⁷ And so it was.

Shallum Reigns in Israel

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah²⁸ king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; and he reigned in his place.

15 Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he led, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphseh, all who were there, and its territory; because they did not open it to him, therefore he attacked it. And all the women there who were with child he ripped open.

Menahem Reigns in Israel

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

19 Pul²⁹ king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the very wealthy, from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 So Menahem rested with his fathers.

27 2 Kings 10:30 28 Called Azariah in 14:21ff and 15:1ff 29 That is, Tiglath-Pileser III (compare verse 29)

Then Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

²⁴ And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

²⁵ Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, an officer of his, conspired against him and killed him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieih; and with him were fifty men of Gilead. He killed him and reigned in his place.

²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

²⁸ And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

³⁰ Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

³² In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

³³ He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha³⁰ the daughter of Zadok.

³⁴ And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

³⁵ However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD.

³⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

³⁸ So Jotham rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

² Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

⁴ And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him.

⁶ At that time Rezin king of Syria captured Elath for Syria, and drove the men of Judah from Elath. Then the Edomites³¹ went to Elath, and dwell there to this day.

³⁰ Spelled Jerushah in 2 Chronicles 27:1 ³¹ Some ancient authorities read Syrans.

and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria.

⁹ So the king of Assyria heeded him; for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and took it, carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.

¹⁰ Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.

¹¹ Then Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz came from Damascus.

¹² And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached the altar and made offerings on it.

¹³ So he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering; and he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

¹⁴ He also brought the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the house of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.

¹⁵ Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great new altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt sacrifice, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

¹⁶ Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

¹⁷ And King Ahaz cut off the panels of the carts, and removed the lavers from them; and he took down the Sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.

¹⁸ Also he removed the Sabbath pavilion which they had built in the temple, and he removed the king's outer entrance from the house of the LORD, on account of the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²⁰ So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hoshea Reigns in Israel

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.

² And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

³ Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him; and Hoshea became his vassal, and paid him tribute money.

⁴ And the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

Israel Carried Captive to Assyria

⁵ Now the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

⁷ For so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had feared other gods,

⁸ and had walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

⁹ Also the children of Israel secretly did against the LORD their God things that were not right, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from watchtower to fortified city.

¹⁰ They set up for themselves sacred pillars and wooden images³² on every high hill and under every green tree;

¹¹ and there they burned incense on all the high places, as the nations had done whom the LORD had carried away before

³² Hebrew Asherim, Canaanite deities them; and they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger.

12 For they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing."

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel and against Judah, by all of his prophets, namely every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets."

14 Nevertheless they would not hear, but stiffened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes and his covenant that he had made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he had testified against them; they followed idols, became idolaters, and went after the nations who were all around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should not do like them.

16 So they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, made for themselves a moulded image and two calves, made a wooden image and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, practised witchcraft and soothsaying, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them from his sight; there was none left but the tribe of Judah alone.

19 Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them from his sight.

21 For he tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them commit a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them,

23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away from their own land to Assyria, as it is to this day.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

24 Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities.

25 And it was so, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the rituals of the God of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them, and indeed, they are killing them because they do not know the rituals of the God of the land."

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Send there one of the priests whom you brought from there: let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the rituals of the God of the land."

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 However every nation continued to make gods of its own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and from every class they appointed for themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, yet served their own gods—according to the rituals of the nations from among whom they were carried away.

34 To this day they continue practising the former rituals; they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances, or the law and commandment which the LORD had commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

³⁵ with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying: "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them;

³⁶ "but the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, him you shall fear, him you shall worship, and to him you shall offer sacrifice.

³⁷ "And the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, you shall be careful to observe for ever; you shall not fear other gods.

³⁸ "And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.

³⁹ "But the LORD your God you shall fear; and he will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

⁴⁰ However they did not obey, but they followed their former rituals.

⁴¹ So these nations feared the LORD, yet served their carved images; also their children and their children's children have continued doing as their fathers did, even to this day.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.

² He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi³³ the daughter of Zechariah.

³ And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

⁴ He removed the high places and broke the sacred pillars, cut down the wooden images³⁴ and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it, and called it Nehushtan.³⁵

⁵ He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any who were before him.

⁶ For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

⁷ The LORD was with him; he prospered wherever he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

⁸ He subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

⁹ Now it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

¹¹ Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria, and put them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹² because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would neither hear nor do them.

¹³ And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

¹⁵ So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house.

¹⁶ At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

¹⁷ Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan,³⁶ the Rabсарis,³⁷ and the Rabshakeh³⁸ from Lachish, with a great army against Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they came and stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool.

³³ Called Ahijah in 2 Chronicles 29:1ff ³⁴ Hebrew Asherah, a Canaanite goddess ³⁵ Literally A Bronze Thing

³⁶ A title, probably Commander in Chief ³⁷ A title, probably Chief Officer

³⁸ A title, probably Chief of Staff or Governor

which was on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

¹⁸ And when they had called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

²⁰ "You speak of having counsel and strength for war; but they are vain words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?"

²¹ "Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

²² "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?'"

²³ "Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

²⁶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew³⁹ in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

²⁷ But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own water with you?"

²⁸ Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

²⁹ "Thus says the king: 'Do not let Heze-

kiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand;

³¹ "Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

³² 'until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey; that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us."'

³³ 'Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?'

³⁴ 'Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and Ivah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand?'

³⁶ But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

³⁷ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Prophesies Deliverance

19 And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

² Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

³ And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

³⁹ Literally Judean

4 'It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'

5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 "Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumour and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8 So the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Lishnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish.

9 And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to make war with you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

11 'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?

12 'Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telsassar?

13 'Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?'"

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD God of Israel, the one who dwells between the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

16 "Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear;

open your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

17 "Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands.

18 "and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them.

19 "Now therefore, O LORD our God, I pray, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are the LORD God, you alone."

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'That which you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.'

21 "This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

'The virgin, the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you,
laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind your back!

22 'Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised
your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.

23 By your messengers you have reproached the Lord,
And said: "By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter the extremity of its borders,
To its fruitful forest.

24 I have dug and drunk strange water,
And with the soles of my feet
I have dried up
All the brooks of defence."

25 'Did you not hear long ago
How I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be

- For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.
- 26 Therefore their inhabitants
had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field
And the green herb,
As the grass on the house-tops
And grain blighted before it is grown.
- 27 'But I know your dwelling-place.
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against me.
- 28 Because your rage against me
and your tumult
Have come up to my ears,
Therefore I will put my hook in your nose
And my bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back
By the way which you came.
- 29 'This shall be a sign to you:

You shall eat this year
such as grows of itself,
And in the second year
what springs from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards and eat
the fruit of them.
- 30 And the remnant who have escaped
of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
- 31 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape
from Mount Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.'
- 32 'Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

'He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege-mound against it.
- 33 By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city.'
Says the LORD.
- 34 'For I will defend this city, to save it
For my own sake
and for my servant David's sake.'

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

35 And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel⁴⁰ of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians

one hundred and eighty-five thousand;
and when people⁴¹ arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home,
and remained at Nineveh.

37 Now it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword;
and they escaped into the land of Ararat.
Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

20 In those days Hezekiah was sick
and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him
and said to him, "Thus says the LORD:
'Set your house in order, for you shall die,
and not live.'"

2 Then he turned his face towards the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,

3 "Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before you in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Then it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 "Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of my people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears;
surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

6 "And I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for my own sake, and for the sake of my servant David.'"

7 Then Isaiah said, "Take a lump of figs." So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"

9 Then Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which he has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?"

40 Or Angel 41 Literally they

¹⁰ And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees."

¹¹ So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

The Babylonian Envoys

¹² At that time Berodach-Baladan⁴² the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

¹³ And Hezekiah was attentive to them, and showed them all the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armoury—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

¹⁴ Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon."

¹⁵ And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

¹⁶ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

¹⁷ 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

¹⁸ 'And they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'

¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "Will there not be peace and truth at least in my days?"

Death of Hezekiah

²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah—all his might, and how he made a pool and a tunnel and brought water into the city—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²¹ So Hezekiah rested with his fathers. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

² And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

⁴ He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put my name."

⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶ Also he made his son pass through the fire, practised soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

⁷ He even set a carved image of Asherah⁴⁵ that he had made, in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

⁸ "and I will not make the feet of Israel wander any more from the land which I gave their fathers—only if they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."

⁹ But they paid no attention, and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

¹⁰ And the LORD spoke by his servants the prophets, saying,

¹¹ "Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations (he has acted more wickedly than all the Amorites who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols), 12 "therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Behold, I am bringing such calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.

13 'And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

14 'So I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies,

15 'because they have done evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.' "

16 Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin with which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh—all that he did, and the sin that he committed—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

21 So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshipped them.

22 He forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

23 Then the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house.

24 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

3 Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying:

4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the door-keepers have gathered from the people.

5 "And let them deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house—

6 "to carpenters and builders and masons—and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 "However there need be no accounting made with them of the money delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."

8 Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD."

10 Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

12 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor⁴⁶ the son of Michaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

13 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

14 So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke with her.

15 Then she said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to me,

16 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read—

17 'because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore my wrath shall be aroused against this place and shall not be quenched.'"

18 "But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard—

19 "because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.

20 "Surely, therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place.'" So they brought word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

23 Then the king sent them to gather all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him.

2 And the king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, and with him all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

3 Then the king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people took their stand for the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second order, and the door-keepers, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for Baal, for Asherah,⁴⁷ and for all the host of heaven;⁴⁸ and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

5 Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places all around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the wooden image⁴⁹ from the house of the LORD, to the Brook Kidron outside Jerusalem, burned it at the Brook Kidron and ground it to ashes, and threw its ashes on the graves of the common people.

7 Then he tore down the ritual booths of the perverted persons⁵⁰ that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the wooden image.

8 And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; also he broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of 9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son⁵¹ of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molech.

11 Then he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech, the officer who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 The altars that were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down and pulverized there, and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron.

13 Then the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, which were on the south of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon.

14 And he broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and burned the wooden image.

16 As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, "What gravestone is this that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel."

18 And he said, "Let him alone; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

19 Then Josiah also took away all the shrines of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger; and he did to them according to all the deeds he had done in Bethel.

20 He executed all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

21 Then the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."

22 Surely such a Passover had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.

23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held before the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover Josiah put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household gods and idols, all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 Now before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; nor after him did any arise like him.

Impending Judgment on Judah

26 Nevertheless the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was aroused against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him.

27 And the LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'"⁵²

Josiah Dies in Battle

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

51 Kethib reads sons. 52 1 Kings 8:29

29 In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went to the aid of the king of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; and King Josiah went against him. And Pharaoh Necho⁵³ killed him at Megiddo when he confronted him.

30 Then his servants moved his body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 Now Pharaoh Necho put him in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

34 Then Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh⁵⁴ took Jehoahaz and went to Egypt, and he⁵⁵ died there.

Jehoiakim Reigns in Judah

35 So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give money according to the commandment of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho.

36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiiah of Rumah.

37 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Judah Overrun by Enemies

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the LORD sent against him raiding bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon; he sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from his sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,

4 and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

7 And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land any more, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, as his servants were besieging it.

12 Then Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers went out to the king of Babylon; and the king of Babylon, in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

The Captivity of Jerusalem

13 And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the

53 Literally he 54 Literally he 55 That is, Jehoahaz

temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

¹⁴ Also he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valour, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

¹⁵ And he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

¹⁶ All the valiant men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

¹⁷ Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's⁵⁶ uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

¹⁹ He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

²⁰ For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that he finally cast them out from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall and Exile of Judah

25 Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

² So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

³ By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

⁴ Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still en-

camped all around against the city. And the king went by way of the plain.⁵⁷

⁵ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

⁶ So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him.

⁷ Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, put out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.

⁸ Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

¹¹ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude.

¹² But the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vine-dressers and farmers.

¹³ The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried their bronze to Babylon.

¹⁴ They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.

¹⁵ The firepans and the basins, the things made of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

¹⁶ The two pillars, one Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.

¹⁷ The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of

⁵⁶ Literally his ⁵⁷ Or arabah, that is, the Jordan Valley bronze. The second pillar was the same, with a network.

18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three door-keepers.

19 He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, five men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

20 So Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

21 Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

Gedaliah Made Governor of Judah

22 Then he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left.

23 Now when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah--Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Careah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jazaniah⁵⁸ the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

25 Now it happened in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah, the Jews, and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

27 Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-Merodach⁵⁹ king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison.

28 He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

29 So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

30 And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

Er, the first-born of Judah, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and he killed him.

⁴ And Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

⁵ The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

⁶ The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara—five of them in all.

⁷ The son of Carmi was Achar,²¹ the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the accursed thing.

⁸ The son of Ethan was Azariah.

⁹ Also the sons of Hezron who were born to him were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.²²

¹⁰ Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon, leader of the children of Judah;

¹¹ Nahshon begot Salma,²³ and Salma begot Boaz;

¹² Boaz begot Obed, and Obed begot Jesse:

¹³ Jesse begot Eliab his first-born, Abinadab the second, Shimea²⁴ the third,

¹⁴ Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

¹⁵ Ozem the sixth, and David the seventh.

¹⁶ Now their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel—three.

¹⁷ Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.²⁵

The Family of Hezron

¹⁸ Caleb the son of Hezron begot children by Azubah, his wife, and by Jerioth. Now these were her sons: Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon.

¹⁹ When Azubah died, Caleb took Ephrath²⁶ as his wife, who bore him Hur.

²⁰ And Hur begot Uri, and Uri begot Bezaleel.

²¹ Now afterwards Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub.

²² Segub begot Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

²³ (Geshur and Syria took from them the towns of Jair, with Kenath and its towns—sixty towns.) All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

24 After Hezron died in Caleb Ephraim, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

The Family of Jerahmeel

25 The sons of Jerahmeel, the first-born of Hezron, were Ram, the first-born, and Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 The sons of Ram, the first-born of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

30 The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim; Seled died without children.

31 The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and Sheshan's child was Ahlai.

32 The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan; Jether died without children.

33 The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha.

35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai.

36 Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot Zabad;

37 Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot Obed;

38 Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu begot Azariah;

39 Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah;

40 Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum;

41 Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

The Family of Caleb

42 The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his first-born, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tapuah, Rekem, and Shema.

44 Shema begot Raham the father of Jorjoam, and Rekem begot Shammai.

45 And the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran begot Gazez.

47 And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.

49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeaz; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

50 These were the descendants of Caleb: The sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephraim, were Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim.

51 Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, and half of the families of Manuhoth.²⁷

53 The families of Kirjath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

54 The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half of the Manahethites, and the Zorites.

55 And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the Kenites who came from Hamath, the father of the house of Rechab.

The Family of David

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The first-born was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel,²⁸ by Abigail the Carmelitess;

2 the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;

3 the fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

4 These six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

5 And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea,²⁹ Shobab, Nathan, and

⁶ Also there were Ibhar, Elishama,³² Eliphelet,³³

⁷ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

⁸ Elishama, Eliada,³⁴ and Eliphelet—nine in all.

⁹ These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

The Family of Solomon

¹⁰ Solomon's son was Rehoboam; Abijah³⁵ was his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son,

¹¹ Joram³⁶ his son, Ahaziah his son, Josiah³⁷ his son,

¹² Amaziah his son, Azariah³⁸ his son, Jotham his son.

¹³ Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son,

¹⁴ Amon his son, and Josiah his son.

¹⁵ The sons of Josiah were Johanan the first-born, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, and the fourth Shallum.³⁹

¹⁶ The sons of Jehoiakim were Jeconiah his son and Zedekiah⁴⁰ his son.

The Family of Jeconiah

¹⁷ And the sons of Jeconiah⁴¹ were Assir,⁴² Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸ and Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ The sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam, Hananiah, Shelomith their sister, ²⁰ and Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-Hesed—five in all.

²¹ The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, and the sons of Shechaniah.

²² The son of Shechaniah was Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.

²³ The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hezekiah, and Azrikam—three in all.

²⁴ The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani—seven in all.

The Family of Judah

4 The sons of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

² And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

³ These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazeleponi;

⁴ and Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

⁵ And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

⁶ Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hopher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

⁷ The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan;

⁸ and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

⁹ Now Jabez was more honourable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez,⁴³ saying, "Because I bore him in pain."

¹⁰ And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that you would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that your hand would be with me, and that you would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

¹¹ Chelub the brother of Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

¹² And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.

¹³ The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath, ¹⁴ and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of Ge-Harashim,⁴⁴ for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵ The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

¹⁶ The sons of Jahaleleel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

¹⁷ The sons of Ezra were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. And Mered's wife⁴⁵ bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

18 (His wife Jehudijah⁴⁶ bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) And these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

19 The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

20 And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

21 The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea;

22 also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the records are ancient.

23 These were the potters and those who dwell at Netaim⁴⁷ and Gederah;⁴⁸ there they dwelt with the king for his work.

The Family of Simeon

24 The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib,⁴⁹ Zerach,⁵⁰ and Shaul, 25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.

26 And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son.

27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.

28 They dwelt at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual,

29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

32 And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five cities—

33 and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal.⁵¹ These were their habitations, and they maintained their genealogy:

34 Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah;

35 Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel;

36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah;

37 Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Al-lon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—

38 these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father's house increased greatly.

39 So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.

41 These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.

42 Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

43 And they defeated the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

The Family of Reuben

5 Now the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel—he was indeed the first-born, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;

2 yet Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, although the birthright was Joseph's—

3 the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

6 and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser⁵² king of Assyria carried into captivity. He was leader of the Reubenites.

46 Or his Judean wife 47 Literally Plants 48 Literally Hedges 49 Called Jachin in Genesis 46:10

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah.

8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

9 Eastward they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 Now in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area east of Gilead.

The Family of Gad

11 And the children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

12 Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan, 13 and their brethren of their father's house: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Heber—seven in all.

14 These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.

16 And the Gadites⁵³ dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the common lands of Sharon within their borders.

17 All these were registered by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skilful in war, who went to war.

19 They made war with the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they cried out to God in the battle. He heeded their prayer, because they put their trust in him.

21 Then they took away their livestock—fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys—also one hundred thousand of their men;

22 for many fell dead, because the war was God's. And they dwelt in their place until the captivity.

The Family of Manasseh (East)

23 So the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. Their numbers increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir, or Mount Hermon.

24 These were the heads of their fathers' houses: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of their fathers' houses.

25 And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, that is, Tiglath-Pileser⁵⁴ king of Assyria. He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan to this day.

The Family of Levi

6 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

2 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

3 The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

4 Eleazar begot Phinehas, and Phinehas begot Abishua;

5 Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki begot Uzzi;

6 Uzzi begot Zerariah, and Zerariah begot Meraioth;

7 Meraioth begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub;

8 Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Ahimaaz;

9 Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan;

10 Johanan begot Azariah (it was he who ministered as priest in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem);

11 Azariah begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub;

12 Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Shallum;

53 Literally they 54 Hebrew Tiglath-Pileser

13 Shallum begot Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begot Azariah;

14 Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak.

15 Jehozadak went into captivity when the LORD carried Judah and Jerusalem into captivity by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi were Gershon,⁵⁵ Kohath, and Merari.

17 These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers:

20 Of Gershon were Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,

21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son.

22 The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son.

23 Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,

24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uziah his son, and Shaul his son.

25 The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth.

26 As for Elkanah,⁵⁶ the sons of Elkanah were Zophai⁵⁷ his son, Nahath⁵⁸ his son,

27 Eliab⁵⁹ his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son.

28 The sons of Samuel were Joel⁶⁰ the first-born, and Abijah the second.⁶¹

29 The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son,

30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

Musicians in the House of the LORD

31 Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark came to rest.

32 They were ministering with music before the dwelling-place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

33 And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel.

34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel,⁶² the son of Toah,⁶³

35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,

38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea.

40 the son of Michael, the son of Basaiah, the son of Malchijah,

41 the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

42 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei.

43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

44 And their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Maluch,

45 the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,

46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,

47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

49 But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 Now these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,

53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

Dwelling-places of the Levites

54 Now these are their dwelling-places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were assigned by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites:

⁵⁵ They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding common lands.

⁵⁶ But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

⁵⁷ And to the sons of Aaron they gave one of the cities of refuge, Hebron; also Libnah with its common lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its common lands,

⁵⁸ Hilén⁶⁴ with its common lands, Debir with its common lands,

⁵⁹ Ashan⁶⁵ with its common lands, and Beth Shemesh with its common lands.

⁶⁰ And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its common lands, Alemeth⁶⁶ with its common lands, and Anathoth with its common lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.

⁶¹ To the rest of the family of the tribe of the Kohathites they gave by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Manasseh.

⁶² And to the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, they gave thirteen cities from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

⁶⁴ So the children of Israel gave these cities with their common lands to the Levites.

⁶⁵ And they gave by lot from the tribe of the children of Judah, from the tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the tribe of the children of Benjamin these cities which are called by their names.

⁶⁶ Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath were given cities as their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁷ And they gave them one of the cities of refuge, Shechem with its common lands, in the mountains of Ephraim, also Gezer with its common lands, ⁶⁸ Jokneam with its common lands, Beth Horon with its common lands.

⁶⁹ Aijalon with its common lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common lands.

⁷⁰ And from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its common lands and Bileam with its common lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

⁷¹ From the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh the sons of Gershon were given Golan in Bashan with its common lands and Ashtaroth with its common lands.

⁷² And from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its common lands, Daberath with its common lands, ⁷³ Ramoth with its common lands, and Anem with its common lands.

⁷⁴ And from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its common lands, Abdon with its common lands, ⁷⁵ Hukok with its common lands, and Rehob with its common lands.

⁷⁶ And from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its common lands, Hammon with its common lands, and Kirjathaim with its common lands.

⁷⁷ From the tribe of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given Rimmon⁶⁷ with its common lands and Tabor with its common lands.

⁷⁸ And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common lands, Jahzah with its common lands, ⁷⁹ Kedemoth with its common lands, and Mephaath with its common lands.

⁸⁰ And from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its common lands, Mahanaim with its common lands, ⁸¹ Heshbon with its common lands, and Jazer with its common lands.

The Family of Issachar

7 The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah,⁶⁸ Jashub, and Shimron—four in all.

² The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephahiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valour in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

³ The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men.

⁴ And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops of the army ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.

⁶⁴ Spelled Holon in Joshua 21:15 ⁶⁵ Spelled Am in Joshua 21:16 ⁶⁶ Spelled Almon in Joshua 21:18
⁶⁷ Hebrew Rimmon, alternate spelling of Rimmon; see 4:32 ⁶⁸ Spelled Puvah in Genesis 46:13

5 Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valour, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

The Family of Benjamin

6 The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediael—three in all.

7 The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri—five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valour.

8 The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Jash, Eliezer, Elieonai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher.

9 And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valour.

10 The son of Jediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

11 All these sons of Jediael were heads of their fathers' houses; there were seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valour fit to go out for war and battle.

12 Shupim and Hupim⁶⁹ were the sons of Ir, and Hushim was the son of Aher.

The Family of Naphtali

13 The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel,⁷⁰ Guni, Jezer, and Shallum,⁷¹ the sons of Bilhah.

The Family of Manasseh (West)

14 The descendants of Manasseh: his Syrian concubine bore him Machir the father of Gilead, the father of Asriel.⁷²

15 Machir took as his wife the sister of Hupim and Shupim,⁷³ whose name was Maachah. The name of Gilead's grandson⁷⁴ was Zelophehad,⁷⁵ but Zelophehad begot only daughters.

16 (Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17 The son of Ulam was Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

18 His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

19 And the sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

The Family of Ephraim

20 The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son.

21 Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle.

22 Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah,⁷⁶ because tragedy had come upon his house.

24 Now his daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon and Uzen Sheerah;

25 and Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son.

26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son.

27 Nun⁷⁷ his son, and Joshua his son.

28 Now their possessions and habitations were Bethel and its towns: to the east Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah⁷⁸ and its towns;

29 and by the borders of the children of Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

The Family of Asher

30 The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.

31 The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzath.⁷⁹

32 And Heber begot Japhlet, Shomer,⁸⁰ Hotham,⁸¹ and their sister Shua.

33 The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were the children of Japhlet.

34 The sons of Shemer were Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.

80 Spelled Shemer in verse 34 81 Spelled Helem in verse 35

35 And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

36 The sons of Zophah were Suah, Har-nepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, 37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Jith-ran,⁸² and Beera.

38 The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.

39 The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Rizia.

40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valour, chief leaders. And they were recorded by genealogies among the army fit for battle; their number was twenty-six thousand.

The Family Tree of King Saul of Benjamin

8 Now Benjamin begot Bela his first-born, Ashbel the second, Aharah⁸³ the third,

2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3 The sons of Bela were Addar,⁸⁴ Gera, Abihud.

4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,

5 Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.

6 And these are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and who forced them to move to Manahath:

7 Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.

8 And Shaharaim begot children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

9 By Hodesh his wife he begot Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam,

10 Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses.

11 And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal.

12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns;

13 and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of their fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

14 Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth,

15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder,

16 Michael, Ispah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah.

17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber,

18 Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,

20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel,

21 Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,

23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,

24 Hananiah, Elam, Antothijah,

25 Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

26 Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,

27 Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.

28 These were heads of the fathers' houses by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.

29 Now the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.

30 And his first-born son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab,

31 Gedor, Ahio, Zecher,

32 and Mikloth, who begot Shimeah.⁸⁵ They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.

33 Ner⁸⁶ begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab,⁸⁷ and Esh-Baal.⁸⁸

34 The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal,⁸⁹ and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

35 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

36 And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah;⁹⁰ Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.

37 Moza begot Binea, Raphah⁹¹ his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

38 Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his first-born, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

40 The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour—archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

9 So all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

² And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

³ Now in Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:

⁴ Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah.

⁵ Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the first-born and his sons.

⁶ Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety.

⁷ Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

⁸ Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

⁹ and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;

¹¹ Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the house of God;

¹² Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

¹³ and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

¹⁴ Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

¹⁵ Bakkakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

¹⁶ Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gate-keepers

¹⁷ And the gate-keepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.

¹⁸ Until then they had been gate-keepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.

²⁰ And Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; the LORD was with him.

²¹ Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

²² All those chosen as gate-keepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.

²³ So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment.

²⁴ The gate-keepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south.

²⁵ And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.

²⁶ For in this trusted office were four chief gate-keepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

²⁷ And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

²⁸ Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.

²⁹ Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices.

³⁰ And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

³¹ Mattithiah of the Levites, the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office over the things that were baked in the pans.

³² And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the shewbread for every Sabbath.

³³ These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.

³⁴ These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

The Family of King Saul

³⁵ Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.

³⁶ His first-born son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷ Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah,⁹² and Mikloth.

³⁸ And Mikloth begot Shimeam.⁹³ They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.

³⁹ Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

⁴⁰ The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

⁴¹ The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea,⁹⁴ and Ahaz.

⁴² And Ahaz begot Jarah;⁹⁵ Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza;

⁴³ Moza begot Binea, Rephaiah⁹⁶ his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

⁴⁴ And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

² Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

³ The battle became intense against Saul; and the archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.

⁴ Then Saul said to his armour-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armour-bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

⁵ And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

⁶ So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

⁷ And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

⁸ So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

⁹ And they stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people.

¹⁰ Then they put his armour in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

¹¹ And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

¹² all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

¹³ So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance.

¹⁴ But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

David Made King over All Israel

11 Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

² "Also, in time past, even when Saul

⁹² Called Zecher in 8:31 ⁹³ Spelled Shimeah in 8:32 ⁹⁴ Spelled Tarea in 8:35

was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your God said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel, and be ruler over my people Israel.'

3 Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. Then they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

The City of David

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 Then the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

6 Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief.

7 Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David.

8 And he built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 Then David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

The Mighty Men of David

10 Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, chief of the captains; he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

12 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Pasdamim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. And the people fled from the Philistines.

14 But they stationed themselves in the midst of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

16 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

17 And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

18 So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

20 Now Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and won a name among these three.

21 Of the three he was more honoured than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

22 Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

23 And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there had been a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

24 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada had done, and won a name among three mighty men.

25 Indeed he was more honoured than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

26 Also the mighty warriors were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

27 Shammoth the Hararite,⁹⁷ Helez the Pelonite,⁹⁸

28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,

29 Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled⁹⁹ the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31 Ithai¹⁰⁰ the son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

32 Hurai¹⁰¹ of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel¹⁰² the Arbathite,

33 Azmaveth the Baharumite,¹⁰³ Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shageh the Hararite,

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur,

36 Hephher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite¹⁰⁴ (the armour-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah),

40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a chief of the Reubenites) and thirty with him,

43 Hanan the son of Maachah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,

44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezo-baite.

The Growth of David's Army

12 Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war,

² armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.

³ The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite;

⁴ Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite;

⁵ Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

⁶ Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azareel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites;

⁷ and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

⁸ Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains:

⁹ Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

¹⁰ Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

¹¹ Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

¹² Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

¹³ Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.

¹⁴ These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand.

¹⁵ These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶ Then some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

¹⁷ And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment."

¹⁸ Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

"*We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!*"

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

19 And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by counsel, saying, "He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads."

20 When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valour, and they were captains in the army.

22 For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

23 Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for the war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD:

24 of the children of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war;

25 of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour fit for war, seven thousand one hundred;

26 of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred;

27 Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

28 Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

29 of the children of Benjamin, kinsmen of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);

30 of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous men throughout their father's house;

31 of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;

32 of the children of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command;

33 of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stout-hearted men who could keep ranks;

34 of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

35 of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

36 of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;

37 of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

38 All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

13 Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said to all the congregation of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common lands, that they may gather together to us;

3 "and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul."

4 Then all the congregation said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim.

6 And David and all Israel went up to Baalah,¹⁰⁵ to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim, where his name is proclaimed.

7 So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came to Chidon's¹⁰⁶ threshing-floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

10 Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and he struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

11 And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza¹⁰⁷ to this day.

12 David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

13 And David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

David Established at Jerusalem

14 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted because of his people Israel.

3 Then David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

4 And these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua,¹⁰⁸ Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

5 Ibhar, Elishua,¹⁰⁹ Elpelet,¹¹⁰

6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia.

7 Elishama, Beeliada,¹¹¹ and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

8 Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them.

9 Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

11 So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like water bursting a breach." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.¹¹²

12 And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

15 "And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

16 So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer.

17 Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.

2 Then David said, "No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before him for ever."

³ And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.

⁴ Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites:

⁵ of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren;

⁶ of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren;

⁷ of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren;

⁸ of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren;

⁹ of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren;

¹⁰ of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

¹¹ And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

¹² Then he said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

¹³ "For because you did not do it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult him about the proper order."

¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁵ And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁶ Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy.

¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

¹⁸ and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gate-keepers;

¹⁹ the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;

²⁰ Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth;

²¹ Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azariah, to direct with harps on the Sheminith;

²² Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful;

²³ Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark;

²⁴ Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethaneel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, door-keepers for the ark.

²⁵ So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.

²⁶ And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

²⁷ David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.

²⁸ Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

²⁹ And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul, looking through a window, saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

16 So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

4 And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals;

6 Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Song of Thanksgiving

7 And on that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

8 Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon his name;
Make known his deeds
among the peoples!

9 Sing to him, sing psalms to him;
Talk about all his wondrous works!

10 Glory in his holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!

11 Seek the LORD and his strength;
Seek his face evermore!

12 Remember his marvellous works which he has done,
His wonders and the judgments
of his mouth,

13 O seed of Israel his servant,
You children of Jacob,
his chosen ones!

14 He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.

15 Remember his covenant always,
The word which he commanded,
for a thousand generations,

16 The covenant which he made with Abraham,
And his oath to Isaac,

17 And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance."
19 When you were but few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

20 When they went from one nation
to another,

And from one kingdom
to another people,

21 He permitted no man
to do them wrong;
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,

22 Saying, "Do not touch
my anointed ones,
And do my prophets no harm."¹¹³

23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; Proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

24 Declare his glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.

25 For the LORD is great
and greatly to be praised;
He is also to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.

27 Honour and majesty are before him;
Strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give to the LORD,
O kindreds of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give to the LORD
the glory due his name;
Bring an offering,
and come before him.

Oh, worship the LORD
in the beauty of holiness!

30 Tremble before him, all the earth.
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved.

31 Let the heavens rejoice,
and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations,
"The LORD reigns."

32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice,
and all that is in it.

33 Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD,
For he is coming to judge the earth.¹¹⁴

34 Oh, give thanks to the LORD,
for he is good!
For his mercy endures for ever.¹¹⁵

¹¹³ Verses 8-22 (compare Psalm 105:1-15) ¹¹⁴ Verses 23-33 (compare Psalm 96:1-13)

¹¹⁵ Verse 34 (compare Psalm 106:1)

35 And say, "Save us,
O God of our salvation;
Gather us together,
and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to your holy name,
To triumph in your praise."

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!¹¹⁶

And all the people said, "Amen!" and
praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

37 So he left Asaph and his brothers
there before the ark of the covenant of
the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work required;

38 and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight
brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gate-
keepers;

39 and Zadok the priest and his brethren
the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon.

40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD
on the altar of burnt offering regularly
morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which he commanded Israel;

41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun
and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endures for
ever;

42 and with them Heman and Jeduthun,
to sound aloud with trumpets and cym-
bals and the musical instruments of God.
Now the sons of Jeduthun were gate-
keepers.

43 Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

God's Covenant with David

17 And it came to pass, when David
was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See
now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under
tent curtains."

2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with
you."

3 But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 "Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus

says the LORD: "You shall not build me a
house to dwell in.

5 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to
this day, but have gone from tent to tent,
and from one tabernacle to another.

6 "Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying,
'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

7 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to
my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD
of hosts: "I took you from the sheep-fold,
from following the sheep, that you should
be ruler over my people Israel.

8 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made
you a name like the name of the great
men who are on the earth.

9 "Moreover I will appoint a place for
my people Israel, and will plant them,
that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them any more, as previously.

10 "since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build
you a house.

11 "And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed
after you, who will be of your sons; and I
will establish his kingdom.

12 "He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 "I will be his Father, and he shall be
my son; and I will not take my mercy
away from him, as I took it from him who
was before you.

14 "And I will establish him in my house
and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for ever."'"

15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so did Nathan
speak to David.

16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I,
O LORD God? And what is my house,
that you have brought me this far?

17 "And yet this was a small thing in your sight, O God; and you have also spoken of your servant's house for a great

116 Verses 35, 36 (compare Psalm 106:47, 48)

while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 "What more can David say to you for the honour of your servant? For you know your servant.

19 "O LORD, for your servant's sake, and according to your own heart, you have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 "O LORD, there is none like you, nor is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 "And who is like your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for himself as a people—to make for yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before your people whom you redeemed from Egypt?

22 "For you have made your people Israel your very own people for ever; and you, LORD, have become their God.

23 "And now, O LORD, the word which you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, let it be established for ever, and do as you have said.

24 "So let it be established, that your name may be magnified for ever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God; and let the house of your servant David be established before you.'

25 "For you, O my God, have told your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found it in his heart to pray before you.

26 "And now, LORD, you are God, and have promised this goodness to your servant.

27 "Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue before you for ever; for you have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever."

David's Further Conquests

18 After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

2 Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

3 And David defeated Hadadezer¹¹⁷ king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates.

4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand¹¹⁸ horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And David also hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. Thus the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Also from Tibhath¹¹⁹ and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

9 When Tou¹²⁰ king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

10 he sent Hadoram¹²¹ his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations—from Edom, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites¹²² in the Valley of Salt.

13 He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people.

¹⁶ Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha¹²³ was the scribe;

¹⁷ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

19 Now it happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

² Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

³ And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David really honours your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

⁴ Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

⁵ Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

⁶ When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia,¹²⁴ from Syrian Maachah, and from Zobah.¹²⁵

⁷ So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maachah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

⁸ And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

⁹ Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

¹⁰ When Joab saw that the battle line was set against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men of Israel, and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

¹¹ And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon.

¹² Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

¹³ "Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in his sight."

¹⁴ So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

¹⁵ When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River,¹²⁶ and Shophach¹²⁷ the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

¹⁷ When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

¹⁸ Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand¹²⁸ charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers¹²⁹ of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army.

¹⁹ And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon any more.

Rabbah Is Conquered

20 And it happened, in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.

² Then David took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

³ And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work¹³⁰ with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

⁴ Now it happened afterwards that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai,¹³¹ who was one of the sons of the giant. And they were subdued.

⁵ Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair¹³² killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

⁶ Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant.

⁷ So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea,¹³³ David's brother, killed him.

⁸ These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

The Census of Israel and Judah

21 Now Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel.

² So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people. "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me that I may know it."

³ And Joab answered, "May the LORD make his people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing?"

Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?"

⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

⁶ But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

⁷ And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel.

⁸ So David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

⁹ And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

¹⁰ "Go and tell David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.'"

¹¹ So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Choose for yourself,

¹² 'either three¹³⁴ years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD—the plague in the land, with the angel¹³⁵ of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what answer I should take back to him who sent me."

¹³ And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

¹⁴ So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was destroying, the LORD looked and relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan¹³⁶ the Jebusite.

¹³⁰ Septuagint reads cut them. ¹³¹ Spelled Saph in 2 Samuel 21:18

¹³² Spelled Jaare-Oregim in 2 Samuel 21:19

¹³³ Spelled Shimeah in 2 Samuel 21:21 and Shammah in 1 Samuel 16:9 ¹³⁴ Or seven (compare 2 Samuel 24:13)

¹³⁵ Or Angel and so elsewhere in this chapter ¹³⁶ Spelled Araunah in 2 Samuel 24:16

16 Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against your people that they should be plagued."

18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

20 Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

21 Then David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing-floor, and bowed down to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, "Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

23 And Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."

24 Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing."

25 So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.

26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

27 Then the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

David Prepares to Build the Temple

22 Then David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

2 So David commanded to gather the aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure.

4 and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 Now David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.

6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon: "My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God;

8 "but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

9 'Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be Solomon,¹³⁷ for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

10 'He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.'

11 "Now, my son, may the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as he has said to you.

12 "Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

13 "Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfil the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed.

14 "Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them.

15 "Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all types of skilful men for every kind of work.

16 "Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and the LORD be with you."

17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 "Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not given you rest on every side? For he has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before his people.

19 "Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD."

The Divisions of the Levites

23 So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand.

4 Of these, twenty-four thousand were to look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were officers and judges.

5 four thousand were gate-keepers, and four thousand praised the LORD with musical instruments, "which I made," said David, "for giving praise."

6 And David divided them into divisions among the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 Of the Gershonites: Laadan¹³⁸ and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel—three in all.

9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina,¹³⁹ Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.

11 Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father's house.

12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all.

13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart, he and his sons for ever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to him, and to give the blessing in his name for ever.

14 Now the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were Gershon¹⁴⁰ and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershon, Shebuel¹⁴¹ was the first.

17 Of the descendants of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the first.

19 Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.

21 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

¹³⁸ Spelled Libni in Exodus 6:17. ¹³⁹ Septuagint and Vulgate read Zizah (compare verse 11).

¹⁴⁰ Hebrew Gershom (compare 6:16). ¹⁴¹ Spelled Shubael in 24:20.

23 The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in all.

24 These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' houses—the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and above.

25 For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever";

26 and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service."

27 For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above;

28 because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God.

29 both with the shewbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes;

30 to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening;

31 and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the set feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD;

32 and that they should attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the LORD.

The Divisions of the Priests

24 Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.

3 Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.

4 Now there were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar.

5 Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

6 And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,¹⁴²

16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehzekel,¹⁴³

17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

19 This was their appointed service for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Other Levites

20 Now the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael;¹⁴⁴ of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

142 Septuagint and Vulgate read Aphses. 143 Masoretic Text reads Jehzekel. 144 Spelled Shubael in 23:16

22 Of the Izharites, Shelomoth;¹⁴⁵ of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

23 Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah; of the sons of Michah, Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the son of Jaaziah, Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibrî.

28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Of Kish; the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.

30 Also the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

31 These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

The Musicians

25 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah;¹⁴⁶ the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri,¹⁴⁷ Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six,¹⁴⁸ under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel,¹⁴⁹ Shebuel,¹⁵⁰ Jerimoth,¹⁵¹ Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his horn.¹⁵² For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the authority of the king.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skilful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

8 And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

9 Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve;

10 the third for Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

11 the fourth for Jizri,¹⁵³ his sons and his brethren, twelve;

12 the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

13 the sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

14 the seventh for Jesharelah,¹⁵⁴ his sons and his brethren, twelve;

15 the eighth for Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

16 the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

17 the tenth for Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

18 the eleventh for Azarel,¹⁵⁵ his sons and his brethren, twelve;

19 the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

20 the thirteenth for Shubael,¹⁵⁶ his sons and his brethren, twelve;

21 the fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

22 the fifteenth for Jeremoth,¹⁵⁷ his sons and his brethren, twelve;

23 the sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

24 the seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

25 the eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

26 the nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

27 the twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

28 the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

145 Spelled Shelomoth in 23:18 146 Spelled Jesharelah in verse 14 147 Spelled Jizri in verse 11

148 Shimei, appearing in one Hebrew and several Septuagint manuscripts, completes the total of six sons (compare verse 17). 149 Spelled Azarel in verse 18 150 Spelled Shubael in verse 20 151 Spelled Jeremoth in verse 22

²⁹ the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

³⁰ the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

³¹ the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

The Gate-keepers

26 Concerning the divisions of the gate-keepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

² And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the first-born, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eljehoenaï the seventh.

⁴ Moreover the sons of Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

⁶ Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.

⁷ The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Raphaël, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

⁸ All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

⁹ And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

¹⁰ Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the first-born, his father made him the first),

¹¹ Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

¹² Among these were the divisions of the gate-keepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD.

¹³ And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.

¹⁴ The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out for the North Gate;

¹⁵ to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.¹⁵⁸

¹⁶ To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman.

¹⁷ On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse¹⁵⁹ two by two.

¹⁸ As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

¹⁹ These were the divisions of the gate-keepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

²⁰ Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the dedicated things.

²¹ The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

²² The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

²³ Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

²⁴ Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.

²⁵ And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

²⁶ This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.

²⁷ Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.

²⁸ And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

²⁹ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

³⁰ Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites, Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men at Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

The Military Divisions

27 And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

2 Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;

3 he was of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.

4 Over the division of the second month was Dodai¹⁶⁰ an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

5 The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

6 This was the Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shammuth¹⁶¹ the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarahites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarahites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai¹⁶² the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of Tribes

16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah;

17 over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;

18 over Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

19 over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel;

20 over the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

21 over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

22 over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said he would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Other State Officials

25 And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasuries; and Jehona-

160 Hebrew Dodai, usually spelled Dodo (compare 2 Samuel 23:9)

161 Spelled Shammoth in 11:27 and Shammah in 2 Samuel 23:11

162 Spelled Heled in 11:30 and Heleb in 2 Samuel 23:29

than the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

26 Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.

27 And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine.

28 Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore-fig trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil.

29 And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.

30 Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys, 31 and Jaziz the Hagerite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.

32 Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

33 Ahithophel was the king's counsellor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion.

34 After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

Solomon Instructed to Build the Temple

28 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valour.

2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it.

3 "But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for my name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.'

4 "However the LORD God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever, for he has chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, he was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel.

5 "And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 "Now he said to me, 'It is your son Solomon who shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his Father.

7 'Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he is steadfast to observe my commandments and my judgments, as it is this day.'

8 "Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off for ever.

10 "Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;

12 and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things;

13 also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;

15 the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the shewbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;

17 also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;

18 and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 “All this,” said David, “the LORD made me understand in writing, by his hand upon me, all the works of these plans.”

20 And David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 “Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command.”

Offerings for Building the Temple

29 Furthermore King David said to all the congregation: “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple¹⁶³ is not for man but for the LORD God.

2 “Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colours, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance.

3 “Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver:

4 “three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;

5 “the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?”

6 Then the leaders of the fathers’ houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king’s work, offered willingly.

7 They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of Jehiel¹⁶⁴ the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

David’s Praise to God

10 Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation; and David said:

“Blessed are you, LORD God of Israel, our Father, for ever and ever.

11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, The power and the glory, The victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is yours;

Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, And you are exalted as head over all.

12 Both riches and honour come from you, And you reign over all. In your hand is power and might; In your hand it is to make great And to give strength to all.

13 “Now therefore, our God, We thank you And praise your glorious name.

14 But who am I, and who are my people, That we should be able to offer so willingly as this?

163 Literally palace 164 Possibly the same as Jeheli (compare 26:21, 22)

For all things come from you,
 And of your own we have given you.
 15 For we are aliens and pilgrims
 before you,
 As were all our fathers;
 Our days on earth are as a shadow,
 And without hope.

16 "O LORD our God, all this abundance
 that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name is from your hand, and is all your own.

17 "I know also, my God, that you test
 the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen your people, who are present here to offer willingly to you.

18 "O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac,
 and Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever
 in the intent of the thoughts of the heart
 of your people, and fix their heart towards you.

19 "And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep your commandments and
 your testimonies and your statutes, to do
 all these things, and to build the temple¹⁶⁵
 for which I have made provision."

20 Then David said to all the congregation, "Now bless the LORD your God."
 So all the congregation blessed the LORD
 God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before
 the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

21 And they made sacrifices to the LORD
 and offered burnt offerings to the LORD
 on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day.
 And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel
 obeyed him.

24 All the leaders and the mighty men,
 and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

25 So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David's Reign

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned
 over all Israel.

27 And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years
 he reigned in Jerusalem.

28 So he died at a good old age, full of days and riches and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book
 of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

30 with all his reign and his might, and
 the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

The Second Book of the Chronicles

Solomon Requests Wisdom

NOW Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and exalted him exceedingly.

² And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.

³ Then Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

⁴ But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

⁵ Now the bronze altar that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put¹ before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the congregation sought him there.

⁶ And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

⁷ On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

⁸ And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me king in his place.

⁹ "Now, O LORD God, let your promise to David my father be established, for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

¹⁰ "Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this great people of yours?"

¹¹ And God said to Solomon: "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked for riches or wealth or honour or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked for long life—but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people over whom I have made you king—

¹² "wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honour, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you, nor shall any after you have the like."

Solomon's Military and Economic Power

¹³ So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel.

¹⁴ And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamore-figs which are in the lowland.

¹⁶ And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.

¹⁷ They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents,² they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

2 Then Solomon determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself.

² Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

³ Then Solomon sent to Hiram³ king of Tyre, saying:

As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.

¹ Some authorities read it was there

² Literally by their hands

³ Hebrew Huram, and so elsewhere

- 4 Behold, I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, to burn before him sweet incense, for the continual shewbread, for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.
- 5 And the temple which I build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods.
- 6 But who is able to build him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before him?
- 7 Therefore send me at once a man skilful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skilful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.
- 8 Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants,
- 9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.
- 10 And indeed I will give to your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
- 11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon:
Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you king over them.
- 12 Hiram also said:
- Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, for he has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!

- 13 And now I have sent a skilful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram⁴ my master's craftsman
- 14 (the son of a woman of the daughters of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skilful men and with the skilful men of my lord David your father.
- 15 Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.
- 16 And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.
- 17 Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.
- 18 And he made seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand hewers of stone in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3 Now Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing-floor of Ornan⁶ the Jebusite.

² And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

³ This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits.

⁴ And the vestibule that was in front of *the sanctuary*⁷ was twenty cubits long

4 Spelled Hiram in 1 Kings 7:13. 5 Literally father (compare 1 Kings 7:13, 14)

6 Spelled Araunah in 2 Samuel 24:16ff

7 The main room of the temple; elsewhere called the Holy Place (compare 1 Kings 6:3) across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

⁵ The larger room⁸ he panelled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.

⁶ And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

⁷ He also overlaid the house—the beams and door-posts, its walls and doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸ And he made the Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

⁹ The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper area with gold.

¹¹ The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

¹² one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub.

¹³ The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward.

¹⁴ And he made the veil of blue and purple and crimson and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

¹⁵ Also he made in front of the temple⁹ two pillars thirty-five cubits high,¹⁰ and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

¹⁷ Then he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

Furnishings of the Temple

4 Moreover he made a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

² Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

³ And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

⁴ It stood on twelve oxen: three looking towards the north, three looking towards the west, three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

⁵ It was a hand's breadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand baths.

⁷ And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

⁸ He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred bowls of gold.

⁹ Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze.

¹⁰ He set the Sea on the right side, to the southeast.

¹¹ Then Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God:

¹² the two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

¹³ four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars);

⁸ Literally house ⁹ Literally house ¹⁰ Or eighteen (compare 1 Kings 7:15; 2 Kings 25:17; and Jeremiah 52:51)

14 he also made carts and the lavers on the carts;

15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it;

16 also the pots, the shovels, the forks— and all their articles Hiram his master¹¹ craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

17 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay moulds, between Succoth and Zeredah.¹²

18 And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

19 Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the shewbread;

20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary,

21 with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;

22 the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were of gold.

5 So all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in all the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

2 Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the City of David, which is Zion.

3 Therefore all the men of Israel assembled together with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month.

4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

5 Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

6 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

7 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple,¹³ to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

9 And the poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions).

12 and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets—

13 indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying:

“For he is good,

For his mercy endures for ever.”¹⁴

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud.

14 so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon said:

“The LORD said

He would dwell in the dark cloud.

2 But I have built you an exalted house,

And a place for you
to dwell in for ever.”

11 Literally father 12 Spelled Zaretan in 1 Kings 7:46

13 Literally house 14 Compare Psalm 106:1

Solomon's Speech upon Completion of the Work

3 Then the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with his hands what he spoke with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 'Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over my people Israel;

6 'but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name may be there; and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'

7 "Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 "But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for my name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

9 'Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will come forth from your own loins, he shall build the temple for my name.'

10 "So the LORD has fulfilled his word which he spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built the temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 "And there I have put the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which he made with the children of Israel."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

12 Then Solomon¹⁵ stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands

13 (for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands towards heaven),

14 and said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven or on earth like you, who keep your covenant and mercy with your servants who walk before you with all their hearts.

15 "You have kept what you promised your servant David my father; you have both spoken with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.

16 "Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what you promised your servant David my father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man sit before me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.'

17 "Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let your word come true, which you have spoken to your servant David.

18 "But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain you; how much less this temple¹⁶ which I have built!

19 "Yet regard the prayer of your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant is praying before you:

20 "that your eyes may be open towards this temple day and night, towards the place where you said you would put your name, that you may hear the prayer which your servant prays towards this place.

21 "And may you hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel, when they pray towards this place; hear from your dwelling-place, in heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

22 "If anyone sins against his neighbour, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before your altar in this temple.

23 "then hear from heaven, and act, and judge your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 "Or if your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against you, and return and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this temple.

25 "then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which you gave to them and their fathers.

26 "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, when they pray towards this place and confess your name, and turn from their sin because you afflict them,

15 Literally he (compare 1 Kings 8:22) 16 Literally house

27 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, that you may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

28 "When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

29 "whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this house;

30 "then hear from heaven your dwelling-place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart you know (for you alone know the hearts of the sons of men),

31 "that they may fear you, to walk in your ways as long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

32 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, but who comes from a far country for the sake of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple;

33 "then hear from heaven your dwelling-place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you, that all people of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by your name.

34 "When your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to you towards this city which you have chosen and towards the temple which I have built for your name,

35 "then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

36 "When they sin against you (for there is no one who does not sin), and you become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near,

37 "yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have acted wickedly';

38 "and when they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray towards their land which you gave to their fathers, towards the city which you have chosen, and towards the temple which I have built for your name:

39 "then hear from heaven your dwelling-place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

40 "Now, my God, I pray, let your eyes be open and let your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

41 "Now therefore,

Arise, O LORD God,

to your resting place,

You and the ark of your strength.

Let your priests, O LORD God,

be clothed with salvation,

And let your saints rejoice in goodness.

42 "O LORD God, do not turn away the face of your anointed; Remember the mercies of your servant David."¹⁷

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

7 Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.¹⁸

2 And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshipped and praised the LORD, saying:

"For he is good,

For his mercy endures for ever."¹⁹

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

17 Compare Psalm 132:8-10 18 Literally house 19 Compare Psalm 106:1

6 And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, "For his mercy endures for ever,"²⁰ whenever David offered praise by their ministry. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

7 Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

8 At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.²¹

9 And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for his people Israel.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.

13 "When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among my people, 14 "if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves, and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

15 "Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

16 "For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever; and my eyes and my heart will be there perpetually.

17 "As for you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep my statutes and my judgments,

18 "then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'You shall never fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.'

19 "But if you turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them,

20 "then I will uproot them from my land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for my name I will cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

21 "And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be appalled and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?'

22 "Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshipped them and served them; therefore he has brought all this calamity on them.' "

Solomon's Additional Achievements

8 It came to pass at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,

2 that the cities which Hiram²² had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.

4 He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath.

5 He built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,

6 also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 All the people who were left of the 20 Compare Psalm 106:1 21 That is, the Shihor (compare 1 Chronicles 13:5)

22 Hebrew Hiram (compare 2 Chronicles 2:3)

Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel

⁸ (that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy), from these Solomon raised forced labour, as it is to this day.

⁹ But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.

¹⁰ And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

¹¹ Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

¹³ according to the daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed yearly feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

¹⁴ And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the gate-keepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded.

¹⁵ They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

¹⁶ Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

¹⁷ Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath²³ on the sea-coast, in the land of Edom.

¹⁸ And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

⁹ Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

² So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.

³ And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

⁵ Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

⁶ "However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.

⁷ "Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

⁸ "Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on his throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore he made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

⁹ Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹⁰ Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum²⁴ wood and precious stones.

¹¹ And the king made walkways of the alnum²⁵ wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and

²³ Hebrew Eloth (compare 2 Kings 14:22) ²⁴ Or almug (compare 1 Kings 10:11, 12)

²⁵ Or almug (compare 1 Kings 10:11, 12)

there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

12 Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

14 besides what the travelling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield.

16 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred *shekels*²⁶ of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were arm rests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the arm rests.

19 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Not one was of silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram.²⁷ Once every three years the merchant ships²⁸ came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.²⁹

22 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

24 Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armour, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 So he reigned over all the kings from the River³⁰ to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamore-figs which are in the lowland.

28 And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

Death of Solomon

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

10 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

2 So it happened when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

3 Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

5 So he said to them, "Come back to me after three days." And the people departed.

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

7 And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, and please

26 Or three minas (compare 1 Kings 10:17) 27 Or Hiram (compare 1 Kings 10:22)

28 Literally ships of Tarshish (deep-sea vessels) 29 Or peacocks 30 That is, the Euphrates them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants for ever."

8 But he rejected the counsel which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

9 And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us?'"

10 Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!

11 'And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!'"³¹

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

13 Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the counsel of the elders.

14 and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"³²

15 So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of affairs was from God, that the LORD might fulfil his word, which he had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

"What portion have we in David?
We have no inheritance
in the son of Jesse.
Every man to your tents, O Israel!
Now see to your own house,
O David!"

So all Israel departed to their tents.

17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11 Now when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from me."'" Therefore they obeyed the words of the LORD, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies the Cities

5 So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

7 Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam,

8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities.

11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

12 Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

Priests and Levites Move to Judah

13 And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him.

14 For the Levites left their common lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD.

31 Literally scorpions 32 Literally scorpions

15 Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the demons, and the calf idols which he had made.

16 And after the Levites³³ left, those from all the tribes of Israel, such as set their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

The Family of Rehoboam

18 Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse.

19 And she bore him children: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 After her he took Maacah the granddaughter³⁴ of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 Now Rehoboam loved Maacah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

22 And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.

23 He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

Egypt Attacks Judah

12 Now it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel along with him.

2 And it happened, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt—the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them. "Thus says the LORD: 'You have forsaken me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

6 So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "The LORD is righteous."

7 Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 "Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may distinguish my service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations."

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had made.

10 In their place King Rehoboam made bronze shields and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the entrance of the king's house.

11 And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guard-room.

12 When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

The End of Rehoboam's Reign

13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.

15 The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of

³³ Literally they. ³⁴ Literally daughter, but in the broader sense of granddaughter (compare 2 Chronicles 13:2)

Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

16 So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah³⁵ his son reigned in his place.

Abijah Reigns in Judah

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah³⁶ the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valour.

4 Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

5 "Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David for ever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

6 "Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

7 "Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.

8 "And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

9 "Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

10 "But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

11 "And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the shewbread in order on the pure table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken him.

12 "Now look, God himself is with us as our head, and his priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!"

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

17 Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.

18 Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim³⁷ with its villages.

20 So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the annals of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa Reigns in Judah

2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God,

3 for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and the high places, and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images.

4 He commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment.

5 He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him.

6 And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valour.

9 Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

10 So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried out to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is nothing for you to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us. O LORD our God, for we rest on you, and in your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; do not let man prevail against you!"

12 So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and his army. And they carried away very much spoil.

14 Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

15 They also attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

The Reforms of Asa

15 Now the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 "For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law;

4 "but when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.

5 "And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands.

6 "So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity.

7 "But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!"

8 And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD.

9 Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who sojourned with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered to the LORD at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil which they had brought.

12 Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 Then they took an oath before the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and rams' horns.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought him with all their soul; and he was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

16 Also he removed Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah;³⁸ and Asa cut down her obscene image, crushed it, and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was loyal all his days.

18 He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Asa's Treaty with Syria

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

3 "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Here, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

4 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

5 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.

6 Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

Hanani's Message to Asa

7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.

8 "Were the Ethiopians and the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand.

9 "For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you shall have wars."

10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

Illness and Death of Asa

11 Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was very severe; yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

13 So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.

14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made a very great burning for him.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

17 Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.

3 Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of

38 A Canaanite deity his father David; he did not seek the Baals,

⁴ but sought the God³⁹ of his father, and walked in his commandments and not according to the acts of Israel.

⁵ Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honour in abundance.

⁶ And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover he removed the high places and wooden images from Judah.

⁷ Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethaneel, and Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

⁸ And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah—the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

⁹ So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

¹⁰ And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

¹¹ Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

¹² So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

¹³ He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valour;

¹⁵ and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

¹⁶ and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

¹⁷ Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

¹⁸ and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war.

¹⁹ These served the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Micaiah Warns Ahab

18 Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and by marriage he allied himself with Ahab.

² After some years he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead.

³ So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

⁴ And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

⁵ Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of him?"

⁷ So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

⁸ Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

⁹ And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing-floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

¹⁰ Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed."

³⁹ Septuagint reads LORD God.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

12 Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

13 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."

14 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"

15 So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

16 Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.'"

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18 Then Micaiah⁴⁰ said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' And one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

20 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?'

21 "So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.'

22 "Now therefore, look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

24 And Micaiah said, "Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son:

26 "and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.'"

27 Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

31 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God moved them to turn away from him.

32 For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

33 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

34 The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

40 Literally he

19 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the wrath of the LORD is upon you.

3 "Nevertheless good things are found in you, in that you have removed the wooden images from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God."

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

4 So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers.

5 Then he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

6 and said to the judges, "Take heed to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

7 "Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no partiality, nor taking of bribes."

8 Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall act in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart:

10 "Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offences against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and wrath come upon you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.

11 "And take notice: Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be with the good."

Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir Defeated

20 It happened after this that the people of Moab with the people of Ammon, and others with them besides the Ammonites, came to battle against Jehoshaphat.

2 Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and they are in Hazazon Tamar" (which is En Gedi).

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 So Judah gathered together to ask help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 Then Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court.

6 and said: "O LORD God of our fathers, are you not God in heaven, and do you not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand you?"

7 "Are you not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham your friend for ever?"

8 "And they dwell in it, and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name, saying,

9 "If disaster comes upon us, such as the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this temple and in your presence (for your name is in this temple), and cry out to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save."

10 "And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom you would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them—

11 "here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of your possession which you have given us to inherit.

12 "O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon you."

13 Now all Judah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before the LORD.

14 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the congregation; 15 and he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: 'Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 'Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel.

17 'You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD is with you."

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.

20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe his prophets, and you shall prosper."

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying:

"Praise the LORD,
For his mercy endures for ever."⁴¹

22 Now when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated.

23 For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24 So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked towards the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the dead bodies,⁴² and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah⁴³ until this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

28 So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

31 So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

41 Compare Psalm 106:1

42 A few Hebrew manuscripts, Old Latin, and Vulgate read garments, Septuagint reads armor

43 Literally blessing

35 After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted very wickedly.

36 And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.

37 But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

21 And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

7 Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves.

9 So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots.

10 Thus the Edomites have been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit prostitution, and led Judah astray.

12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying,

Thus says the LORD God of your father David:

"Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 "but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute like the prostitution of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself,

14 "behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction—your children, your wives, and all your possessions;

15 "and you will become very sick with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day."

16 Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were near the Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz,⁴⁴ the youngest of his sons.

18 After all this the LORD struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

19 Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died in severe pain. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

44 Elsewhere called Ahaziah (compare 2 Chronicles 22: 1)

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.

² Ahaziah was forty-two⁴⁵ years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri.

³ He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother counselled him to do wickedly.

⁴ Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

⁵ He also walked in their counsel, and went with Jehoram⁴⁶ the son of Ahab king of Israel to make war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

⁶ Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah⁴⁷ the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁸ And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.

⁹ Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

10 Now when Athaliah the mother of

Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.

¹¹ But Jehoshabeath,⁴⁹ the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.

¹² And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

23 In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

² And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³ Then all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David.

⁴ "This is what you shall do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors;

⁵ "one-third shall be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶ "But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

⁷ "And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

⁴⁵ Or twenty-two (compare 2 Kings 8:26)

⁴⁶ Also spelled Joram (compare verses 5 and 7; 2 Kings 8:28; and elsewhere)

⁴⁷ Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Vulgate, and 2 Kings 8:29 read Ahaziah.

⁴⁸ See note 46 ⁴⁹ Spelled Jehashaba in 2 Kings 11:2

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions.

9 And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, that were in the temple of God.

10 Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king.

11 And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the Testimony,⁵⁰ and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

13 And when she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. There were all the people of the land, rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest said, "Do not kill her in the house of the LORD."

15 So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.

16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 And all the people went to the temple⁵¹ of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David.

19 And he set the gate-keepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

20 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

21 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he had sons and daughters.

4 Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD.

5 Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly." However the Levites did not do it quickly.

6 So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?"

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.

50 That is, the Law (compare Exodus 25:16, 21 and Deuteronomy 31:9) 51 Literally house

8 Then at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

10 Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given.

11 So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 Then the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen laboured, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it.

14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

Apostasy of Joash

15 But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

16 And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God and his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them.

18 Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served wooden images and idols; and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass.

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

20 Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: 'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he also has forsaken you.'"

21 So they conspired against him, and at the commandment of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "The LORD look on it, and repay!"

Death of Joash

23 So it happened in the spring of the year that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; but the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons⁵² of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26 These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad⁵³ the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith⁵⁴ the Moabitess.

27 Now concerning his sons, and the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

52 Septuagint and Vulgate read son (compare verses 20-22).

53 Or Jozachar (compare 2 Kings 12:21) 54 Or Shomer (compare 2 Kings 12:21)

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a loyal heart.

³ Now it was so, when the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

⁴ However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."⁵⁵

The War Against Edom

⁵ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.

⁶ He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valour from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

⁷ But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim.

⁸ "But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow."

⁹ Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

¹⁰ So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

¹¹ Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir.

¹² And the children of Judah took captive another ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.

¹⁴ Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

¹⁵ Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and he sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people, which could not rescue their own people from your hand?"

¹⁶ So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you the king's counsel? Cease! Why should you be killed?" Then the prophet ceased, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my counsel."

Israel Defeats Judah

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash⁵⁶ the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

¹⁸ And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

¹⁹ "Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall—you and Judah with you?"

²⁰ But Amaziah would not heed, for it came from God, that he might give them

⁵⁵ Compare Deuteronomy 24:16 ⁵⁶ Spelled Jehoash in 2 Kings 14:8ff

into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

23 Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

25 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

26 Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah,⁵⁷ who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Elath⁵⁸ and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

5 He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions⁵⁹ of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

6 Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.

7 God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

8 Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vine-dressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The total number of chief officers⁶⁰ of the mighty men of valour was two thousand six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armour, bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvellously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

16 But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 So Azariah the priest went in after

57 Called Azariah in 2 Kings 14:21ff. 58 Hebrew Eloth

59 Several Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Arabic read feared. 60 Literally chief fathers

him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD, who were valiant men.

¹⁸ And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honour from the LORD God."

¹⁹ Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.

²⁰ And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprosy; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

²¹ King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote.

²³ So Uzziah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah⁶¹ the daughter of Zadok.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still the people acted corruptly.

³ He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel.

⁴ Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

⁵ He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid him this amount in the second and third years also.

⁶ So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

⁸ He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

⁹ So Jotham rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done.

² For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made moulded images for the Baals.

³ He burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

⁴ And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Syria and Israel Defeat Judah

⁵ Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter.

⁶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

⁷ Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king.

⁶¹ Spelled Jerusha in 2 Kings 15:33

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

Israel Returns the Captives

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that reaches up to heaven.

10 "And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God?

11 "Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."

12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,

13 and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the congregation.

15 Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Assyria Refuses to Help Judah

16 At the same time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Ajalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD.

20 Also Tiglath-Pileser⁶² king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him.

21 For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

Apostasy and Death of Ahaz

22 Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

24 So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

29 Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah⁶³ the daughter of Zechariah.

62 Hebrew Tiglath-Pileser 63 Spelled Abi in 2 Kings 18:2

2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

4 Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square,

5 and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place."

6 "For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the LORD our God; they have forsaken him, have turned their faces away from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs on him."

7 "They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel."

8 "Therefore the wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he has given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to jeering, as you see with your eyes."

9 "For indeed, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity."

10 "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us."

11 "My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister to him and burn incense."

12 Then these Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehalelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

13 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

14 of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook Kidron.

17 Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. Then they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the shewbread with all its articles."

19 "Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

20 Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

23 Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them.

24 And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

25 Then he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for thus was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.

28 So all the congregation worshipped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshipped.

30 Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD." So the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests.

35 Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king and his leaders and all the congregation in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because a sufficient number of priests had not sanctified themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.

4 And the matter pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

6 Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the commandment of the king: "Children of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then he will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 "And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see.

8 "Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 "For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn his face from you if you return to him."

10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to do the commandment of the king and the leaders, at the word of the LORD.

13 Now many people, a very great congregation, assembled at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

14 They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook Kidron.

15 Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

16 They stood in their place according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone

19 who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary."

20 And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

21 So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD, accompanied by loud instruments.

22 And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 The whole congregation of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the congregation that came from Israel, the sojourners who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling-place, to heaven.

The Reforms of Hezekiah

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the high places and the altars—from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasse—until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp⁶⁴ of the LORD.

3 The king also appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings; for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

64 That is, the temple

5 As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first-fruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

6 And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.

7 In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed his people; and what is left is this great abundance."

11 Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

12 Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; Cononiah the Levite was ruler over them, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the free-will offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things.

15 And under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in the cities of the priests, to distribute allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

16 Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division,

17 and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions.

18 and to all who were written in the genealogy—their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them—for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness.

19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the common lands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.

20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he prospered.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

32 After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem.

3 he took counsel with his leaders and commanders⁶⁵ to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him.

4 Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"

5 And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.

6 Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement, saying,

65 Literally mighty men

7 "Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with him.

8 "With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself, and all the forces with him, laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

10 "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: 'In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem?'

11 'Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?'

12 'Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on it"?'

13 'Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?'

14 'Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?'

15 'Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?'

16 And his servants spoke even more against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his people from my hand."

18 Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew⁶⁶ to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth—the work of men's hands.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

20 Now for this cause King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

21 Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valour, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

Hezekiah humbles himself

24 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD; and he spoke to him and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah did not repay according to the favour shown him, for his heart was lifted up; therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Honour

27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honour. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;

28 storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds

66 Literally Judean

in abundance; for God had given him very much property.

³⁰ This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel⁶⁷ to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

³¹ However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

Death of Hezekiah

³² Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

³³ So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honoured him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

² But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

³ For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and made wooden images; and he worshipped all the host of heaven⁶⁸ and served them.

⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

⁶ Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practised soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

⁷ He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God,

of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

⁸ "and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers—only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

⁹ So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

¹⁰ And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.

¹¹ Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks,⁶⁹ bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.

¹³ and prayed to him; and he received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

¹⁵ He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.

¹⁶ He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁷ Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

⁶⁷ Literally brought it straight (compare 2 Kings 20:20)

⁶⁹ That is, nose hook (compare 2 Kings 19:28)

⁶⁸ The gods of the Assyrians

Death of Manasseh

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book⁷⁰ of the kings of Israel.

19 Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.⁷¹

20 So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

23 And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 Then his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the moulded images.

4 They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the moulded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.⁷²

7 When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple,⁷³ he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem.

10 Then they put it in the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house.

11 They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skilful with instruments of music, 13 were over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gate-keepers.

14 Now when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses.

70 Literally words 71 Septuagint reads the seers 72 Literally swords 73 Literally house

15 Then Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

16 So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

17 "And they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

19 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon⁷⁴ the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath,⁷⁵ the son of Hasrah,⁷⁶ keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.

23 Then she answered them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to me, 24 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah.

25 'because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore my wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.' "

26 "And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard—

27 "because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me, and you tore your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.

28 "Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants." " So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

29 Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

31 Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

32 And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take their stand for it. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps the Passover

35 Now Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their duties and encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD.

74 Achbor the son of Michajah in 2 Kings 22:12 75 Spelled Tikvah in 2 Kings 22:14

76 Spelled Harhas in 2 Kings 22:14

3 Then he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

4 "Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the written instruction of David king of Israel and the written instruction of Solomon his son.

5 "And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites.

6 "So slaughter the Passover offerings, sanctify yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

7 Then Josiah gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

8 And his leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle;

9 also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethaneel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command.

11 And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals.

12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.

13 Also they roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance;

but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people.

14 Then afterwards they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

18 There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

Josiah Dies in Battle

20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest he destroy you."

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

²⁴ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵ Jeremiah also lamented for Josiah. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD,

²⁷ and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

² Jehoahaz⁷⁷ was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

³ Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

⁴ Then the king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz⁷⁸ his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiakim

⁵ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

⁶ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim,

the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

⁹ Jehoiachin was eight⁷⁹ years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁰ At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's⁸⁰ brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

¹² He also did evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.

¹³ And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁴ Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

¹⁵ And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending them, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling-place.

¹⁶ But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

¹⁷ Therefore he brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; he gave them all into his hand.

¹⁸ And all the articles from the house of ⁷⁷ Masoretic Text reads Joahaz. ⁷⁸ Masoretic Text reads Joahaz.

⁷⁹ Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, and 2 Kings 24:8 read eighteen.

⁸⁰ Literally his (compare 2 Kings 24:17).

God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon.

¹⁹ Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions.

²⁰ And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia, ²¹ to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.

The Proclamation of Cyrus

²² Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

²³ "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: 'All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And he has commanded me to build him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!'"

The Book of Ezra

End of the Babylonian Captivity

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

- 2 Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And he has commanded me to build him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah.
- 3 Who is there among you of all his people? May his God be with him! Now let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem.
- 4 And whoever remains in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the free-will offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.
- 5 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all those whose spirits God had moved, arose to go up and build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.
- 6 And all those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.
- 7 King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his gods;
- 8 and Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.
- 9 This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives,

10 thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles.

11 All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

2 Now¹ these are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

2 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reeliah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar,² Bigvai, Rehum,³ and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

3 the people of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

4 the people of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

5 the people of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five;

6 the people of Pahath-Moab, of the people of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve;

7 the people of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

8 the people of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five;

9 the people of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

10 the people of Bani,⁴ six hundred and forty-two;

11 the people of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three;

12 the people of Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two;

13 the people of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six;

14 the people of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six;

56 the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,

57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of Ami.¹⁴

58 All the Nethinim and the children of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

59 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan,¹⁵ and Immer; but they could not identify their father's house or their genealogy,¹⁶ whether they were of Israel:

60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two;

61 and of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz,¹⁷ and the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

62 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.

63 And the governor¹⁸ said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

65 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers.

66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,

67 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to erect it in its place:

69 According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.

70 So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gate-keepers, and the Nethanim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

3 And when the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak¹⁹ and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.

4 They also kept the Feast of Taberna-

cles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the number required by ordinance for each day;

5 and afterwards they offered the regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a free-will offering to the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not yet been laid.

7 They also gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Begins

8 Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak,²⁰ and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah,²¹ arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

"For he is good,
For his mercy endures for ever
towards Israel."²²

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of the fathers' houses, who were old men, who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes; yet many shouted aloud for joy,¹³ so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Resistance to Rebuilding the Temple

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the temple of the LORD God of Israel,² they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."³ But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, "You may do nothing with us to build a house for our God; but we alone will build to the LORD God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."⁴ Then the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building,⁵ and hired counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Rebuilding of Jerusalem Opposed

6 Now in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.⁷ In the days of Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language.⁸ Rehum²³ the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:⁹ From²⁴ Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions—representatives of the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and

Shushan,²⁵ the Dehavites, the Elamites,¹⁰ and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the rest of the region beyond the River²⁶—and so forth.²⁷¹¹ This is a copy of the letter that they sent him—

To King Artaxerxes from your servants the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:²⁸¹² Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations.¹³ Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished.¹⁴ Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonour; therefore we have sent and informed the king,¹⁵ that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.¹⁶ We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion over the region beyond the River.

17 Then the king sent an answer:

To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the rest in the region beyond the River: Peace, and so forth.²⁹¹⁸ The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me.¹⁹ And I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times

- has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it.
- 20 There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the provinces beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.
- 21 Now give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.
- 22 Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?
- 23 Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and by force of arms made them cease.
- 24 Thus the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

- 5 Then the prophet Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.
- 2 So Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak³⁰ rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.
- 3 At the same time Tattenai the governor of the region beyond the River³¹ and Shethar-Bozenai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: "Who has commanded you to build this temple and finish this wall?"
- 4 Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building.
- 5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not make them cease till a report could go to Darius. Then a written answer was returned concerning this matter.
- 6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent:
The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Baznai, and his companions, the Persians who

- were in the region* beyond the River, to Darius the king.
- 7 They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus—
To Darius the king:
All peace.
- 8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the temple of the great God, which is being built with heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.
- 9 Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: "Who commanded you to build this temple and to finish these walls?"
- 10 We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.
- 11 And thus they returned us an answer, saying: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed.
- 12 "But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away to Babylon.
- 13 "However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this house of God.
- 14 "Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon—those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.
- 15 "And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.'
- 16 "Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and from that time even until now it has been under construction, and it is not yet finished.”

30 Spelled Jehozadak in 1 Chronicles 6:14 31 That is, the Euphrates

- 17 Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king’s treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

The Decree of Darius

6 Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the archives,³² where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

2 And at Achmetha,³³ in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: “Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,

4 with three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses be paid from the king’s treasury.

5 Also let the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the house of God”—

6 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there.

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.

8 Moreover I issue a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: Let the cost be paid at the king’s expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not hindered.

- 9 And whatever they need—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem—let it be given them day by day without fail,

10 that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be hanged on it; and let his house be made a rubbish-heap because of this.

12 And may the God who causes his name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius issue the decree; let it be done diligently.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

13 Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent.

14 So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the command of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 Now the temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

16 Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the descendants of the captivity, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And they offered sacrifices at the dedication of this house of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 They assigned the priests to their divisions and the Levites to their divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Celebrated

19 And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the filth of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel.

22 And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria towards them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

6 this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 Some of the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel:

12 Artaxerxes,³⁴ king of kings.

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:

Perfect peace, and so forth.³⁵

13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.

14 And whereas you are being sent by the king and his seven counsellors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;

15 and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;

16 and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the free-will offering of the people and the priests, are to be freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem—

17 now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.

19 Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the

- River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently,
- 22 up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit.
- 23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?
- 24 Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gate-keepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God.
- 25 And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach those who do not know them.
- 26 Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.
- 27 Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,
- 28 and has extended mercy to me before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes.
- So I was encouraged, as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered chief men of Israel to go up with me.

Heads of Families Who Returned with Ezra

- 8 These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:
- 2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush;
- 3 of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males;

- 4 of the sons of Pahath-Moab, Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males;
- 5 of the sons of Shechaniah, Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males;
- 6 of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;
- 7 of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;
- 8 of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males;
- 9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;
- 10 of the sons of Shelomith, Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males;
- 11 of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males;
- 12 of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males;
- 13 of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah—and with them sixty males;
- 14 also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Servants for the Temple

- 15 Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the sons of Levi there.
- 16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding.
- 17 And I gave them a command for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo and his brethren the Nethinim at the place Casiphia—that they should bring us servants for the house of our God.
- 18 Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men;
- 19 and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men;

²⁰ also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him the right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions.

²² For I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is upon all those for good who seek him, but his power and his wrath are against all those who forsake him."

²³ So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and he answered our prayer.

Gifts for the Temple

²⁴ Then I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them—

²⁵ and weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counsellors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered.

²⁶ I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold,

²⁷ twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold.

²⁸ And I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD; the articles are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

²⁹ "Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and heads of the fathers' houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."

³⁰ So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

³¹ Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road.

³² So we came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.

³³ Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

³⁴ with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.

³⁵ The children of those who had been carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

³⁶ And they delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps and the governors in the region beyond the River. So they gave support to the people and the house of God.

Intermarriage with Pagans

9 When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

² "For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed is intermingled with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass."

³ So when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down appalled.

⁴ Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice.

⁵ At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God.

⁶ and said, "O my God: I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown up to the heavens.

⁷ "Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation, as it is this day.

⁸ "And now for a little while grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage.

⁹ "For we were slaves. Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but he extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰ "And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments,

¹² 'Now therefore, do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children for ever.'

¹³ "And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since you our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this,

¹⁴ "should we again break your commandments, and join in marriage with the people of these abominations? Would you not be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor?

¹⁵ "O LORD God of Israel, you are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. Here we are before you, in our guilt, though no one can stand before you because of this!"

Confession of Unlawful Marriages

10 Now while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down before the house of God, a very large congregation of men, women, and children assembled to him from Israel; for the people wept very bitterly.

² And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this.

³ "Now therefore, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the counsel of my master and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

⁴ "Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also will be with you. Be of good courage, and do it."

⁵ Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath.

⁶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.

⁷ And they issued a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the descendants of the captivity, that they must gather at Jerusalem,

⁹ So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain.

10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.

11 "Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives."

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes! As you have said, so we must do.

13 "But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.

14 "Please, let the leaders of our entire congregation stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter."

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

16 Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers' households, were set apart by the fathers' households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

18 And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak,³⁶ and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

20 Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

21 of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziyah;

22 of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Also of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Also of the singers: Eliashib; and of the gate-keepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

25 And others of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Jeziah, Malchiah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

26 of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah;

27 of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza;

28 of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai;

29 of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth;³⁷

30 of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

31 of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,

32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah;

33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei;

34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluh,³⁸

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai,³⁹

38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

The Book of Nehemiah

Nehemiah Prays for His People

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

It came to pass in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan¹ the citadel,

² that Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

⁴ So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

⁵ And I said: "I pray, LORD God of heaven, O great and awesome God, you who keep your covenant and mercy with those who love you² and observe your³ commandments.

⁶ "please let your ear be attentive and your eyes open, that you may hear the prayer of your servant which I pray before you now, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against you. Both my father's house and I have sinned.

⁸ "Remember, I pray, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations,⁴

⁹ 'but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though some of you were cast out to the farthest part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for my name.⁵

¹⁰ "Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand.

¹¹ "O Lord, I pray, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who desire to fear your name; and let your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." For I was the king's cup-bearer.

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

2 And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before.

² Therefore the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart." Then I became dreadfully afraid,

³ and said to the king, "May the king live for ever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?"

⁴ Then the king said to me, "What do you request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven.

⁵ And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may rebuild it."

⁶ So the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), "How long will your journey be? And when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

⁷ Furthermore I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River,⁶ that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah,

¹ Or Susa ² Or him ³ Or his ⁴ Compare Leviticus 26:33

⁵ Compare Deuteronomy 30:2-5 ⁶ That is, the Euphrates, and so elsewhere in this book

8 "and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains to the temple,⁷ for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy." And the king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official⁸ heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Views the Wall of Jerusalem

11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

12 Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode.

13 And I went out by night through the Valley Gate to the Serpent Well and the Refuse Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were burned with fire.

14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no room for the animal that was under me to pass.

15 So I went up in the night by the valley, and viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

16 And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.

17 Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be a reproach."

18 And I told them of the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they set their hands to do this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed us to scorn and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?"

20 So I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven himself will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build, but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Rebuilding the Wall

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built as far as the Tower of the Hundred,⁹ and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of Hananeel.

2 Next to Eliashib¹⁰ the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3 Also the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

4 And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,¹¹ made repairs. Next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs.

5 Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their shoulders¹² to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars.

7 And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, repaired the residence¹³ of the governor of the region beyond the River.

8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Also next to him Hananiah, one¹⁴ of the perfumers, made repairs; and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, as well as the Tower of the Ovens.

12 And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate.

14 Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of Beth Haccerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

15 Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of She-lah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs as far as the place in front of the tombs of David, to the man-made pool, and as far as the House of the Mighty.

17 After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

18 After him their brethren, under Bavai the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs.

19 And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the Ascent to the Armoury at the buttress.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai¹⁵ diligently repaired the other section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,¹⁶ repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him the priests, the men of the plain, made repairs.

23 After him Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs by his house.

24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the buttress, even as far as the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the buttress, and on the tower which projects from the king's upper house that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

26 Moreover the Nethinim who dwelt in Ophel made repairs as far as the place in front of the Water Gate towards the east, and on the projecting tower.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section, next to the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.

28 Beyond the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

29 After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs in front of his own house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his dwelling.

31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the Miphkad¹⁷ Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner.

32 And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

The Wall Defended Against Enemies

4 But it so happened, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they

15 A few Hebrew manuscripts, Syriac, and Vulgate read Zaccai.

16 Or Hakkoz 17 Literally Inspection or Recruiting

revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?”

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall.”

4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!

5 Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have provoked you to anger before the builders.

6 So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

7 Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry,

8 and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

10 Then Judah said, “The strength of the labourers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall.”

11 And our adversaries said, “They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease.”

12 So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, “From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us.”

13 Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

15 And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their counsel to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

16 So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armour; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah.

17 Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon.

18 Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

19 Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

20 “Therefore, wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

21 So we laboured in the work, and half of the men¹⁸ held the spears from day-break until the stars appeared.

22 At the same time I also said to the people, “Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day.”

23 So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

5 And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brethren.

2 For there were those who said, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain for them, that we may eat and live.”

3 There were also some who said, “We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine.”

4 There were also those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax on our lands and vineyards.

5 “Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into slavery

18 Literally them

already. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards."

6 And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

7 After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, "Each of you is exacting usury from his brother." So I called a great assembly against them.

8 And I said to them, "According to our ability we have redeemed our Jewish brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?" Then they were silenced and found nothing to say.

9 Then I said, "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?"

10 "I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop this usury!

11 "Restore now to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them."

12 So they said, "We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say." Then I called the priests, and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

13 Then I shook out the fold of my garment¹⁹ and said, "So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied." And all the congregation said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD. Then the people did according to this promise.

The Generosity of Nehemiah

14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor's provisions.

15 But the former governors who had been before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

16 Indeed, I also continued the work on this wall, and we did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table one hundred and fifty Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine; yet in spite of this I did not demand the governor's provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

19 Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

6 Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates),

2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they thought to do me harm.

3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?"

4 But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.

5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

6 In it was written:

It is reported among the nations, and Geshem²⁰ says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumours, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king.

7 And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us take counsel together.

¹⁹ Literally my lap ²⁰ Hebrew Gashmu

8 Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart."

9 For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done."

Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterwards I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was a secret informer; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you."

11 And I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And who is there such as I who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!"

12 Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have occasion for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

The Wall Completed

15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Elul, in fifty-two days.

16 And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.

18 For many in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

7 Then it was, when the wall was built and I had hung the doors, when the gate-keepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed.

2 that I gave the charge of Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the leader of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

3 And I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors and bar them; and appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, one at his watch station and another in front of his own house."

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

4 Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not rebuilt.

5 Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the rulers, and the people, that they might be registered by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who had come up in the first return, and found written in it:

6 These²¹ are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away captive, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

7 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth,²² Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

- 61 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon,³⁶ and Immer, but they could not identify their father's house nor their lineage, whether they were of Israel:
- 62 the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two;
- 63 and of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz,³⁷ the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.
- 64 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but it was not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.
- 65 And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.
- 66 Altogether the whole congregation was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
- 67 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.
- 68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
- 69 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
- 70 And some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.
- 71 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas.
- 72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.
- 73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

8 Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel.

² So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the congregation, of men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

³ Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

⁴ So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiyah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

⁵ And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

⁶ And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. Then all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁸ So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

³⁶ Spelled Addan in Ezra 2:59 ³⁷ Or Hakkoz

¹⁰ Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our LORD. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

¹¹ So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved."

¹² And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to send portions and rejoice greatly, because they understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

¹³ Now on the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Law.

¹⁴ And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month,

¹⁶ Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the house of God, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.

¹⁷ So the whole congregation of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness.

¹⁸ Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the prescribed manner.

³⁸ Literally earth on them

The People Confess Their Sins

9 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust on their heads.³⁸

² Then those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

³ And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for one-fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshipped the LORD their God.

⁴ Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

⁵ Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

"Stand up and bless the LORD your God
For ever and ever!

"Blessed be your glorious name,
Which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

⁶ You alone are the LORD;
You have made heaven,
The heaven of heavens,
with all their host,
The earth and all things on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And you preserve them all.
The host of heaven worships you.

⁷ "You are the LORD God,
Who chose Abram,
And brought him out of Ur
of the Chaldees,
And gave him the name Abraham:

⁸ You found his heart faithful
before you,
And made a covenant with him
To give the land of the Canaanites,
The Hittites, the Amorites,
The Perizzites, the Jebusites,
And the Girgashites—
To give it to his descendants.
You have performed your words,
For you are righteous.

⁹ "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And heard their cry by the Red Sea.

- 10 You showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants,
And against all the people of his land.
For you knew that they acted proudly against them.
So you made a name for yourself,
as it is this day.
- 11 And you divided the sea before them,
So that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land;
And their persecutors you threw into the deep,
As a stone into the mighty waters.
- 12 Moreover you led them by day
with a cloudy pillar,
And by night with a pillar of fire,
To give them light on the road
Which they should travel.
- 13 "You came down also on Mount Sinai,
And spoke with them from heaven,
And gave them just ordinances
and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.
- 14 You made known to them your holy Sabbath,
And commanded them precepts,
statutes and laws,
By the hand of Moses your servant.
- 15 You gave them bread from heaven
for their hunger,
And brought them water out of the rock for their thirst,
And told them to go in to possess
the land
Which you had sworn to give them.
- 16 "But they and our fathers acted proudly,
Hardened their necks,
And did not heed your
commandments.
- 17 They refused to obey,
And they were not mindful of your wonders
That you did among them.
But they hardened their necks,
And in their rebellion
They appointed a leader
To return to their bondage.
But you are God,
Ready to pardon,
Gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger,
Abundant in kindness,
And did not forsake them.
- 18 "Even when they made a moulded calf
for themselves,
And said, 'This is your god
That brought you up out of Egypt,'
And worked great provocations,
- 19 Yet in your manifold mercies
You did not forsake them in the wilderness.
The pillar of the cloud did not depart
from them by day,
To lead them on the road;
Nor the pillar of fire by night,
To show them light,
And the way they should go.
- 20 You also gave your good Spirit
to instruct them,
And did not withhold your manna
from their mouth,
And gave them water for their thirst.
- 21 Forty years you sustained them
in the wilderness,
So that they lacked nothing;
Their clothes did not wear out³⁹
And their feet did not swell.
- 22 "Moreover you gave them kingdoms and
nations,
And divided them into districts.⁴⁰
So they took possession of the land of Sihon,
The land of the king of Heshbon,
And the land of Og king of Bashan.
- 23 You also multiplied their children as
the stars of heaven,
And brought them into the land
Which you had told their fathers
To go in and possess.
- 24 So the people went in
And possessed the land;
You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land,
The Canaanites,
And gave them into their hands,
With their kings
And the people of the land,
That they might do with them as they would.
- 25 And they took strong cities
and a rich land,
And possessed houses full of all goods,
Cisterns already dug, vineyards,
olive groves,
And fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled and grew fat,
And delighted themselves
in your great goodness.
- 26 "Nevertheless they were disobedient
And rebelled against you,
Cast your law behind their backs
And killed your prophets, who testified against them

³⁹ Compare Deuteronomy 29.5 ⁴⁰ Literally corners

To turn them to yourself;
 And they worked great provocations.
 27 Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their enemies,
 Who oppressed them;
 And in the time of their trouble,
 When they cried to you,
 You heard from heaven;
 And according to your abundant mercies
 You gave them deliverers who saved them
 From the hand of their enemies.

28 "But after they had rest,
 They again did evil before you.
 Therefore you left them in the hand of their enemies,
 So that they had dominion over them;
 Yet when they returned
 and cried out to you,
 You heard from heaven;
 And many times you delivered them
 according to your mercies.
 29 And testified against them,
 That you might bring them back to your law.
 Yet they acted proudly,
 And did not heed your
 commandments,
 But sinned against your judgments,
 'Which if a man does,
 he shall live by them.'⁴¹
 And they shrugged their shoulders,
 Stiffened their necks,
 And would not hear.

30 Yet for many years
 you had patience with them,
 And testified against them by your Spirit in your prophets.
 Yet they would not listen;
 Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
 31 Nevertheless in your great mercy
 You did not utterly consume them
 nor forsake them;
 For you are God,
 gracious and merciful.

32 "Now therefore, our God,
 The great, the mighty,
 and awesome God,
 Who keeps covenant and mercy:
 Do not let all the trouble seem small
 before you
 That has come upon us,
 Our kings and our princes,
 Our priests and our prophets,
 Our fathers and on all your people,

From the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.

33 However you are just in all that has befallen us;
 For you have dealt faithfully,
 But we have done wickedly.
 34 Neither our kings nor our princes,
 Our priests nor our fathers,
 Have kept your law,
 Nor heeded your commandments
 and your testimonies,
 With which you testified against them.
 35 For they have not served you
 in their kingdom,
 Or in the many good things
 that you gave them,
 Or in the large and rich land
 which you set before them;
 Nor did they turn from their wicked works.

36 "Here we are, servants today!
 And the land that you gave to our fathers,
 To eat its fruit and its good things,
 Here we are, servants in it!
 37 And it yields much increase to the kings
 You have set over us,
 Because of our sins;
 Also they have dominion over our bodies and our cattle
 At their pleasure;
 And we are in great distress.

38 "And because of all this,
 We make a sure covenant, and write it;
 And our leaders and our Levites
and our priests seal it."

The People Who Sealed the Covenant

10 Now those who placed their seal on the document were:

Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,

2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
 3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
 4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
 7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
 8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah.
 These were the priests.

9 The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.

10 Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah,
 Kelita, Pellaiah, Hanan,

41 Compare Leviticus 18:5

- 11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,
 12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
 13 Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.
 14 The leaders of the people: Parosh,
 Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
 16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
 17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
 18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,
 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
 21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,
 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anajah,
 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
 24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
 25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
 26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
 27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The Covenant That Was Sealed

28 Now the rest of the people (the priests, the Levites, the gate-keepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding).

29 they joined with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes—

30 that we would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;

31 that if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forgo the seventh year's produce and the exaction of every debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

33 for the shewbread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

34 We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for bringing the

wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God as it is written in the Law.

35 And we made ordinances to bring the first-fruits of our ground and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD:

36 to bring the first-born of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstlings of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;

37 to bring the first-fruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities.

38 And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms of the storehouse.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gate-keepers and the singers are; and we will not neglect the house of our God.

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 Now these are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities—Israelites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants.)

4 Also in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez;

⁵ and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

⁶ All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

⁷ And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Koliaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah;

⁸ and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.

⁹ Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Senuah⁴² was second over the city.

¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin:

¹¹ Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the house of God.

¹² Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

¹⁴ and their brethren, mighty men of valour, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.⁴³

¹⁵ Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

¹⁶ Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of the business outside of the house of God;

¹⁷ and Mattaniah the son of Micha,⁴⁴ the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer, and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

¹⁸ All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

¹⁹ Moreover the gate-keepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

²⁰ And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his own inheritance.

²¹ But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

²² Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the service of the house of God.

²³ For it was the king's command concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day.

²⁴ Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's deputy⁴⁵ in all matters concerning the people.

The People Dwelling Outside Jerusalem

²⁵ And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages;

²⁶ in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,

²⁷ Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages;

²⁸ in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages;

²⁹ in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,

³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

³¹ Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages;

³² in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah;

³³ in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim;

³⁴ in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat;

³⁵ in Lod, Ono, and the Valley of Craftsmen.

³⁶ Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

The Priests and Levites

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerub-

⁴² Or Hassenuah ⁴³ Or the son of Haggadolim ⁴⁴ Or Michah ⁴⁵ Literally at the king's hand babel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 Iddo, Ginnethoi,⁴⁶ Abijah,

5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.

These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.

10 Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, 11 Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

12 Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 of Melichu,⁴⁷ Jonathan; of Shebaniah,⁴⁸ Joseph;

15 of Harim,⁴⁹ Adna; of Meraioth,⁵⁰ Helkai;

16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 of Abijah, Zichri; the son of Mijamin;⁵¹ of Moadiah,⁵² Piltai;

18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

20 of Sallai,⁵³ Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethaneal.

22 During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua.

23 The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the chronicles.

24 And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to praise and give thanks, group alternating with group, ac-ording to the command of David the man of God.

25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gate-keepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates.

26 These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak,⁵⁴ and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the Wall

27 Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites, 29 from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.

30 Then the priests and Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31 So I brought the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs, one of which went to the right hand on the wall towards the Refuse Gate;

32 after them went Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah.

33 and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

35 and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets, namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

36 and his brethren, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneal, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe went before them.

37 By the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went up the stairs of the City of David, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of David, as far as the Water Gate eastward.

46 Or Ginnethon (compare verse 16) 47 Or Malluch (compare verse 2) 48 Or Shechaniah (compare verse 7)

49 Or Rehum (compare verse 3) 50 Or Meremoth (compare verse 3) 51 Or Mijamin (compare verse 5)

52 Or Maadiah (compare verse 5) 53 Or Sallu (compare verse 7) 54 Spelled Jehozadak in 1 Chronicles 6:14

38 The other thanksgiving choir went the opposite way, and I was behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the Tower of the Ovens as far as the Broad Wall,

39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, above the Old Gate, above the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananeal, the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped by the Gate of the Prison.

40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me;

41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin,⁵⁵ Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly with Jezrahiah as their director.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.

Temple Responsibilities

44 And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the first-fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who ministered.

45 Both the singers and the gate-keepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, according to the command of David and Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

47 In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gate-keepers, a portion for each day. They also consecrated holy things for the Levites, and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

Principles of Separation

13 On that day they read from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the congregation of God,

2 because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 So it was, when they had heard the Law, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with Tobiah.

5 And he had prepared for him a large room, where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil, which were commanded to be given to the Levites and singers and gate-keepers, and the offerings for the priests.

6 But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king,

7 and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room.

9 Then I commanded them to cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

10 I also realized that the portions for the Levites had not been given them; for each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to his field.

11 So I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their place.

12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse.

13 And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zaddok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedahiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not blot out my good

55 Or Mjamin (compare 12:5)

deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services!

15 In those days I saw in Judah some people treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions.

16 Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day?"

18 "Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

19 So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

21 So I warned them, and said to them, "Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your mercy!

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

24 And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

25 So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves."

26 "Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin."

27 "Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"

28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

30 Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service,

31 and to bringing the wood offering and the first-fruits at appointed times.

Remember me, O my God, for good!

The Book of Esther

The King Dethrones Queen Vashti

NOW it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus¹ (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to Ethiopia, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces),

² in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan² the citadel,

³ that in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him—

⁴ when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendour of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.

⁷ And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, according to the generosity of the king.

⁸ In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory: for so the king had ordered all the officers of his household, that they should do according to each man's pleasure.

⁹ Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, ¹¹ to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold.

¹² But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

¹³ Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times (for this was the king's manner towards all who knew law and justice,

¹⁴ those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who had access to the king's presence, and who ranked highest in the kingdom):

¹⁵ "What shall we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?"

¹⁶ And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

¹⁷ "For the queen's behaviour will become known to all women, so that they will despise their husbands in their eyes, when they report, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.'

¹⁸ "This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king's officials that they have heard of the behaviour of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath.

¹⁹ "If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will not be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.

²⁰ "When the king's decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his

¹ Generally identified with Xerxes I (485-464 B.C.) ² Or Susa, and so throughout this book empire (for it is great), all wives will honour their husbands, both great and small."

²¹ And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan.

²² Then he sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province in its own script, and to every people in its own language, that each man should be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Esther Becomes Queen

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.

² Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king;

³ "and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the citadel, into the women's quarters, under the custody of Hegai³ the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them.

⁴ "Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This thing pleased the king, and he did so.

⁵ Now in Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.

⁶ Kish⁴ had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah⁵ king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

⁷ And Mordecai⁶ had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

⁸ So it was, when the king's command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king's palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.

⁹ Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favour; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.

¹⁰ Esther had not revealed her people or kindred, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it.

¹¹ And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women's quarters, to learn of Esther's welfare and what was happening to her.

¹² Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months' preparation, according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women.

¹³ Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace.

¹⁴ In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

¹⁶ So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

¹⁸ Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

19 When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate.

20 Now Esther had not yet revealed her kindred and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, door-keepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

22 So the matter became known to Mordecai, who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.

23 And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and both were hanged on a gallows; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Haman's Conspiracy Against the Jews

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.

2 And all the king's servants who were within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would not bow or pay homage.

3 Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king's command?"

4 Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai⁷ had told them that he was a Jew.

5 When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was filled with wrath.

6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman to determine the day and the month, until it fell on the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain.

9 "If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

10 So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

11 And the king said to Haman, "The money and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you."

12 Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded—to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province according to its script, and to every people in their language. In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king's signet ring.

13 And the letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions.

14 A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day.

15 The couriers went out, hastened by the king's command; and the decree was proclaimed in Shushan the citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

4 When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He cried out with a loud and bitter cry.

⁷ Literally he

2 He went as far as the square in front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them.

5 Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews.

8 He also gave him a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people.

9 So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:

11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law: put all to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden sceptre, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days."

12 So they told Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews.

14 "For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

15 Then Esther told them to return this answer to Mordecai:

16 "Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!"

17 Then Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.

Esther's Banquet

5 Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.

2 So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favour in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you—up to half my kingdom!"

4 So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 At the banquet of wine the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half my kingdom? It shall be done!"

7 Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this:

8 "If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Haman's Plot Against Mordecai

9 So Haman went out that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai.

¹⁰ Nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

¹² Moreover Haman said, "Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king."

¹³ "Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

¹⁴ Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning suggest to the king that Mordecai be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman; so he had the gallows made.

The King Honours Mordecai

6 That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

² And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the door-keepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

³ Then the king said, "What honour or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

⁴ And the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

⁵ The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

⁶ So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honour?" Now Haman thought in his heart,

"Whom would the king delight to honour more than me?"

⁷ And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honour, ⁸ "let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head.

⁹ "Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honour. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour!'"

¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, "Hasten, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king's gate. Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."

¹¹ So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man the king delights to honour."

¹² Afterwards Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman hastened to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

¹³ When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him."

¹⁴ While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Haman Hanged Instead of Mordecai

7 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

² And on the second day, at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request, up to half my kingdom? It shall be done!"

³ Then Queen Esther answered and said, "If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

4 "For we have been sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king's loss."

5 Then King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?"

6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman!" So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

7 Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.

8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he also assault the queen while I am in the house?" As the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 Now Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, "Look! The gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good on the king's behalf, is standing at the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him on it!"

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath subsided.

Esther Saves the Jews

8 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

2 So the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil plot of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews.

4 And the king held out the golden sceptre towards Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king.

5 and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favour in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.

6 "For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Indeed, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews.

8 "You yourselves write a decree for the Jews, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for a letter which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke."

9 So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.

10 And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from swift steeds.⁸

11 By these letters the king permitted the Jews who were in every city to gather together and protect their lives—to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions,

12 on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

8 Literally sons of the swift horses

13 A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and published to all people, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 Then the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. And the decree was issued in Shushan the citadel.

15 Now Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light and gladness, joy and honour.

17 And in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews fell upon them.

The Jews Destroy Their Tormentors

9 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, the time came for the king's command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Jews themselves overpowered those who hated them.

2 The Jews gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm. And no one could withstand them, because fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king's work, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai became increasingly prominent.

5 Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

6 And in Shushan the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

7 Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha—

10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

11 On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king.

12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It shall be done."

13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

14 So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 And the Jews who were in Shushan gathered together again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

16 The remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth day of the month⁹ they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

The Feast of Purim

18 But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth day; and on the fifteenth day of the month¹⁰ they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages who dwelt in the unwalled towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of gladness and feasting, as a holiday, and for sending presents to one another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far.

²¹ to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar,

²² as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending presents to one another and gifts to the poor.

²³ So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them,

²⁴ because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them;

²⁵ but when Esther¹¹ came before the king, he commanded by letter that this wicked plot which Haman¹² had devised against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

²⁶ So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them,

²⁷ the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who should join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time,

²⁸ that these days should be remembered

and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

²⁹ Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

³⁰ And Mordecai¹³ sent letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

³¹ to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for themselves and their descendants concerning matters of their fasting and lamenting.

³² So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Mordecai's Advancement

10 And King Ahasuerus imposed tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea.

² Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

³ For Mordecai the Jew was second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Jews and well-received by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his kindred.¹⁴

The Book of Job

Job and His Family in Uz

THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and shunned evil.

² And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

³ Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

⁴ Now his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

⁵ So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. Thus Job did regularly. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed¹ God in their hearts."

Satan Attacks Job's Character

⁶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan² also came among them.

⁷ And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

⁸ Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?"

⁹ So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?"

¹⁰ "Have you not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

¹¹ "But now, stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse you to your face!"

¹² So the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not lay a hand on his person." Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Property and Children

¹³ Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;

¹⁴ and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys feeding beside them,

¹⁵ "when the Sabeans³ raided them and took them away—indeed they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁶ While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁷ While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁸ While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house.

¹⁹ "and suddenly a great wind came from across⁴ the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

²⁰ Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and worshipped.

²¹ And he said:

¹ Literally blessed, but used here in an evil sense, and so also in 1:11 and 2:5, 9

² Literally the Adversary, and so throughout the book ³ Literally Sheba (compare 6:19)

⁴ Septuagint omits across.

"Naked I came from my mother's
womb,
And naked shall I return there.
The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away;
Blessed be the name of the LORD."

22 In all this Job did not sin nor charge
God with wrong.

Satan Attacks Job's Health

2 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the
LORD.

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

3 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him without cause."

4 So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.

5 "But stretch out your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse you to your face!"

6 So the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."

7 Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

8 And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes.

9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we indeed accept good from God, and shall we not accept adversity?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job's Three Friends

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place—
Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come and mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head towards heaven.

13 So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job Curses His Birth

3 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

2 And Job spoke, and said:

3 "May the day perish on which I was born,

And the night in which it was said,
'A male child is conceived.'

4 May that day be darkness;
May God above not seek it,
Nor the light shine upon it.

5 May darkness and the shadow of death claim it;

May a cloud settle on it;
May the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, may darkness seize
it;

May it not be included among the days
of the year,

May it not come into the number of the months.

7 Oh, may that night be barren!
May no joyful shout come into it!

8 May those curse it who curse the day,
Those who are ready to arouse Leviathan.

9 May the stars of its morning be dark;
May it look for light, but have none,
And not see the dawning of the day;

10 Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
Nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

11 "Why did I not die at birth?
Why did I not perish
when I came from the womb?

12 Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breasts,
that I should nurse?

13 For now I would have lain still and been quiet,
I would have been asleep;
Then I would have been at rest

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth,
Who built ruins for themselves,
15 Or with princes who had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver;
16 Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child,
Like infants who never saw light?
17 There the wicked cease from troubling,
And there the weary are at rest.
18 There the prisoners rest together;
They do not hear the voice of the oppressor.
19 The small and great are there,
And the servant is free from his master.

20 "Why is light given to him who is in misery,
And life to the bitter of soul,
21 Who long for death,
but it does not come,
And search for it more than hidden treasures;
22 Who rejoice exceedingly,
And are glad when they can find the grave?
23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
And whom God has hedged in?
24 For my sighing comes before I eat,⁵
And my groanings pour out like water.
25 For the thing I greatly feared has come upon me,
And what I dreaded
has happened to me.
26 I am not at ease, nor am I quiet;
I have no rest, for trouble comes."

Eliphaz: Job Has Sinned

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered
and said:

2 "If one attempts a word with you,
will you become weary?
But who can withhold himself
from speaking?
3 Surely you have instructed many,
And you have strengthened weak
hands.
4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,
And you have strengthened
the feeble knees;
5 But now it comes upon you,
and you are weary;
It touches you, and you are troubled.
6 Is not your reverence your confidence?
And the integrity of your ways your
hope?

⁵ Literally my bread

7 "Remember now, who ever perished being innocent?
Or where were the upright ever cut off?
8 Even as I have seen,
Those who plough iniquity
And sow trouble reap the same.
9 By the blast of God they perish,
And by the breath of his anger
they are consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion,
The voice of the fierce lion,
And the teeth of the young lions are broken.
11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

12 "Now a word was secretly brought
to me,
And my ear received a whisper of it.
13 In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls on men,
14 Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my bones shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my body stood up.
16 It stood still,
But I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence;
Then I heard a voice saying:
17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure
than his Maker?
18 If he puts no trust in his servants,
If he charges his angels with error,
19 How much more those who dwell
in houses of clay,
Whose foundation is in the dust,
Who are crushed before a moth?
20 They are broken in pieces from morning till evening;
They perish for ever,
with no one regarding.
21 Does not their own excellence go
away?
They die, even without wisdom.'

Job Is Chastened by God

5 "Call out now;
Is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For wrath kills a foolish man,
And envy slays a simple one.
3 I have seen the foolish taking root.
But suddenly I cursed his habitation.

- 4 His sons are far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And there is no deliverer.
- 5 Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
Taking it even from the thorns,
And a snare snatches their substance.
- 6 For affliction does not come
from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring
from the ground;
- 7 Yet man is born to trouble,
As the sparks fly upward.
- 8 "But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my
cause—
- 9 Who does great things,
and unsearchable,
Marvellous things without number.
- 10 He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.
- 11 He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted
to safety.
- 12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out
their plans.
- 13 He catches the wise in their own
craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning
comes quickly upon them.
- 14 They meet with darkness in the
daytime,
And grope at noontime as in the night.
- 15 But he saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.
- 16 So the poor have hope,
And injustice shuts her mouth.
- 17 "Behold, happy is the man
whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the
chastening of the Almighty.
- 18 For he bruises, but he binds up;
He wounds, but his hands make whole.
- 19 He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven no evil shall touch you.
- 20 In famine he shall redeem you
from death,
And in war from the power
of the sword.
- 21 You shall be hidden from the scourge
of the tongue,
And you shall not be afraid of
destruction when it comes.
- 22 You shall laugh at destruction and
famine,
And you shall not be afraid of the
beasts of the earth.

- 23 For you shall have a covenant
with the stones of the field.
And the beasts of the field
shall be at peace with you.
- 24 You shall know that your tent is in
peace:
You shall visit your habitation
and find nothing amiss.
- 25 You shall also know that your descendants shall be many,
And your offspring like the grass
of the earth.
- 26 You shall come to the grave
at a full age.
As a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.
- 27 Behold, this we have searched out;
It is true.
Hear it, and know for yourself."

Job: My Complaint Is Just

- 6 Then Job answered and said:
- 2 "Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it in the
balances!
- 3 For then it would be heavier than the
sand of the sea—
Therefore my words have been rash.
- 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are
within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
The terrors of God are arrayed
against me.
- 5 Does the wild donkey bray
when it has grass,
Or does the ox low over its fodder?
6 Can flavourless food be eaten without
salt?
Or is there any taste in the white
of an egg?
- 7 My soul refuses to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.
- 8 "Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing
that I long for!
- 9 That it would please God to crush me,
That he would loose his hand
and cut me off!
- 10 Then I would still have comfort;
Though in anguish, I would exult.
Let him not spare,
For I have not concealed the words
of the Holy One.
- 11 "What strength do I have,
that I should hope?
And what is my end,
that I should prolong my life?

- 12 *Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh bronze?*
- 13 *Is my help not within me?
And is success driven from me?*
- 14 "To him who is afflicted, kindness should be shown by his friend,
Even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
- 15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully like
a brook,
Like the streams of the brooks that
pass away.
- 16 Which are dark because of the ice,
And into which the snow vanishes.
- 17 When it is warm, they cease to flow;
When it is hot,
they vanish from their place.
- 18 The paths of their way turn aside,
They go nowhere and perish.
- 19 The caravans of Tema look,
The travellers of Sheba hope for them.
- 20 They are disappointed because they were confident;
They come there and are confused.
- 21 For now you are nothing,
You see terror and are afraid.
- 22 Did I ever say, 'Bring something to
me'?
Or, 'Offer a bribe for me from your wealth'?
- 23 Or, 'Deliver me from the enemy's
hand'?
Or, 'Redeem me from the hand of oppressors'?
- 24 "Teach me, and I will hold my tongue; Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
- 25 How forceful are right words!
But what does your arguing prove?
- 26 Do you intend to reprove my words,
And the speeches of a desperate one,
which are as wind?
- 27 Yes, you overwhelm the fatherless,
And you undermine your friend.
- 28 Now therefore, be pleased to look at me;
For I would never lie to your face.
- 29 Turn now, let there be no injustice;
Yes, turn again, my righteousness still stands.
- 30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
Cannot my taste discern the unsavoury?

Job: My Suffering Is Comfortless

7 "Is there not a time of hard service for man on earth?

6 Literally my bones

- Are not* his days also like the days of a hired man?
- 2 Like a servant who earnestly desires
the shade,
And like a hired man who eagerly looks for his wages.
- 3 So I have been allotted months of futility,
And wearisome nights have been appointed to me.
- 4 When I lie down, I say,
'When shall I arise,
And the night be ended?'
For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.
- 5 My flesh is caked with worms and
dust,
My skin is cracked
and breaks out afresh.
- 6 "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
- 7 Oh, remember that my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.
- 8 The eye of him who sees me will see me no more;
While your eyes are upon me,
I shall no longer be.
- 9 As the cloud disappears
and vanishes away,
So he who goes down to the grave
does not come up.
- 10 He shall never return to his house,
Nor shall his place know him any more.
- 11 "Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- 12 Am I a sea, or a sea serpent,
That you set a guard over me?
- 13 When I say, 'My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,'
- 14 Then you scare me with dreams
And terrify me with visions,
So that my soul chooses strangling
And death rather than my body.⁶
- 16 I loathe my life;
I would not live for ever.
Let me alone,
For my days are but a breath.
- 17 "What is man,
that you should magnify him,
That you should set your heart on him,
- 18 That you should visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?

- 19 How long?
Will you not look away from me,
And let me alone till I swallow my saliva?
- 20 Have I sinned?
What have I done to you,
O watcher of men?
Why have you set me as your target,
So that I am a burden to myself?
- 21 Why then do you not pardon my
transgression,
And take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust,
And you will seek me diligently.
But I will no longer be."

Bildad: Job Should Repent

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered
and said:

- 2 "How long will you speak these things,
And the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
- 3 Does God subvert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?
- 4 If your sons have sinned against him,
He has cast them away for their
transgression.
- 5 If you would earnestly seek God
And make your supplication to the Almighty,
- 6 If you were pure and upright,
Surely now he would awake for you,
And prosper your rightful habitation.
- 7 Though your beginning was small,
Yet your latter end would increase abundantly.
- 8 "For inquire, please, of the former age,
And consider the things discovered
by their fathers;
- 9 For we are but of yesterday,
and know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.
- 10 Will they not teach you and tell you,
And utter words from their heart?
- 11 "Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?
Can the reeds flourish without water?
12 While it is yet green and not cut down,
It withers before any other plant.
- 13 So are the paths of all who forget God;
And the hope of the hypocrite shall perish.
- 14 Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust is a spider's web.

7 Literally will not be 8 Literally He

- 15 He leans on his house,
but it does not stand.
He holds it fast, but it does not endure.
- 16 He grows green in the sun,
And his branches spread out in his garden.
- 17 His roots wrap around the rock heap,
And look for a place in the stones.
- 18 If he is destroyed from his place,
Then it will deny him, saying,
'I have not seen you.'
- 19 "Behold, this is the joy of his way,
And out of the earth others will grow.
- 20 Behold, God will not cast away the
blameless,
Nor will he uphold the evil-doers.
- 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughing,
And your lips with rejoicing.
- 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,
And the dwelling-place of the wicked will come to nothing."⁷

Job: There Is No Mediator

9 Then Job answered and said:

- 2 "Truly I know it is so,
But how can a man be righteous
before God?
- 3 If one wished to contend with him,
He could not answer him
one time out of a thousand.
- 4 God⁸ is wise in heart
and mighty in strength.
Who has hardened himself against him and prospered?
- 5 He removes the mountains,
and they do not know
When he overturns them in his anger;
- 6 He shakes the earth out of its place,
And its pillars tremble;
- 7 He commands the sun,
and it does not rise;
He seals off the stars;
- 8 He alone spreads out the heavens,
And treads on the waves of the sea;
- 9 He made the Bear, Orion,
and the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south;
- 10 He does great things past finding out,
Yes, wonders without number.
- 11 If he goes by me, I do not see him;
If he moves past, I do not perceive
him;
- 12 If he takes away, who can hinder him?
Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

- 13 God will not withdraw his anger,
The allies of the proud⁹ lie prostrate beneath him.
- 14 "How then can I answer him,
And choose my words to reason with
him?
- 15 For though I were righteous,
I could not answer him;
I would beg mercy of my Judge.
- 16 If I called and he answered me,
I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.
- 17 For he crushes me with a tempest,
And multiplies my wounds without
cause.
- 18 He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills me with bitterness.
- 19 If it is a matter of strength,
indeed he is strong;
And if of justice,
who will appoint my day in court?
- 20 Though I were righteous,
my own mouth would condemn me;
Though I were blameless,
it would prove me perverse.
- 21 "I am blameless,
yet I do not know myself;
I despise my life.
- 22 It is all one thing;
Therefore I say, 'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'
- 23 If the scourge slays suddenly,
He laughs at the plight of the innocent.
- 24 The earth is given into the hand
of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If it is not he, who else could it be?
- 25 "Now my days are swifter than a runner;
They flee away, they see no good.
- 26 They pass by like swift ships,
Like an eagle swooping on its prey.
- 27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and wear a smile.'
- 28 I am afraid of all my sufferings;
I know that you will not hold me
innocent.
- 29 If I am condemned,
Why then do I labour in vain?
- 30 If I wash myself with snow water,
And cleanse my hands with soap,
- 31 Yet you will plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes will abhor me.

- 32 "For he is not a man, as I am,
That I may answer him,
And that we should go to court
together.
- 33 Nor is there any mediator between us,
Who may lay his hand on us both.
- 34 Let him take his rod away from me,
And do not let dread of him terrify me.
- 35 Then I would speak and not fear him,
But it is not so with me.

Job: I Would Plead with God

- 10 "My soul loathes my life;
I will give free course to my complaint,
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
- 2 I will say to God,
'Do not condemn me;
Show me why you contend with me.
- 3 Does it seem good to you that you should oppress,
That you should despise the work
of your hands,
And shine on the counsel of the
wicked?
- 4 Do you have eyes of flesh?
Or do you see as man sees?
- 5 Are your days like the days of a mortal
man?
Are your years like the days of a mighty man,
- 6 That you should seek for my iniquity
And search out my sin,
- 7 Although you know that I am not
wicked,
And there is no one who can deliver from your hand?
- 8 'Your hands have made me
and fashioned me,
An intricate unity;
Yet you would destroy me.
- 9 Remember, I pray, that you have made me like clay.
And will you turn me into dust again?
- 10 Did you not pour me out like milk,
And curdle me like cheese,
- 11 Clothe me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews?
- 12 You have granted me life and favour,
And your care has preserved my spirit.
- 13 'And these things you have hidden in your heart;
I know that this was in your mind:
- 14 If I sin, then you mark me,
And will not acquit me of my iniquity.

⁹ Hebrew rahab

- 15 If I am wicked, woe to me;
Even if I am righteous,
I cannot lift up my head.
*I am full of disgrace;
See my misery!*
- 16 If my head¹⁰ is exalted,
You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again you show yourself awesome
against me.
- 17 You renew your witnesses against me,
And increase your indignation
towards me;
Changes and war are ever with me.
- 18 'Why then have you brought me
out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished
and no eye had seen me!
- 19 I would have been as though
I had not been.
I would have been carried from the
womb to the grave.
- 20 Are not my days few?
Cease! Leave me alone,
that I may take a little comfort,
- 21 Before I go to the place from which
I shall not return,
To the land of darkness
and the shadow of death.
- 22 A land as dark as darkness itself,
As the shadow of death,
without any order.
Where even the light is like darkness.'"

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

- 2 "Should not the multitude of words
be answered?
And should a man full of talk be
vindicated?
- 3 Should your empty talk make men
hold their peace?
And when you mock,
should no one rebuke you?
- 4 For you have said,
'My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.'
5 But oh, that God would speak,
And open his lips against you,
- 6 That he would show you the secrets
of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that God exacts from
you
Less than your iniquity deserves.
- 7 "Can you search out the deep things
of God?"

¹⁰ Literally //

- Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?
- 8 They are higher than heaven—
what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol—
what can you know?
- 9 Their measure is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.
- 10 "If he passes by, imprisons,
and gathers to judgment,
Then who can hinder him?
- 11 For he knows deceitful men;
He sees wickedness also.
Will he not then consider it?
- 12 For an empty-headed man will be wise,
When a wild donkey's colt is born a
man.
- 13 "If you would prepare your heart,
And stretch out your hands towards
him;
- 14 If iniquity were in your hand,
and you put it far away,
And would not let wickedness dwell
in your tents;
- 15 Then surely you could lift up your face
without spot;
Yes, you could be steadfast,
and not fear;
- 16 Because you would forget your misery,
And remember it as waters that have
passed away,
- 17 And your life would be brighter than
noonday.
Though you were dark,
you would be like the morning.
- 18 And you would be secure,
because there is hope;
Yes, you would dig about you,
and take your rest in safety.
- 19 You would also lie down,
and no one would make you afraid;
Yes, many would court your favour.
- 20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they shall not escape,
And their hope—loss of life!"

Job Answers His Critics

12 Then Job answered and said:

- 2 "No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!
- 3 But I have understanding
as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know
such things as these?"

- 4 "I am one mocked by his friends,
Who called on God,
and he answered him,
The just and blameless who is laughed to scorn.
- 5 A lamp¹¹ is despised in the thought of one who is at ease;
It is made ready for those whose feet slip.
- 6 The tents of robbers prosper,
And those who provoke God are secure—
In what God provides by his hand.
- 7 "But now ask the beasts,
and they will teach you;
And the birds of the air,
and they will tell you;
- 8 Or speak to the earth,
and it will teach you;
And the fish of the sea
will explain to you.
- 9 Who among all these does not know
That the hand of the LORD has done
this,
- 10 In whose hand is the life
of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?
- 11 Does not the ear test words
And the mouth taste its food?
- 12 Wisdom is with aged men,
And with length of days,
understanding.
- 13 "With him are wisdom and strength,
He has counsel and understanding.
- 14 If he breaks a thing down,
it cannot be rebuilt;
If he imprisons a man,
there can be no release.
- 15 If he withholds the waters,
they dry up;
If he sends them out,
they overwhelm the earth.
- 16 With him are strength and prudence.
The deceived and the deceiver are his.
- 17 He leads counsellors away plundered,
And makes fools of the judges.
- 18 He loosens the bonds of kings,
And binds their waist with a belt.
- 19 He leads princes¹² away plundered,
And overthrows the mighty.
- 20 He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And takes away the discernment of the elders.
- 21 He pours contempt on princes,
And disarms the mighty.
- 22 He uncovers deep things out of
darkness,

- And brings the shadow of death to light.
- 23 He makes nations great,
and destroys them:
He enlarges nations, and guides them.
- 24 He takes away the understanding¹³ of the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And makes them wander in a pathless
wilderness.
- 25 They grope in the dark without light,
And he makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13 "Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood
it.

- 2 What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
- 3 But I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.
- 4 But you forgers of lies,
You are all worthless physicians.
- 5 Oh, that you would be silent,
And it would be your wisdom!
- 6 Now hear my reasoning,
And heed the pleadings of my lips.
- 7 Will you speak wickedly for God,
And talk deceitfully for him?
- 8 Will you show partiality for him?
Will you contend for God?
- 9 Will it be well
when he searches you out?
Or can you mock him
as one mocks a man?
- 10 He will surely reprove you
If you secretly show partiality.
- 11 Will not his excellence make you afraid,
And the dread of him fall upon you?
- 12 Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes,
Your defences are defences of clay.
- 13 "Hold your peace with me,
and let me speak,
Then let come on me what may!
14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my life in my hands?
15 Though he slay me,
yet will I trust him.
Even so, I will defend my own ways
before him.
- 16 He also shall be my salvation,
For a hypocrite could not come
before him.
- 17 Listen diligently to my speech,
And to my declaration with your ears.
- 18 See now, I have prepared my case,
I know that I shall be vindicated.
- 19 Who is he who will contend with me?
If now I hold my tongue, I perish.

Job's Despondent Prayer

- 20 "Only two things do not do to me,
Then I will not hide myself from you:
21 Withdraw your hand far from me,
And let not the dread of you make me afraid.
22 Then call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak,
then you respond to me.
23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.
24 Why do you hide your face,
And regard me as your enemy?
25 Will you frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
And will you pursue dry stubble?
26 For you write bitter things against me,
And make me inherit the iniquities
of my youth.
27 You put my feet in the stocks,
And watch closely all my paths.
You set a limit¹⁴ for the soles of my feet.
28 "Man¹⁵ decays like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Man who is born of woman
Is of few days and full of trouble.

- 2 He comes forth like a flower and fades away;
He flees like a shadow and does not
continue.
3 And do you open your eyes on such a one,
And bring me¹⁶ to judgment with yourself?
4 Who can bring a clean thing
out of an unclean?
No one!
5 Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with you;
You have appointed his limits,
so that he cannot pass.
6 Look away from him that he may rest, Till like a hired man he finishes his
day.
7 "For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down,
that it will sprout again,
And that its tender shoots will not cease.
8 Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,
9 Yet at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant.

¹⁴ Literally inscribe a print

¹⁵ Literally He

¹⁶ Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read him

¹⁷ Literally plaster over

- 10 But man dies and is laid away;
Indeed he breathes his last
And where is he?
11 As water disappears from the sea,
And a river becomes parched and dries up.
12 So man lies down and does not rise,
Till the heavens are no more,
They will not awake
Nor be roused from their sleep.
13 "Oh, that you would hide me
in the grave,
That you would conceal me until your wrath is past,
That you would appoint me a set time,
and remember me!
14 If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my hard service
I will wait,
Till my change comes.
15 You shall call, and I will answer you;
You shall desire the work of your
hands.
16 For now you number my steps,
But do not watch over my sin.
17 My transgression is sealed up in a pouch,
And you cover¹⁷ my iniquity.

- 18 "But as a mountain falls
and crumbles away,
And as a rock is moved from its place:
19 As water wears away stones,
And as torrents wash away the soil
of the earth;
So you destroy the hope of man.
20 You prevail for ever against him,
and he passes on;
You change his countenance
and send him away.
21 His sons come to honour,
and he does not know it;
They are brought low,
and he does not perceive it.
22 But his flesh will be in pain over it,
And his soul will mourn over it."

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Folly

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

- 2 "Should a wise man answer
with empty knowledge,
And fill himself with the east wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable
talk,
Or by speeches with which he can do no good?

- 4 Yes, you cast off fear,
And restrain prayer before God.
- 5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.
- 6 Your own mouth condemns you,
and not I;
Yes, your own lips testify against you.
- 7 "Are you the first man who was born?
Or were you made before the hills?
- 8 Have you heard the counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
- 9 What do you know
that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not in us?
- 10 Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us,
Much older than your father.
- 11 Are the consolations of God
too small for you,
And the word spoken gently¹⁸ with
you?
- 12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And what do your eyes wink at.
- 13 That you turn your spirit against God,
And let such words go out of your
mouth?
- 14 "What is man, that he could be pure?
And he who is born of a woman,
that he could be righteous?
- 15 If God¹⁹ puts no trust in his saints,
And the heavens are not pure
in his sight,
- 16 How much less man,
who is abominable and filthy,
Who drinks iniquity like water!
- 17 "I will tell you, hear me;
What I have seen I will declare,
18 What wise men have told,
Not hiding anything received from their fathers,
- 19 To whom alone the land was given,
And no alien passed among them:
- 20 The wicked man writhes with pain
all his days,
And the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.
- 21 Dreadful sounds are in his ears;
In prosperity the destroyer comes
upon him.
- 22 He does not believe that he will return from darkness,
And he watches for the sword.
- 23 He wanders about for bread, saying,
'Where is it?'

18 Septuagint reads a secret thing. 19 Literally he

- He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.
- 24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid;
They overpower him,
like a king ready for battle.
- 25 For he stretches out his hand against God,
And acts defiantly against
the Almighty.
- 26 Running stubbornly against him
With his strong, embossed shield.
- 27 "Though he has covered his face
with his fatness,
And made his waist heavy with fat,
28 He dwells in desolate cities,
In houses which no one inhabits,
Which are destined to become ruins.
- 29 He will not be rich,
Nor will his wealth continue,
Nor will his possessions overspread
the earth.
- 30 He will not depart from darkness;
The flame will dry out his branches,
And by the breath of his mouth he will go away.
- 31 Let him not trust in futile things,
deceiving himself,
For futility will be his reward.
- 32 It will be accomplished before his time,
And his branch will not be green.
- 33 He will shake off his unripe grape like a vine,
And cast off his blossom
like an olive tree.
- 34 For the company of hypocrites
will be barren,
And fire will consume the tents of bribery.
- 35 They conceive trouble
and bring forth futility;
Their womb prepares deceit."

Job Reproaches His Pitiless Friends

16 Then Job answered and said:

- 2 "I have heard many such things;
Miserable comforters are you all!
- 3 Shall words of wind have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?
- 4 I also could speak as you do.
If your soul were in my soul's place,
I could heap up words against you,
And shake my head at you;
- 5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth,
And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

6 "Though I speak,
my grief is not relieved;
And though I remain silent,
how am I eased?

7 But now he has worn me out;
You have made desolate all my company.

8 You have shrivelled me up.
And it is a witness against me;
My leanness rises up against me
And bears witness to my face.

9 He tears me in his wrath,
and hates me;
He gnashes at me with his teeth;
My adversary sharpens his gaze on me.

10 They gape at me with their mouth,
They strike me reproachfully
on the cheek.
They gather together against me.

11 God has delivered me to the ungodly.
And turned me over to the hands
of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he has shattered me:
He also has taken me by my neck,
and shaken me to pieces;
He has set me up for his target,

13 His archers surround me.
He pierces my heart²⁰
and does not pity;
He pours out my gall on the ground.

14 He breaks me with wound upon
wound;
He runs at me like a warrior.²¹

15 "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
And laid my head²² in the dust.

16 My face is flushed from weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow
of death;

17 Although no violence is in my hands,
And my prayer is pure.

18 "O earth, do not cover my blood,
And let my cry have no resting place!

19 Surely even now my witness is in
heaven,
And my evidence is on high.

20 My friends scorn me;
My eyes pour out tears to God.

21 Oh, that one might plead for a man
with God,
As a man pleads for his neighbour!

22 For when a few years are finished,
I shall go the way of no return.

Job Prays for Relief

17 "My spirit is broken,
My days are extinguished,
The grave is ready for me.

20 Literally kidney 21 Vulgate reads giant. 22 Literally horn

2 Are not mockers with me?
And does not my eye dwell on their
provocation?

3 "Now put down a pledge for me
with yourself.
Who is he who will shake hands
with me?

4 For you have hidden their heart
from understanding;
Therefore you will not exalt them.
5 He who speaks flattery to his friends,
Even the eyes of his children will fail.

6 "But he has made me a byword
of the people,
And I have become one in whose face
men spit.

7 My eye has also grown dim because
of sorrow,
And all my members are like shadows.

8 Upright men are astonished at this,
And the innocent stirs himself up
against the hypocrite.

9 Yet the righteous will hold to his way,
And he who has clean hands will be
stronger and stronger.

10 "But please, come back again,
all of you.
For I shall not find one wise man
among you.

11 My days are past,
My purposes are broken off,
Even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day;
'The light is near,' they say,
in the face of darkness.

13 If I wait for the grave as my house,
If I make my bed in the darkness,

14 If I say to corruption,
'You are my father.'
And to the worm,
'You are my mother and my sister.'

15 Where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who can see it?

16 Will they go down to the gates of Sheol?
Shall we have rest together in the
dust?"

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered
and said:

2 "How long till you put an end to words?
Gain understanding,
and afterwards we will speak.

3 Why are we counted as beasts,
And regarded as stupid in your sight?

4 You who tear yourself in anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for you?
Or shall the rock be removed from its place?

5 "The light of the wicked
indeed goes out,
And the flame of his fire
does not shine.

6 The light is dark in his tent,
And his lamp beside him is put out.
7 The steps of his strength are shortened,
And his own counsel casts him down.

8 For he is cast into a net
by his own feet,
And he walks into a snare.
9 The net takes him by the heel,
And a snare lays hold of him.

10 A noose is hidden for him on the
ground,
And a trap for him in the road.
11 Terrors frighten him on every side,
And drive him to his feet.

12 His strength is starved,
And destruction is ready at his side.
13 It devours patches of his skin;
The first-born of death devours his limbs.

14 He is uprooted from the shelter of his tent,
And they parade him before the king of terrors.

15 They dwell in his tent who are none of his;
Brimstone is scattered on his
habitation.

16 His roots are dried out below,
And his branch withers above.

17 The memory of him perishes
from the earth,
And he has no name among the renowned.²³

18 He is driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.

19 He has neither son nor posterity
among his people,
Nor any remaining in his dwellings.

20 Those in the west are astonished at his day,
As those in the east are frightened.

21 Surely such are the dwellings
of the wicked,
And this is the place of him who does not know God."

Job Trusts in His Redeemer

19 Then Job answered and said:

2 "How long will you torment my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times you have reproached
me:
You are not ashamed that you have wronged²⁴ me.

4 And if indeed I have erred,
My error remains with me.

5 If indeed you magnify yourselves
against me,

And plead my disgrace against me,
6 Know then that God has wronged me,
And has surrounded me with his net.

7 "If I cry out concerning wrong,
I am not heard.

If I cry aloud, there is no justice.
8 He has fenced up my way,
so that I cannot pass;

And he has set darkness in my paths.
9 He has stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.

10 He breaks me down on every side,
And I am gone;

My hope he has uprooted like a tree.
11 He has also kindled his wrath
against me.

And he counts me as one of his enemies.
12 His troops come together
And build up their road against me;
They encamp all around my tent.

13 "He has removed my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances
are completely estranged from me.

14 My relatives have failed,
And my close friends
have forgotten me.

15 Those who dwell in my house,
and my maidservants,
Count me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.

16 I call my servant,
but he gives no answer;
I beg him with my mouth.

17 My breath is offensive to my wife,
And I am repulsive to the children of my own body.

18 Even young children despise me;
I arise, and they speak against me.

19 All my close friends abhor me,
And those whom I love have turned
against me.

20 My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh.
And I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

21 "Have pity on me, have pity on me,
O you my friends,
For the hand of God has struck me!

22

23 Literally before the outside, meaning distinguished, famous

24 A Jewish tradition reads make yourselves strange.

- 22 Why do you persecute me as God does.
And are not satisfied with my flesh?
- 23 "Oh, that my words were written!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
24 That they were engraved on a rock
With an iron pen and lead, for ever!
25 For I know that my Redeemer lives,
And he shall stand at last on the earth;
26 And after my skin is destroyed,
this I know,
That in my flesh I shall see God,
27 Whom I shall see for myself,
And my eyes shall behold,
and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!
28 If you should say, 'How shall we persecute him?'—
Since the root of the matter is found in me,
29 Be afraid of the sword for yourselves;
For wrath brings the punishment
of the sword,
That you may know there is a
judgment."

Zophar's Sermon on the Wicked Man

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

- 2 "Therefore my anxious thoughts make me answer,
Because of the turmoil within me.
3 I have heard the reproof that reproaches me,
And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.
4 "Do you not know this of old,
Since man was placed on earth,
5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment?
6 Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens,
And his head reaches to the clouds.
7 Yet he will perish for ever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say,
'Where is he?'
8 He will fly away like a dream,
and not be found;
Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
9 The eye that saw him will see him
no more,
Nor will his place behold him any more.

25 Literally belly

- 10 His children will seek the favour of the poor,
And his hands will restore his wealth.
11 His bones are full of his youthful vigour,
But it will lie down with him in the
dust.
12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth,
And he hides it under his tongue.
13 Though he spares it
and does not forsake it,
But still keeps it in his mouth,
14 Yet his food in his stomach turns sour:
It becomes cobra venom within him.
15 He swallows down riches
And vomits them up again:
God casts them out of his belly.
16 He will suck the poison of cobras:
The viper's tongue will slay him.
17 He will not see the streams.
The rivers flowing with honey and cream.
18 He will restore that for which he laboured,
And will not swallow it down;
From the proceeds of his business
He will get no enjoyment.
19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor,
He has violently seized a house
which he did not build.
20 "Because he knows no quietness in his heart,²⁵
He will not save anything he desires.
21 Nothing is left for him to eat;
Therefore his well-being will not last.
22 In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress;
Every hand of misery will come against him.
23 When he is about to fill his stomach,
God will cast on him the fury
of his wrath,
And will rain it on him while he is eating.
24 He will flee from the iron weapon:
A bronze bow will pierce him through.
25 It is drawn, and comes out of the
body;
Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.
Terrors come upon him;
26 Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
An unfanned fire will consume him;
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tent.

- 27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
And the earth will rise up against him.
28 The increase of his house will depart,
And his goods will flow away in the day of his wrath.
29 This is the portion from God
for a wicked man,
The heritage appointed to him
by God."

Job's Discourse on the Wicked

21 Then Job answered and said:

- 2 "Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be your consolation.
3 Bear with me that I may speak,
And after I have spoken,
keep mocking.
4 "As for me, is my complaint against
man?
And if it were, why should I not be impatient?
5 Look at me and be astonished;
Put your hand over your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am terrified,
And trembling takes hold of my flesh.
7 Why do the wicked live and become old,
Yes, become mighty in power?
8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
And their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear,
Neither is the rod of God upon them.
10 Their bull breeds without failure;
Their cow calves without miscarriage.
11 They send forth their little ones
like a flock,
And their children dance.
12 They sing to the tambourine and harp,
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.
13 They spend their days in wealth,
And in a moment go down
to the grave.²⁶
14 Yet they say to God, 'Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of your ways.
15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
And what profit do we have
if we pray to him?'
16 Indeed their prosperity is not in their hand;
The counsel of the wicked
is far from me.

- 17 "How often is the lamp of the wicked
put out?
How often does their destruction come
upon them,

- The sorrows God distributes in his anger?
18 They are like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that a storm carries
away.
19 They say, 'God lays up one's²⁷ iniquity for his children';
Let him recompense him,
that he may know it.
20 Let his eyes see his destruction,
And let him drink of the wrath
of the Almighty.
21 For what does he care about his household after him,
When the number of his months is cut in half?
22 "Can anyone teach God knowledge,
Since he judges those who are on high?
23 One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and secure;
24 His pails are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is moist.
25 Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul,
Never having eaten with pleasure.
26 They lie down alike in the dust,
And worms cover them.
27 "Look, I know your thoughts,
And the schemes with which you would wrong me.
28 For you say,
'Where is the house of the prince?
And where is the tent,²⁸
The dwelling-place of the wicked?'
29 Have you not asked those who travel
the road?
And do you not know their signs?
30 For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom;
They shall be brought out
on the day of wrath.
31 Who condemns his way to his face?
And who repays him for what he has done?
32 Yet he shall be brought to the grave,
And a vigil kept over the tomb.
33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him;
Everyone shall follow him,
As countless have gone before him.
34 How then can you comfort me with empty words.
Since falsehood remains in your answers?"

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Wickedness

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

26 Hebrew Sheol 27 Literally his 28 Vulgate omits the tent.

- 2 "Can a man be profitable to God,
Though he who is wise may be
profitable to himself?
- 3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty
that you are righteous?
Or is it gain to him that you make your
ways blameless?
- 4 "Is it because of your fear of him
that he reproves you,
And enters into judgment with you?
5 Is not your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?
6 For you have taken pledges from your
brother for no reason,
And stripped the naked of their
clothing.
7 You have not given the weary water
to drink,
And you have withheld bread from
the hungry.
8 But the mighty man possessed the
land,
And the honourable man dwelt in it.
9 You have sent widows away empty,
And the strength of the fatherless
was crushed.
10 Therefore snares are all around you,
And sudden fear troubles you,
11 Or darkness so that you cannot see;
And an abundance of water covers
you.
- 12 "Is not God in the height of heaven?
And see the highest stars,
how lofty they are!
13 And you say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the deep
darkness?
14 Thick clouds cover him,
so that he cannot see,
And he walks above the circle of
heaven.'
15 Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,
16 Who were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away
by a flood?
17 They said to God, 'Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do to them?'²⁹
18 Yet he filled their houses
with good things;
But the counsel of the wicked is far
from me.
- 19 "The righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:
20 'Surely our adversaries³⁰ are cut down,
And the fire consumes their remnant.'

- 21 "Now acquaint yourself with him,
and be at peace:
Thereby good will come to you.
22 Receive, please, instruction from his
mouth,
And lay up his words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty,
you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far
from your tents.
24 Then you will lay your gold
in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the
stones of the brooks.
25 Yes, the Almighty will be your gold³¹
And your precious silver;
26 For then you will have your delight
in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.
27 You will make your prayer to him,
He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.
28 You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.
29 When they cast you down, and you say:
'Exaltation will come!'
Then he will save the humble person.
30 He will even deliver one who is not
innocent:
Yes, he will be delivered by the purity
of your hands."

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

- 23 Then Job answered and said:
- 2 "Even today my complaint is bitter:
My hand is listless because of my
groaning.
3 Oh, that I knew where I might find
him,
That I might come to his seat!
4 I would present my case before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which he
would answer me,
And understand what he would say
to me.
6 Would he contend with me in his great
power?
No! But he would take note of me.
7 There the upright could reason with
him,
And I would be delivered for ever
from my Judge.
- 8 "Look, I go forward, but he is not there.
And backward,
but I cannot perceive him;

²⁹ Septuagint and Syriac read us. ³⁰ Septuagint reads substance.

³¹ The ancient versions suggest defence; Hebrew reads gold as in verse 24.

9 When he works on the left hand,
I cannot behold him;
When he turns to the right hand,
I cannot see him.
10 But he knows the way that I take;
When he has tested me,
I shall come forth as gold.
11 My foot has held fast to his steps;
I have kept his way
and not turned aside.
12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured the words
of his mouth
More than my necessary food.

13 "But he is unique,
and who can make him change?
And whatever his soul desires,
that he does.
14 For he performs what is appointed
for me,
And many such things are with him.
15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence;
When I consider this,
I am afraid of him.
16 For God made my heart weak,
And the Almighty terrifies me;
17 Because I was not cut off from the presence of darkness,
And he did not hide deep darkness
from my face.

Job Complains of Violence on the Earth

24 "Since times are not hidden from
the Almighty,
Why do those who know him see not his days?

2 "Some remove landmarks;
They seize flocks violently
and feed on them;
3 They drive away the donkey
of the fatherless;
They take the widow's ox as a pledge.
4 They push the needy off the road,
So that the poor of the land
are forced to hide.
5 Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
They go out to their work,
seeking diligently for food.
The wilderness yields food for them
and for their children.
6 They gather their fodder in the field
And glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
7 They spend the night naked,
without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains.
And huddle around the rock
for want of shelter.
9 "Some snatch the fatherless
from the breast,
And take a pledge from the poor.
10 They cause the poor to go naked,
without clothing;
And they take away the sheaves
from the hungry.
11 They press out oil within their walls,
And tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
12 The dying groan in the city,
And the souls of the wounded cry out;
Yet God does not charge them with wrong.

13 "There are those who rebel against the light;
They do not know its ways
Nor abide in its paths.
14 The murderer rises with the light;
He kills the poor and needy;
And in the night he is like a thief.
15 The eye of the adulterer waits
for the twilight,
Saying, 'No eye will see me';
And he disguises his face.
16 In the dark they break into houses
Which they marked for themselves in the daytime;
They do not know the light.
17 For the morning is the same to them
as the shadow of death;
If someone recognizes them,
They are in the terrors of the shadow
of death.
18 "They should be swift on the face of the waters,
Their portion should be cursed in the
earth,
So that no one would turn into the way
of their vineyards.
19 As drought and heat consume
the snow waters,
So should the grave³² those who have sinned.
20 The womb should forget him,
The worm should feed sweetly on him;
He should be remembered no more,
And wickedness should be broken
like a tree.
21 For he preys on the barren who do not bear,
And does no good for the widow.

- 22 "But God³³ draws the mighty away
with his power;
He rises up, but no man is sure of life.
23 He gives them security,
and they rely on it;
Yet his eyes are on their ways.
24 They are exalted for a little while,
Then they are gone.
They are brought low;
They are taken out of the way
like all others;
They dry out like the heads of grain.

- 25 "Now if it is not so,
who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech worth nothing?"

Bildad: How Can Man Be Righteous?

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered
and said:

- 2 "Dominion and fear belong to him;
He makes peace in his high places.
3 Is there any number to his armies?
Upon whom does his light not rise?
4 How then can man be righteous
before God?
Or how can he be pure who is born
of a woman?
5 If even the moon does not shine,
And the stars are not pure in his sight,
6 How much less man, who is a maggot,
And a son of man, who is a worm?"

Job: Man's Frailty and God's Majesty

26 But Job answered and said:

- 2 "How have you helped him who is without power?
How have you saved the arm
that has no strength?
3 How have you counselled one who has no wisdom?
And how have you declared sound advice to many?
4 To whom have you uttered words?
And whose spirit came from you?
5 "The dead tremble.
Those under the waters
and those inhabiting them.
6 Sheol is naked before him,
And Destruction has no covering.
7 He stretches out the north over empty space;
He hangs the earth on nothing.
8 He binds up the water in his thick clouds,
Yet the clouds are not broken under it.

³³ Literally he

- 9 He covers the face of his throne,
And spreads his cloud over it.
10 He drew a circular horizon on the face
of the waters,
At the boundary of light and darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble,
And are astonished at his reproof.
12 He stirs up the sea with his power,
And by his understanding he breaks up
the storm.
13 By his Spirit he adorned the heavens;
His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
14 Indeed these are the mere edges of his ways.
And how small a whisper we hear of him!
But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

Job Maintains His Integrity

27 Moreover Job continued his discourse, and said:

- 2 "As God lives,
Who has taken away my justice,
And the Almighty,
who has made my soul bitter,
3 As long as my breath is in me,
And the breath of God in my nostrils,
4 My lips will not speak wickedness,
Nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me
That I should say you are right;
Till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I hold fast,
and will not let it go;
My heart shall not reproach me
as long as I live.
7 "May my enemy be like the wicked,
And he who rises up against me like
the unrighteous.
8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite,
Though he may gain much,
If God takes away his life?
9 Will God hear his cry
When trouble comes upon him?
10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he always call on God?
11 "I will teach you about the hand
of God;
What is with the Almighty
I will not conceal.
12 Surely all of you have seen it;
Why then do you behave with utter nonsense?"

13 "This is the portion of a wicked man
with God,
And the heritage of oppressors,
received from the Almighty:
14 If his children are multiplied,
it is for the sword;
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those who survive him shall be buried in death,
And their³⁴ widows shall not weep,
16 Though he heaps up silver like dust,
And piles up clothing like clay—
17 He may pile it up,
but the just will wear it,
And the innocent will divide the silver.
18 He builds his house like a moth,
Like a booth which a watchman makes.
19 The rich man will lie down,
But not be gathered up;
He opens his eyes,
And he is no more.
20 Terrors overtake him like a flood;
A tempest steals him away in the night.
21 The east wind carries him away,
and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.
22 It hurls against him
and does not spare;
He flees desperately from its power.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him,
And shall hiss him out of his place.

Job's Discourse on Wisdom

28 "Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place where gold is refined.
2 Iron is taken from the earth,
And copper is smelted from ore.
3 Man puts an end to darkness,
And searches every recess
For ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
4 He breaks open a shaft away from people;
In places forgotten by feet
They hang far away from men;
They swing to and fro.
5 As for the earth, from it comes bread,
But underneath it is turned up
as by fire;
6 Its stones are the source of sapphires,
And it contains gold dust.
7 That path no bird knows,
Nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
8 The proud lions³⁵ have not trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
9 He puts his hand on the flint;
He overturns the mountains
at the roots.

10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
And his eye sees every precious thing.
11 He dams up the streams from trickling;
What is hidden he brings forth to light.

12 "But where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of
understanding?
13 Man does not know its value,
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says, 'It is not in me';
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
15 It cannot be purchased for gold,
Nor can silver be weighed for its price.
16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
In precious onyx or sapphire.
17 Neither gold nor crystal can equal it,
Nor can it be exchanged for jewellery
of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of coral or quartz.
For the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it,
Nor can it be valued in pure gold.
20 "From where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of
understanding?
21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the air.
22 Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard a report about it with our ears.'
23 God understands its way,
And he knows its place.
24 For he looks to the ends of the earth,
And sees under the whole heavens,
25 To establish a weight for the wind,
And mete out the waters by measure.
26 When he made a law for the rain,
And a path for the thunderbolt,
27 Then he saw wisdom³⁶ and declared it;
He prepared it,
indeed, he searched it out.
28 And to man he said,
'Behold, the fear of the Lord,
that is wisdom,
And to depart from evil is
understanding.' "

Job's Summary Defence

29 Job further continued his discourse, and said:

2 "Oh, that I were as in months past,
As in the days when God watched over
me;

34 Literally his 35 Literally sons of pride, figurative of the great lions 36 Literally it

3 When his lamp shone upon my head,
And when by his light I walked through
 darkness;

4 Just as I was in the days of my prime.
 When the friendly counsel of God was
 over my tent;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were around me;

6 When my steps were bathed with
 cream,³⁷
 And the rock poured out rivers
 of oil for me!

7 "When I went out to the gate
 by the city,
When I took my seat in the open
 square,

8 The young men saw me and hid,
 And the aged arose and stood;

9 The princes refrained from talking,
 And put their hand on their mouth;

10 The voice of nobles was hushed,
 And their tongue stuck to the roof
 of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard,
 then it blessed me,
 And when the eye saw,
 then it approved me;

12 Because I delivered the poor
 who cried out,
 And the fatherless and he who had no
 helper.

13 The blessing of a perishing man
 came upon me,
 And I caused the widow's heart
 to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness,
 and it clothed me;
 My justice was like a robe
 and a turban.

15 I was eyes to the blind,
 And I was feet to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor,
 And I searched out the case
that I did not know.

17 I broke the fangs of the wicked,
 And plucked the victim from his teeth.

18 "Then I said, 'I shall die in my nest,
 And multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root is spread out to the waters,
 And the dew lies all night on my
 branch.

20 My glory is fresh within me,
 And my bow is renewed in my hand.'

21 "Men listened to me and waited,
 And kept silence for my counsel.

22 After my words they did not speak
 again,
 And my speech settled on them as dew.

23 They waited for me as for the rain,
 And they opened their mouth wide
as for the spring rain.

24 If I mocked at them,
 they did not believe it.
 And the light of my countenance
 they did not cast down.

25 I chose the way for them,
 and sat as chief;
 So I dwelt as a king in the army,
 As one who comforts mourners.

30 "But now they mock at me,
men younger than I,
 Whose fathers I disdained to put with
 the dogs of my flock.

2 Indeed, what profit is the strength
 of their hands to me?
 Their vigour has perished.

3 They are gaunt from want and famine.
 Fleeing late to the wilderness,
 desolate and waste.

4 Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
 And broom tree roots for their food.

5 They were driven out from among men.
 They shouted at them as at a thief.

6 They had to live in the clefts
 of the valleys.
In caves of the earth and the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed,
 Under the nettles they nestled.

8 They were sons of fools,
 Yes, sons of vile men;
 They were scourged from the land.

9 "And now I am their taunt-song;
 Yes, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they keep far from me:
 They do not hesitate to spit in my face.

11 Because he has loosed my bowstring
 and afflicted me,
 They have cast off restraint before me.

12 At my right hand the rabble arises;
 They push away my feet,
 And they raise against me their ways
 of destruction.

13 They break up my path,
 They promote my calamity:
 They have no helper.

14 They come as broad breakers;
 Under the ruinous storm
 they roll along.

15 Terrors are turned upon me;
 They pursue my honour as the wind,
 And my prosperity has passed like a
 cloud.

16 "And now my soul is poured out
 because of my plight;
 The days of affliction take hold of me.

37 Masoretic Text reads wrath; ancient versions and some Hebrew manuscripts read cream (compare 20:17).

- 17 My bones are pierced in me at night,
And my gnawing pains take no rest.
- 18 By great force my garment is disfigured;
It binds me about as the collar
of my coat.
- 19 He has cast me into the mire,
And I have become like dust and ashes.
- 20 "I cry out to you, but you do not
answer me;
I stand up, and you regard me.
- 21 But you have become cruel to me;
With the strength of your hand
you oppose me.
- 22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on it;
You spoil my success.
- 23 For I know that you will bring me to death,
And to the house appointed for all living.
- 24 "Surely he would not stretch out his hand against a heap of ruins,
If they cry out when he destroys it.
- 25 Have I not wept for him who was in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?
But when I looked for good,
evil came to me;
And when I waited for light,
then came darkness.
- 27 My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest;
Days of affliction confront me.
- 28 I go about mourning,
but not in the sun;
I stand up in the congregation and cry out for help.
- 29 I am a brother of jackals,
And a companion of ostriches.
- 30 My skin grows black
And falls from me;
My bones burn with fever.
- 31 My harp is turned to mourning,
And my flute to the voice of those who weep.
- 31 "I have made a covenant
with my eyes;
Why then should I look upon a young
woman?
2 For what is the allotment of God
from above,
And the inheritance of the Almighty
from on high?
3 Is it not destruction for the wicked,
And disaster for the workers
of iniquity?
- 4 Does he not see my ways,
And count all my steps?
5 "If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has hastened to deceit.
6 Let me be weighed in a just balance,
That God may know my integrity.
7 If my step has turned from the way,
Or my heart walked after my eyes,
Or if any spot adheres to my hands,
8 Then let me sow, and another eat;
Yes, let my harvest be rooted out.
- 9 "If my heart has been enticed
by a woman,
Or if I have lurked
at my neighbour's door,
10 Then let my wife grind for another,
And let others bow down over her.
11 For that would be wickedness;
Yes, it would be iniquity worthy of
judgment.
12 For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction,
And would root out all my increase.
- 13 "If I have despised the cause of my manservant or my maidservant
When they complained against me,
14 What then shall I do when God rises up?
When he punishes,
How shall I answer him?
15 Did not he who made me in the womb make them?
Did not the same one fashion us
in the womb?
- 16 "If I have kept the poor
from their desire,
Or caused the eyes of the widow
to fail,
17 Or eaten my morsel by myself,
So that the fatherless may not eat of it 18 (But from my youth I reared him
as a father,
And from my mother's womb
I guided the widow³⁸);
19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor man without covering;
20 If his heart³⁹ has not blessed me,
And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 If I have raised my hand against the fatherless,
When I saw I had help in the gate;
22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder,
Let my arm be torn from the socket.

38 Literally her (compare verse 16) 39 Literally loins

- 23 For destruction from God is a terror to me,
And because of his magnificence I could not endure.
- 24 "If I have made gold my hope,
Or said to fine gold,
'You are my confidence';
- 25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because my hand had gained much;
- 26 If I have observed the sun⁴⁰ when it shines,
Or the moon moving in brightness,
- 27 So that my heart has been secretly enticed,
And my mouth has kissed my hand;
- 28 This also would be an iniquity worthy of judgment,
For I would have denied God who is above.
- 29 "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
Or lifted myself up when evil found him
- 30 (Indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By asking for a curse on his soul);
- 31 If the men of my tent have not said,
'Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?'
- 32 (But no sojourner had to lodge in the street,
For I have opened my doors to the traveller);
- 33 If I have covered my transgressions as Adam,
By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
- 34 Because I feared the great multitude,
And dreaded the contempt of families,
So that I kept silence
And did not go out of the door—
- 35 Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my mark.
Oh, that the Almighty would answer me,
That my Prosecutor had written a book!
- 36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder,
And bind it on me like a crown;
- 37 I would declare to him the number of my steps;
Like a prince I would approach him.
- 38 "If my land cries out against me,
And its furrows weep together;

- 39 If I have eaten its fruit⁴¹ without money,
Or caused its owners to lose their lives;
- 40 Then let thistles grow instead of wheat,
And weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

Elihu Contradicts Job's Friends

32 So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak⁴² to Job.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.

6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said:

"I am young in years,
and you are very old;
Therefore I was afraid,
And dared not declare my opinion to you.

7 I said, 'Age⁴³ should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.'

8 But there is a spirit in man,
And the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

9 Great men⁴⁴ are not always wise,
Nor do the aged always understand justice.

10 "Therefore I say, 'Listen to me,
I also will declare my opinion.'

11 Indeed I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasonings,
while you searched out what to say.

12 I paid close attention to you;
And surely not one of you convinced Job.

Or answered his words—

13 Lest you say,
'We have found wisdom';
God will vanquish him, not man.

40 Literally light 41 Literally its strength 42 Vulgate reads Elihu had waited till Job had spoken

43 Literally days, that is, years 44 Or men of many years

- 14 Now he has not directed his words
against me;
So I will not answer him
with your words.
- 15 "They are dismayed
and answer no more;
Words escape them.
- 16 And I have waited,
because they did not speak,
Because they stood still and answered no more.
- 17 I also will answer my part,
I too will declare my opinion.
- 18 For I am full of words;
The spirit within me compels me.
- 19 Indeed my belly is like wine that has no vent;
It is ready to burst like new wineskins.
- 20 I will speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.
- 21 Let me not, I pray,
show partiality to anyone;
Nor let me flatter any man.
- 22 For I do not know how to flatter, Else my Maker would soon take me
away.

Elihu Contradicts Job

- 33 "But please, Job, hear my speech,
And listen to all my words.
- 2 Now, I open my mouth;
My tongue speaks in my mouth.
- 3 My words come from my upright heart;
My lips utter pure knowledge.
- 4 The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
- 5 If you can answer me,
Set your words in order before me;
Take your stand.
- 6 Truly I am as your spokesman⁴⁵ before
God;
I also have been formed out of clay.
- 7 Surely no fear of me will terrify you,
Nor will my hand be heavy on you.
- 8 "Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying,
- 9 'I am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent,
and there is no iniquity in me.
- 10 Yet he finds occasions against me,
He counts me as his enemy;
- 11 He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.'
- 12 "Look, in this you are not righteous.
I will answer you,
For God is greater than man.

- 13 Why do you contend with him?
For he does not give an accounting of any of his words.
- 14 For God may speak in one way,
or in another.
Yet man does not perceive it.
- 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
While slumbering on their beds,
- 16 Then he opens the ears of men,
And seals their instruction.
- 17 In order to turn man from his deed,
And conceal pride from man,
- 18 He keeps back his soul from the Pit,
And his life from perishing by the sword.
- 19 "Man⁴⁶ is also chastened with pain
on his bed,
And with strong pain in many of his bones,
So that his life abhors bread,
And his soul succulent food.
- 21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones stick out which once were not seen.
- 22 Yes, his soul draws near the Pit,
And his life to the executioners.

- 23 "If there is a messenger for him,
A mediator, one among a thousand,
To show man his uprightness,
- 24 Then he is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down
to the Pit;
I have found a ransom';
- 25 His flesh shall be young like a child's,
He shall return to the days of his youth.
- 26 He shall pray to God,
and he will delight in him,
He shall see his face with joy,
For he restores to man his righteousness.
- 27 And he looks at men and says,
'I have sinned,
and perverted what was right,
And it did not profit me.'
- 28 He will redeem his⁴⁷ soul from going down to the Pit,
And his⁴⁷ life shall see the light.
- 29 "Behold, God works all these things.
Twice, in fact, three times with a man,
- 30 To bring back his soul from the Pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of life.
- 31 "Give ear, Job, listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will speak.

45 Literally as your mouth 46 Literally He 47 Or my (Kethib)

- 32 If you have anything to say,
answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
33 If not, listen to me;
Hold your peace,
And I will teach you wisdom."

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

34 Elihu further answered and said:

- 2 "Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have
knowledge.
3 For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.
4 Let us choose justice for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves
what is good.
5 "For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
But God has taken away my justice;
6 Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable,
though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job,
Who drinks scorn like water,
8 Who goes in company
with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?
9 For he has said,
'It profits a man nothing
That he should delight in God.'
10 "Therefore listen to me,
you men of understanding:
Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit
iniquity.
11 For he repays man according to his
work,
And makes man to find a reward
according to his way.
12 Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.
13 Who gave him charge over the earth?
Or who appointed him over the whole world?
14 If he should set his heart on it,
If he should gather to himself his Spirit
and his breath,
15 All flesh would perish together,
And man would return to dust.
16 "If you have understanding, hear this:
Listen to the sound of my words:
17 Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn him who is most
just?
18 Is it fitting to say to a king,
'You are worthless,'
And to nobles, 'You are wicked'?"

- 19 Yet he is not partial to princes.
Nor does he regard the rich
more than the poor;
For they are all the work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die,
in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass away:
The mighty are taken away without a
hand.

- 21 "For his eyes are on the ways of man,
And he sees all his steps.
22 There is no darkness nor shadow
of death
Where the workers of iniquity may
hide themselves.
23 For he need not further consider
a man,
That he should go before God in
judgment.
24 He breaks in pieces mighty men
without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.
25 Therefore he knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.
26 He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others.
27 Because they turned back from him,
And would not consider any of his
ways.
28 So that they caused the cry
of the poor to come to him;
For he hears the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he gives quietness,
who then can make trouble?
And when he hides his face,
who then can see him.
Whether it is against a nation
or a man alone?—
30 That the hypocrite should not reign,
Lest the people be ensnared.
31 "For has anyone said to God,
'I have borne chastening;
I will offend no more;
32 Teach me what I do not see;
If I have done iniquity,
I will do no more?'
33 Should he repay it according
to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what you know.
34 "Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:
35 'Job speaks without knowledge,
His words are without wisdom.'

- 36 Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost, Because his answers are like those of wicked men!
37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
He claps his hands among us,
And multiplies his words against God.”

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

35 Moreover Elihu answered and said:

- 2 “Do you think this is right?
Do you say,
‘My righteousness is more than God’s?’
3 For you say,
‘What advantage will it be to you?
What profit shall I have,
more than if I had sinned?’
4 “I will answer you,
And your companions with you.
5 Look to the heavens, and see;
And behold the clouds
which are higher than you.
6 If you sin,
what do you accomplish against
him?
Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
7 If you are righteous,
what do you give him?
Or what does he receive from your
hand?
8 Your wickedness affects a man
such as you,
And your righteousness a son of man.
9 “Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.
10 But no one says,
‘Where is God my Maker,
Who gives songs in the night.
11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
And makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?’
12 There they cry out,
but he does not answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely God will not listen to empty
talk,
Nor will the Almighty regard it.
14 Although you say you do not see him,
Yet justice is before him,
and you must wait for him.

- 15 And now, because he has not punished
in his anger,
Nor taken much notice of folly,
16 Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;
He multiplies words without
knowledge.”

Elihu Proclaims God’s Goodness

36 Elihu also proceeded and said:

- 2 “Bear with me a little,
and I will show you
That there are yet words to speak on God’s behalf.
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar;
I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false;
One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
5 “Behold, God is mighty,
but despises no one;
He is mighty in strength of
understanding.
6 He does not preserve the life
of the wicked,
But gives justice to the oppressed.
7 He does not withdraw his eyes from
the righteous;
But they are on the throne with kings,
For he has seated them for ever,
And they are exalted.
8 And if they are bound in fetters,
Held in the cords of affliction, 9 Then he tells them their work and their transgressions—
That they have acted defiantly.
10 He also opens their ear to instruction,
And commands that they turn from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.
12 But if they do not obey,
They shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die without knowledge.⁴⁸
13 “But the hypocrites in heart store up wrath;
They do not cry for help
when he binds them.
14 They die in youth,
And their life ends among the perverted persons.⁴⁹
15 He delivers the poor in their affliction,
And opens their ears in oppression.

⁴⁸ Masoretic Text reads as one without knowledge

⁴⁹ Hebrew qedeshim, that is, those practising sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals

- 16 "Indeed he would have brought you out of dire distress,
Into a broad place where there is no restraint;
And what is set on your table
would be full of richness.
- 17 But you are filled with the judgment
due the wicked;
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
- 18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take you away with one blow;
For a large ransom would not help you avoid it.
- 19 Will your riches,
Or all the mighty forces,
Keep you from distress?
20 Do not desire the night,
When people are cut off in their place.
- 21 Take heed, do not turn to iniquity,
For you have chosen this rather than affliction.
- 22 "Behold, God is exalted by his power;
Who teaches like him?
23 Who has assigned him his way,
Or who has said, 'You have done
wrong'?"

Elihu Proclaims God's Majesty

- 24 "Remember to magnify his work,
Of which men have sung.
25 Everyone has seen it;
Man looks on it from afar.
- 26 "Behold, God is great,
and we do not know him;
Nor can the number of his years be discovered.
- 27 For he draws up drops of water,
Which distil as rain from the mist,
28 Which the clouds drop down
And pour abundantly on man.
- 29 Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,
The thunder from his canopy?
30 Look, he scatters his light upon it,
And covers the depths of the sea.
31 For by these he judges the peoples:
He gives food in abundance.
- 32 He covers his hands with lightning,
And commands it to strike.
33 His thunder declares it,
The cattle also, concerning the rising storm.

37 "At this also my heart trembles,
And leaps from its place.

- 2 Hear attentively the thunder of his voice,

⁵⁰ Literally the world of the earth

- And the rumbling that comes from his mouth.
- 3 He sends it forth under the whole
heaven,
His lightning to the ends of the earth.
- 4 After it a voice roars;
He thunders with his majestic voice,
And he does not restrain them when his voice is heard.
- 5 God thunders marvellously with his
voice;
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.
- 6 For he says to the snow,
'Be on the earth';
Likewise to the gentle rain and the heavy rain of his strength.
- 7 He seals the hand of every man,
That all men may know his work.
- 8 The animals enter dens,
And remain in their lairs.
- 9 From the chamber of the south
comes the whirlwind,
And cold from the scattering winds
of the north.
- 10 By the breath of God ice is given,
And the broad waters are frozen.
- 11 Also with moisture he saturates the thick clouds;
He scatters his bright clouds.
- 12 And they swirl about, being turned by his guidance,
That they may do whatever he commands them
On the face of the whole earth.⁵⁰
- 13 He causes it to come,
Whether for correction,
Or for his land,
Or for mercy.
- 14 "Listen to this, O Job;
Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.
- 15 Do you know when God dispatches
them,
And causes the light of his cloud to shine?
- 16 Do you know the balance of clouds,
Those wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
- 17 Why are your garments hot,
When he quiets the earth
by the south wind?
- 18 With him, have you spread out the skies, . . .
Strong as a cast metal mirror?
- 19 "Teach us what we should say to him,
For we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.

- 20 Should he be told that I wish to speak?
If a man were to speak,
surely he would be swallowed up.
- 21 Even now men cannot look at the light
when it is bright in the skies,
When the wind has passed and cleared them.
- 22 He comes from the north as golden splendour;
With God is awesome majesty.
- 23 As for the Almighty,
we cannot find him;
He is excellent in power,
In judgment and abundant justice;
He does not oppress.
- 24 Therefore men fear him;
He shows no partiality to any who are wise of heart."

The LORD Reveals His Omnipotence to Job

38 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

- 2 "Who is this who darkens counsel
By words without knowledge?
- 3 Now prepare yourself like a man;
I will question you,
and you shall answer me.
- 4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.
5 Who determined its measurements?
Surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?
6 To what were its foundations fastened?
Or who laid its corner-stone.
7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- 8 "Or who shut in the sea with doors,
When it burst forth
and issued from the womb;
9 When I made the clouds its garment,
And thick darkness its swaddling band;
10 When I fixed my limit for it,
And set bars and doors;
11 When I said,
"This far you may come, but no farther,
And here your proud waves must stop!"
- 12 "Have you commanded the morning
since your days began,
And caused the dawn to know its place,
13 That it might take hold of the ends
of the earth,
And the wicked be shaken out of it?
14 It takes on form like clay under a seal,
And stands out like a garment.
- 15 From the wicked their light is withheld,
And the upraised arm is broken.
- 16 "Have you entered the springs
of the sea?
Or have you walked in search of the depths?
- 17 Have the gates of death
been revealed to you?
Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
- 18 Have you comprehended the breadth
of the earth?
Tell me, if you know all this.
- 19 "Where is the way to the dwelling of light?
And darkness, where is its place,
20 That you may take it to its territory,
That you may know the paths to its home?
- 21 Do you know it,
because you were born then,
Or because the number of your days
is great?
- 22 "Have you entered the treasury of snow,
Or have you seen the treasury of hail,
23 Which I have reserved for the time of trouble,
For the day of battle and war?
24 By what way is light diffused,
Or the east wind scattered over the
earth?
- 25 "Who has divided a channel for the overflowing water,
Or a path for the thunderbolt,
26 To cause it to rain on a land where there is no one,
A wilderness in which there is no man;
27 To satisfy the desolate waste,
And cause to spring forth the growth of tender grass?
28 Has the rain a father?
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
29 From whose womb comes the ice?
And the frost of heaven,
who gives it birth?
30 The waters harden like stone,
And the surface of the deep is frozen.
- 31 "Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades,
Or loose the belt of Orion?
32 Can you bring out Mazzaroth⁵¹
in its season?
Or can you guide the Great Bear with its cubs?

51 Literally Constellations

- 33 Do you know the ordinances
of the heavens?
Can you set their dominion
over the earth?
- 34 "Can you lift up your voice
to the clouds,
That an abundance of water
may cover you?
- 35 Can you send out lightnings,
that they may go,
And say to you, 'Here we are!'"?
- 36 Who has put wisdom in the mind?⁵²
Or who has given understanding
to the heart?
- 37 Who can number the clouds by
wisdom?
Or who can pour out the water-skins
of heaven,
- 38 When the dust hardens in clumps,
And the clods cling together?
- 39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young
lions,
40 When they crouch in their dens,
Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?
41 Who provides food for the raven,
When its young ones cry to God,
And wander about for lack of food?
- 39 "Do you know the time when the
wild mountain goats bear young?
Or can you mark when the deer
gives birth?
2 Can you number the months
that they fulfil?
Or do you know the time
when they bear young?
3 They bow down,
They bring forth their young,
They deliver their offspring.⁵³
4 Their young ones are healthy,
They grow strong with grain;
They depart and do not return to
them.
- 5 "Who set the wild donkey free?
Who loosed the bonds of the onager,
6 Whose home I have made the
wilderness,
And the barren land his dwelling?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city;
He does not heed the shouts of the
driver,
8 The range of the mountains is his
pasture,
And he searches after every green
thing.

- 9 "Will the wild ox be willing to serve
you?
Will he bed by your manger?
10 Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow
with ropes?
Or will he plough the valleys behind
you?
11 Will you trust him because his strength
is great?
Or will you leave your labour to him?
12 Will you trust him to bring home your
grain,
And gather it to your threshing-floor?
